The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants. Rev. C. W. MacKay of Vermilion officiated, and Mrs. Charles [illegible] was organist.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of "Here Comes the Bride". She looked lovely in a grey [illegible] suit with which she wore white accessories. Her corsage was of deep rose tea roses and her only jewellery was a locket which her mother had worn on her own wedding day.

Miss Emma Olds of Edmonton, as bridesmaid, was her sister's only attendant. She was attired in a blue tweed suit and her accessories were of pastel blue. Her corsage was pink tea roses.

The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Douglas. The ushers were Ken Stone of Vermilion, and Ray Preston of Tolland, friends of the groom.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Wm. Axley very beautifully sang "O Promise Me".

A reception for 30 guests was held in the hall following the ceremony. To receive, the bride's mother was dressed in a pink nylon afternoon dress and wore a red rose corsage. Mrs. Carl Linder, sister of the groom, wore a green nylon dress and a red rose corsage.

A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake graced the centre of the bride's table. The cake, baked by the bride's parents, was decorated by Mrs. Ulva McFadyen.

Gladys Olds and Yvonne Hannon were in charge of refreshments.

Ken Stone, as master of ceremonies, proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom.

The bridal couple entertained their friends at a dance in the hall that evening.

MODERN MECHANIZATION SOLVES FARM LABOUR PROBLEMS

With more and more ease of handling and work-capacity being engineered into modern machines, farmers are being relieved of much of the worry and expense incurred through the scarcity and high cost of experienced farm help. And there is such a wide range of sizes and styles of tractors and implements and tools that today every farmer can avail himself of the advantages of modern mechanization.

The wise and practical use of up-to-date machinery is a most important part of today's farm operations. In the 1956 Massey-Harris and Ferguson lines are tractors and implements engineered to promote the efficiency of farming—your local dealer will be glad to give you full particulars.

For all your banking...

Did you ever stop to consider all the things a chartered bank can do for you?

It is more than a convenient place to make a deposit, cash a cheque or see about a loan. You can also buy travellers cheques and money orders; rent a safety deposit box; purchase foreign currency; talk over your financial plans or problems. The list goes on and on . . . and all these services are available at the branch where you do your banking.

A branch bank is, in effect, a service centre and everyone on the staff is there to help you, to look after all your banking courteously, confidentially and well.

THE CHARTERED BANKS SERVING YOUR COMMUNITY

Gives Report Of Chambers Of Commerce Convention Held Recently

The following report of the recent convention of the Alberta Associated Boards of Trade and Agriculture, was given by one of the Vermilion delegates, Vice-President Israel Miller at the Wednesday meeting of the Vermilion Board of Trade:

"There are 120 Boards of Trade affiliated with the Provincial body. [illegible] 41 of these sent delegates to the annual meeting.

The set-up is as in the past. The Alberta office of the Canadian Chamber serves as the Provincial office and the Canadian Chamber pays rent, salaries, etc. While financially this arrangement keeps the Alberta Association functioning it must be a great strain on the secretary to serve the two organizations. During the discussion it was pointed out that the Chamber of Commerce of the State of Montana, with a population less than that of Alberta, has a budget of $35,000, while Alberta has a budget of only $1600. This does not allow the directors and the various committees to meet often to work out some of the problems or to achieve the publicity the Montana Chamber accomplishes.

A resolution was passed that the annual meeting be held in rotation in different parts of the province, the place of the meeting to be set by the directors in consultation with the local boards.

The highlight of the work of the executive and the directors is the meeting with the Cabinet of the Provincial government and bringing before them the policies and resolutions of the annual meeting of the board. It is indicated the recommendations and policies of the Alberta Chamber are listened to with great attention by the Cabinet as they represent the best cross-section of public opinion in the province.

This year instead of the customary speaker, a panel discussion was held, the subject being "Agriculture Credit". The Farm Loan Board and the Farm Improvement Loan were discussed. The speakers all agreed on one point, namely that farming is a big enterprise now and has to be managed as such. Mr. A. W. Platt, President of the F.U.A. thought the main difficulty is when there are a series of crop failures. He also said that farmers should use the banks for current expense loans instead of local merchants. This discussion was interesting and informative.

The committee on education reported that conferences were held on the teacher shortage problem in a number of towns and cities. Vermilion was mentioned as being probably the next meeting place, and your delegates took the liberty of extending an invitation from this Board to meet here.

There were several very important reports from committees and policy statements which would take too long to report at this time. However, I have them classified for our own respective committee chairmen to study and report on their opinions of them from time to time at our meetings.

It was decided that in the future we would adhere more closely to the ruling that resolutions to the annual meeting have to be submitted to the secretary 45 days before the meeting. Those submitted later would have to be first approved by the Policy committee and vote taken whether they would be accepted or not.

Mr. F. S. Kreutzer of Fort MacLeod is the new president and vice-presidents are Mr. W. D. MacDonald of Grainger and Mr. Allen McTavish of Edmonton. Seventeen directors were also elected.

Also in hospital, Mr. George Blake and Mrs. Alex McDonald; and home from there are Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Giles. Mr. Alex Kettles is still in hospital and is going to Edmonton. The neighbors put in Mr. Kettle's crop while he was ill. The community spirit is still abroad.

UNITED CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Rev. C. W. MacKay, Vermilion, preached the 29th Anniversary service in the United Church, on June 17th at 3:00 p.m., giving a very fine explanation of the crest of the United Church. He told how each church which has now entered the Union, Methodist, Congregational and Presbyterian, is represented on the crest. Many Dewberry members were there, the choir helping with the singing and giving two anthems. Harlan Green rendered two beautiful solos on his flute, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Webadale.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Marion Kinsella, a bride-elect was honored in a shower Saturday evening in the United Church hall. About thirty-five ladies were there and many beautiful and useful gifts were presented. Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

A kitchen in your car trunk is easy to assemble, makes it possible to have truly sumptuous picnic fare and eliminates "homework".

You can cook simply over a collapsible comb-sized stove with a heat pellet, or elaborately over a two-burner affair that stores its own liquid fuel in a compact metal case.

Perishables can be kept cold with inexpensive plastic covered chemical "pillows" which are refrigerated beforehand, or food can be kept hot with fiberglass containers. For travelling families there are portable ice-chests large enough for a day's food supply plus all baby's bottles. (Incidentally, to protect bottles from breakage, insert them in old wool socks.)

There's a set of six-in-one aluminum pots and pans all nested together, including four plates and cups. Boy Scout stores carry hinged knife-fork-and-spoon sets that are the most compact utensils I've seen. Add collapsible seats and tray tables and you'll dine ant-free.

Place your staples in a wicker basket, include your favorite spices, and in no time at all "soup's on".

Lookout towers, rangers, aircraft and the general public play big parts in the detection of forest fires in Ontario. During the last five years the average for these four main detection agencies was: towers 28%, aircraft 20%, rangers 10% and the public 40%.

Interesting Program Planned For Farm Women's Week At V.S.A.

"Farm Women's Week" which has generally attracted a large attendance to this popular short course at the Vermilion School of Agriculture will be held this summer July 9th to 12th.

Details of the program are now available. It has been specially planned for farm women and assures continued widespread interest and support by those womenfolk from rural homes who are so fortunate as to be able to get away for a brief holiday from their work and responsibilities at home.

Topics directly related to homemaking include: Labor Savers in the Home; A New Approach to Home Decorating; Cutting and Handling Special Fabrics for Home Sewing; Earmarks of Good Homemaking. Several topics recognize the active interest of the women in the home farm. These include: Garden Pests; Livestock Chats; Farm Accounts; Earmarks of Good Farming. Topics of broader scope and interest include: Television; Civil Defence, and Today's Relationships with our Neighbors.

Special lessons in sewing are also available for those ladies who wish to centre their attention on skills and the use of the sewing machine.

Farmers in general and husbands of the ladies attending Farm Women's Week in particular are specially invited to attend the last afternoon and evening of the Short Course on Thursday July 12th. The program includes such topics of mutual interest as "Farmers and Their Income Tax" and "Refrigeration in the Home". The men will have the opportunity to make a conducted tour of the school farm and to 'talk shop' with members of the farm staff.

Special guest speaker for the evening following the banquet is Prof C. G. Hampson of the Science Division, Faculty of Education, University of Alberta. His topic "Alberta's Wild Life" will be illustrated by beautiful colored pictures and will attract attention to a subject of widespread interest.

Ladies are invited to attend all or any part of the Farm Women's Week program. Room and meal accommodation is available in the school residence. Requests for further particulars and for reservation of accomodation should be directed to the Principal at the School of Agriculture.

On Monday, June 18th a very large "stag" party was held in the Legion hall. During the course of the evening Dr. Ron Payment presented Sam with a bulky parcel, which when unwrapped revealed a very handsome Winchester repeating shotgun. The presentation was accompanied by appropriate words relating to Sam's contribution to the activities of the town.

Vermilion Airfield Boon To Flier Sunday

The Vermilion landing field which has been the scene of several emergency landings during its history, again proved a boon to a weary flier on Sunday.

During the bad weather and low ceiling of Sunday, Pilot R. W. Gauthier of Detroit, Michigan, sat down on the Vermilion field after spending some seven hours in the air. He was flying a Vultee plane en route from Detroit, Mich. to Fairbanks but had planned a stopover in Edmonton. They reached Edmonton but visibility was so bad they decided it was too risky and made the return trip to Vermilion. Here again ceiling was low and the weather rainy. However, after scouting the field very carefully they made a successful landing.

Pilot Gauthier and his one passenger remained in Vermilion overnight, taking off Monday morning when the weather had cleared.

Authorities should take notice that a track has again been worn across the end of one runway, apparently by vehicles going to the nuisance grounds. This should be repaired and the practice of crossing the runway prohibited. The plane on Sunday hit this and nearly turned over as a result. Immediate action is needed.

Legion Plan Picnic At Whitney Lake

Come to the social evening on Wednesday July 4th, there will be the usual dart fling and a few games of bingo.

Any queries you may have pertaining to the picnic can easily be clarified that night, and it would be a good time for all to report car space available in order that allotments may be made in good time.

An unusual feature of the Grade 9 exams, was an Ability Test in Mathematics and Language, the results of which will be used as a source of information and as a guide for the high school teachers in advising the students on their future program of studies.

Grades 1 to 8 will be finished with exams and classes on Friday, and will then have the answer to the momentous question "Didja pass?".

July and August are holiday months for the youngsters, but during that time it will be a case of 'overtime' for the mothers!

Jim Smith Unanimous Choice Of Social Credit Nominating Convention

Continuous and conscientious work in the Canadian House of Commons was recognized at Viking on Wednesday when James Alexander Smith of Vermilion was the unanimous choice of the 302 accredited delegates who registered from Social Credit groups from every part of the large constituency of Battle River - Camrose for the nomination convention. Mr Smith was thus acclaimed as the Social Credit candidate in the next Federal election.

The canditate was nominated by Ashley Cooper who stated that although Mr. Smith was attending his first session, he had taken part in the debates on no less than 39 bills and acts. His was the only name placed before the large convention.

Mr. Smith had come from Ottawa to be present and thanked the delegates for their confidence. He outlined briefly the stand of the Social Credit members on the contentious Pipelines Bill in the House of Commons.

It was noteworthy that nearly half of the delegates present were ladies and responding to the requests of the crowd, Mrs. Smith was called to the platform and gave a short talk.

Among those present were cabinet ministers Anders Aalborg and James Hartley of the Alberta government, and legislature members Henry Ruste, Earle Hardy and Chester Sayers. The guest speaker was the Hon. James Hartley, minister of Public Works, with address being given by the Hon. Anders Aalborg.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Battle River - Camrose Constituency Association was held during the convention with Mr James Gordon of Daysland being elected honorary president. Dr Beyerstein of Camrose former member of parliament for Camrose is the president. Vice-presidents are Walter Pearson of Edberg and Ashley Cooper of Vermilion. Jack Polehoyke of Daysland is secretary-treasurer.

Imperial Oil Bulk Plant Completely Rebuilt Here

During the past month or more the office building, warehouse and pumps of the Imperial oil bulk plant at Vermilion have been completely replaced with new and modern structures and very latest equipment. The big storage tanks were even moved and re-aligned for accessibility and appearance.

The former office building was moved off and the crew came in and put up a more commodious office. The building provides a general and a private office and a washroom. The new structure is of steel, prefabricated, and very neat in appearance.

The warehouse is also prefab steel, and here the same procedure was followed. The former warehouse which has served for so many years, was sold and moved away replaced with a very modern structure.

All pumping equipment, and this is extensive, was replaced with pumps of a new type, and all pipelines were put in new and tanks as mentioned were re-aligned. All the latest facilities for unloading oil from railroad cars, for loading into oil tankers and for filling barrels, have been installed in the new plant making it the very acme of accessibility, convenience and of efficiency.

Stan and Ches Waldenberger local Imperial Oil agents, are proud of the progressive steps taken and are pleased to have anyone interested inspect the progressive changes which have been made.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Rosborough, beloved wife of A. Wellington Rosborough of Vancouver passed away June 6th. She was in her 72nd year. The family are well known old timers of Vermilion having lived here from 1906 to 1918 when they made the move to the coast.

H. & S. Water Safety Demonstration

Vermilion Ball Tossers Play At Mannville

The Vermilion baseball team is entered in the Mannville sports on July 2nd, along with four other top notch teams. The Standard was given particulars of the teams, but unfortunately mislaid the slip. A bang-up program of sports is on the Mannville agenda and it is only a short drive to our neighboring town. There is little doubt but that a goodly precentage of local folks will follow the Vermilion ball team to the Mannville celebration.

Rotarians Hear Interesting Address

Rotarians have been privileged to hear very interesting addresses at the last two Friday meetings.

On the first occasion J. W. G. Morrison around whom the history of Vermilion ever since 1911, has been inextricably wound, told of the gradual development of the town since that time.

He brought in some little known and very interesting side issues. The story as a whole listened like fiction but everyone present agreed that the town had an entrancing history indeed. Mitch Taylor introduced the speaker with Ernie Buckingham expressing thanks.

The talk on Friday last was of a different nature when Ches Waldenberger gave his vocational address. His listeners learned about Ches's own actions since boyhood days, and of the gradual development of the oil business which he, in company with his brother Stan, now operate having taken over during the past year from their father Mr Wes Waldenberger.

The Rotarians seem to like to listen to the story of the lives of their members and Ches was given wrapt attention during his discourse. The introduction was by Cliff McCormick and thanks expressed by a new member Bill Pettigrew.

Play Safe This Holiday Week End

Plans for "Alberta Water Safety Week" to be observed July 1st to 7th, are being completed in approximately one hundred cities, towns and villages in the Province. Red Cross branches, safety councils, recreation organizations and other civic bodies are combining their resources to emphasize the need for greater caution in water sports this year.

A. G. Gilmet, Director of Water Safety for Canadian Red Cross and the Alberta Safety Council reports that chairmen of local committees are calling on the talents of local residents to prepare demonstrations of safe swimming, wading, boating etc. as well as artificial respiration and rescue techniques.

"Our number one objective," said Mr Gilmet "is to get through the Dominion Day week-end without a drowning. The May 24 week-end saw five drownings in the Province and we intend to do everything possible to alert holidayers to the necessity for safe and sane behaviour at beaches and fishing resorts."

Alberta Water Safety Weeks are being held in many parts of Canada this year and it is hoped that by next year it may become a National event.

In Alberta, the observance of Water Safety Week will mark the beginning of a two month campaign by the Red Cross and Safety Council combined to teach safe swimming, boating and effective rescue and revival methods.

Fresh Air and Coffee Breaks Reduce High-Way Accident Risk

Rest before starting out on a long trip, dont try to drive too far in one day, stop for regular coffee-breaks on the highway, make sure you are physiologically fit to drive, and you stand a pretty good chance of spending an accident-free summer. This advice comes from R. B. Baillie, president of the continent-wide American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators and Commissioners of Motor Vehicles for the Province of Manitoba.

Mr Baillie who is also chairman of the committee on motor vehicle administration of the Canadian Highway Safety Conference said that the drivers state of mind and fatigue after many hours spent at the wheel are contributing factors to most highway accidents.

Mental impulses and fatigue are behind a great many current violations of traffic rules and errors which cause accidents, Mr Baillie says.

The well known Canadian safety driving when they feel sleepy, worried, upset or preoccupied.

Driving on today's congested highways is North America's favorite outdoor sport, so you must keep in good shape at all times," Mr Baillie says. "Long drives slow up your reflexes, overtax your nervous system, reduce your seeing ability unless you stop now and then for some exercise and a cup of coffee or some other non-alcoholic beverage.

"It is good to engage in conversation, but always keep your eyes on the highway and avoid arguing. Allow fresh air to circulate through the car and do not insist on doing all the driving when your wife or another licensed driver can replace you for awhile.

"Let weather or road conditions govern your speed even if you are not exceeding posted limits.

And remember, it is better to reach your destination late than never."

Marriage Is Main Career In U. S.

Marriage as a way of life is at peak popularity among American men, according to a release received by the Health League of Canada from the Metropolitan Information Service. In number, American husbands have reached a record high, totalling nearly 39,000,000 in the civilian population alone.

The typical American nowadays marries at a relatively early age, establishes his own household soon after marriage, and keeps his nose to the grindstone to the extent that he bears the responsibility for raising a family throughout most of his working life. About 95% of all married men under age 65 are gainfully employed.

Over one-quarter of the present-day husbands are under 35 years of age, and an additional fourth are in the 35 to 44 age bracket. At the same time, however, the number at age 65 and over is close to 4,400,000—about 11% of the total and is growing rapidly.

Four-fifths of the families where the husband is in the age range of 25 to 34 have at least one child, and nearly one-quarter have three or more children. The relatively large families are even more common where the husband is in the 35-44 age group.

Although in most families the husband is the sole breadwinner, in about one-fourth of the families both husband and wife are employed.

Announces Progress On Gas Lines

Northwestern Utilities, Limited announced today that their $8,000,000 1956 construction program is well ahead of schedule.

13.2 miles of 20 inch pipeline and 2¾ miles of 16 inch have been laid east of Edmonton to increase the Company's transmission capacity between its gas fields and the city are progressing. It is anticipated that a start will be made this fall with steel erection taking place early in 1957. The building should be completed early in 1958.

Nine new communities are to be served by Northwestern this year. These are Mundare, Hilliard, Chipman, Lamont, Bruderheim, Josephburg, Gibbons, Millet and Sylvan Lake. The distribution systems in Millet, Lamont and Mundare are nearly complete. The transmission line to Millet will be finished shortly.

Over twelve hundred of the five thousand customers Northwestern will add to its system in 1956 have already been taken on.

A four well drilling program will be undertaken starting immediately. One of these wells will be in the Legal Area, one in the Fort Saskatchewan Field and two in the Tofield-Beaverhill Lake Area. The first to be drilled will be the well in the Legal Area. It is located on LSD 6, in Section 31, Township 57, Range 24, West of the Fourth Meridian.

The Company's plans for its new office building to be located on 100th Street south of Jasper Avenue

PREMIUM ON HOGS

There is a move on foot to increase the premium on Grade A hogs to $4.00. The Ontario Hog Producers Association and other influential groups claim that it is almost here. The premium on B1 hogs would likely be done away with. Are we ready for this change. It will mean more than ever that good bacon type and good feeding will pay off. Pig raisers who get low grades should look for good type gilts and get a pure bred bacon boar this fall.

2,4-D and MCP

A number of farmers are enquiring about a new weed killer that someone told them about. We don't know what it is. There are two effective weed killing chemicals recommended for spraying on crops in this area. They are 2,4-D and MCP. There are a lot of trade names but they all contain 2,4-D or MCP. If there are weeds in your crop it will pay you to treat. Do it early.

MORE ABOUT TREES

I have just received a report that over 40,000 trees were put out in this district this spring. This is the third highest in the province so we are doing alright. Now is the time to summerfallow for planting next year. Maybe you will need to break a couple of strips near the buildings. Everybody is getting free trees for wind breaks around the buildings or along roads as snow traps. Why not you? Even if you did plant trees 10 years ago, get some more.

FATHER AND SON AGREEMENTS

A good many farmers are taking their sons into partnership with them in the farm business. A bulletin showing exactly what to do is available at your D. A. office.

WATER EROSION

Hundreds of farms in this area suffered from water erosion last week. A lot of the good soil is being washed down into the sloughs. You can do something about it by keeping the trash and stubble mixed with the surface soil. Never plow your land. Use one-ways, diskers, cultivators or blade weeders. Seed down your draws to brome grass before they become gullies.

Health Unit Notes

COMMON SENSE FEEDING HABITS FOR YOUR BABY

MIXED FEEDING

When baby is ready to start mixed feeding introduce new foods in very small quantities. If a food is refused don't worry but try it again another day. Try new foods early and often but feed the same food for several days until he is used to it before going to another one.

HOW TO FEED

While he is very small, take baby on your knee to feed him and only when he has got used to taking food from a spoon and cup put him in his high chair. Don't make him the centre of attention as this will encourage him to show off and need coaxing to eat. Take plenty of time over feedings so that he can enjoy his food.

BE CALM, UNCONCERNED

His appetite will vary from day to day just as yours does so don't worry if he sometimes refuses things. As he gets older he will develop definite likes and dislikes but try not to show your own dislikes too much as he will quickly follow your example.

If baby does not want to eat at all perhaps your attitude is at fault, you are worried and anxious about him. He is quick to find that this is a way of getting extra attention.

TYPES OF FOOD

Some mothers feel that baby's food tastes uninteresting but actually simple foods with natural flavors and little seasoning are enjoyed most. Tinned foods are a useful standby but when possible something from the family menu should be given. These can be mashed up finely with a little milk and are much more economical especially in the early stages when baby only takes a spoonful or two.

AMOUNTS TO GIVE

Serve very small portions at first, gradually increasing as baby gets used to new foods. Make the most of different colored foods and avoid covering everything with brown gravy. Don't overload baby's dish as this discourages him and may spoil a normal healthy appetite.

FEEDING HIMSELF

By the time baby is a year old he should have begun to handle his own cup and spoon. When he begins to reach for the spoon let him have one of his own to hold and leave him with the last spoonful of his meal to finish by himself. As soon as he seems able, let him feed himself. You will of course protect his clothes and the floor around him as he is bound to make a mess while he is learning.

JOINING THE FAMILY MEAL

As soon as your child is able to feed himself and enjoy his food without wanting to be the centre of attraction, you can introduce him to the family table. He will quickly learn table manners from those around him but it is better not to overstress these until he has learned to enjoy his food otherwise meal time will become an unhappy time for you all. Aim at cheerful happy meal times but avoid too much conversation or rowdiness amongst the juniors.

HABITS IN THE MAKING

Habits are learned. They come about by repitition. When you do things over and over, you form habits without much thinking.

Every time you do a thing, it becomes easier to do it again. Certain pathways on the nervous system are made stronger. Your habitual acts become firmly built into your nervous system. They grow to be a part of you.

When you want to learn a new skill, you must form new habits. First analyze the new skill and find out exactly what new habits you need. That helps shortening your learning time and improves the quality of your skill.

Your driving skill will be made up of the acts you practice from the beginning. So practice only correct acts. Learn exactly those driving habits that are correct, and then go about forming them. Practice those particular acts every time you have an opportunity. Your driving habits will then be practically 'custom built'. You choose to build them because they fit good driving needs.

In the process of establishing certain acts in your system of habits, there are two very good rules that it pays to follow:—

1. Practice exactly as you want to perform.

2. Never permit exceptions to occur.

Do you remember poor old RIP VAN WINKLE who decided to form a new habit of never to get drunk? He used to get so thirsty that he'd awaken and take another drink, saying, "I'll not count this one."

If you follow the rules and practice correct acts without exceptions, the time will come when you will do correct things, automatically, without effort or thought. You then have a set of reliable driving habits. That is the first step on the road to driving expertness.

Pretty Afternoon Wedding Held At Mannville United Church

GERHART—CHRYSLER

MANNVILLE. — In a pretty afternoon ceremony, Barbara Ellen Chrysler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Chrysler of Mannville, was united in marriage to Walter Gerald Gerhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gerhart, also of Mannville, on June 16 at 2:00 o'clock. The ceremony took place in McQueen Memorial United church with Rev. Ian Holter officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a floor-length gown of nylon net over satin, fashioned with a lace bodice and a dropped waistline tapering to points accented with seed pearls. Her matching jacket of lace had lily point sleeves and her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara studded with seed pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaids, Misses Doreen Gerhart and Arlene Leitch wore identical cocktail-length gowns of aqua puff dot nylon net over taffeta with matching hair circlets of split carnations. Their bouquets were of white carnations.

Attendants of the groom were Bernard Chrysler of Mannville and Lloyd Gerhart of Daysland. The ushers were Bruce Hubbard and Charles Gerhart. Miss Betty Proudfoot played the wedding music and the soloist was Mrs. Reg Lagg.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue afternoon dress of ticatine crepe with white accessories complemented by a corsage of red sweetheart roses. The mother of the groom chose a powder blue afternoon frock of rayon bemberg crepe with lace bolero and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception for ninety guests was held in the Orange hall. Toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. Ian Holter and responded to by the groom. The bride's table was decorated with lilacs and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Hertz, Southey, Sask.; Mrs. L. Bogden, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. H. Hansen, Viking; Mr. and Mrs. J. Gerhart, Daysland; Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Fouracre, Bremner; Mr. and Mrs. E. Brandt, Tisdale, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Gerhart, Daysland; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bartlett, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. C. For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride donned a pale blue fitted suit of gabardine complemented by pink accessories including a corsage of pink carnations.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our friends who have helped make the years we have spent in Vermilion such very happy ones. The various functions held recently in our behalf have made us realize anew just how very fine the people of Vermilion really are. We will be taking with us a host of wonderful memories. A cordial welcome to drop in and visit us is extended to all who are down Consort way. We'll be looking forward to seeing all you goosehunters this fall.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear mother
Mrs. M A ROBINSON
who passed away June 25 1956.
The blow was great the shock severe
We little thought her death so near

Wildmere Women's Institute Notes

Wildmere W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Chas. Sweeney on Wednesday June 6, with 15 members present and Mrs Wilson came after school. The meeting opened with "O Canada" and a recital of the Creed. Then the ladies sang "Happy Birthday" to little Laverne Howard who was five years old that day.

Roll Call: "As an adult what would you do to improve your education?" It was very good.

The treasurer, Mrs. R. Dibben gave her report and the motion of acceptance was made by Mrs Wallington and Mrs. W. J. Garnett.

As the June project was a donation to Mrs. Berry, those who did not hear her are to send their donation to the travel fund.

There was correspondence re measuring cups and the secretary is to write to have them for the July 4th meeting. They will be on display at the Agricultural School during Farm Women's Week. There was also a letter from Mrs. Mead. Wildmere is to be hostess branch for tea at the Conference June 16th. As many members as possible are urged to go. Mrs Howard is taking over the sale of cards. Mrs. W. J. Garnett gets letters telling her of lakes that have been stocked with fish, also of timber that has been burnt.

A new supervisor for the girls club, Mrs. D. Hughes with Mrs. R. Dibben as her assistant was chosen. Mrs. Martin the previous supervisor has resigned, and her assistant Mrs. Bauman is moving away.

The topic of "Education" was taken by Mrs. R. Dibben. Mrs. Stewart of Edmonton spoke on Retarded Children and mentioned that parents of normal children have much to be thankful for.

Mrs. Bauman handed in $9.15 from the sale of cards. The members heartily thanked her for her work. Mrs. A. Rendell won "Jumping Jump Up". Mrs Cruthers was chosen as delegate to the Conference at the School of Agriculture on June 16. The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the Queen" and lunch was served by the hostess and her helpers.

The next meeting will be at Preston Central school. Mrs. J. Bauman is to be hostess on July 4th and Sollereux and [illegible] Area W. I. groups will be guests at that time. The Directors are to give the lunch and the Roll Call will be a remedy for a summer accident (swimming or insect bites etc.) with the Topic Health and the Social by Mrs Holte.

United Church At Islay Is Setting For Pretty Summer Wedding

McLENNAN — GRECH

Knox United Church was the setting of a very pretty wedding June 23, 4 p.m., when Anne daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grech, Mannville, was joined in holy matrimony to Bruce Neil son of Mr and Mrs. Neil McLennan, Islay. Rev C W MacKay Vermilion, assisted by Mr Stan McGuffin of Marwayne-Dewberry, performed the ceremony.

The ring was unique in that it was the wedding ring of the groom's paternal grandmother, whose name, too, was Anne.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. W. H. Roebuck of Vermilion, formerly Islay. She was attended by her sister, Mary. The bride looked lovely in white satin with overskirt of nylon net which was toe-length, long lily point sleeves and Peter Pan collar. The skirt had lace panels and hoops. Her veil was fingertip length held in place by a crown of mother-of-pearl sequins. Her jewellery, a gift of the groom, was a rhinestone necklace and ear rings. Her bouquet was red sweetheart roses.

The bridesmaid looked pretty in a three-quarter length green satin dress with patterned net over it; her headpiece was a matching band and she carried peach-coloured tea roses. The groom was attended by his brother Kenneth. Harold Roebuck was the usher. While the register was being signed, Miss Janet Kent of Irwinville very beautifuly sang "Because".

The bride's mother wore a lovely white blue flowered silk dress with white accessories. The groom's mother was in a light navy two piece crepe with pink accessories.

The wedding reception was at the Prince Charles in Lloydminster. W. L. Roebuck proposed the toast to the bride and the groom very nicely replied. A telegram was read from the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Murry MacDonald of Edmonton, and later a telephone call was received from his sister Jean, Mrs. Wallis of Kitimat.

In the evening the newly weds entertained Islay and Mannville friends at a dance after which they left by motor for Kimberley B.C. The bride's going away costume was a mauve suit, white hat and gloves, pink corsage and she carried a carved leather hand bag.

Miss Faye McLennan of Kitimat was home for her brother's wedding. On her return she will be accompanied by her brother Ken.

Mr and Mrs Jim Allen are ready to board the train for a trip to Scotland and will leave July 9th.

Mrs. Sweet and Elaine have gone to Wawota Sask. to attend the wedding of Mrs Sweet's nephew.

Mrs R. Martin is having a few days in the hospital.

On account of the Islay hospital meeting July 5th, being our usual W A meeting day the meeting is postponed till the next week but the day is not settled. The meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Ed McFadgen.

A FINE TRIBUTE

To Brigadier W W. Reid, who is Provincial Commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association, P.E.I. Council, the youth of Charlottetown recently presented a shining new car to replace an old one worn out in their service. The gift came from Scouts and Guides representing every group in Charlottetown, the junior baseball and hockey team members, and many other youngsters who have benefitted from the interest the Brigadier has taken for many years in junior athletics. To Mrs Reid they presented a fine bouquet.

3726 People Attend Successful Rodeo At Lea Park

LEA PARK. - The "Biggest Little Rodeo" in north-eastern Alberta, the Lea Park Rodeo was held on June 19 and 20 at the Canadian Legion's Jubilee park at Lea Park. The event was favored with almost perfect weather and by an attendance fifty percent larger than last year.

The Lea Park Rodeo has been greatly favored by the presence of many of the stars of the cowboy world. Attending this year as competitors were the following 1955 Canadian competitors: Wilf Gerlitz, Canadian All Around Champion and Bull and Steer Riding Champion; John Hawk, Calf Roping Champion, Brian Butterfield, Steer Decorating Champion; Alvin Owens, Bareback Riding Champion; Cliff Vandergrift, Wild Horse Race Champion; George Sutcliff, Wild Cow Milking Champion and Winston Bruce, Amateur Bronc Rider.

Prizes were won as follows in the numerous events:

Saddle Bronc Riding — 1. Winston Bruce, Forestburg; 2. Gerald Doach, Empress; 3. Dick Nash, Mantario, Sask.; 4. Don McKay, Black Diamond, Alta.

Bareback Bronc Riding — 1. Reg Kesler, Rosemary; 2. Cody Morris; 3. Clay Evans, U.S.A.; 4. Brian Butterfield, Ponoka.

A highlight of the Rodeo was the winning by young Winston Bruce of Forestburg of both the open and amateur saddle bronc riding events. This is quite a notable achievement and Harry Vold who knows as much about rodeos as the next one commented that it was the first time he had ever seen it done!

Attendance this year was 3,726 which compares very favorably with around 2500 in 1955.

Since last Thursday there has been only one day in Vermilion without rain, Monday June 25th. A very sharp shower in the late afternoon on Wednesday, June 27th resulted in a quarter of an inch which is less than it seemed because of the violence of the accompanying wind.

The total rainfall for this month to date (June 28) is 4.48 inches. This is the highest rainfall total for any June in Vermilion since Beam Station records were started here in 1948.

New Styles In Canadian Shoes Designed for Formal Wear

Every wardrobe should contain shoes for cocktail and formal wear, and these Canadian designed sandals are just the ones! At left, a soft pearly grey pump with a closed softly rounded toe and a halter back, is true elegance. Perfectly plain, except for the delicately stitched tab, this pump will be a highlight in the fashion picture. Right, again the pearlized calfskin sandal, this time in the open-toed and halter back fashion. A touch of decoration on the vamp completes the picture—and a pretty picture it is, too!

Addresses The Board of Trade

Mr. Norman Moore., Public Relations representative of Cockshutt Plow Co. of Brantford Ontario, who addressed a recent meeting of the Vermilion Board of Trade. Mr. Moore chose as the theme of his address: 'We are a fortunate People'. The speaker proved himself a Canadian enthusiast who has travelled over the length and breadth of Canada and really appreciates what a beautiful and productive country we have with boundless potentialities. He traced the progress of Canada from 1812 when at Queenston Heights Canada felt the first surge of nationhood, until today Canada enjoys the second highest standard of living in the world.

Mr. Moore's address was outstanding and he was fitting thanked on behalf of those present by N.N. Bentley and the chairman J. R. Boake. The guest speaker was introduced by Mr. Reg Ireland.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

by W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, [illegible]

A GREATER DEMAND FOR WHEAT

Whence Will It Come?

At a time when wheat surpluses bear heavily upon certain of the larger exporting nations such as Canada and the U. S. A., the question is frequently asked: What can be done to increase the demand for wheat and from what direction is an increase likely to come? At the risk of over-simplification, it may be said that any increase in the world consumption of wheat can only come from one, or all of three directions. First, through the increase in population of wheat consuming countries; second through an increase in per capita consumption in wheat consuming countries; and third through the penetration of wheat into countries not now, or only in part, wheat consuming regions.

On the first score it [illegible] reasonable to assume that, everything else being equal, the consumption of wheat will increase in fairly close relationship to he increase in population of wheat-consuming [illegible] and that this can be fairly closely estimated from a study of population trends. In the case of importing countries, however, an offsetting factor that must be considered is extent to which the nations may be able, through improved techniques and new developments in the field of production, to supply more of their own additional requirements. On the second score, we are, unfortunately, only too aware of the declining per capita consumption of wheat in our own country and in the U. S. A. In other parts of the world the situation varies. However, considering this factor with the next, there is some evidence that the use of wheat is expanding both absolutely and per capita in countries where wheat in the past played a relatively small part in the diet. These areas may, therefore, eventually become more important from the standpoint of wheat consumption [illegible].

WOODVALE NOTES

[illegible] many weary weeks of [illegible]ing for rain we finally had lots of it over two week-ends and a heavy wind, hail and rainstorm on Wednesday evening last with two more days of heavy downpour. The country already looks much different and as we go into another summer month with new hope. Although hail was reported [illegible] everywhere we only heard of [illegible]age in the Hindville District where windows were broken in homes of Doug Young and the Haines family, and the hailstones [illegible] piling up a foot high. The crops looked battered but they usually grow again and might in the end turn out better than the uneven growth in evidence everywhere else. That trouble seems to be all over the [illegible] from the south to the Peace River country.

Four students are writing Grade 9 exams in Woodvale school but for the end of the school year a picnic is planned on the 29th with special invitations to ex-students. A kind of re-union is planned and if successful it will become an annual get-together.

A mixed team played a game of ball against the Preston school team at Triangle on the 13th and Woodvale lost 18-15 but everyone enjoyed the game and outing.

Quite a number attended the wedding dance of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Duczek at Islay on the 15th bringing best wishes from Adam's friends in this district.

The Woodvale Community club held a meeting and decided on a picnic for their members and families in the Vermilion Park on June 30. There will be ice cream and lemonade for the children as an extra treat. They plan a really big dance for Aug 17 at the Woodvale Community hall, so be sure to mark that date on your calendar.

Keith Lysons and Elmer Wolters were seen preparing the ball diamond at Tolland for the coming picnic on July 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells left with their baby daughter to work on a farm near Elrose, Sask.

Mrs. Wes Isley and little Laura are accompanying Mrs. Jim Ross to the city where the latter will undergo a medical examination. We most sincerely hope that nothing of a serious nature will be found the [illegible].

Our daughter Kay and husband Tom Icke from Calgary walked home in the rain when their truck with cabin got stuck on the muddy road. They left on Saturday 23rd after a pleasant visit, to continue their holiday trip through the mountains via Jasper and Banff.

Mannville and District Local News

Mr Roy Hay and Mr. Castle Scott of the [illegible] and Mr R. Whitson of the Vegreville School Board attended a Councillors, trustees and secretary-treasurers refresher course in Banff last week.

Mrs. A. Arnet and two children have returned to Viking after spending a week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Del McFadden.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Bronken and Norman were callers at the home of Mrs. C. Manz on Monday. They were enroute from Meadow Lake Sask. to Ft. Saskatchewan to attend the silver wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs. Albert Mohr. Mr and Mrs. Len Manz, Mrs. C. Manz, Mrs. A.E. Williams, Mrs. K. Scoggins and Mrs. R. Leitch of Mannville motored to Edmonton on Tuesday for the silver wedding anniversary.

Miss Eileen Arnold is holidaying at the coast.

Mr. H.W.A. (Son) Arnold arrived in Mannville on Monday for a visit with friends and relatives here.

Visiting with Mrs. Hogan for a week Mrs. Spring returned home to Edmonton to make plans for a trip to Toronto. Also at the Hogan home for the weekend were Mr Sandy Hogan and Miss Beth Mason of Edmonton.

Mrs Holden is on a three month holiday trip to B.C. where she will visit with relatives at the coast and [illegible].

Work has commenced on the Anglican Church. Mr. Pettigrew of Vermilion has contracted the basement and cement for it was poured on Tuesday.

Mrs Joe Stepanik has returned to Edmonton after spending the week in Mannville helping Mrs. Peter Stepanik at the store while Mr. Stepanik was ill in the hospital. We are pleased to report that he is much improved.

Former Vermilion Man Weds At New Westminster

Rev. W. Evan Fullerton of Queen Ave. United Church, New Westminster, B.C., officiated at the ceremony on June 5th which united Maxine Marie, daughter of Mr and Mrs Wilford Gwillim of New Westminster, to Mr. Frederick Milton Duthie of Vancouver.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a strapless floor length gown of nylon tulle with a Redingote Juliet head-dress and finger-tip veil. Her bouquet consisted of tawny gold roses and white carnations.

The ushers were Elton Eckman and John Swan, and Miss Irene Page sang two solos accompanied by Mrs. Betty Mercer.

The reception was held at the Elks Home, New Westminster where the bride's mother received the guests dressed in a powder blue crepe dress with hat to match and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother chose a dress of navy blue crepe with netted [illegible] and a pale pink hat with veil. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Walter Reed, answered with a fitting response from the groom. John Duthie proposed the health of the bridesmaid.

For the honeymoon to the southern States the bride changed to a pale green dress and coat with accessories to match. The young couple will reside at 1204 Howie St. Burquitlam, N.W.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Ruth Burland, the bride's sister from Victoria, the bride's brother James from Trail, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Davis from Vermilion, aunt and uncle of the groom, Alma Watson from Vernon, Lila Taylor and Dorothy Thomas from Port Moody, and others.

How about your SUB?

WILDMERE WINKS

We along with the community wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of the late Mr [illegible]. While he had lived a good and long life his sudden passing was unexpected. He leaves to mourn his passing three daughters Elsie and Jenny of the Coast, and Amy of Buffalo Coulee, one son Robert at the Coast. He was laid to rest in Mount Auburn cemetery alongside his wife, daughter Dorothy and son Buster all of whom had predeceased him. Mr and Mrs. Norman Eyben (Jenny) and their daughter Elsie accompanied the remains from New Westminster.

H. R. Howard of Edmonton was a [illegible] for a while with his son Lloyd and family of Wildmere a short time ago.

Mr and Mrs. Norman Smith and children of San Acord visited a couple of days with Norman's brothers, Bill and Adam and his sister Mrs. Crothers Albert Smith and family of Basswood spent one evening at the same home. Norman intended to take in the Wainwright Stampede but Friday was rained out and he had to leave for home Saturday.

Be sure and keep this date in mind: Wildmere Curlers' picnic will be held on Friday, July 13th at the Wildmere hall grounds, one half mile west of Wallington's, near Cliff Crothers.

Tommy Cairns of Vancouver has been visiting friends in Wildmere this week. He left Vancouver on account of rain and he has certainly run into lots of it here too.

Several from here took in the Wainwright Stampede but the wet weather dampened things a bit. However everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

Margaret Fadden of Lloydminster was home over the week end visiting her parents Mr and Mrs. L. Fadden. Bertie Fadden is now working on the municipal road crew.

Congrats to Mr and Mrs Elmer Iaby on the birth of a daughter, a sister for Florence, Wayne and Jo-celynne.

We were very pleased to have a nice visit with Mr and Mrs Norman Eyben on Saturday evening. They both look well and like to meet all their old friends around Vermilion and district.

Quick Thinking Averts Serious Accident

Last Friday a mishap that might have had serious consequences, occurred at the shop of E.T. Rooks. Dr. E. B. Evans had left his car there to have a trailer hitch welded to the back of it. In the course of the welding the gas tank of the car was punctured, and the gas vapours caught fire.

Several willing hands quickly pushed the car back out of the shop. Mr Rooks jumped in, and took off east on Main Street at a considerable speed. Fortunately, he didn't become jet propelled, and the wind caused by the speed of the conventionally powered car was sufficient to put out the fire. The damage was only of a minor nature, owing to some quick thought and action.

Trustee Convention Is Cancelled

Due to the heavy rains of last Friday the annual convention of the Vermilion School Division Trustees Assoc. had to be cancelled. A very interesting and diversified program had been arranged and it was with considerable regret that the decision was made to call it off but advice from country points was to the effect that side roads were simply impassable.

Dr. Denis Hanlan Closes Offices Here

Dr Denis P Hanlan, Chiropractor here for the past five and one half years, has closed his offices and moved to Edmonton. He opened an Edmonton office last fall with the intention of operating at both places, the city practice has grown so fast that he just cannot afford the time away from it.

Dr Hanlan is now located in the Inglewood Theatre building, owned by W. P. and Bill Pilkie at the corner of 118 avenue and 124 street.

While here Denis was very active in a large number of community enterprises including Board of Trade, Home and School, Legion, Anglican Men's Club, Rotary Club. Through the Standard he wishes to express his thanks for patronage while here and to invite one and all to visit him in his new offices in Edmonton anytime anyone is in the city.

Mrs. Hanlan and the children who are still residing here will make the move to Edmonton shortly after school closing.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Rendell left on Tuesday night via C.N.R. for the west coast where they will visit friends for the next few weeks. They plan on spending most of the time on Vancouver Island where they will be the guests of Mr. Les Wilkinson and family.

Shower for Mrs. Horton at Mannville

MANNVILLE.—Mrs. G. Horton, former Adele Matney, was honored on Saturday evening when friends gathered in the United Church Hall for a miscellaneous shower. After a short contest, in which groups composed songs about Adele to well known tunes, a beautifully decorated basket was brought in by Misses Connie Garhart and Doreen Bennett. Mrs. Doherty, on behalf of those present wished Adele the very best in her married life.

Mrs Horton received many lovely and useful gifts. She very appropriately thanked those at the shower as well as a number who sent gifts but were unable to attend.

Shower For Bride Elect

The Princess Anne W.I. entertained on the afternoon of June 20 at the Island Hill school at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ann Richardson whose marriage to Mr Ronald Inman of Islay will take place on July 6th.

Approximately thirty-five relatives and friends of the young couple were present and many beautiful and useful gifts were received.

Mrs Mabel McKay was in charge of the entertainment and Mrs W. Rorbeck of Vermilion assisted at the piano.

Mrs Fred West President of the Princess Anne W.I. presented the traditional Princess Anne cup and saucer and guest book to the bride-to-be and Miss Gladys Swayne of Riverscourse took charge of the registration.

The gifts were each opened with a wish for the giver — everything from a fur coat to a world [illegible]. The bride-elect was assisted by her mother Mrs. Geo Richardson, sister-in-law Mrs Ted Richardson and by Miss Janet Hall.

In a few appropriate words Ann thanked those present and extended an invitation to all to attend her wedding and to visit her in her new home.

Lunch was served by the ladies of the Princess Anne W.I.

NEWS from ISLAY

Tuesday, July 3, is the 4-H club rally in Wainwright for both Homemaking and Agricultural clubs. It begins at 10 a.m. in the I. O. O. F. hall. We notice that the Islay club is on the program, at least one member to the play the piano for "O Canada" and one to lead the group in the 4-H Pledge in the morning. Also parents and community people are invited to attend.

HAIL STORM LAST WEDNESDAY
Last Wednesday, June 20, Islay experienced possibly the worst hail storm in its history. Seemed to be a narrow strip and not so very long. The road one mile west went free, also the road 1½ mile east didn't get it. Rainfall too, was very heavy. South windows suffered, so did gardens and some grain was knocked flat. Jim Carey's field looks as black as when just seeded.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to express my appreciation and gratitude for the bouquets of flowers, gifts, lovely cards and get-well wishes that I received during my stay in the University hospital.
Amy Barlow.

The celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the United Church, Islay, is set for September 16 — Pioneers of the church please take note—welcome home.

Production of Cars, Trucks Skyrockets

TORONTO, June 21st—Almost three times as many new passenger cars and trucks have been produced by Canadian automobile manufacturers since the end of World War 11, as there were altogether on the nation's highways in 1945.

Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce reports that the industry has turned out 2,500,000 passenger cars and 1,080,000 trucks in the ten years 1946-1955. Output last year was 454,000 vehicles, as against only 172,000 produced in 1946, when civilian production was resumed. There were 1,200,000 cars and trucks licensed for use in Canada when the war ended.

Employment in automobile manufacturing plants has more than doubled, from 18,000 in 1946 to 38,000 in 1955, but wages and salaries paid to these employees had jumped from $44,000,000 to $150,000,000.

ICE HAT
There's a head cooler for use in hot weather that acts for hours. Consists of a hat of [illegible] plastic fabric with millions of tiny insulating sponge-like cells, The Financial Post reports. Hat is dipped in ice water, wrung out and worn. Cooling effect comes from moisture in the material evaporating slowly. Headpiece is crushproof and washable.

Marjorie Mix And John Curtis Pledge Marriage Vows

A lovely double ring ceremony was solemnized in the Alliance chapel, Vermilion, on Tuesday, June 12th at 2:30 p.m. when Marjorie Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mix of Vermilion and John Alton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Curtis of Dewberry exchanged vows. Rev. J. T. McNair officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor-length gown of lace over taffeta, trimmed with sequins, with lily point sleeves. Her finger-tip net veil was held in place by a coronet headpiece. She wore a rhinestone necklace, gift of the groom, and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Miss Isabel Mix, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, chose a ballerina-length gown of pale green net over taffeta, with matching bolero and headpiece. The bridesmaid, Miss Elaine Curtis, sister of the groom, wore a similar gown of pale yellow. They both carried bouquets of mixed flowers in white baskets made by Mrs. Curtis.

The groom was attended by his brother Mason Curtis and the bride's brother Ron Mix, while the ushers were George Jensen, cousin of the bride and Gordon Thiessen, brother-in-law of the bride.

The wedding music was supplied by Mrs Bennett Francisco, the bride's sister, and during the signing of the register she accompanied Mrs Gordon Thiessen who sang "Together With Jesus".

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the newly decorated church basement where the young couple and their parents welcomed over one hundred guests. For the occasion the bride's mother had chosen a pink tailored suit with navy accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered cake topped with wedding bells, set in white tulle.

Rev J. T. McNair proposed the toast to the bride. Ron Mix read several congratulatory telegrams from relatives and friends who were unable to attend. Several young friends of the couple assisted in the serving and Miss Lila Curtis presided at the guest book.

During the reception Mrs. Gordon Thiessen and Albert Mix sang solos and Rev. R. W. Greenway rendered both a vocal and instrumental solo.

After the reception Mr and Mrs. Curtis left for a short wedding trip. For travelling the bride chose a charcoal suit with accessories of pink and neutral color and wore a corsage of red American Beauty roses.

The young couple will spend the summer months in the Peace River district after which they plan to make their home in Vermilion.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Bennett Francisco, Flaxcombe, Sask.; Mr and Mrs. Gordon Thiessen, Kindersley, Sask.; Mrs Martin Mix, Edmonton, and Mr and Mrs R. W. Greenway, who are travelling evangelists.

FISHING NEAR CHILLIWACK
You don't have to be an expert to fish the Vedder River near Chilliwack. In fact the families who holiday in the Fraser Valley are to be forgiven if they use fishing as an excuse to enjoy the scenery of the Lower Mainland. British Columbians are becoming increasingly aware of their great natural heritage that makes for an ideal family vacation.

Expects Big Season Jasper Park Lodge

JASPER.—Scenic Jasper Park Lodge in the Canadian Rockies opened its 1956 season on Thursday as the first of 11 scheduled conventions got under way. About 350 members of the National Association of Master Plumbers and Heating Contractors of Canada attended the three-day event in Jasper's main lodge.

Principal speaker at the convention was the Hon. Raymond Reierson, minister of industries and labor for Alberta. He spoke on the province's booming economy and the resultant increase in construction work which, in turn, boosted the plumbing and heating business.

On viewing the first day's activities, W. B. Cornforth, manager of Jasper Park Lodge, predicted that from advance reservations 1956 would be a record tourist season for the CNR-operated lodge.

SCOUTING and GUIDING

DISTRICT COUNCIL TO BE FORMED

A District Council of the Boy Scouts Association is in the process of formation and will comprise the districts of Vermilion, Wainwright and Edgerton. The final boundaries are yet to be determined by the provincial body, to be known as "The Battle River District Council of the Boy Scouts Association", the president is Dr. Houck of Wainwright and Mrs. Molly Salmon of Wainwright is secretary. The Vermilion vice-president is Mr. C.T. Heckbert with Mr Fred Leveredge as the other Vermilion member. Mr. Gordon Ross of Vermilion is District Commissioner and Mr. Harold Harvey of Wainwright is Assistant District Commissioner. It is felt that a District Council will do much to further Scouting in the area.

A very enjoyable pot-luck supper was held in the Elks hall on June 19th by the Guides and Brownies and their mothers. Mrs. Edna Bottorff did an excellent job of looking after arrangements for the supper and conducting the short meeting which followed. The leaders gave their report for the year's work particularly asking for more leaders. If anyone is interested in this worthwhile work their services will be very much appreciated. Many thanks are extended to the Elks for the use of the hall and kitchen and to the fathers who turned out to serve so that all mothers could sit with their daughters. This was very much appreciated.

BROWNIES

The Brownies have finished a very successful year which was shown by the reports given by the leaders. Brown Owl Mrs. Grace Stewart and Mrs. Peggy Cosh at the pot-luck supper. They ended the year with 67 girls. There were a number of badges won during the year. 17 Golden Hands, 10 Needleworkers, 12 Thrift, 2 Writers, 7 House Orderly, 20 Skaters, 6 Minstrels, 12 Artists, 5 Pathfinders, 6 Observers, 4 Cyclists, 1 Collectors and 1 Knitters. This has not only kept the girls busy but also the examiners, who have given their time so generously. Congratulations are extended to Betty-Mae Chalmers whose knitting won third prize in Calgary, where it was exhibited in the Handicraft competition for the Alberta Brownies. The girls wound up the year last Saturday, when they were hoping to hold a rally with Wainwright and Edgerton down at the lake, but due to the rain Wainwright and Edgerton had to cancel so the leaders took the Brownies to the show then went back to St. Saviour's Parish hall for weiners and buns. It was not possible to take the girls to Elk Island this year due to transportation difficulties, instead they hope to donate a chrome kindergarden set and books to the children's ward in the new hospital.

GUIDES

The Guides have found Vermilion Lake a most enjoyable spot to hike to and they have made good use of it this past few months when they have held numerous hikes down there and at the same time were earning their badges. The girls have earned badges in First Aid, Child Nursing, Observers and Horsewoman's. It is hoped that in the Fall those Brownies that are 11 years of age will go up to guides as an increased number will help immensely in carrying out the different projects. Two of the guides are continuing their tests through the summer to obtain first class stars. It has not been possible to arrange for a camp for the [illegible] this year although Sharon Kay will be spending some time at a Guide camp sponsored by the Salvation Army.

CUBS

On Saturday, June 9, a Cub rally was held at Wainwright with packs from Wainwright, Camp Wainwright, Edgerton and Vermilion in attendance, some 105 boys in all. Twenty six cubs accompanied by Scouters Edna Bottorff and Mitch Taylor, also Mrs. Hardy Ford, travelled to Wainwright by bus. A wonderful afternoon's cubbing was enjoyed by the boys and their leaders. A Jungle Dance competition was held, the prize being an inscribed plaque, to be put up for annual competition. Wainwright were the winners with 40 points followed closely by Vermilion with 38 points. Knot relays, signalling and observer badge tests followed and at the end the boys built their camp fires and ate their supper. A really worth while afternoon and it is hoped that this will become an annual affair with next year's rally at Vermilion.

On the week-end of June 3rd a cubmaster's training course was held at Wainwright with some 20 Scouters and interested parties in attendance. The course was conducted by three Scouters from Edmonton: Akela, Baloo, Bagheera, with the the 'students' being the cubs. The course was most informative and a host of ideas for running their own packs were picked up by those taking the course. Scouter Mitch Taylor attended from Vermilion, and there were representatives from Minburn, Edgerton, Czar, Wainwright and Camp Wainwright.

BOY SCOUTS

At their last meeting on June 11th the First Vermilion Scout Troup decided to discontinue regular meetings for the balance of June in order to concentrate on school work for the final exams. It was further decided that Friday meeting would continue throughout the holiday months of July and August with as many weekend hikes as the weather would permit. The First Vermilion Troop now numbers 23 boys divided into three patrols as follows: The Hawks under Patrol Leader Bob Ackerman, The Rams under Patrol Leader Jack Marfleet and the Nighthawks under Patrol Leader Bob Pare. Points were awarded each week for Deportment, Dress, Projects, Attendance and for passing tests. The Nighthawks were high scorers last month and as a reward for their efforts were taken on an overnight fishing trip to Long Lake. This trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Bob Pare landed a 5½ lb pike and the other boys ran up a total of 40 assorted pike, pickerel and perch. These were all transported home for future consumption and the Scoutmaster's vehicle still smells like a fish wagon. Future plans for similar camping trips to Lake Whitney, the Battle River, Elk Island Park and possibly a trip to Edmonton to tour the Journal Bldg., Parliament Bldg. and other places of interest. Scout and Cub activities in Vermilion are at present quite limited due to a decided lack of adult help. Anyone interested in assisting with Scout or Cub work should contact either R. G. Ross at 138, M. C. Hunter at 589 or M. Taylor at 583 or 46.

SCOUT ASSOCIATION

There will be a general meeting of the Scout Association in the Scout Hall on Wednesday, July 4, at 8:00 P.M. One of the main items for discussion will be the building programme. All those interested are urgently requested to attend.

Funeral Services For Islay Old Timer

George Coomb who had lived in the Islay district for 46 years, passed away at his farm home on June 4th, at the age of 82 years. He had held rank as a Publication Sergeant in the Salvation Army, and was responsible for the distribution of hundreds of copies of the "War Cry" each year for the Vermilion Salvation Army.

The late Mr Coombs was predeceased by his wife only a year and five months ago. Left to mourn his loss are two brothers, Charlie and Will, both of Ontario; five nieces, Helen Fletcher of Red Deer, Nellie Pierson of Jasper Place, Clara Butchart of Chilliwack B. C., and Esther and Barbara Gelby of Islay.

The funeral services took place in the Salvation Army Hall under the direction of Lieut. and Mrs King on Wednesday, June 6th, at 2:00 p.m. Sergeant Major Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Kay Dew sang "Beyond the Sunset". U.I.C. Making Count Of Insured Persons

OTTAWA. For the first time since the end of the Second World War the Unemployment Insurance Commission is making an actual count of the number of insured persons in Canada, Chief Commissioner J. G. Bisson announced today.

Forms have gone out to more than one [illegible] of a [illegible] employers, and when the returns are in it is expected that almost 4,000,000 employees will be listed on the Commission's Master Index of insured persons. The survey is being taken in conjunction with the annual renewal of unemployment insurance books to cause as little disruption as possible to employers' operations.

The Master Index which was brought up to date annually during the war years, has only been checked by a 10 per cent sampling since 1946. The index now lists some 6,000,000 persons, many of whom are no longer in insured employment. Deaths, marriages, withdrawal from the labour market, and emigrations are among the reasons why the present index needs to be updated.

Annual Constituency Conference Held At Vermilion By W.I.

The Annual Conference of the Vermilion Institute was held at the V. S. A. on Saturday June 4th with Mrs. H. L. Reed in the chair. Despite the bad roads and weather conditions there was an excellent attendance, and much business and general pastry was discussed and established.

A warm welcome to the V. S. A. was given by Mr. N. N. Bentley, Principal, who, in his address, stated that the W. I. had held Conference at the V. S. A. for many years, and were always very welcome guests.

The address of welcome to the Conference was given by Mrs. Chris Clark, Pres. of the Vermilion Branch of the W. I., and was replied to by Mrs. Willis of Clearwater.

The Branch reports and Standing Committee reports were read by the official delegates and convenors, and revealed that a great deal of work had been accomplished during the year.

Mrs. R. Reed, in her report as Constituency Convenor, told of increased membership, branch visits, outstanding activities of each branch, and of new activities started during her year in office. She concluded by expressing her resignation, and thanking the W. I. members for having given her the opportunity of acting as their Social Convenor for the year, assuring them that she had received from her experiences and contacts much more than she was able to give them. A satisfactory financial report was presented by Mrs. Reed, and District and Constituency dues were paid by the members of 39 units per member and $5.00 per branch.

A vote of thanks was passed from this Constituency to Mrs. Berry, Pres. of the A. C. W. W., for the splendid address given to the women of this part of Alberta, under the auspices of the F. W. U. A. and the W. I.

Mrs. J. Bleiesh, District Director, in her talk paid tribute to Mrs. Reed for the work done during her term as Constituency Convenor, and expressed regret that she found it necessary to resign from that office. She gave a very interesting talk on the aims and objectives of the W. I.—the duties of the various offices in the branches, as well as the outline of the work of the Council and Directors. She spoke of the Ceylon Village project, and of the A. C. W. W. Fund, reminding the members that these had been voted on, and accepted at the Convention in June 1965. She urged the members to think carefully before accepting projects, and once accepted, give them and all W. I. obligations their first consideration.

Miss Marian Ingle, Home Economist from Vegreville, and Miss Hooper from Camrose judged the Handicraft, and awards were made as follows: Whiteside Bros. won the cup—Kleenex, 30 points—Five Point, 29 points—Saultaux and Hazeldine (tied) 28 points—Vermilion, 27 points—Princess Anne, 23 points—Clearwater, 19 points—Creighton, 16 points. Thrill Problem 1st Prize, Mrs. George Mead, Princess Anne 2nd Prize, Mrs. F. D. McLean, Hazeldine. 3rd Prize, Mrs. de Jong, Princess Anne.

Mr. Francis O'Hara, member of the Advisory Board on Objectionable Publications, was guest speaker. He spoke on the detrimental effect of comic book reading on our children and suggested ways in which children might be guided to better reading. He disclosed the fact that 125 million dollars per year are spent on comic books and similar reading in the U. S. A., and over three million in Alberta alone; more than the amount spent on school text books. The average number of comic books read, per child per month, is 14.

The following officers were elected for the next two years: Constituency Convenor, Mrs. Percy Sloan, Ramsay Branch; Assembly Delegate, Mrs. Astley, Vermilion; Social Services Convenor—Mrs. James Wallington of Wildmere Branch, Vermilion. There was a total attendance at the Conference of 89.

A delicious dinner was served in the Legion Hall by the Alliance of W. A., and the afternoon tea was served by the Wildmere W. I. Entertainment was provided by the Wildmere Girls' Club, who presented an accordion solo by Doreen Martin, a duet by Betty and Marie Smith and two numbers by the group.

Mrs. Mead was presented with a beautiful vase from all the branches in the Constituency in token of their appreciation of her efforts as Constituency Convenor. The occasion was Mrs. W. Bell of Vermilion and Mrs. John Wilson of Wildmere Conference Secretary. Mrs. Thomas Henderson of the Ramsay Branch presented the Courtesy Committee Report.

The Conference closed with The Queen.

APPRECIATION TO THE STANDARD

I should like at this time to express my thanks to the Vermilion Standard for the space allowed me every month during this past year in order that I might bring my report and Newsletter to all members of the W. I. in my Constituency

Vera M. Mead.

CLAYSMORE CLIPPINGS

Mr and Mrs. Neal MacLean family of Vermilion were visiting at the J. Herne home Sunday evening.

The annual picnic planned for Sunday afternoon at the school had to be postponed, owing to rain.

Oliver Willis and son Bob spent several days last week in Calgary returning home this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Raymond of Bear Ridge Alta., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Horne last week.

Mr and Mrs. T. Nelson and family and Glen Nelson, all of Vermilion, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Alstad.

Good general rains over the week-end certainly have helped gardens, lands, crops and gardens, and every one is wearing a great big smile these days.

Some report their gardens are showing where there is some evidence of cut-worm damage during the dry spell, but now the seeds plant by Mother Nature are coming up. And into plants are often better than the early planted.

Mr and Mrs. H. Williamson, travelling by bus left Vermilion for the East on Wednesday, June 20. They will visit relatives at Wiarton, Whitefish Falls, Manitoulin Island and Barrie, Ontario

THE HERITAGE WE MOURN

The flame that consumed a hundred miles
Of forest, ripe and lush,
Was once a tiny match head
Pitched into sun-dried brush.
Two boys that charred two thousand trees
To the point of 'no return',
Was once a camper's luncheon fire
That was left alone to burn.
The tongues of fire that licked the fire
Of a logging town that day,
Was once a tourist's cigarette
Carelessly cast away.
And this is how they started,
These flames so lofty born,
So this is how they came and killed
The heritage we mourn.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather — A grand rain fell on June 16th, our first good general rain. A slight frost occurred on the morning of June 14. Just touching the outer leaves in some places, and the signs in others.

The evening of June 20th we experienced a terrific storm with high winds, what we hope is the last in from the south-east, going north-west and we were on the edge of it. Extensive damage was done on a strip south of the school, taking roofing, gardens and breaking window panes.

W. A. MEETING

All members were present at the Allandale W.A. June 14 in the afternoon. We were grateful to Mrs. Thelma Armstrong for having the meeting. All were pleased to have the district visitor present. Some discussion took place on catering for the W.I. convention Saturday, June 16. For all who have been wondering about our supper and bazaar the date was set for July 11th on the Jack Cross farm at the Baldock home. July meeting will be at the Wm. Cross home one week earlier, July 5. Mrs. Thrasher and Mrs. Baldock on the lunch committee.

Aunt Stella Mayers returned to the district on June 15th and spent the night with sister Iress Armstrong and then went on to the farm next day where she will be convalescing from a severe attack of the flu. We are glad to report she is feeling much better.

Mr. Edwards came home from the hospital at noon on the 14th for his last gasp at his home where he was a devoted lover of animals and of farm life. The next day he was contented to return to the hospital and on the day night he peacefully passed away. Mr. Edwards will be sorely missed in the district and wherever he was known. He was widely known for his generosity to others in need. To the family our deepest sympathy. Funeral familiar yesterday, O sad and strange as night . . . yet who could call the glad soul back to rouse the resting clay."

Mr McBride was taken to the hospital at noon on Saturday June 18th and was in the same ward as Mr. Edwards. He had been at home with his wife Johnson family all winter Dad McBride's health is much the same

The week end of the 9th Frank Deford accumulated his son back seat. Frank Jr. had been west on Air Force duties

The roads were passable but not at all good in places on the 16th, for the W.I. convention held in Vermilion. Allandale W.A. catered for the noon banquet held in the Legion hall. Four members were able to get in; we are grateful to the men folk our staunch stand-by when we are in need of drivers. That day our apologies for not having you all for dinner rushing hinders on thinking abilities hope it doesn't happen again. To the ladies who kindly helped, Aunt Mamie Hogg, boam, Mrs Laird, Mrs. David and Mrs. Don Wilson, our thanks to you. It was appreciated so much. Also thanks to the caretaker of the hall and Mrs. W. Thompson.

June 17th no church services were held on account of the muddy roads, same on June 26th as we had a cloudy rain all day.

The E. Labossenne and Sons hoeing outfit has been in the district for a few weeks. They drilled a 57-foot well on the Ossness farm which so far is very successful; and drilled another well on Timmy Martin's going 89 feet with eight feet of water.

Mr. John Arnold was taken to the Vermilion hospital on June 19 for a check-up and X-rays. He was to come home on the 24th and then go in for treatments on his arm twice a week. His arm was injured some time ago.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Omesse of Kindersley, Sask. on the birth of a son, Daniel Joseph, June 17th. A brother for his five sisters.

Word was recently received that Howard Pratt of Dodds, Alta., was taken to the Tofield hospital three days after his wife's funeral with a heart attack caused from shock. For the first few days his case appeared hopeless but we are glad to report he is now recovering. Our best wishes forward for a speedy recovery.

On the evening of June 19 Art Roberge was taken to the Lloydminster hospital with pneumonia. He is now getting along well and will be shortly released.

Mrs. Ed Arnold spent day for the Nelson-Lee wedding. The bride looked charming and the bridal group was a lovely one. Also visited to you Eric and Jean, and may you enjoy happiness and good health through the years down the road of wedded life.

June anniversary congratulations to Mr and Mrs Don Wilson, June 20th, 10 years married. Mr. and Mrs. Idelore Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Nelson, June 14, 23 years; Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Lee, June 22, 24 years; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson, June 21, 8 years.

Mr and Mrs Johnny Nelson, daughter Alva and Mrs Stella Mayers attended the Wainwright Stampede on Saturday Lorna and Tommy going for the evening Tony reported a record crowd and a fine performance

Power was cut off on the evening of the 22nd for over five hours but haven't heard any calls. It was off for an hour the evening of the storm. Phone lines haven't been good since the storm and some phones are cut off completely.

Mrs Gerry Kluck (Violet Edwards) of Provost spent a few days at the McPhee home last week.

Jimmy Martin Jr and family attended the Wainwright Stampede on Monday.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

BE NOT DECEIVED!

Bill Sal and I were on a tour of local beaches over the week-end, the other members of the family having elected to stay home in the backyard and keep cool. We had a spanking new station wagon with powerpride transmission, and pop was bursting to try it out on the open road.

Pop was feeling pretty proud tootling along in a string of other shiny new cars, with proud expectations driving them. Pretty prosperous countryside, Manitoba is, on a week-end, with fine-looking cars and substantial farms.

So pop was in an expansive mood. Then we passed a highway sign and he heard his son, Bill read it aloud. It had been placed there by some religious group, and it read: "BE NOT DECEIVED — GOD IS NOT MOCKED!"

Sal asked: "What does it mean, Dad . . . God is not mocked?"

"Don't be a dunce," Bill told her. "It means He isn't fooled. He knows what goes on."

"What if He does?" Sal asked. "And I'm not a dunce!" She grinned at me. "Am I a dunce Dad?"

Just then a lush rabbit broke out from a clump of wolf willow and their attention was diverted. So I never did have to get around to explaining the sign's meaning.

But all day, and ever since I've been wondering just what a really smart father would have been able to do with the opportunity. I was still able to enjoy the station wagon probably more than before I was still fun to play on the sand at Cold Lake, and get beaten in a race by both Bill and Sal in the water. And to drive on up to Grand Beach for hot dogs and soft drinks, and swims at still another Manitoba lake on the way home that evening.

I was no longer deprived. I didn't own the sand or the lakes or even the station wagon. But I'm sure I know how the power transmission worked! All those things the fun and the joy of a wonderful Western week-end were mine only in trust. The laughter and good humor of my youngsters, the zest of the family running to meet us when we got home that night, the whole assorted splendour of having a home and raising a family in a land where even a dunmouse like me can somehow day own his own car with all of the trimmings. Thank God for it! But he not deceived! He is not mocked.

He knows that all the things we really cherish come to us only in trust FROM HIM. He still rules the world! We should be reminded of it more often

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lees
Women's Travel Authority

Experts on the subject must have certain necessary ingredients for a successful vacation: curiosity, a sense of humor, patience and a happy

In other words if you live at a quiet pace amid green fields, then the city's excitement and clamor will refresh and stimulate you. But if you live surrounded by concrete towers and honking horns, then only the open spaces will relieve your tensions.

Some people even take in a different job during their two-week needs. An accountant, I know, for instance becomes a temporary member of a small town's fire department to have training after the real and phony alarms, and polishing brass or hosing down the firehouse floor are two chores he doesn't get all year.

Then there's the farm family. I know that advertising every year to change homes with a city family for a few weeks. Both parties benefits by the change: sacrifices are comfort and gets place value from the arrangement by planning some sightseeing activities to and from their destination.

Province - Wide Conference Of School Principals

Mr. Clark Richardson, Principal of the Kitscoty School, is one of 86 school principals meeting at Concordia College in Edmonton for three weeks beginning July 9 to study problems of educational leadership in local communities. His membership in this special Leadership Course for School Principals being conducted as a part of the University of Alberta Summer Session is sponsored by the Vermilion Division School Board.

The course is a cooperative venture of the Alberta School Trustees Association, the Alberta Teachers' Association, The Alberta School Inspectors Association, the Alberta Department of Education and the Faculty of Education, University of Alberta. A grant from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation through the Canadian Education Association has been received to help finance the project.

Sixty three city, county, divisional and independent Alberta school systems will be represented. Representatives from the British Columbia Teachers Federation, the Saskatchewan Teachers Federation, and the Manitoba Teachers' Society will be in attendance.

Within the overall aim of working toward better education for children in the schools the course is intended to serve four purposes: (1) to provide an opportunity for further exploration of problems in educational administration and supervision, (2) to provide an opportunity for individual members to form definite plans for later local action, (3) to provide members with an opportunity to gain further understanding of philosophies and techniques of leadership and (4) to stimulate the intercommunication of educational ideas and practices between various schools and administrative areas.

Much of each day during the course will be devoted to work in groups set up on the basis of problems as outlined by members based on their experiences in their own schools. These groups will focus their attention on varying phases of instructional leadership, appraisal, curriculum adjustment, research, inservice education of teachers, and supervision.

Each group will have as a consultant a leading educator specializing in the field being studied by the group. Serving in this capacity will be M. J. V. Downey, Director of Research and Personnel for the Edmonton Public Schools; M. O. Edwards, Assistant Director of Curriculum with the Alberta Department of Education; S. W. Hooper, Superintendent of Schools at Peace River; Otto Manning, Superintendent of Schools at Killam; [illegible] M. Purvis, Superintendent of the [illegible] School Division; R. J. Ross, Inspector of High Schools for the Red Deer area; John Almond, Assistant Superintendent, Highline Public Schools, Seattle; and G. J. [illegible], Director, CPA Kellogg Project in Educational Leadership, Toronto.

W. I. CONFERENCE

On Saturday the Vermilion-Alexandra W. I. conference was held at the Agricultural college in Vermilion with a nice turnout despite muddy roads. We are sorry to report that some were unable to get there because of the mud. Mrs. Mead, our convener, had a well-planned day, ad most of it was carried out. Mr. O'Hara came down from Edmonton and gave a very interesting talk on Comic books which was very enlightening as many of us had never seen some of those he had. We were all very sorry that Mrs. Mead could not carry on as convener as she is going to teach school and felt she could not do both. Mrs. Percy Sloan is our new convener so all good luck to you Mrs. Sloan. We cannot close without saying how well our W. I. Girls Club entertained the ladies in the afternoon. Did you notice ladies there were four sisters in the group, Janet, Maureen, Kathleen and Wendy Cruthers. This doesn't happen very often in Girls' clubs. We are very appreciative and grateful to the Allandale W.A. for the lovely home cooked dinner they served us in the Legion hall. Our W. I. group heartily thank Mr. Bentley for the use of the college kitchen in serving afternoon tea to the ladies. Wildmere W.I. got the cup this year for Handicraft. We have tried now for a long while to win it and finally succeeded. We all enjoyed the talk of our Director Mrs. Belliah on W.I. work.

ATTEND BAZAAR

Quite a number from Wildmere and Baswood attended Auburndale W.A. bazaar at the community centre Monday evening June 18th. A good crowd attended. The ladies served a tasty supper and had a good bazaar and cooking sale. Some lively ball games were enjoyed too as well as races and enjoyable visits were had with old friends one does not see very often.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carlson and baby daughter Barbara of Seattle have been here visiting relatives and friends. Albert spent a lot of his childhood in Wildmere before the family moved to the States. Everyone was pleased to see him. His mother is also visiting here at present. We hope to see you Clara.

Most modern truck V8's ...and the pounds prove it!

Pound for pound, the most powerful truck V8's today are Chevrolets. That's one way you can tell they're the most modern V8's going!

Any engineer will tell you that horsepower-per-pound is a good indication of efficient engine design. And Chevrolet's modern short-stroke V8 truck engines do more work for their weight than any other V8 in any truck today.

That means they carry around fewer pounds for the power they develop. (They weigh up to 200 pounds less than other comparable engines!) It means, too, that less of the maximum truck G.V.W. consists of engine weight – and more is devoted to payload. So, you not only can haul bigger loads – you have more usable power to move them!

Stop by and let us show you how Chevrolet's compact, super-efficient truck V8's can save hours and dollars on your job.

Weigh the facts... and you'll choose today's most modern trucks

Wasted weight is engineered out of Chevrolet truck V8's!
The ultra short-stroke design of Chevrolet's truck V8's makes possible a rugged yet compact cylinder block. Modern multiple-purpose components save weight [illegible]

More power per pound means more power for your payload!
Since less power is used up in moving engine weight, a bigger proportion is available for moving your payload. You get hour-saving performance on the job. And modern V8 power saves dollars, too!

There's a modern V8 for every Chevrolet Task-Force truck!
There's a powerful, deep-breathing V8 – either standard or optional at extra cost – in every Chevrolet truck model. Horsepower ranges as high as 195 for fast, efficient high-tonnage hauling.

Provincial Chamber Organizes Tour For Farmers

Close to 100 Alberta farmers and their wives and others interested in agriculture are expected to take part in an Alberta Farmers' Tour to Ontario during August according to an announcement from the office of the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture. The tour is being sponsored by the Associated Chambers as a return visit following the Ontario Farmers' Goodwill Tour to Alberta last year. Endorsed by Alberta's agricultural leaders the tours sponsorship by the Associated Chambers is undertaken in the belief that it will prove to be of interest and value to Alberta agriculturists and as well, a worth while east-west goodwill exchange. Participation in the tour is open to any interested parties.

The two-week tour will take the Alberta group to Winnipeg, the Lakehead, Toronto, Cornwall, Montreal, Ottawa, Brampton, Niagara Falls, Brantford, Guelph, St. Thomas, Simcoe, London, Chatham, Leamington, Windsor and other centres. Tour highlights will include the St. Lawrence Seaway Development, the Holland Marshes, the Lakehead terminal elevators, the tobacco, vegetable and horticulture areas of southwestern Ontario, the Parliament Buildings and the Dominion Experimental Farm at Ottawa, the Niagara Parks, the Ontario Agricultural College. Bus tours of the major stop-over points and their districts also will be included.

The tour leaves Edmonton by rail Thursday August 9, and returns August 24. Some of the party will take the cruise from Detroit to Duluth as part of the return trip, others will complete the round trip by rail. Arrangements are being made to permit some Albertans to join the tour for the eastward portion only, and others to go east independently and return with the tour party.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Allison Truesler on their recent marriage which took place in Lloydminster, June 21. They will take up residence on Mr. Truesler's farm south of town.

Did you say it could not rain in Alberta? Four inches of rain in a week would seem to disprove that idea. It is very welcome as the crops were turning yellow in places.

Miss Rose Bloxham, nurse in training at the University hospital, is spending her vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Bloxham.

65-piece North Battleford Band To Stop Here on Way to Calgary

Prize-Winning Band To Play At Vermilion Lake Park Sunday

Rated as the best in the Province of Saskatchewan, the North Battleford 65-piece band will play at a Sunday afternoon concert in the new band shell at the Vermilion Park this Sunday, July 8th. The band is on the way to Calgary where they play in the Stampede parade. Last year they were awarded first prize for their exhibition on that occasion. This band was selected from the entire province to be filmed in connection with the Saskatchewan Jubilee. They were also the subject of articles in the Family Herald, and were featured in the National Kinsmen magazine. Altogether the people of Vermilion and district are in for a rare treat on Sunday.

The program will start at 2:30 as the members have to be in Calgary that night. Besides the musical selections, the band gives a demonstration of precision marching routine which takes some 20 to 30 minutes during which not one single word is spoken. This display will be given on the sandy beach.

Another achievement of these bandsmen was the attainment of the highest mark ever awarded in the Northern Saskatchewan musical festival, 89%. The number played on this occasion was the Pomona Overture, rendered as perfectly as possible by 65 musicians.

In brief, the band will commence their program here on Sunday, July 8th at 2:30 p.m. in the band shell at the Vermilion Park. Be on hand early; everyone is in for a rare treat in entertainment.

The program was arranged by the Rotary Club, which appreciates very much the kindness and co-operation of the band on this occasion.

Kinsmen Wading Pool Open Afternoons

The Kinsmen's Wading Pool for children is in operation, and any and all pre-school children are welcome to come and enjoy it.

The supervisor this year is Donna Cooper who has just returned from Red Deer where she took a course in playground supervision. The lawn has been completely re-seeded this spring, and is now in good condition.

Playground equipment and toys are at the pool for the kiddies to use and the pool is open under supervision from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. every day except Sunday.

Bring your kiddies down to the Kinsmen's Wading Pool while you go shopping or out for tea. You may be assured that they will have a good time and be safe under the very best supervision.

To maintain their pool, equipment and the supervision, the Kinsmen need your support. Remember these benefits when the Kinsmen hold their Car Raffle at the fair. This is your chance to show your appreciation. And perhaps you will be the lucky one to win that new 1956 two-tone Fordor Ford that will be drawn for on Saturday night after the final grandstand performance.

Don't forget the Car Raffle and help the Kinsmen to help the kiddies.

Derwent Ball Tourney July 11th and 12th

12:30 — Holden vs. Heinsberg;
3:00 p.m. — Vermilion vs. Grand Centre;
5:30 p.m. — Wainwright vs. St. Paul.

The winners of the above will meet at 12 noon and 3 p.m. Thursday, with the grand final game scheduled for 6 o'clock sharp.

There are many other attractions as well as the baseball, including foot races, and a big dance both nights.

The program is an ambitious one but the sports-minded and active town of Derwent is equal to carrying it out in a big way.

Edmonton Irish Society and Police Teams Enter

Great Tug-of-War Teams Will Be Feature of The Highland Games

What shapes up as a most interesting day of unique and novel entertainment is scheduled for Wednesday of next week, July 11th, when the St. Andrew's Highland Games take place. The games this year are sponsored by "A" Coy and are being held on the very fine facilities at the Fair grounds.

DANCERS AND PIPERS

Dancers and pipers have entered the competitions from all four western provinces, coming all the way from Vancouver to Winnipeg, with Regina, Edmonton and Calgary well represented. Never before has such a galaxy of talent ever been gathered in one town with the possible exception of the chief cities.

TUG-OF-WAR TEAMS

To further highlight the entertainment being provided, Edmonton is sending down the best it has in the way of tug-of-war teams—the Irish Society and the Police. These foxy but well-muscled competitors have battled each other already this year with the Irish being on the winning end to date.

The Highland Games make a great program for the whole family and should attract from a very wide area.

Dr. H. J. Clarke Retires From Dental Practise

Harold J. Clarke, dentist here since December 1919, has retired from active practise and he and Mrs. Clarke will spend the next two months visiting their two sons, Don and Bob, in Eastern Canada.

Dr and Mrs. Clarke came here in 1919 and the doctor commenced practising in company with Dr. W. H. Scott in December of that year. He has been in Vermilion ever since and many of the people in town have never had anyone but the genial "Doc" minister to their [illegible].

Even though in a demanding practise Dr. Clarke has taken time to keep right in touch with town activities. He has played as hard as he worked and has been an ardent curler, golfer, tennis player and even taken time out to sit on the town council for a few terms.

Mrs. Clarke over the years has been one of the most active ladies in the town, taking part in sports, Legion W.A. and Eastern Star, amateur theatrical directing, and just about any worthwhile community endeavor a person could think to [illegible].

The community owes a great debt to Harold Clarke for the steady devotion to his dental practise, and to Mrs. Clarke for her unselfish work with so many community [illegible].

Dr and Mrs. Clarke plan to return to Vermilion after their two months in Eastern Canada, and it is everybody's hope that they will continue to reside right here in town.

Rotarians Present $150.00 To Scout Building Fund

The Vermilion Rotary club presented $150 cash to the local Boy Scouts Association as a donation to the Scouts Building fund. The actual presentation was made at the Rotary Club dinner on Friday last by Mitchell Taylor who is in charge of the Youth committee.

Receiving the donation was Gordon Ross, chairman of the local Boy Scouts Association. Mr. Ross explained that the money would be used to help build an extension to the Scout hall. In the extension would be washroom facilities which are now lacking entirely. Mr Ross said that the Scout hall was being used more and more and the addition was absolutely necessary. The project would cost about [illegible] and as $900 was already on hand an immediate start would be made on the building.

The speaker noted that the youth organizations in connection with Scouts and Guides, Brownies and Cubs continued to grow in number. Scouts had increased by 20,000 in 1955 and now numbered over 200,000 boys, by far the largest youth organization in the world. Three new Scout troops have been recently formed in this immediate area, at Buffalo Coulee, Minburn and the Army camp at Wainwright.

NEW ROTARIAN MEMBER

A new member Martin Shalka, classification "Hotels", was given the charge, and welcomed into the fellowship of Rotary.

NEW EXECUTIVE

As this was the last meeting before the new executive takes over President Reg Mitchell reviewed the [illegible].

For this coming year the fate of the club is in the hands of Reg Mitchell, Tom McPherson, Mitch Taylor, Jack Kneale, Jim Robson and Gerald Stephens.

A hearty vote of appreciation to the retiring executive for an active and interesting inaugural year was passed unanimously.

SUNDAY PROGRAMS

The Rotary club from now on is in charge of the Sunday afternoon programs at the park and for July 8th a committee of Ashley Cooper, Ross Bosko, Newcombe Bentley and Jim Smith have ... the prize-winning band from North Battleford to play. The concert starts at the park bandshell at 2:30 p.m.

Vermilion Fair July 26th, 27th And 28th — Gala Event Planned

Vermilion's Fifty-first Fair will have an unusual appeal to patrons this year when it opens to the public on July 26th and runs for three gala days and nights. The grandstand attractions have been carefully selected to appeal to all, with plenty of good clean comedy interspersed with feats of daring and ability. The well known Jimmie Sullivan will be back with his World's Finest Shows and the public are assured of good clean midway fun.

Vermilion Fair will stage the only regional Shorthorn Show in Alberta in 1956 and as this section will be province-wide in scope it is expected that the finest Shorthorns in the West will be on hand to delight the lovers of outstanding cattle.

The new and novel Cutting Horse Contests will also appeal to horse lovers and already numerous enquiries are being received as to when the contests will be staged. There appears to be wide interest in this feature which up to the present has been confined to the cities of Edmonton and Calgary and the Association is co-operating to make the Vermilion contests extra fine so that patrons of the Fair will have an opportunity of seeing the contests at their best.

Numerous displays and exhibits are to be on show in the Display Building and the machinery agencies are to stage a wonderful show of all that is new in farm machinery.

Light horses will be prominent and all classes appear to be filling well; the famous six-horse teams of the Bryden and Burns' stables will be on hand to please the lovers of good horses and altogether the Vermilion Fair this year will top anything previously shown in the area.

Despite rising costs of practically everything that goes to make up a first class Fair the Directors have determined to again provide advance tickets at 5 for $1.00, making the Vermilion show the most economical in the entire country. With identically the same show as at Prince Albert, Yorkton and other cities on the B circuit, it is estimated that costs of family admissions to Vermilion are just half that of any other major fair centre. The number of advance tickets is to be limited and those desiring to attend should secure them early.

Buffalo Coulee Families Honored

A capacity crowd filled the Buffalo Coulee gym on Wednesday, June 27th, to honor two families, the Loves and the Harles, who are leaving the community to live in Vermilion.

The party was divided into six groups and a most enjoyable competitive program carried out. This was followed by a comedy skit, "The Itchy Tramp" performed by the ladies of the Willowby group W. A. It brought rounds of applause and laughter, and it is hoped to see these ladies in future productions.

Henning Haverslew called Dave Love and his family, Shirley, Lanny and Brian, to the platform and presented them with a beautiful trilite lamp on behalf of their many friends in the community. Mrs. Rose Harle and her daughters, Connie and Norma, were presented with a coffee table and table lamp by Alf Green speaking for their host of friends in the district. Both Henning and Alf, in well chosen words expressed the sentiments of all who would regret the loss of two families that had been so active in every community, church and sport activity, and they voiced the good wishes of people of the district. Both Dave and Rose thanked their friends and said that they would not feel too far away in Vermilion, but plan to attend many of the district functions. Jerry Harle, who is working at Grande Prairie, was not able to be present.

Lunch brought a delightful evening to a close. It was nice not to have to say "good-bye", but "we'll be seeing you."

FIX UP OR GIVE UP—

The unkempt condition which bespeaks louder than words that no [illegible] is actively interested in it, of the children's playground [illegible] west of the Legion hall, detracts from the appearance of the town, also from the neat surroundings of the Kinsmen playground and wading pool immediately to the west. Furthermore in its present condition with equipment lying broken [illegible] of repair the playground is no longer of any use.

This playground was at one time the pride, joy and care of several organizations within the town who were jointly concerned in managing and equipping it. Now expensive recreation equipment has been neglected and broken, grass and weeds have taken over so that in its present state it is of no use to anyone. At one time too this playground was of considerable value to country children who accompanied their parents to town and while mother and father shopped, played on the swings, teeters, the ocean wave, in the sand boxes or just rested on the benches under the shade trees.

On travelling through towns and cities many playgrounds have been noticed all well kept and utilized [illegible]. Without exception a large sign over the gate proclaimed that this was a playground sponsored by some service organization and the club responsible saw to it that it served very adequately the purpose for which it was intended.

A grand opportunity exists for a service club to take over and to properly maintain the area and equipment in question. By so doing they would meet a need within the town and fulfil one of the purposes of the organization and thus justify its existence.

IT HAS WORKED WELL

The Canadian constitution, writes J. B. McGeachy in a special [illegible] in The Financial Post dealing with the Nation's birthday, has been comfortable like few others. But so has the U.S. constitution. Yet our American friends not only talk about it all the time but revere it like a sacred text. It would be too much to ask Canadians to revere the BNA Act but once a year on July 1 [illegible] way, they might give it an affectionate thought.

Under its aegis, the nation has extended from Newfoundland to the Yukon. (Unfortunately we missed Alaska, too late to put in a bid before Secretary Seward bought it from the Russians for $7 million in 1867). However, it's worth noting that the BNA Act digested the Canadian West and later Newfoundland, with no strain.

In coping with malcontents, Indians and others, who objected to the westward sweep of the empire, Canada had far less trouble (only the two Riel rebellions of 1870 and 1885) than the U.S. But then the U.S. had far more malcontents to contend with. One obstacle they didn't have to bestride was the Canadian wilderness (as it then seemed to be) north of Superior. Getting over that hump was one of the greatest feats of imagination and courage in recorded time.

What have these achievements to do with the constitution? Only this: that if it had been a badly drawn constitution, not flexible enough or not providing adequate power at the centre, this job of nation building could not have been done, or not without scrapping the BNA Act and trying something different.

FOR SHAME! FOR SHAME!!

An American tourist filling up with gasoline in town on Monday, July 2nd, which was being observed throughout Canada and in Vermilion as Dominion Day drew attention to the fact that although this was Canada's birthday only one flag was visible in the town. There was no flag wafting proudly in the breeze over the town hall, the Legion hall, the numerous schools looked upon as educational leaders or at least directors of the trend of thought. Vermilion was probably indicative of the majority of towns and cities throughout our [illegible] in this respect. Where is our national pride? Why has it deteriorated so?

The American tourist went on to say "Come down to the States on July 4th, you will see how we show pride in our country! The whole nation will be flag bedecked and everywhere there'll be celebrations".

WATER SAFETY RULES

Drowning tragedies are becoming as frequent as highway tragedies as is evidenced nearly every Alberta holiday weekend. This loss of life will cease only when Water Safety education becomes a part of everyone's life. Indeed, the importance of observing sensible Water Safety rules cannot be emphasized too greatly.

Swimming is a healthful and recreational sport for all ages. Of all major sports popular in North America swimming is rated highest on an all-around basis, taking into consideration the mental, social, physical and safety aspects. [illegible] and many others, swimming has become popular with all ages in Alberta and particularly with the children. At sometime during these hot summer months, every Alberta youngster is near pools, lakes, rivers, sloughs, ditches or water troughs. LEARN TO SWIM. You couldn't think of a better sport to save your life. Moreover, learn the rules of water safety as follows:

1. Supervise children at all times, then you'll know they're safe.
2. Non-swimmers must wear life-jackets ... on the beach ... in the boat ... in the water.
3. Choose a known safe swimming area ... know the depth ... check the bottom ... PLAY SAFE.
4. Know your boat and never overload ... sit still ... don't move around ... wear a life jacket ... and if you overturn ... HANG ON!
5. Stay away from excavations ... water filled holes are extremely dangerous.
6. Keep off thin ice ... it must be four inches thick to be safe.

Observation of the above rules will reduce drowning accidents greatly. But as "an ounce of prevention is still worth a pound of cure" know the cure too. Should an accident occur, be prepared to give artificial respiration ... a safety lesson easy to learn. Classes and pamphlets on artificial respiration are available from Red Cross as well as St. John Ambulance. Learn now and practice regularly. Keep Water Safety Week all year!

A square dance will be held at the band shell in the Vermilion park on Wednesday evening, July 11th with John Maxwell calling. 8:[illegible]

FARMER FINED FOR RATS

Recently a farmer living near Lloydminster was fined for neglecting to keep bait stations on his place filled with warfarin and failing to clean up the premises as required under the Alberta Pest Control Act. The co-operation of everyone in both towns and country is needed if rats are to be checked in their march across Alberta. The fieldmen have an important job to do. It is hoped, however, that they do not have to take cases of non-cooperation to the courts again. Everyone should take note that the law is on their side.

BANG'S DISEASE VACCINATION

The vaccination of heifer calves was not completed in Vermilion last fall. This was due to snow and bad roads. Anyone who did not get his calves vaccinated is asked to report it to the municipal office, Kinsella, or to your D. A.

PLAY SAFE with MACHINERY

Month after month I write in this column about accident prevention. I hope that my warnings may be of some use in getting people to be more careful. Farmers get so used to working with high powered machinery that they forget there is danger. Now that the haying season is coming up let us try to make it an accident free month.

SUMMERFALLOWING

It is generally agreed that the first stroke on the summerfallow should be by June the 15th. The earlier date the fallow is started the bigger the crop next [illegible]. It has been noted that not more than half the summerfallow in this area has got the first stroke. It is one way of reducing the wheat surplus of course.

POULTRY MEETING

On July 11 at 7:30 p.m. a poultry meeting will be held in the court room at Vermilion. The Poultry [illegible] will address the meeting on poultry diseases and how to prevent and cure them. Here is a good chance for poultry raisers in this district to find out what to do to stop losses in chickens and turkeys.

CALF CLUB MEETING

On July 6th at 7:30 p.m. the final calf club meeting for the Vermilion and Mannville Calf Clubs will be held at W. L. Robinson's farm three miles west of Vermilion. There will be a beef calf judging competition and a demonstration on preparing calves for the show will take place. Everyone interested is invited to come around.

Mannville Holds 52nd Annual Dominion Day Celebration

MANNVILLE—The main feature of the Mannville Dominion Day celebration was baseball and football. The local teams were not very successful, being knocked out in the morning games. In senior baseball the North Edmonton Rockets took first prize with second going to Holden. Umpire for hard ball was Irwin Gordon of Vermilion. Innisfree won first money and Irma second in town and country baseball. Umpire for these games was C. Thunstert. In ladies' fastball the winning team was from Vermilion with Minburn taking second.

In the horseshoe tournament, two Vegreville men, Hughes Brothers, won out over Moore and Gibbons from Kitscoty.

There was a good crowd considering the threat of wet weather. Due to weather conditions earlier in the week it was thought advisable to cancel the barbecue but the weather man brought only one small shower which didn't last long. Hot potato chips, hot dogs, coffee and the usual soft drinks, bars, etc. helped to satisfy the hunger of the crowd.

The Irma Band which made an excellent showing for the short time they have been formed, started the grandstand performance. After several numbers they were followed by CHED entertainers. The Buckeroos, four talented youngsters, stars of radio, television and records sang familiar and popular western songs. They were well received by old and young alike. The Buckeroos leave shortly for the United States, where they will appear on the famous coast-to-coast television show "Grand Old Opry." The Rodger Brothers, Hank and Frank, with violin and guitar gave an excellent performance with the Mocking Bird song and other well known pieces. "Sandy" Petrovitch was given a big hand for his 'bowl' of a good act. As a record pantomist and a magician he kept the crowd well entertained. Last but not least was Al Slaight as Master of Ceremonies. Entertaining with magic tricks and "stories" he kept the program rolling right along. It was well agreed that the stage performance this year was excellent.

After the stage show, bingo was played and the ball games were resumed. Starting at 3:30 in the Alta Theatre the show "State Fair" ran continuously and was well attended. A dance in the Orange hall to the extra good music of Sheila and her orchestra brought another First of July sports day to a close.

The small fry kept the rides busy most of the afternoon.

Leaflets Three— Let It Be!

If a plant has three leaves on each stem — don't go near it, is the advice of the Health League of Canada, as the best way to avoid poison ivy this summer.

This plant looks innocent and attractive, with its glossy dark green leaves and white berries. Poison ivy grows in almost any soil, and may be found anywhere, particularly on the edges of country roads, close under hedges, in full sunlight, or in shade.

The rash caused by contact with any part of the plant, or even from tiny flecks of oily sap, carried in the smoke from piles of burning poison ivy, can be very serious, causing scarring and hospitalization.

When picking raspberries or wildflowers this summer, be on guard, warns the Health League. If you find that you have been exposed, follow these rules at once:

1. Wash the exposed parts of the body at once with laundry soap and warm water. Rinse several times. DO NOT SCRUB.

2. Apply rubbing alcohol liberally to exposed area.

3. Take a complete shower, or tub bath.

4. Dress in clean fresh clothing, and see that clothing which may have been contaminated is cleaned, either by laundering or with cleaning solvent.

5. If, despite all precautions, a rash appears, consult your doctor at once.

Grain shipments from the port of Vancouver average as much in a month as in Seattle in a year, the Northwestern Miller states.

THERE'S MORE VALUE FOR YOU IN MODERN MECHANIZATION

Stepped-up and intensified programs in the engineering divisions of implement firms are producing a great variety of machines that offer more and more value to the users.

Today's machines look better and they do better work. In them you get higher quality materials to operate at higher speeds and give longer service. You get design that provides for the comfort and efficiency of the operator.

Today's machines are equipped to cut-down lubricating chores and to give quick and easy coupling and uncoupling. They offer a wide range of speeds to suit the work and the conditions and they have more capacity to do your work quickly and economically.

See your local dealer about the machines in the 1956 Massey-Harris and Ferguson lines, machines that offer more value in modern mechanization.

Why Civil Defence Is Necessary In Rural Areas

Eleventh in a series of 24 articles

Space and comparatively small population could prove to be Canada's ace in the hole if thermonuclear warfare should ever come to North America. [illegible] most certainly would still be in hole if its civil defence organization did not include the small towns and the rural areas. And even if such a war never comes there is a present need for a well-developed nationwide civil defence plan for the natural disasters that have a habit of striking where least expected.

Canada's big advantage in meeting the [illegible] of atomic war is that there are few targets in this country which an enemy is likely to attack on the first raid.

The early warning electronic devices being built around and across the continent to tip off Canada and the United States of any approaching enemy planes are expected to be in operation within two years. This advance warning, G. S. Hatton, Deputy Federal Civil Defence Co-ordinator, has said, justifies our accepting the practicability of a policy of evacuation of our large cities, especially in view of the vast expanse of this country, the low density of population and our considerable transportation resources.

Evacuating cities obviously makes it necessary for the small towns and rural areas to absorb and care for the evacuees. But the towns and rural areas have a more personal reason for civil defence.

Offsetting this country's space and population advantages, said the Deputy Co-ordinator, "is the likelihood that the air over Canada will be the scene of the vital air battle for survival in the next war.

"This means that many enemy aircraft with hydrogen bombs intended primarily for the United States are likely to engage secondary targets in Canada." That is, enemy bombers under attack by Canadian and American fighter planes would be expected to head for Canada's large cities with [illegible].

Many might be shot down over Canada and civil defence authorities estimate that bombs in about half of these planes would explode automatically, their unaimed devastation hitting almost anywhere and [illegible] dangerous radioactive fall-out drifting down on many unpredictable areas.

There is another more personal reason for civil defence in the small town: natural disaster. The aim of civil defence, in the words of F. F. Worthington, Federal Civil Defence Co-ordinator, "is to minimize the effects of disaster upon the civil population."

Most of the action necessary to [illegible] the effects of [illegible] [illegible] floods, tornadoes, [illegible] and earthquakes. [illegible] [illegible] activities which [illegible] the effects likely to occur and [illegible] [illegible] to meet [illegible] [illegible].

In the case of floods such as those [illegible] British [illegible] [illegible] system [illegible] could be used to warn the small, comparatively isolated communities. The same [illegible] would be available to offset the destruction of hurricanes like Hazel that brought so much disaster to Ontario two years ago.

And once the threatened areas were warned, the civil defence organization would be prepared to go into action quickly to meet the threat. For a civil defence plan's aim is only to bring under one organization the services that already exist in most communities and to train volunteers to supplement each of these services: fire, police, health, welfare, rescue, ambulance, engineering and public utilities restoration.

The threat of nuclear disaster [illegible] made more urgent the need for a well-planned organization ready to take the sting out of any of the natural calamities that may unexpectedly threaten a community almost any time.

FUN

I feel sorry for the man who didn't enjoy a bit of fun yesterday. Every day ought to bring at least a few minutes of real fun to every human being.

Even in the realistic business world, fun pays off. Business conversation spiced with a quip or two, lingers longer in the memory than those which are deadly serious from beginning to end. One leading business man I have the pleasure of knowing always tries to inaugurate a business conversation with a few pleasantries. It's fun to deal with him.

I also like the pixie quality of some humor. For example, the fun a U. S. taxpayer had with the department of internal revenue recently. The businessman had a $200 refund due him, but when the time came to file his 1955 return, the refund had not arrived. With devilish good humor, he simply listed the $200 as a bad debt. Back came a cheque for the $200 in a hurry, with a pleasant letter of apology from the head of the department.

Politicians often suffer from a serious lack of humor. If they had more of a sense of fun in them, they'd see the ridiculous position they are in at election time, when they promise to spend more and tax less. Quebec's present premier, of course, is an exception; he has a sense of humor, and that may account for his ability to get re-elected. In the midst of the recent election campaign, he told a political rally: "Any money the government spends [illegible] from the taxes you pay. Don't let anyone tell you differently."

A sense of humor enables a man to avoid looking the fool. The fellow who slips on a banana peel, but laughs just as heartily as do the onlookers retains, somehow, his [illegible] dignity.

Are you having any fun? If not, friend, you are driving with the brakes on. Let go a little and enjoy yourself.

Is your Sub. due? Check the date.

Consult... REG. MITCHELL or ANGUS MacMILLAN about this question:

When we had our midnight fire, I learned that a local insurance agent, like a family doctor, is on call at all hours. I was also pleased with the prompt and full payment of our claim.

Can these services be provided only by a local agent who is available by phone 24 hours of the day?

Smart Horses

Bert Wells claims that during the current wet spell every time his horses heard the tractor start up they hit for the far corners of the pasture. They became tired of pulling the machine out of so many wet spots!

Old Landmark Bites The Dust

An old landmark, the Massey-Harris building located on railway avenue, has been demolished, or rather taken down board by board plank by plank. While the old building is practically gone, a new and modern structure will rise in its place with much of the material being used again.

The Massey-Harris building, erected away back before the days of the first world war, was built by the company itself. A number of years ago George Webb purchased the structure and it has been used for the storage of fertilizer, twine and some machinery.

The underpinning began to show some signs of decay and the owners decided that the best course was to tear it down and rebuild. A very neat job has been done of the demolishing process and the amount of material and size of the beams is quite astonishing.

Board of Trade In Recess

The Board of Trade is now in recess following the meeting on Wednesday of last week. The weekly meetings will be resumed early in September.

Vermilion Pioneer Dies In Vancouver

J. Raymond Taylor has received the sad news of the death in Vancouver, B.C. of his cousin, R. Wilson Taylor on July 3, after a short illness. He was in his seventy-eighth year.

Wilson Taylor will be remembered by old timers of the Ottawa and Chatsworth districts as one of the early pioneers who played a very active part in all community activities. He left his homestead in the Chatsworth district shortly after the first Great War to make his home in Vancouver, which became, on many occasions, a meeting place for ex-Vermilionites. Originally a sea-faring man, he resumed his former occupation in Vancouver for several years. He is survived by his wife, four sons, George of Los Angeles, Calif., Bill, Claude and Gerald, all of Vancouver, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Wilson (Betty) of Vancouver. There are six grandchildren.

LOCALS

Miss Mildred Conboy of Edmonton spent the holiday week end in Vermilion visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Conboy.

Misses Margaret and Frances Pockett, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Pockett, left Thursday morning to spend about a month visiting in Vancouver.

Extensive Damage To Cars in Islay Crash

Two good cars suffered extensive damages and one young lady received injuries in a collision at the top of a hill two miles north of Islay on the Dewberry highway. Both drivers were apparently too close to the centre of the road as the shoulders were wet and slippery following extensive rains. The cars collided at the top of a sharp dip. The accident happened on Saturday evening last. The cars were owned by Dr. Buck of Fort Saskatchewan and Mr. Ewen of Dewberry.

Ewen was driving a new car which had only travelled 1300 miles. None of the injuries suffered by the car passengers were serious.

Erysipelas Hits Swine

An outbreak of swine erysipelas is resulting in serious losses to producers in this area and it will probably continue to do so during the next few months. Erysipelas is one of the most serious diseases affecting swine in Alberta.

Don't Take Chances! Immunize your healthy pigs against Erysipelas by using Swine Erysipelas Bacterin

In herds where an outbreak is in progress a combination of ANTI-SWINE ERYSIPELAS SERUM and PENICILLIN is the preferred treatment.

We will be pleased to assist you in your method of treatment.

Don't Fool With Food Poisoning

There's one uninvited guest that will go to many a picnic this summer. It's the threat of food poisoning. Because summer meals are often prepared ahead of time and cannot always be stored under ideal conditions until eaten, the foods for outdoor eating should be chosen wisely and handled with care. The safest foods for summer eating are: breads (all varieties), rolls, cookies, fruit pies, plain cakes, cheese (except cream or cottage), cured or pickled meats, peanut butter, jams and marmalade, washed fruit with skins on, clean raw vegetables, and commercially canned foods. Foods to avoid on picnic days include milk, cream, and [illegible] containing either fresh meat, poultry, fish, marinated and chopped salad mixtures.

ACCENT THE ACIDITY

That's our advice to those who would avoid the threat of food poisoning at the next summer outing or picnic. Why not take advantage of the fact that food poisoning bacteria don't like an acid atmosphere? Protect your sandwich fillings, salads, and meats with extra amounts of acid ingredients like vinegar, lemon juice, salad dressing, pickles and catsup. But don't be misled into thinking that these precautions will replace clean, careful handling and continuous, cold storage of all perishable picnic foods until mealtime.

Canadians Demand More Meat

Canadians are eating more meat; and to satisfy the growing demand we are becoming a beef importing country and are increasing our poultry production.

These facts are published in "Foreign Crops and Markets" of June 11, 1956, by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The report states "Canada, traditionally a heavy surplus producer of grain and livestock, is becoming a net importer of beef at a time when cattle numbers are the highest in more than a decade and the number being slaughtered is running at a record level."

With expanding population and a prosperous economy, the per capita consumption of beef in Canada has risen from the yearly average of [illegible] pounds in the 1935-39 period to 73 pounds in 1955. This is an increase of [illegible].

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane — Women's Travel Authority

Clothes, it has been said, make the man — and clothes also can make or break the car trip for your children during the summer season.

The cardinal principle in picking your child's travel wardrobe is to remember his comfort. If his clothes are comfortable and cool, he won't wriggle and squirm so much or interfere with your driving. To select the right wardrobe for your boy or girl, for either a long or a short trip look for labels like "crease-resistant", "washable" and "[illegible] no ironing". [illegible] are found in the "miracle [illegible]", as well as in acetate, cotton and specially-treated rayon.

For boys, select slacks of Orlon, Dacron, nylon or viscose blends in flannel. If you don't plan to stop at "dress-up" restaurants, denim slacks and matching jackets will fill the travel bill perfectly. For [illegible] of the same [illegible] a comfortable travel costume too. If your daughter prefers to be more feminine and bouffant, dress her in the wide, easy-to-move-around-in skirts of denim, Orlon and Acrilan. For tops that will really be "tops" with the youngsters, get cotton knit "T-shirts" and knit blouses. If daughter needs to look dressy at the end of the trip, take along a frilly nylon dress for her.

Your infant will be a [illegible] beau [illegible] if you let him travel in flannel or jersey [illegible]. And don't forget to take plenty of disposable diapers, the handiest items yet invented for infant travel wear.

The right clothes for your child can will serve to "dress-up" the whole family's automobile trip.

Farmers' Union of Alberta To Open New Office Building

Civic, governmental and university dignitaries and farm organization officials in the province have been invited by the Farmers' Union of Alberta to attend official opening ceremonies of the Union's new office building in Edmonton on the afternoon of July 18. With ceremonies slated for mid-week of Edmonton's annual exhibition, it is expected that a large number of farm union members will be on hand also to mark the occasion.

Hon. J. J. Bowlen, Alberta's lieutenant-governor, will discharge the opening ritual at a tree planting ceremony in front of the new headquarters, located at 9934-106 St. Mayor William Hawrelak, one-time official of the farm union in earlier years, will bring greetings from the City of Edmonton. Agriculture Minister Hahmrest has been invited also to take part in the program.

Following a brief program of addresses and introduction of the building committee, public inspection of the building will be invited and tea will be served in the lower floor premises.

Erection of the building has been heralded within the farm movement as a milestone of achievement, states FUA president, A. W. Platt. Such a permanent investment, he comments, reflects the faith that farm people hold in an organization all their own.

TO THE WRECKERS

In the last three years, Canadians have scrapped 336,000 automobiles reports The Financial Post. That's almost as many as the 349,000 they junked in the seven years 1946-1952 inclusive.

The high rate of scrappage is one of the reasons for high 1955-56 new car sales. Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce estimates about 37% of all cars and trucks produced in Canada last year were needed to replace vehicles which ended on the scrap heap.

Ever stuff a cucumber for a cold plate garnish? Just core it the same as you would an apple and pack it tightly with canned salmon which has been drained, mashed and mixed with a little mayonnaise. Chill well then slice in rounds.

During the season when fish salads are most popular, nature obligingly provides a plentiful supply of garden herbs. Some fresh herbs which combine well with fish are chives, fennel, mint, dill and tarragon.

Chrysler Car Sales Still On Increase

WINDSOR — For the first five months of the current year, sales of Chrysler of Canada automobiles have increased by 11.2% over one year ago, it was announced here by officials.

The company's gain compares with an increase throughout the entire industry in Canada of one-half of one percent for the same period.

Statistics compiled from registrations of new cars with provincial licensing bureaus across Canada show that for this Jan-May period Chrysler of Canada automobile registrations accounted for approximately 38% of the total market.

Backward spring weather in May brought a slight drop in passenger car registrations throughout Canada with the industry as a whole showing a decline of 8.3%. Chrysler registrations were off 6.6% for the month.

Since then, according to a company spokesman, demand has picked up substantially. Recently the corporation recorded a new peak in employment of approximately 11,800 persons. The plants are operating on a two-shift 16-hour basis to keep abreast of sales.

An estimated 46 percent of Alberta's fall rye was winter killed.

Sunburn Number One Summer Menace

"A severe sunburn may be just as serious as a fairly serious burn by oil or fire", stated Dr. Gordon Bates, General Director of the Health League of Canada.

Sunburn is cited as being the greatest single cause of disability in industry during the summer months.

A severe burn should be avoided at all costs, said Dr. Bates. An even tan looks becoming, and may be beneficial, but this should be obtained gradually in order to reap the full benefits of the action of the sun's rays.

The actinic rays of the sun are those which produce the ricket-preventing vitamin D, when they act upon the waxy substance called cholesterol, which is always present in the skin.

An even tan may be obtained easily and comfortably by exposure to strong sunlight in graduating doses. Exposure the first day should be limited to a few minutes, and that time doubled the next day, and so on, until a protective tan is arrived at. Be particularly careful when sunning yourself near water, for the added reflection from the surface of the water results in an intensified glare.

These basic rules may only be broken if one of the proven preparations for preventing sunburn is used. Even these preparations should not be relied upon completely, to the extent of lying in the sun for a whole day, for instance, for the first day. The sun can be friend or foe in the summertime — it all depends upon moderation and in being sensible.

Many Factors Contribute To Safety In The Hay Field

Let's Make Hay—the Safe, and Happy Way. Make that your farm slogan for the busy haying season ahead and at least there won't be any tears or vain words of regret. Let's keep the lives and limbs of your family and hired help safe and intact. In blunt and straightforward language, whether this is done or not, is up to you, the boss and Safety Supervisor of your farm.

While modern farm machinery can be dangerous, it is engineered with a minimum of hazards and even the older machines have many of the most hazardous parts shielded - partly or fully—to provide safety to the operator. It's only using horse sense then to see that the safety devices are in place and that the operator takes heed of the warning signs in the danger areas.

These suggestions may seem overly simple to the experienced operator, but are they to the new hired man working with different machinery - to your own boy or the neighbour's working for the first time as a full fledged member of the haying crew? How well has the safety lesson been learned? When everyone is tired or you're cleaning up the last of the field ahead of a shower and suddenly a machine plugs- do you shut off the power before unplugging a baler or the forage harvester, or do you try to save a minute and maybe lose a finger, a hand or an arm? It's a gamble not worth taking for the best of operators have been known to lose.

Safe practices such as shutting off power before oiling, putting safety shields in place adjusting or unplugging machinery are necessary for accident prevention. There are others too, in a good safety program. One is the fight against Fatigue. Cut down the excessively long hours and help shorten the day with a coffee break, a spot of tea or a glass of milk. The farm wife or the girls in the family could be a help in getting the morning and afternoon break started. These short breaks during the day will get more work done, add pleasure to the task and certainly help prevent more accidents.

Remember The Only Right Way to Hay is the Safe Way.

CHILD SAFETY

Studies indicate that certain types of accidents are more likely to occur at one stage of a child's development than another, although no two children are alike and no two grow or develop at just the same rate or in just the same way. However, knowing something about their own children's typical growth and development, patterns will enable many parents to foresee potential accident situations. Foreseeing them they can help to forestall them.

New born babies are helpless and need absolute protection. Soon they will move about and need an even more watchful eye kept on them. The sides of the crib should be kept up at all times and the bars so spaced that the baby cannot catch his head between them. Paints containing lead should not be used on furniture, toys or anything they might put in their mouths due to the risk of poisoning. Babies are helpless in water and must never be left alone in the tub at any time.

Around 12 to 15 months they are eager to examine the world around them; they need freedom but they need limits too. Gates at the head and foot of stairways will prevent many a fall. Unused light sockets should be taped or capped and electric fans and heaters should be out of reach. All household poisons and medicines should be kept out of reach and pins, buttons, needles and other small objects put away. Keep containers of hot food or liquids on the centre of the table out of reach.

Two year olds are adventurous and doors that open to potential dangers should be locked so that they cannot dash out suddenly. Windows from which they enjoy viewing the world should have guards on them and car doors should be locked. They like to play with water so pools, ponds and cisterns have to be fenced in or covered over. Water is not safe until a child learns to respect it.

Three year olds have more self control and are nimble on their feet. Stairs should have a strong rail for support and should be kept clear of objects or defective coverings on which a child can trip. Stairs must never be waxed. Toy trucks or wagons should be strong enough to bear their weight as well as their playmates. They feel like important members of the family when asked to do small tasks suited to their ability; it is dangerous to ask them to carry glass containers or knives.

Four year olds are finding their place in the world and cover a lot of ground in all directions. They should be taught to ride tricycles on the sidewalk and to watch for cars in the driveways. They will be safer playing in an enclosed area and it is important to teach them not to run after a ball if it rolls out into a street or driveway. They climb over fences and trees and can be protected from falls if taught how to get a good footing and a proper handhold. They will enjoy building simple things and can be taught to help safely in the kitchen or about the house.

"THE FORGOTTEN PATIENT"

"ROOTS OF MENTAL DISORDER"

BY

H. E. Smith, M.A., M.Ed., Ph.D.

Part II

Any human scourge, such as mental illness, must surely have a cause or causes. In a scientific age we can no longer be content to accept explanations like fate, destiny, the will of God, the Devil's finger, or the witch's curse. Still less can we rest happily in ignorance and resignation.

We must concede, however, that our present state is one of considerable ignorance. Our reason for this is that over the ages we have thought of mental disorders as the blight caused by evil spirits or as punishment for wickedness, or simply as manifestations of bad temper, revenge, or just plain cussedness. Another reason is that mental processes appear to be, and probably are, the most complex processes found in nature. Still another reason lies in the difficulty of separating mind from body, the mental from the physical, or even in deciding if we should think of them as two or only one. If as two then mind tends to get dreadfully confused with spirit, soul, and all sorts of religious and philosophical questions. The point of view now generally accepted, and found most useful, may be stated simply.

We must think of mind and body as one, inextricably connected. The presence of one, while life lasts, implies the presence of the other, at least in some measure. Psychosomatic medicine takes this position. Take emotion, for example. Is this mental or physical? Both, obviously. Moreover emotional disturbances lie at the root of practically all mental disorders. This means that mental disorders involve both body and mind.

At birth human beings are equipped with a variety of impulses to action, with embryonic patterns of emotion (fear, love, and rage at first), and with greater or less potential for intelligent behavior. These, together with body parts, are the constitutional endowment. The quality of endowment varies tremendously from one individual to another. And quality varies also in its appropriateness to different environments. What might be an excellent constitution in primitive cultures where children are generally treated with great tenderness might be a poor constitution in Western lands where children are often neglected and sometimes even treated badly.

But whatever the constitution may be at birth, whether good in quality or bad, the environment begins to work on it immediately. First in importance is the mother or mother substitute. And next in importance as a rule are father, brothers, sisters, perhaps grandmother or grandfather, small playmates and of course all the physical environment of clothing, cribs, baths and all manner of intimate attentions. From the first day, habits, attitudes, emotional patterns, likes and dislikes, fears, acceptances and rejections, are established with amazing rapidity. The foundations of personality are forming and are formed. The earlier the years the more important they are.

Of course this fact has been known for centuries. But it is only within the past short time, say fifty or sixty years, that anyone has really known why the early years are so important. Philosophers and poets have hinted at the reasons, Schopenhauer for example, but the patient and often frustrating work of psychologists has been most telling. I suppose Freud's name comes to mind first. This topic I want to expand later, but one illustration of how things happen will be useful. Suppose a two-year old, his mother's darling, pampered, petted, the center of all attention, his every wish gratified, a little tyrant, is suddenly confronted with a rival, a new baby. In a twinkling his world tumbles about his ears. The tyrant is dethroned, abandoned he thinks for a usurper. Can one think of more fertile ground for jealousy, rage, hatred, and impulses to destruction? These passions he may, under compulsion, learn to mask with a smiling acceptance of his diminished role, but they never disappear. They are woven into his personality as worm-eaten timbers may go into the foundations of a building.

He grows into manhood. Whatever the qualities of his constitution and of his early training, he must now face the stresses of the adult. No fertile imagination is required to conjure up problems: competition, rivalry, public appraisal, vocation, courtship, marriage, war service — for months and years. How much stress will his background allow him to stand? How much stress can any of us stand?

All enjoyed Mrs. Berry's address and spent the remainder of the meeting talking it over. [illegible]

It has been truly fun going over all the reports received from the different branches, reading of the various activities, hearing of visitors from here and there etc.

Speaking of visitors we do enjoy them and love to hear about them and I'm sure all feel disappointed when we see the word visitor but no names. So please remember to give their names as it would make our monthly report more interesting.

As W. I. members, we must never lose sight of this thought—

We cannot stop learning as needs and conditions are constantly changing and our vision is broadening. Our progress may be measured not by the changes but the use we make of them.

Your Constituency Convener,
Edna Sloan.

AUBURNDALE F.U.A. PICNIC

The annual F.U.A. picnic will take place at Auburndale Community centre on Wednesday, July 11. Little League and Pony League ball games have been planned and there will also be men's baseball. A dance has also been arranged for the evening. Everybody welcome. 12

Farm Improvement Loans Act Lends Over $69 Million In 1955

LENDS OVER 69 MILLION IN 1955

The 1955 Annual Report of operations under The Farm Improvement Loans Act was tabled in the House of Commons today by the Honourable Walter Harris, Minister of Finance. During the year ending December 31, 1955, a total of $69,105,520 were borrowed by Canadian farmers.

Alberta and Saskatchewan farmers obtained the greatest number of loans, 24.2% and 23.41% respectively, followed by Ontario and Quebec with 18.53% and 14.10%. The other provinces borrowed to a lesser degree all of which recorded increases over the corresponding period of 1954 with the exception of Newfoundland.

REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

Since 1945 a total of $752,712,100 has been borrowed by Canadian farmers of which slightly more than 77% has been repaid.

The purchase of farm machinery has been by far the greatest purpose for which loans are obtained. A total of $519,471,800 or more than 80% of all the loans are granted for this purpose.

It is estimated that since inception of the Act approximately 203,050 tractors, 73,970 trucks, 72,570 combines and 157,000 pieces of miscellaneous equipment have been purchased.

CLAIMS

During 1955, 229 claims were paid amounting to $135,250. Since inception, the government has paid 511 claims in an amount of $285,084. Considering the fact that over one half billion dollars have been lent during this same period, the loss ratio is extremely small.

1955 FARM IMPLEMENT LOANS

During 1955, there were $58,371,705 borrowed for the purpose of farm machinery. This represents more than 84% of the accumulated total borrowed for all purposes.

Implement loans increased by over $6,000,000 in 1955, most of which was due to the large number of combines purchased in Western Canada to harvest the 1955 crop.

In 1955, there were financed under this Act, 20,780 tractors, 37% used; 6,730 combines, 40% used, and 6,331 trucks, 49% used.

FARM BUILDING AND HOUSING

The amount borrowed for building purposes amounted to $4,886,207. More than $1,400,000 of this total was used to finance the construction of 4,045 farm homes - 18% of the new rural homes built last year.

Loans for construction of utility buildings such as barns and sheds amounted to $1,727,194 while repair and alteration to existing buildings totalled $1,736,537.

Ontario farmers borrowed more for building purposes than the other provinces, followed by Alberta and Saskatchewan. However, in the construction of new homes, only, Alberta was first, Saskatchewan second and Ontario third.

LIVESTOCK LOANS

A total of $3,575,023 was borrowed in 1955 to purchase livestock. This is an increase of more than $700,000 over the corresponding period in 1954. Alberta led in loans for this purpose (25.5%) followed by Ontario (23.3%), Saskatchewan (14.6%), Quebec (14.1%), Manitoba (13.4%) and British Columbia (7.6%). The Maritimes borrowed to a lesser degree.

Since 1945, $18,961,476 have been obtained for the purchase of livestock.

CLEARING AND BREAKING LOANS

In 1955, $298,130 were obtained in order to clear and break some 22,302 acres of land. More than 63% of the new land brought under cultivation was in the Province of Alberta.

Since 1945, more than $5,000,000 have been borrowed for clearing and breaking of land resulting in 532,408 acres being brought under production.

PLENTY OF RAIN

Rain and more rain is the order of the day. We certainly cannot complain of any lack of moisture at the present time. In some cases the crop is under water and fields are badly washed in places. Gardens are in a bad way as they are pounded into the ground by the extremely heavy downpours but with some sunshine they should come back we hope.

Do's and Don'ts For Picnic Packers

Do - include several kinds of bread in every picnic basket. Good keeping qualities and low susceptibility to bacterial growth, even under adverse conditions, make bread safe, convenient food for every outdoor meal.

Do - pack sandwiches and other picnic foods in small packages so the cold can penetrate each package when refrigerated. All foods for outdoor eating should be refrigerated immediately after preparation, and kept as cool as possible until eaten. Quick-frozen sandwiches, packed still frozen, will thaw gradually and keep cool and fresh for reasonable lengths of time.

Don't - taste food suspected of being spoiled. Most food poisoning bacteria and toxins are tasteless and odourless. Discard or burn the suspected food.

Don't - buy unwrapped bread or other unpackaged fresh foods in an unfamiliar store. Play safe and buy sanitary wrapped bread, packaged cookies, canned and bottled foods when away from home.

Don't - use leftover foods in sandwich fillings and picnic salads. Even under constant refrigeration, food poisoning bacteria can develop after long storage periods.

Grain shipments from the port of Vancouver average as much in a month as in Seattle in a year, the Northwestern Miller states.

POPULAR TEACHERS ARE FAREWELLED

On Thursday afternoon June 28 a number of the parents gathered with the pupils and had a little party for Mr. Bauman and Mrs. Watt at the Preston Central school. Roy Dibben acted as M.C. and after a few words of how much we have enjoyed having three fine teachers with us and how sorry we were to see them go, wished them well in their new fields of work. On behalf of the people of the district he presented Mr. and Mrs. Bauman with a lovely large mirror, and Mrs. Watt with two nice cups and saucers. Both pleasingly thanked everyone for their kindness. A lunch followed and the party closed with the singing of "They are Jolly Good Fellows".

F. U. A. MEETS

The F.U.A. meeting on Wednesday evening took the form of a couple of educational films. Mr. Buckingham gave a good talk on how to preserve grass and on spraying crops for weeds. Mr. Hosack spoke on the rat situation in Alberta. Anyone renting land should know they are responsible for the rat menace around the buildings on that land; also for the weeds around the buildings. Secretary Noel Garnett read the minutes of previous meeting. Two delegates were chosen to attend the F.U.A. convention at the Agricultural college in Vermilion on July 4, John Wilson and Roy Dibben. Meeting closed with a lunch and chatting with friends and neighbors.

Peggy Graham of the Lac La Biche Health Unit visited a short time at her home in Wildmere over the long week end. She returned on Monday afternoon. Her brother went with her as far as Mannville to the sports there. While here she called at the Cruthers and Wilson homes for short visits.

45th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallington attended the 45th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGinnis of Vermilion. All their family except Robert were home for the occasion and seven grandchildren were absent. Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis have 26 grandchildren. A lovely dinner was served on the lawn, cafeteria style, and to which everyone did justice. A three-tiered wedding cake graced the table. It was baked by two of their daughters, Mrs. Neis and Mrs. Myers and was delicious. Pictures were taken of the happy couple cutting the cake. The family presented them with a lovely set of steel ware and cutlery set for six. All present wished them many more years of happiness together.

A nice attendance at church Sunday evening. It has been three weeks since we had church owing to the muddy roads. Mr. Smith sang "Jesus is Calling", a lovely hymn, and preached a fine sermon. Summer and church services fast slip by folks.

A few Wildmere-ites took in the Dominion Day sports at Mannville, all report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Friesell of Vermilion spent Sunday and Monday visiting their daughter Mrs. L. Fadden and family of Wildmere.

Visitors to the Fadden home on Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. L. Howard and children, Mr. and J. Wallington, Peggy and Kenny Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bauman and the children have gone to Edmonton for a week. Jack will teach First Aid at Westlock and Mrs. Bauman and boys will visit in the city.

We were pleased to visit with Mrs. Moore on Saturday. It has been sometime since they were able to get to town owing to muddy roads. This rain has meant everything to our crops and gardens and things are really growing now. The writer has little beans, and cucumbers are showing on the vines.

Bill Smith was a visitor to the city over the week end.

Say folks, Jimmie just got his wood sawn on Monday. Among those helping was Mr. A. Friesell of Vermilion.

Mrs. A. Holte is the proud owner of a Propane cook stove purchased from Geo. Symes' of Battleview.

GM of Canada Sales Increasing, Wecker Reports

Oshawa.—Automobile sales in Canada are continuing at their predicted rate, and General Motors of Canada is still working overtime to produce sufficient cars to meet current demand, W. A. Wecker, president of GM, said yesterday.

"Retail sales of automobiles in Canada during 1956 to the beginning of May were more than 8 per cent higher than during the same period in 1955," Mr. Wecker said.

"As for GM, we have been working overtime ever since we reached full production and will be working overtime for some weeks to come to fill present orders.

"The Canadian market for passenger cars seems at this time to be a little stronger than in the United States," Mr. Wecker said. "However, we base GM production in Canada on the outlook for the Canadian economy as a whole. Our economy is strong today and should continue strengthening under present conditions."

WOODVALE NOTES

The following items reached us too late to put in Woodvale notes.

On July 8th Miss Donna Truscott, deaconess for the summer in Lloydminster, will assist Mr Philis with the church service at Ganton on Sunday at 11 o'clock. Starting July 9th and continuing all week there will be Vacation Bible school at Watson school for the children. Miss Truscott will again assist Mr. Philis.

Several groups of the members of the Woodvale Mutual Telephone Co. worked on the line last week replacing poles and taking down part of the line and using it on another stretch.

Once again heavy rains mixed with hail now and then, poured down over the countryside last week. Roads were still heavy on Saturday but dried up enough for travel on Sunday.

Mrs. Wes Isley returned home on Friday from Edmonton with her father after her mother underwent an exploratory operation there. On Tuesday Mr. Ross is going back to the city to hear the results. He will travel with his grandson Ernie Isley who will be attending summer school as will Mr. J. Hohol our principal and Camille Goutier.

Mr and Mrs. Art Lysons and the children went to visit Brooks Lysons and family in Edmonton over the long week end.

Kathleen Hessam stayed with her friend Susan Wolters after school was over until the third of July.

Miss Rosa Wolters of Drayton Valley after a few days in the district is leaving for an extended visit to relatives in Germany.

Friends of Tom Pick, formerly of Woodvale, will be interested in knowing that he will be married this coming Saturday in Edmonton.

While her mother was away little Mary Isley stayed first at the Kokonee store with the McLean family and then with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dixon and Sandra, who brought her home on Sunday.

We would love to report some more of the visiting and trips undertaken in our district, but we were too late to phone everyone in time, so we will just say that half the people went away and the other half are having relatives and friends visit them this very lovely Dominion Day week end.

Doctor Advocates Rewriting Cook Books

IN AN EFFORT TO CURB HEART DISEASES

Coronary heart disease and other arteriosclerotic diseases are associated with too much fat in the diet, says Dr. Harvey Estes, associate in medicine at Duke University, according to a report received by the Health League of Canada. This seems to justify the use of low-fat diets in treating such diseases, says the doctor.

"In view of the high incidence of coronary heart disease in this country, there is a serious question as to whether a permanent reduction in the level of dietary fat should be advised for the population as a whole," he says.

"This would involve retraining of a whole generation of cooks, rewriting of hundreds of cookbooks, and even more, the retraining of the tastes of the whole population. Yet the tremendous toll of arteriosclerotic diseases make such an endeavor worthy of serious consideration."

He pointed out that heart diseases decline during "lean" times such as happened in Norway and Sweden during the war.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Hearings Continue On Investigations Of Alberta Liquor Conditions

EDMONTON — The liquor investigation continued to be the big news in Alberta again last week, and a couple of new angles were introduced during the committee's public hearings in Camrose and Red Deer.

Education Minister A. O. Aalborg, the only cabinet member on the eight-man committee, gave an indication of what might be the government's attitude toward the question of drinking.

He said repeatedly that a government can't hope to implement and enforce a policy which is neither accepted nor condoned by the majority of the people. He made the statement as he aimed questions at representatives of religious and temperance groups, seeking tighter liquor laws.

The minister, who knows there are more than 400,000 liquor permits in force in Alberta, was referring to the fact that the vast majority of Albertans consume some liquor and would prefer relaxed liquor laws.

The temperance people, who admit this themselves by stoutly maintaining that the public should not be allowed to vote on the liquor issue, refused to budge under Mr Aalborg's questioning and held to the argument that the liquor laws should either be restricted further or left as they are.

Most of the church and temperance groups agreed that the public should not be allowed to vote on a moral issue, and admitted that temperance likely would come out second best on a plebiscite which would develop into a battle between 'wets' and 'drys'.

The committee hearings already have become somewhat of a battle and Ira McLaughlin, Social Credit member Grande Prairie, summed up the situation to date as follows: "There are two sides, neither side will compromise and the committee is right in the middle of it."

How right Mr McLaughlin is. And the eight politicians who make up the all party committee must feel happy when they realize that no matter what they recommend, a large section of the voting public will be unhappy.

Some members of the committee were obviously surprised to learn that a drinking problem of considerable magnitude exists in many Alberta villages and hamlets. Several briefs referred to the trouble caused at weekly dances in villages and hamlets where there is no regular police protection.

One official of the Women's Christian Temperance Union said "lawlessness and debauchery are rampant in small communities," and a clergyman told of seeing 'teenagers "dead drunk by the dozen" at community dances.

Most of them blamed this on the fact that beer is available from nearby hotel beer parlors, and that minors manage to get access to it somehow. But under questioning from committee members, they agreed that the dances were patronized by persons from wide areas, and that if the hotel beer parlors were closed the drinks would come from somewhere else.

Until the hearings reached Camrose, nearly every brief demanded that the government continue to ban liquor advertising in the province. In Camrose, a different line was taken by the Alberta Weekly Newspaper Association.

ADVOCATE LIFTING OF BAN ON LIQUOR ADVERTISING

C. A. MacLean, of Camrose, representing the weeklies, pointed to the mass of liquor advertising which reaches Alberta in hundreds of publications from eastern Canada and the U.S. The weeklies' brief wondered why Alberta papers should not get in on the revenue, since the products advertised in outside publications are sold here — at a profit to the government.

Mr. MacLean pointed out that many weekly publishers would refuse to carry liquor advertising, but added that they all would like the right to decide for themselves. The weeklies did not want advertising designed to increase liquor consumption, but only to influence sales by brands. Mr. MacLean pointed out that it is hard to say advertising increases the sales of soap, but that it does affect the sales of different brands.

Why are most of the briefs advocating relaxed liquor laws being heard in Calgary this week? Because this is the final week of hearings, and some of the organizations making representation want to have the last word. In addition to that, they now have an idea what questions are being asked by the committee members and can work up answers.

NEW BOATING RULES FOR SCOUTS

To promote greater water safety for Boy Scouts, the Association has instituted a new set of Boating Rules which together with regulations of the Department of Transport, and Port and Waterways authorities, must be observed by all members of the Association using boats.

Rigid inspection of all boats used by Scouts, their equipment, including life-jackets and other gear, are part of the regulations which also require all such craft to be painted yellow below the water line and have the words 'Hold On' painted in large black letters on each side of the keel or centre line.

Grandstand Attractions Acclaimed Best Ever As Fair Circuit Opens

The 1956 Grandstand Attractions at Vermilion Fair, July 26, 27 and 28 have already appeared in Weyburn, Estevan and Portage la Prairie and the Managers of these fairs have written the local Board stating that they are par excellence and even better than those in recent years, when the attractions have been of such high calibre. The grandstand show for 1956 will be bolstered at Vermilion by the unusual and attractive Cutting Horse contests.

CUTTING HORSE CONTEST

These contests have so far been confined to the larger cities, but Vermilion has been fortunate in securing the co-operation of the Association this year and the outstanding contests will be staged in conjunction with the grandstand attractions each day at times specified as Thursday, July 26th to end the grandstand show at 8:45; on Friday, July 27th at 2 p.m. in the afternoon and on Saturday at 3:45 and 7 o'clock p.m. The Cutting Horse Contests are thrilling and to see the fine horses in action is well worth while. The Acts, staged by Chas. Zemater Attractions will hold the interest of young and old.

THE SILLS SISTERS

Two beautiful girls performing daringly in swift revolving wheels; looping the loop with breathtaking stunts that will bring the crowds to their feet.

CURSE'S TRAINED SCOTTISH COLLIES

A delightfully different 'dog act' designed to tickle the kids, but having the power to hold the interest of adults as well; this act is reported to be the most outstanding dog sextette since Duncan's Collies which played at Vermilion Fair about 12 years ago and then spent nine years in London theatres.

VALITTO AND ALBINO

The world's premier barrel jumpers: this amazing pair leaps from one barrel to another fifteen feet and at a height of twenty feet, the actors being blindfolded during the programme: this is a sure thriller and is bound to please.

BETTY AND BENNY FOX

Sky dancers of the first quality: this act is said to be the world's greatest aerial sensation and all who have seen it in Canada have thrilled to the perfection of their artistry, you must not fail to see this one.

STEVE EVANS

Steve Evans, the funniest man in the business provides happy times and jolly moments for all fair patrons: Steve has to be seen to be appreciated.

FREDDIE STRITT

This nimble witted Emcee of the show really puts the finishing touches on a smashing good show.

MOLLY, THE WONDER HORSE

You have seen and heard of horse acts and horse laughs: there are surely plenty of the latter in this performance, designed to really 'lay them in the aisles'. To see Molly in action is to see everything of the best in an act of its kind.

THE MASCHINO TROUPE

A family of five talented artists who defy all the rules of nature in turning their splendidly functioning bodies into all shapes imaginable: they are completely trained in every phase of tumbling and acrobatics and present a clean and pleasing appearance as they thrill the crowds with their antics — really worth seeing.

[illegible]

Three mere tots on high bicycles will provide the finale to the grand show; there are no finer performers anywhere in the world and they played for months on end at the Stadium in Chicago and signed with Charlie Zemater, the well known American booking agency for the Canadian trip just because they wanted to see Western Canada. At the end of the B Fair Circuit in the Prairie Provinces the kids go to play at Radio City for the remainder of the season which extends to April 1957.

This act alone is worth the price of admission and REMEMBER the price of admission at Vermilion Fair is one advance ticket for the gate entrance and three advance tickets for grandstand admission; buy advance tickets and cut the cost of entertainment for the entire family. This is identically the same show that plays at all other B Fairs, including such large centres as Prince Albert and Yorkton, but the price of admission at Vermilion is just about half that at the other places because the Vermilion Directors want ALL the people to see ALL there is to see.

Advance tickets are now on sale in Vermilion and other communities: a limited number only will be released and THE SALES END ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 25.

Buy your advance tickets now, today and save. Then you will be able to see everything there is to see including the well known Jimmy Sullivan midway, the outstanding outdoor carnival operating in Canada.

Complete Full Course in One Year

Home Economics Course At V.S.A. Receives Major Revision

A major basic revision of the Home Economics course offered at the Provincial Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics will go into effect this fall.

The regular "two-year" course comprising two winter terms will be re-drafted so that it will be presented in the one term. On successful completion of this one-term course a Diploma of Graduation will be awarded.

Another major change is that girls will be required to have a clear Grade 9 standing for admission to the course although older girls lacking such standing may submit their application for special consideration.

Principal reason for abandonment of the two-year course is that many prospective students have felt that they could not afford so much time for a Homemaking course. It is expected that the one-term course opening in late October and extending through to early April will attract a much larger number of girls.

Revision of the two-year course to fit the shorter period will result in the elimination of some of the general subjects and will increase emphasis on the more strictly vocational topics. Major class time will be devoted to laboratory periods in Clothing, Foods, Handicrafts and Home Management. Other subjects will include Home Nursing, Physical Education, Social Relationships, Employment Training and Typing.

For many prospective students an important attraction of the course at the school will be the opportunities offered for social training and experience in a residential school with the highly organized extra-curricular program that has characterized student life at these schools throughout their history.

For further particulars, details as to costs, outfit requirements and application form, write to the School for the current calendar.

Swimming and Water Safety Classes Start

Under the direction of Sid Moore, Vermilion Park water sports supervisor, swimming and water safety instruction has already begun. But it is not yet too late to register for the classes. See page 1, section 2 of this issue of the Standard for full details regarding registration, fee and time table. Fill out the form and enter your class today.

In the interests of water safety and to help prevent tragedies at the beaches, it is important that everyone should know how to swim and should know the reasonable precautions to take when boating, also what to do in case of water accidents. Hence the slogan for the swim and water safety classes at Vermilion Park — "Get into the '6 to 60' swim soon"!

See that the children especially, make good use of this opportunity to learn to swim and to take care of themselves in the water and while boating. They will have fun while they learn.

Joseph Batty Accepts New Position

Pipers and Ball Games At Park This Sunday

The "A" Company Pipe band will provide the musical entertainment at the Vermilion Park on Sunday afternoon commencing at 2:30.

The band will not use the band shell as no one can sit still and listen to the swirling strains of the pipes and drum, consequently they will march on the beach. This program has been arranged by the Rotary committee under the chairmanship of Bill Sutherland.

LADIES' FASTBALL

Two games of fastball will also be a feature at the park on Sunday afternoon with games scheduled for 2:30 and 5:00 o'clock on the park diamond, just above the west camp kitchen.

The teams are the Edmonton Falling Supplies and the Vermilion Cardinals.

Edmonton Lady Fastballers To Play Here On Sunday

A team of snappy fastball players from the Edmonton Falling Supplies will play Vermilion Cardinals here on Sunday in a doubleheader fastball attraction. Large Number of Floats Assured For Fair Parade

"Let's make it bigger and better than last year!" This is the general consensus of opinion among business men and representatives of town and district organizations when contacted regarding their entries for the parade to be staged on the first day of Vermilion's Fair.

A preliminary survey indicates the following businesses definitely planning to have an entry in the parade:

Geo. C. Webb & Sons, Ken Rowe and Sons, Herzog Motors, Super Service, Marian Motors, Union Tractor, W. Delainey, 5c to $1 store, Craig's Ltd., Vermilion District Co-op Store, Superior Auto Body Shop, S. C. & C. T. Heckbert, W. L. Robinson's Glenrobin Shorthorns, Canadian Utilities, Northwestern Utilities, Vermilion Food Lockers, Seed Cleaning Plant, Clendenning's Family Wear, Northern Hardware, Jack's Barber Shop.

Organizations known to be working on floats for the parade include: The Canadian Legion, Kinsmen, Knights of Columbus, Circle 8, Graduate Nurses' Assoc., School of Agriculture, Old Timers' Assoc., and the Scottish Pipe Band, representing the local unit of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment.

In addition to these local representatives, several district entries are being prepared. Midway entries and light horse exhibitors are always of interest in the parade.

These early entries assure a large and colorful parade to help get Vermilion's Fair off to a good start. Several surprise features and numerous additional local entries are being received. The committee in charge is anxious to learn just what plans must be made for space to assemble the parade so that those who have not yet reported should contact Fair headquarters at S. C. Heckbert's office.

Doubleheader Is Played On Sunday

Provincial Juvenile Baseball Play-Off Held At Dewberry

DEWBERRY. — At a meeting held this spring by the Eastern Alberta Elks Juvenile Baseball league it was decided to enter an all star team in the provincial play-off. The players of the All Stars would be chosen from the five teams in the league, namely Kitscoty, Marwayne, Heinsburg, Clandonald and Dewberry.

Neil E. Jones was elected coach of the team and Jerry Hines assistant coach. As Dewberry was central it was decided to play the home games of the play-off there.

MEET CITY TEAM

On Sunday the first round of the provincial play-off started with a double-header between the All Stars and a team sponsored by Crystal Glass of Edmonton. The games were played at Dewberry.

In the first game the Elks All Stars led all the way until pinch-hitter M Lashuk drove in two for the Crystal Glass to tie the game 3-3 in the sixth inning. The visitors then went on to win in the 7th by scoring two more. The final being Crystal Glass 5, Elks All Stars 3. Cyril Romanchuk pitched a fine game for the All Stars with Fred Rainey catching.

The second game was not such a crowd-pleaser as the first as Crystal Glass scored two in the opening frame and five in the third, while the All Stars made their only three runs in the 4th, the game ending 11 runs to 3. In this encounter E. Gerrits pitched with Garry Ure receiving until the 5th when Jimmy Jones relieved Gerrits and finished the game.

Farm Ladies Picnic At Vermilion Park; Enjoy Motor Boat Rides

Ladies attending the annual Farm Women's Week at the School of Agriculture enjoyed their evening meal and a picnic at the Vermilion Lake park last Tuesday.

Following the picnic style supper on the hill overlooking the beach the ladies enjoyed a sing song under the capable leadership of D. C. Folk, a member of the V.S.A. staff. Sidney Moore newly appointed recreation supervisor and swimming instructor at the park, had a number of boys and girls demonstrate basic swimming strokes and water safety practices in which the ladies were very interested.

For many of the ladies the outstanding feature of their visit to the park was the opportunity afforded them to have a motor boat ride on the lake. Boats provided by Bill Pettigrew, Ken Urquhart, Ed Herzog, Gordon Park and Hardie Ford took groups of the ladies for a "spin" around the lake. Very pleasant weather and the beautiful setting of the river valley lake helped to make this event a memorable one for many of the ladies who had never previously been in a motor boat. They were keenly appreciative of the generous hospitality shown to them in this way and expressed sincere thanks to the Rotary club for sponsoring the idea.

Montana 4-H Club To Visit V. S. A.

Attending the Club week at Olds July 30 to Aug 4 will be representatives from Manitoba 4-H Clubs.

8 BUSHEL QUOTA

Effective Wednesday July 11 the grain marketing quota has been increased to 8 bushels per specified acre.

North Battleford Band Attracts Huge Crowd To Vermilion Park

Rare entertainment was provided for a huge crowd at the Vermilion Provincial Park on Sunday by the North Battleford band. The band was on its way to compete at the Calgary Stampede and arrangements were made to have them stop over here for Sunday afternoon.

It was a happy thought indeed and one that was thoroughly appreciated by a huge crowd which gathered at the park beach and bandshell, overflowing the ample parking facilities. The band is comprised of 65 members; all of them are school students, both boys and girls, with the exception of five adults. Ages vary from 12 years and up.

The band in full uniform, marched from the junior high school to down town. They were led by baton-twirling majorettes and made a splendid show as they marched to the martial music. At the intersection of 50th street and 49th avenue they presented their justly famous marching routine. This takes 20 minutes during which time not a word is spoken to direct the band members through many intricate manoeuvres. This really launched the afternoon to a good beginning, and the program of numbers at the park was right in keeping. Following the concert the band moved to the beach area and again went through the march routine, to the extreme pleasure and enjoyment of upwards of an estimated three thousand people.

Appreciation of the people for the excellent program provided was amply demonstrated when a silver collection was taken and amounted to $204.12.

SUNDAY CONCERTS

The Rotary Club of Vermilion have undertaken to provide Sunday afternoon concerts at the park for the summer season.

The committee in charge on Sunday was comprised of Ashley Cooper, Ross Beake and Newcombe Bentley. The visitors and the crowd were welcomed by His Worship Mayor [illegible] Hill, who also thanked the Rotary Club for arranging the Sunday entertainments.

Reply to the words of welcome was given by Mayor Jim Maher of North Battleford who accompanied the band, being president of the organization.

Introduced by emcee Newcombe Bentley were Ken Urquhart and Bill Sutherland who along with the mayor constitute a provincial parks committee. They spend much time seeing that the area is developed and looked after properly, to provide the most enjoyment for everyone making use of the facilities.

Bandmaster Norm Lehman and assistant Norm Ross were introduced and received a vociferous welcome from the crowd.

At the conclusion of the program, Ashley Cooper, chairman of the committee of Rotarians, thanked the band members for bringing such splendid entertainment to Vermilion and wished them the best of success in the band competitions at Calgary.

This was the first time that the fine new bandshell has been used by a band. It was the object of much favorable comment by the North Battleford musicians, who have no such building in their city.

Incidentally, this band repeated their performance of 1955 and again won the trophy for being the smartest and best band in the Calgary Stampede parade.

THESE MOTORBOATS

With the full advent of the holiday season and increased motorboat traffic on the Vermilion Park lake, the time would appear propitious for the Park committee to make clear to all operators the new and very sensible regulations covering [illegible] operations, and to strictly enforce same.

Speed limits are briefly, as follows:

5 miles per hour within 300 feet of any swimmer.

5 miles per hour within 200 feet of any boat.

10 miles per hour within 600 feet of shore, bank, pier, wharf or diving board.

A motorboat must at all times be operated with due care and consideration for other persons swimming or boating in the same waters.

It can be clearly seen that on the lake the size of ours, which is only a few hundred yards wide, that any fancy capers, excessive speeds or cutting in on the beach areas — both north and south — are definitely severe breaches of the regulations and should be stopped for the safety of all concerned.

What will Canada look like 25 years hence? Here is the way J.K. Edmonds in The Financial Post sees it, based on evidence before the Gordon Commission:

A labor force of 8 to 10 million producing goods worth from $85 billion to $100 billion of 1955 dollars.

19.3 million "consumer units" spending a per capita disposable income of $1,800.

Additional power capacity in almost every province.

Railway and road developments in the Arctic.

An undersea link between P.E.I. and New Brunswick.

A canal connection with New York State's Hudson River system.

Two Hundred Attend Farm Forum Picnic At Vermilion Park

The Farm Forum groups of north-eastern Alberta met at the Vermilion park on Thursday, July 5th for their annual picnic, which in previous years had been held at Elk Island park. There were well over 200 in attendance and all were most enthusiastic over the beauty and facilities of the park. Most of the young fry and a few not so young enjoyed a period of swimming.

Under auspices of the Auburndale Forum who sponsored the picnic this year, a program of races for young and old was carried out. These included a number of novelty, as well as the usual running races, and ended with two tug-of-war competitions, one for the boys and one for the men. The boys really dug in, in the sand, and it was a toss-up for some moments before one group was finally victorious.

About 4 p.m. the crowd assembled in and around the bandshell. Steve Stewart Eyben of the Edenvale Forum and a member of the Northern Alberta Forum committee, acted as chairman of the meeting which opened with 'O Canada', followed by a short sing-song led by Mrs. Gelbelhaus of Vegreville. Glen Smiley, chairman of the Provincial Farm Forum council, gave a short report.

James McFall of Edmonton, the Alberta Farm Forum secretary, was introduced. He called the roll and found most forums from this section of the province represented. In spite of the bad winter he reported that many of the groups had a high percentage in terms of meetings held and in attendance. He stressed the importance of forums among farm people as a means of adult education regarding not only their own, but world problems. He suggested that the members try to get others interested and help to form new groups. Some of the topics slated for discussion this coming winter are: Parity Prices; A Soil Bank; Weed Control; What can be Learned from other Countries; Efficient Farming, etc.

N. N. Bentley, Principal of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, was the guest speaker. He welcomed the group to Vermilion and was pleased to see quite a number of former V.S.A. students in the audience. Mr. Bentley stated that we cannot expect an easy solution to the problems confronting farmers and the world in general; he advised that we do not engage in wishful thinking, but realize that anything worth having requires much time and work, and he suggested that we really think things through to try to work out the best solution.

Mr. McFall and Mr. Smiley acted as judges in the competition for the River Park shield for the best advertised Forum at the picnic. This was won by the Edenvale Forum with their decorated paper plate hats inscribed with the individual's name and that of their forum. The shield was presented to Lorentz Samuelson, secretary of the Edenvale group.

The crowd then went to the picnic grounds and enjoyed supper with hot coffee being provided by the Auburndale Forum.

One Physical, And One Emotional

Children Have Two Hearts, According To Chicago Doctor

A child has two hearts— the physical one, and the emotional one according to a release received by the Health League of Canada, from the Jurnal of the American Medical Association.

Dr. Willis J. Potts, of the Children's Memorial Hospital, Chicago says 'The physical heart is a rugged mechanism that will tolerate the ravages of infection, the scars resulting from impaired blood supply, and the approaches of surgeon's tools, but the emotional heart is a delicate mechanism, sensitive to the slightest wound of fear, insecurity, indifference, thoughtlessness and misunderstanding.'

Doctors have to deal with both hearts, but even when they are not working with the physical heart, they must consider the emotional one, he says. The emotions roused in children by encounters with doctors and nurses, long hospital stays, and surgical operations can leave deep and serious psychological scars.

During a prolonged hospitalization the child needs more than the minimum of attention. Even under the most hygienic surroundings, the child will develop poorly — physically and mentally — unless he gets essential loving care.

To many children, a hospital experience is a nightmare, he says. Before the age of reason, a child is unable to comprehend why he should be separated from his mother. Nurses frequently can act as substitute mothers to the very small child, but the three or four year old wants his 'mommy'.

Children from stable, closely-knit rural families are especially co-operative in hospitals. Other children, who have few restrictions at home, also learn to cooperate when they are in the hospital for long periods. In fact, they actually enjoy the intelligent restrictions of an orderly life, says Dr. Potts.

'Children are such amazing little creatures' he says. 'Tell them in simple words why they have to go to the doctor or hospital, or why they have to have an operation, and, in most cases, they will cooperate in a fashion that adults might emulate. Faith and trust are completely compelled when children are dealt with honestly. So little effort; so great the reward. The heart of a child covered by love, security and understanding will be able to withstand the storms of illness and pain.'

properly manipulate them. With a new and strange set-up, the same force, direction and time may produce unexpected and dangerous results.

A few years back shipments of Canadian beef cattle to the United States caused U.S. cattlemen "considerable concern." For example, from 1948 to 1952 (inclusive) annual exports averaged 400,000 head, mostly to U.S. Less than 25,000 head went to U. S. in 1955; and in the first 4½ months of 1956, less than 1,000 head went to the U.S., while 5,000 head of U. S. cattle were imported into Canada.

PUBLISHING

One of the hazards of publishing a paper is the danger of libel or slander. Editors are expected to take all reasonable precautions to ensure that what they print is true.

Even the truth must be handled with care for an editor must not publish the truth for malicious purposes, but rather to inform the public.

In the early days of radio, many wise-acres used to mail in 'requests' dedicated to someone, and the broadcasters accepted these. Often real hurt was inflicted. For example, a woman, recently bereaved, was shocked to hear a nearby radio station dedicate a song to her, purported from a well-known bachelor in town. Both parties were hurt by this ridiculous effort at a joke, but nothing was done about it.

Today, court after court has ruled that broadcasting is publishing, and that broadcasting stations are expected to use the same care as do newspaper editors to avoid committing such blunders.

Just the other day, Mr. Justice L. D. Currie, of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, ruled that an announcement over radio station CKBW constituted publishing. It was only another one among such court rulings.

A Royal Commission on Broadcasting is now engaged in an inquiry concerning the whole broadcasting industry. It is hoped that they will recommend that broadcasting be recognized as a method of publishing, with all the responsibilities that follow.

Broadcasting has passed the stage where it should be a government pet, nursed and subsidized to the to the point where it has neither independence, nor responsibility. It costs the taxpayers millions of dollars, yet it makes a remarkably small contribution to democracy. If it were allowed to grow up and stand on its own feet, as the printed means have had to do, it might reach maturity much sooner!

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bennett Honored On 25th Wedding Anniversary

MANNVILLE. — On Friday evening, July 6th, a surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of the Creighton district to honor Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bennett on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

More than one hundred guests, close neighbors and townspeople of Mannville, as well as friends from the north were present to extend their wishes to the happy and very surprised couple. The cars met a short way from the house and all the folk entered together.

The table was decorated with a three-tiered anniversary cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. E. Bauer. Vases of red carnations were set on either side of the cake.

A chest of silver was a gift from the family, a purse of money from Creighton-Clovelly friends, a large card with their initial and "25 Years" marked out in silver coins from the people in town, several beautiful bouquets and many other lovely gifts were presented to the happy couple. Mr. Harvey Robertson acted as Master of Ceremonies, calling on Mr. A. E. Williams and Mr. W. McCauley for a few words. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have lived in the Creighton district since their marriage twenty-five years ago, raised their family there and have taken an active interest in the community as well as affairs in town. Jim is on the executive of the Vermilion Agricultural Society, and has been also active in organizing the beef and grain clubs and other activities of the 4-H Clubs.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and friends.

Out-of-town guests included Bruce Bennett, Carol Mercer of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kufeldt, Minburn, Mrs. Dave McCauley of Lloydminster.

Special greetings were received from Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hetzler and Mrs. Hetzler Sr. of Ft. William, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett, Mrs. Croft of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Prior of Irma, and the Eastern Star of Mannville.

WILDMERE WINKS

We join with the community in extending sympathy to those who have been bereaved this past week.

Mr. Adam Lang who was yet only a young man passed away after a lengthy illness. To his wife and family we extend our deepest sympathy in their loss of a loving husband and father.

And to Mr. Morton Tovell and family we extend our heartfelt sympathy on the loss of a loving wife and mother. Mrs. Tovell too, has had a lengthy illness. We first met Mrs. Tovell the spring of 1927 when in the hospital together and she has been a very dear friend ever since.

May God give all those bereaved comfort in knowing that their loved ones are now at rest where there is no more pain or suffering.

There was a nice attendance at church Sunday evening. We were pleased to see Mrs. G. Dibben, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dibben and family there, also Tom Best of Wildmere. Mr. Smith gave a very good sermon on 'Sin' and its meaning. The choir sange "Breathe on Me Breath of God" very nicely. Over half of our church services for the summer have slipped by folks.

Miss Margaret Fadden of Lloydminster spent the weekend at her her home in Wildmere.

Mr. Dave Hughes was among the fishermen who went north for the weekend. Henry Haverslew, Frank Mergle, Brent Macnab Jr., H. Schreyer and others made up the party.

We had a nice chat with Mrs. Sample, Mrs. Tweedy, Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. J. Wilson on Saturday.

Don't forget the curlers' picnic on July 13, in Wildmere.

It was a grand day for Buffalo Coulee picnic on July 4th, and it was well attended. But Tolland picnic was rained out. However, we understand that they plan on holding it later in this month. Several attended the Tolland dance despite the muddy roads and having to be pulled up the coulee hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garnett celebrated their wedding anniversary on Sunday (the anniversary really was on July 5th), when they entertained a number of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dibben and family; Mrs. Garnett's mother, Mrs. Dibben Sr. of town, Mr. and Mrs. D. Dibben and family; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dibben and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garnett, all from Basswood. May you have many more wedding anniversaries, Gwen and Bill.

Several from Wildmere went to the Park at Vermilion on Sunday to hear the North Battleford Band. It really was good, and we were pleased to hear over the radio that they won top honors at the Calgary Stampede again this year.

Congratulations to the newly-married couples — we are late but sincere all the same. Mr. and Mrs. Adam Duczek, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nelson, are wished a long happy married life.

CHEMICAL RUST CONTROL

A Commentary

Considerable interest has been shown in recent years with regard to the possibility of protecting a growing crop of wheat by means of what has been variously termed a "protective fungicide" or "rusticide" and not a little research work has been done along these lines both in Canada and the U. S. A. This interest has been heightened by the recent appearance of several chemicals sold under various trade names which are designed to protect the wheat crop against rust.

So long as the main threat of stem rust to the Western crop is confined to race 15B most farmers will feel adequately protected by the growing of Selkirk Wheat which is resistant to this particular race. There will be some however particularly among the Durum wheat growers located in the rust zone, who may be disposed to try out the new protective materials, if rust threatens.

Although tests have indicated that the use of chemicals to control rust holds some promise the number of applications required and the cost have worked against it and there is still a need for an inexpensive chemical substance that can be applied at a relatively low rate. The present protective type of chemical is regarded as a possible stepping stone to a systemic or eradicant which would require fewer applications and be much cheaper to apply. That may be in the offing but for the time being and perhaps indefinitely the development of rust resistant varieties through scientific plant breeding methods will continue to be of first importance in rust control. This does not rule out the possibility however that eventually a new form of fungicide may not appear which will at least have a supplementary value in meeting the rust situation.

From 1945 to 1950 Canada's yearly exports of beef averaged nearly 100 million pounds. In 1955 while we sold 8 million pounds of beef to the U.S. we bought about 15 million pounds from that country. Altogether our 1955 imports of beef exceeded exports by nearly 30 million pounds.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane, Women's Travel Authority

[illegible] motorists harm thousands of animals [illegible] along the highways and sometimes it's vice versa. There are many reported incidents of startled deer charging in front of cars or of birds crashing into windshields.

We have many selfish as well as humane reasons for wanting to protect our wildlife. [illegible] stance are vital to our food supply since they feed off mice, etc. which destroy crops. And it "wasn't" for the birds we'd be at the mercy of insect hordes.

Here are simple rules for avoiding wildlife destruction and possible harm to ourselves:

1. Blink your lights at night to warn animals on the road. A sudden beam will hypnotize them into immobility. Warn them of your approach in the daytime by honking the horn as they often literally be scared until it started.

2. Birds along a fence must be warned ahead by horn-honking too. When you are too near they become startled and are liable to head into the car.

3. Slow down when you see a "herd-type" of animal such as a deer. An individual animal crossing the road will usually be followed by others.

4. Be on the lookout when driving through recently harvested farm land. Animals are then most likely to be on the move in search of new [illegible]

Important Resolutions Feature Well Attended F.U.A. Convention

District 7, F. U. A. Convention was held in the auditorium of the School of Agriculture, Vermilion, on Wednesday, July 4th. The meeting was opened by singing O Canada with Mrs. Mildred G. Redman, Director, in the chair. Other convention chairmen for the day were A. B. Wood and John Anderson.

His Worship Melvin Hill, mayor of Vermilion, in welcoming the large number of delegates to the convention in Vermilion, said that he had no idea of the large number of members of the F. U. A. in the district, although it was not a new movement to him. He felt that the solution to most [illegible] were not insurmountable. Mr. Hill said that the visitors were always welcome to the town, and invited them to use the facilities of Vermilion Lake and Park.

J. R. Hoake, president of the Vermilion Board of Trade, expressed the appreciation of the citizens of Vermilion to the F. U. A. for holding the convention in Vermilion, not only because of the School of Agriculture, but as friends, and he, too, expressed a very sincere welcome.

N. N. Bentley, Principal of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, gave the delegates his usual warm welcome and placed the facilities of the school at their disposal. Mr. Bentley extended a special welcome to Arnold Platt, the new provincial president of the F. U. A. He said it was the first opportunity he had to congratulate Mr. Platt, and that both Mr. and Mrs. Platt were graduates of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, also that Mr. Platt had been a classmate of his at University. Mr. Bentley felt that conventions such as this were profitable to the farmers, and gave the 11th Commandment to farmers, as stated by Hugh H. Bennett of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Russell Whitson, who farms north of Mannville, was introduced as the M. L. A. for Vermilion.

Fred Collins of Dewberry, District 7's "old timer", was congratulated on his membership in the farm movement for 30 years.

Mrs. Redman's report showed District 7 as having the second highest membership of the 14 districts in the province, with approximately 4,000 members in more than 80 locals. The 8 mass meetings held last winter had the largest attendance of any in the province with 220 at one meeting, and 263 at another. Mrs. Redman expressed her appreciation to all members of the Board, and to the membership for their co-operation in the work, particularly with almost impossible weather and road conditions last winter making it most difficult.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Arnold Platt, Provincial President of the F. U. A., extended an invitation to F. U. A. members and friends to attend the opening of the F. U. A. building in Edmonton on July 18th, when Lieut.-Governor, the Honorable Dr. J. J. Bowlen, will officially open the headquarters. Other dignitaries in attendance will be Premier Manning, Mayor Hawrelak and others. Henry Young, past president and present vice-president of the F. U. A. will deliver an address. Mr. Platt felt much better relationships were being established for the F. U. A. as the general public was becoming better informed on the farmers' position in the squeeze between the prices which the farmer receives for his produce and those he pays for his needs. Mr. Platt explained the new hunting regulations now in force as they affect the farmers. The F. U. A. was also much concerned over not getting railroad cars to move grain.

F. W. U. A. PRESIDENT SPEAKS

Mrs. Armstrong of Calgary, president of the F. W. U. A., appealed to the farmers to maintain a strong and stable farm organization, only by doing so could results be obtained. She also asked them not to be afraid of compulsion, and in the event of Municipal collection of dues any farmer could inform the M. D. by letter that he did not wish to have his membership collected. She cited many other organizations who collected membership dues in this way, such as the A. T. A. etc.

Walter Scheidt, Junior President, asked for consideration to be given the junior farmers of today who will be the leaders of tomorrow. Paul Ewanciw, Junior Director, and the Sub-district Directors, also gave brief reports on activities.

MANY RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions urging that immediate action be taken to get present taxes on farm lands lowered, as everything the farmer has to buy has increased in price, and everything he has to sell has decreased in price, requesting that Marketing Boards be set up; that cost of elementary education be borne by the Federal Government until such time as the Federal Government agrees that the Provincial Government be called on to shoulder the burden and relieve the taxpayer of the direct cost of education; that trade with the Chinese Republic be encouraged; that the Widows' Pension Act be amended to include unmarried women; that Library Grants for rural libraries on a dollar for dollar basis, up to $200.00 be made. These resolutions were all passed. The convention unanimously opposed a Sales Tax, and a tax on farm improvements.

New officers elected were:

F. U. A. Director, Mrs. Mildred G. Redman, Hardisty, re-elected for 5th term.

Alternate Director, Jas. Magill, Dewberry.

F. W. U. A. Director, Mrs. George Finlay, Lloydminster;

Alternate F.W.U.A. Director, Mrs. Paul Belik, Edgerton.

Rotarians Plan Calendar Project

"Let's make it bigger and better than last year." With these words Tom McPherson, genial secretary of the Rotary club, outlined the community birthday calendar project and set forth the basis of organizing the canvass for the 1957 calendar. The objective is 3000 listings and 800 calendar sales. Because the calendar project was so well received by the public last year and because it is generally recognized as contributing to a spirit of friendliness [illegible] the town and district members expect that their objective can be attained without much difficulty.

Other items on the program at the weekly dinner meeting included a welcome to visiting Rotarian Sidney Millward, former business man of Vermilion who now has a drug store at Nakusp, B. C. Ashley Cooper reported plans to have the North Battleford band present a concert at the Vermilion park on Sunday afternoon and Ernie Buckingham outlined the set-up of program planning for Rotary meetings for the year beginning July 1st.

Mitch Taylor received compliments on the publication of the first issue of a Club bulletin. Aldous Kent presented Ed Corley and Gil Rampling with birthday congratulations.

Business Meeting Of Marwayne F.W.U.A.

MARWAYNE.—It was very fortunate that the F.W.U.A. meeting night, June 25th, was one without rain. Nineteen members and two visitors were present at the home of Joyce Katzmarzyk; Golline Krill and Irene Johnson were co-hostesses.

The meeting opened with "[illegible] Days" and according to Roll Call reading was considered the subject of most value to us.

Donations, $10.00 from the O.O.R.P. and $5.00 from the B.P.O.E. have been received for the Mental Health Fund, making the total to date $83.51.

A report was given of the FWUA Conference held at the Vermilion School of Agriculture on June 14th where six members attended.

Plans were made and committees formed to cater to Irene Milne's wedding reception.

The flower show will be held about the middle of August. Entry lists will soon be in the mail for all householders. Keep these for reference as the judges will not consider entries with the wrong number of items, blooms, etc. Please watch for posters for the date.

The next meeting will be at the home of Alice Milne on Monday evening, July 23rd.

June Wedding At Elk Point Church

CHOMA—AKSENCHUK

Sweet peas were the central theme of the decorations at the United church at Elk Point on June 23rd when Anne Aksenchuk exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony with Harry Choma. The nuptial mass was performed by Father Adams.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulmo Aksenchuk of Myrnam. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Choma of Elk Point.

Entering the church with her father, the bride looked charming in a tiered gown of nylon lace and net, a tight fitting bodice designed with scalloped neckline flanked with beads and sequins, and her sleeves were lily-point. A cap-style headdress held in place her finger-tip veil, which was trimmed with lace. She carried a bouquet of velvet red roses.

Mrs. Josephine Coma of Vermilion was maid of honor and wore a floor-length gown of blue nylon net and lace, with matching head-piece and gloves. She wore a deep pink sweetheart rose corsage.

Miss Lucy Aksenchuk, Miss Mary Ann Wozniak and Miss Olga Mysaniuk, bridal attendants, wore identical floor-length gowns of green, yellow and pink nylon net. Each wore matching style net caps and carried bouquets of white and pink roses.

Wm. Myshanuik was the best man and the ushers were Bill Zarowny, Steve Aksenchuk and Joe Prince. The wedding music was played by the church organist.

To receive her guests the bride's mother, wore a grey dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a brown dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was pink roses. The bridal table was laid with a beautiful lace cloth and centred by a four tiered wedding cake.

Later a reception was held at the Myrnam Hall. This was followed by a dance.

For a honeymoon trip to Great Falls, the bride changed to a grey suit with white and black accessories and a corsage of pink orchids.

The newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

More Leisure?

Almost all of us react pleasantly to the thought of greater leisure even if we have no very clear understanding of what we will do with it.

As a matter of fact, as the Rev. R. S. K. Seeley, Provost of Trinity College, Toronto has pointed out, our present way of life hasn't helped us too much in either using or benefiting from extra leisure, which adds up in too many instances to just having time on our hands. Our present day small homes or apartments do not lend themselves to family projects, so leisure can't be too much of a force in drawing families together. We tend rather to draw apart. And even that might not be too bad if we were creatively employed but we aren't. We have become a nation of lookers. Dr. Seeley contends, rather than participators. We depend on the radio, the TV, the movie or the sports events to entertain us rather than make any effort to entertain ourselves. We delight in spectator sport. We have forgotten how to participate. All we need is a place to sit and kill time, like the beer parlor or the cocktail lounge.

None of this suggests a very valid reason why we should need a forty-hour week instead of a forty-four or a thirty-six instead of a [illegible]. What will we do with the [illegible] hours of leisure when we get them when we don't know what to do with those we have now? There is the sad reflection too that one whose major occupation is killing time isn't likely to develop into a citizen useful either to his country or himself. —J.L.R.

Community Resources for Civil Defence

Twelfth in a series of 24 articles

What can a small town, with its small population and limited resources, do to defend itself and help defend the rest of the country against disaster, nuclear or natural? The answer is "quite a bit".

Federal civil defence planners, whose job it is to work out and guide into the operational stage a disaster plan for the whole country, say that a small town or community needs an executive committee composed of the reeve and two or three responsible officials to lay down policy, a director and a small planning committee.

These committees are made up of the people who head the various services such as welfare, health, police, fire, communications and others whose knowledge makes them valuable to civil defence planning.

Since the role of most small towns and villages would be as reception areas for evacuees from cities, their plans should be worked out with this role in mind. The women's organizations in the churches, for example, should be trained and ready to provide food for large numbers of refugees from a city hit by an H-bomb. This same preparedness, of course, could be applied to feeding large numbers of persons made homeless suddenly by a flood or a tornado or a landslide such as the one last fall that carried parts of Nicolet, Que., into the river.

The welfare of people includes providing them with a place to sleep. A small town's plan should include a survey of the sleeping space available, remembering that in an emergency people can sleep in barns, lofts and garages as well as the guest room.

A small town's civil defence plan, therefore, might require stockpiling at a central point such welfare essentials as blankets, and foods, particularly dry-powdered milk and canned goods.

While few small towns would have to worry about actually being hit by an H-bomb if war came, many would be affected by the dangerous radioactive fall-out from the bomb's blast. So the welfare planning could prove a boon to the small town's own inhabitants. For fall-out can contaminate fresh vegetables, milk, eggs and so on. Food in cans, however, is safe.

Ordinary buildings provide a degree of protection from fall-out. Basements are better and root cellars even safer. So a C. D. plan for a small town should include a survey of the fall-out shelter available for its own residents as well as possible visitors from less fortunate areas.

Because of the danger from fall-out, a small town's C. D. plan should also include a trained monitoring service: that is, persons with the necessary equipment for detecting the degree of danger from fall-out. This requires training and civil defence can provide that training.

The small town C. D. plan should also include a communications system. It must provide a means of warning the farmers around the town.

Since to achieve maximum results the country's civil defence organization must extend to every community, no matter how small, it is being set up, in provinces like Ontario, on an area basis, each area embracing a number of towns and communities that can help each other.

But each town must still have its local director to co-ordinate its efforts with those of the rest of the area.

Miss Betty Bentley, Edmonton, spent last week end visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Bentley.

Mr., Mrs. Ken Rowe Return From Three Months Overseas

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rowe returned this week from an extensive three months-trip and visit to England, Scotland and the continent. They travelled by boat, docked at Southampton and visited Winchester, Salisbury, the historic Stonehenge. After a week in the south of England [illegible] daily [illegible] to London, they spent a few days at Leicester and in the Midlands. A very interesting event attended was the British Industries Fair at Birmingham. Edinburgh was headquarters for a week, and another week was spent on the Clyde coast at Ayr when Ken looked over spots where he had been stationed during the first world war. On their return to London they joined a tour to the continent and France, Belgium, Luxemburg and Switzerland were travelled through. The tour wound up with a full day in Paris. Another week in London and then Mr. and Mrs. Rowe boarded the Saxonia for the return journey, landing at Montreal. A stopover of two weeks was made in Toronto where daughter Norma (Mrs. Keech) and family live. A new car was picked up in Oshawa and the journey from there was completed by motor. Although they grew up in England and Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe saw more of the British Isles on their holiday on this occasion than ever before.

Ora K. Sommerfeldt, a motor bike enthusiast of Whiskey Gap in southern Alberta, spent last week with his brother-in-law W. R. Coma in Vermilion. The trip of course was made by motorcycle.

Vegreville M.P. Will Not Run

At a Liberal Association Executive meeting held recently Mr. John Decore announced that he does not intend to seek re-election to Federal Parliament when the next election of Federal members takes place.

When elected member of parliament for the Vegreville Constituency in 1949 Mr. Decore was in the position of being able to transfer his family to Ottawa without jeopardizing the educational interests of his boys. now that they have reached the stage where higher education is necessary, Mr. Decore feels that he should be in a position to offer guiding counsel at home, such as would be nigh impossible if remotely situated in Ottawa.

That is the reason why he has decided not to allow his name to stand for the third term, when the next general election takes place.

Mr. Decore has been in town for a short time and returned to Ottawa on Wednesday.

Terry Cooper plans to leave by bus Friday morning for Kapasiwin Beach where he will spend the next ten days at the Anglican Church camp.

Wedding Bells

NOSTER—KLACZYK

DERWENT. — The St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church was the setting for a recent wedding when Miss Elizabeth Noster became the bride of Mr. Theodore Klaczyk.

Rev. Zanko of St. Michael performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of net and lace. Her chapel veil of illusion net fell from a leaf design cap trimmed with pearls. She carried orchids and a prayer book.

Mrs. Olga Miller, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Joyce Charchun and Olga Lychak, who wore waltz-length gowns of blue. Little Eleanor Charchun was a pretty flower girl, wearing a ballerina gown of yellow, while Clem and Douglas Charchun were page boys.

Ushers were Roy Klaczyk, a brother of the groom and Allison Toranchuk. Mrs. Pearl Algot was soloist with Miss Donna McConnell as organist.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noster.

Mr. and Mrs. Klaczyk will reside in Edmonton after their honeymoon in Montana and Banff.

Bride-to-be Feted

Miss Audrey Barclay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barclay of Clandonald, whose marriage to Larry Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barlow of Vermilion, is planned for July 17, was the guest of honor at a picnic shower held at the Vermilion Park on June 19th. The Treasury Branch staff with whom Miss Barclay has worked, and other friends, met at the lake to wish her well and to present her with a variety of shower gifts. A treasure hunt had been organized and Miss Barclay was the fortunate finder of the treasure, the shower gifts. She thanked her friends for their good wishes and the lovely gifts.

On July 9th at the Clandonald home of her parents Miss Barclay was again honored, this time at a surprise party when about thirty friends unexpectedly arrived. Mrs. C. Laird entertained the guests with two solos and was accompanied by Miss Marilyn Brake. The shower gifts were wheeled to the bride-to-be in a baby carriage and had been arranged to resemble a wedding cake. Miss Barclay thanked her friends for their many good wishes and their gifts. Lunch, which had been provided by the guests, was thoroughly enjoyed.

No Vote Seen Before 1957

A federal general election will not be held before 1957, in the opinion of Senator J. W. Stambaugh, of Bruce, who is in Edmonton for a brief visit. He will leave Monday night for Ottawa.

'There is nothing at present to indicate a general election before next year,' said the senator.

Commenting on the work of the session, he said it seems unlikely that prorogation will take place in July. One reason is that the House is not as well advanced with its sessional programme as it was at this time a year ago. —Journal

Islay Lady Finds Uncle Was Well Known Miner and Prospector

Many people in the Islay district will remember James McLennan who visited his nephew N. A. McLennan and family many years ago for a summer. He and his prospector partner discovered Drum Lummon Mines in B.C. in the vicinity of Kitimat where his grand niece Faye, is now living. They sold their claim to an American company and this company built a wharf, a narrow gauge railroad and several bunkhouses. They drove about two miles of tunnels extracting copper, gold and silver. The mine employed three hundred men and was abandoned in 1938. The following letter from Faye McLennan explains how she met an old timer who could tell her more of her grand-uncle's exploits.

Box 215, Station A,
Kitimat, B. C.

Dear Editor:

Did I ever tell you about m' prospectin' uncle who, back in 19 . . . something or other, decided there was gold in them thar hills? Well, I found this clipping in the Kitimat Northern Sentinel and wondered if you'd be interested as a lot of Islay folk will remember the summer Dad's uncle Jim spent with us on the farm when Jean and I were small (and Bruce and Kenn weren't). He used to drive us to school in the buggy and we'd tear down the road just as fast as Ruby, the horse, would walk. It took us hours!

Although I've known since we came up here that it was in this country someplace that Uncle Jim had come to seek adventure (and gold), I found out nothing in spite of enquiries until I finally had a chance to talk to some of the Indians from across the bay who were playing for a dance which I attended. When I asked the oldest fellow of the band he beamed and said, "Oh yes! Jim McLennan is a well known name in this country!", and then went on to tell me that his father worked side by side in the mine with Uncle for years. Needless to say I was pretty excited to hear of him first hand and I had an endless stream of questions but, of course, didn't have time for them. I would like the chance to hear the tales they could tell as only those people can. Anyway it seems that "Old Jim" lived in a cabin close to the mine which is about forty miles down the Douglas Channel at an inlet called Fox Lagoon, coming out very seldom to the villages along the coast.

"He used to camp for days at a time on a mountain ledge and hack away at the side of the mountain", so I guess his ambition went beyond a miner's life. Wouldn't he be amazed to see Canada's largest industrial centre on practically the same spot? I would like, some day, to visit that site as the old mine shaft still remains and the cabins, though dilapidated, still stand. And we think we are pioneering!

Sincerely,
Faye

P.S.: Hello to all. I miss Vermil

Railways Join The Weed Killing Crusade

Chemical warfare on weeds and brush has been declared by Canadian railways. Here we see a special spray train of Chipman Chemicals Limited applying a chemical weedkiller (Atlacide) on a stretch of CPR road bed. Brush flanking railway rights of way is killed with another chemical — a mixture of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T — from powerful long range nozzles mounted on top of a spray car. Some 12,000 miles of weed-infested track from Newfoundland to B.C. will be sprayed by 11 "Chipman Specials" this summer and more than 1,000,000 gallons of chemical solutions will be used. The spraying replaces the ancient time-consuming and expensive scythe and hoe method of weed control.

Costume as well as expensive jewellery, including diamond rings can be cleaned by immersing the pieces in a solution of one teaspoon of ammonia in a pint of warm water. Let the jewellery stand in the solution for about half an hour. Most metals except brass and copper can be cleaned this way.

DISEASES CAUSED BY RATS

Rats are steadily invading Alberta and as people generally seem to be unaware of the extent of damage to property and disease that they are responsible for there is set out below a list of diseases associated with rats.

WEILS DISEASE: Is primarily a disease of rats and in some cases up to half the rat population may be infected. The germ which causes the disease is excreted in the rats urine and can gain entry to the human body in two ways. (1) The germ is excreted into water and if anyone comes into contact with this water the germ can enter his body through minute breaks in the skin. (2) Food may be contaminated with rats' urine and if food is eaten the germ enters the blood stream from the stomach. Weils disease is characterized by fever, general malaise, kidney symptoms and usually jaundice often four or five days. The disease causes an absence from work of up to six weeks and in some cases has been fatal.

TRICHINIASIS: Caused by a worm and the spread of infection is from the rat to hog and from hog to man. The hogs eat dead rats which are infected and the worms grow in the hog's muscles. Anyone eating this hog meat inadequately cooked will be infected with worms. The symptoms include loss of appetite, abdominal pain, vomiting and diarrhoea and after two weeks, muscular pain. The disease runs a course of several weeks.

TYPHUS FEVER AND SCRUB TYPHUS: This disease is transmitted from rats to humans by a flea. Symptoms include high fever, headache, pain behind the eyes, dizziness, noises in the ears, cough and pains in the limbs. The patient is mentally confused and excitable and a course red rash appears after about four or five days. Possible complications include cerebral haemorrhage, often neuritus, nerve deafness, gangrene of feet or hands, pneumonia and arthritis. The disease runs a course of twenty days and the patient is convalescent for many years after this.

RELAPSING FEVER: There is a sudden onset of fever, weakness, abdominal pain, and vomiting. This lasts for four or five days, then a fine rash appears and the patient begins to feel better. After a few days a relapse occurs and the sequence of events is repeated. This continues for two or three months and then the relapses get less frequent and less severe. This means the total course of the disease lasts several months. It is transmitted from rats to man by tics or fleas.

BUBONIC PLAGUE: Is spread from rat to man by the rat flea. There is sudden onset of headache, backache, high fever, and complete collapse in a few days; extreme enlargement of the glands all over the body occurs and they are painful and tender. Delirium and convulsions occur and seventy per cent of the cases are fatal.

RAT BITE FEVER: Due to an actual bite of the rat. The wound heals and then after one to three weeks shows signs of irritation. This is accompanied by fever of an undulating type. It is common in children who are likely to be bitten by a rat while sleeping. There have been several cases of extreme mutilation of a sleeping child by a rat.

FOOD POISONING: A rat carries the organism in its digestive system and foodstuffs may be contaminated by a rat's urine or faeces. The patient has crampy abdominal pain, vomiting and diarrhoea, a dirty tongue and an extreme feeling of weakness. The illness lasts for several days according to the severity of the infection.

All these diseases can be prevented by only one method - preventing the rats from getting established

Dewberry Couple Married at Vermilion

United Church of Vermilion was the scene of a quiet ceremony when Mabel Annie Tulloch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Tulloch, Dewberry, became the bride of Robert Stanley Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Walker, also of Dewberry. Rev. Mackay officiated.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white lace over taffeta, the tunic bodice edged with diamonte trim. Her fingertip veil was held by a white Juliet cap, and she carried a cluster bouquet of red roses.

Miss Joyce Tulloch, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a ballerina-length yellow gown of net over taffeta, with a coronet of delicate blue carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother, Earl Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Ewan also attended the young couple.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Walker, when over forty friends and relatives gathered to wish the newlyweds well. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Tom Lee, grandfather of the groom.

For this occasion, the mother of the bride wore a navy silk gown with corsage of red roses. The mother of the groom chose blue taffeta and wore a yellow rose corsage.

The three-tiered wedding cake which centred the bride's table was flanked by twin bouquets of roses. A buffet lunch was served with several friends assisting.

The young couple will reside in Greenlawn district.

If the children get chewing gum embedded in their clothing or in a carpet, rub with a piece of ice and scrape it off. If a stain remains sponge with carbon tetrachloride.

281 University Students Obtain Loans From Alberta Government

A total of 281 students who might otherwise not have been able to obtain advanced education were assisted in 1955-56 by grants or loans from the provincial government under the Students Assistance Act. Forty-four nursing trainees also received aid under the act.

In releasing details of financial help available, Department of Education officials said that since inception of the Students Assistance Act in April, 1953, a total of 666 loans totalling $134,021 have been authorized. Repayment record has been satisfactory to date, said Department of Education officials.

During the fiscal year 1955-56, 133 grants totalling $16,965.00 and 244 loans totalling $62,861 were awarded. In addition, 44 grants totalling $3,495 were awarded to nurses in training.

Grants not exceeding $500.00 in any university year or $1,000.00 during the complete course or $600.00 in any university year or $1,200.00 during the complete course are also available. A student may obtain both grant and loan if his academic standing is sufficiently high enough and financial need is indicated. Grants are available to student nurses who are in financial need to the extent of $200 per student, not exceeding $100 in any one year.

Students entering university require a matriculation average of 75% to be eligible for a grant, or an average of 65% to be eligible for a loan. Loans are subject to repayment at the rate of $200.00 per year commencing one year after graduation or withdrawal from university. Simple interest of 3½% is charged. Grants do not have to be repaid.

The federal government contributes approximately 25% of the funds available for grants under the Vocational Training Agreement.

Under the Act, a student is defined as a bona fide resident of Alberta who has registered or is about to register, in a course leading to a degree at the University of Alberta, or any approved college or university for a course not available at the University of Alberta.

Students already enrolled at the university may apply to the registrar for assistance. Those about to enroll should apply to the Deputy Minister, Department of Education, Edmonton.

Many students have stated that they would not have been able to remain in university without this assistance.

First issue of the Alberta Road Report for this year came out on Monday, June 25. This sheet, which goes out to a mailing list of 11,080 hotels, motels, information services, radio and newspapers, service stations, motor associations and Chambers of Commerce each weekend shows sections of highway which will be under construction during the week. Information from the Department of Highways, National Parks and Alaska Highway is compiled and printed by the Alberta Government Travel Bureau weekly from the end of June until after the Labour Day Weekend.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

Heavy Rains, Muddy Roads, Full Lakes In Clandonald Area

There never has been a shortage of news in this area during the past months — only a great lack of will power on the part of ye reporter.

Following the dry spell in May and early June, which almost lasted too long, precipitation can now almost be measured in feet rather than inches.

On Friday our immediate district missed the very heavy rainfall which seemed to start a few miles south of town and moved in a north-westerly direction. Very little hail was noticed here but about two weeks ago some damage was reported around Raft Lake during what appeared to be a very mild type of storm.

Although missing the near-cloudburst, enough rain fell to again make some of the roads impassable for motor traffic. A rather unusual sight the last two Saturdays again has been the appearance of numerous saddle horses in town, especially from the area south and east.

LAKES ARE HIGH

With the exceptionally heavy rainfall following last winter's record snow, lakes in many cases have risen to levels not seen since the very early days. Hagen's Lake at one time quite a popular spot for boating and swimming and at other times dry, is back up almost to its former level. The road built across a shallow end years ago was reported as quite impassable last week. However, with the new highway finished, getting east is no problem, only involving a four-mile detour.

WATER OVER GRADE

At Campbell Lake cars were proceeding with caution through almost a foot of water on the grade just east of Ralph Strome's at the week end. This flat, dry most years, and now covered with water, appears to be all one lake on the same level as Campbell Lake and forms a quite imposing body of water around two and a half miles in extent altogether. Overlooking some inconvenience however, our old Campbell Lake is a really beautiful sight with water right up into the trees which line most of the shore.

HIGHWAYS 45 AND 41 ARE POPULAR ROUTE TO VERMIL.

Back to the subject of roads again, with the six-mile road west of town being in very doubtful condition the only really safe bet to get to Vermilion at time of writing is by way of highways 45 and 41.

It would appear, as is usual at this time of year, that once again a large proportion of the population of North America is on the road. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley accompanied their daughter and son-in-law Hazel and Matt Kada when they drove to the coast recently. Also included were the two Kada children Geraldine and Russel. While at the coast the party will be visiting many relatives who reside in that area including two of Ernie's brothers and two other married daughters of the Stanley's.

Doris and Walter Coulter of Vermilion were leaving on Sunday on a holiday trip of about a week, planning to be in Calgary in time for the parade on Monday, and then to visit Banff and Jasper before returning home.

Miss Lenore Michael, employed as a bookkeeper in a garage at Biggar, Sask., has been spending most of her two weeks' holiday at her parents' farm home near town.

Cliff Stockwell now employed in Edmonton, spent a short two weeks at his brother's home during June. With the coming of Cliff came the rain.

Jack Forsyth, another old timer of these parts, now employed for the past few years at Yellowknife, spent several days in this area. A trip was made to Calgary to visit son Tom and family during the time however. His daughter-in-law Mrs. Johnny Forsyth accompanied him.

Mrs. S. Filgate recently returned from the coast following an absence of several months. Mrs. Filgate left here on receiving word of the death of her son Eli and has since been making her home with her daughter-in-law who returned with her for a week's visit. The Eli Filgate family left here about twenty-five years ago and since that time had made their home at Cobble Hill, V.I.

Word was received by the Brake family recently that Mrs. Sikstrom, Mrs. Brake's mother, is seriously ill in hospital at Camrose. Mrs. Sikstrom is well known here having visited on many occasions.

Rev. and Mrs. Brown left last Monday on a motor trip which will take them as far as their former home in Ottawa. They expect to be away three weeks. Also on holiday, Eugene Zaff accompanied them as far as Regina.

With the coming of spring construction projects, several district residents have secured jobs. Harry Brake Jr. who was employed for several weeks with Williams' Construction near Edmonton, is now operating a machine for the Progressive Construction outfit who have the highway contract from Dewberry east.

Johnny Forsyth left his wife and family, temporarily that is, and is now at Uranium City way up in the north-east corner of the province. Lloyd Nicholson who worked for Homer Campbell for some time and whose family now reside in town, is up in the Peace River country with the North American outfit.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

5 Millions For Alberta Timber Rights

EDMONTON -- Making money is something that comes naturally to Alberta's Social Credit government.

Last week, the administration earned approximately $5,000,000 from the sale of timber rights and in the same week it was announced that 1955 earnings from oil and gas totalled $108,956,711 including the lease sales, royalties and rentals.

Big money from oil and gas is old stuff, but the earnings from timber rights are something new and from all indications it might herald the start of a new emphasis on forestry as an important source of revenue for the provincial treasury.

The department of lands and forests auctioned off the biggest block of timber rights since the province took over the administration of its natural resources from the federal government in 1930.

The sale was run by public tender in much the same way as oil and gas rights sales. The sum of $5,000,000 seems small in comparison with the revenue from oil and gas but it is a source of money which can do anything but grow and since it is probably the only permanent undepletable source of natural revenue the province has.

A total of 381,900,000 board feet of spruce, pine and balsam fir in five licensed timber berths were involved in last week's sale. All are located in the 86-square-mile Tony Creek timber stand in remote country about 80 miles northwest of Whitecourt.

The timber has been there for years of course but it gained commercial value only recently because of the new Whitecourt cutoff road to the Peace River country which for the first time provided easy access to the area.

Timber sales such as the one last week differ from oil and gas lease sales in one respect. The money isn't paid cash on the line. Operators pay the money to the government as the timber is cut and sold. It is expected that cutting will start almost immediately and the money will be paid into the provincial treasury over the next few years.

The lands and forests department announced that timber cutting in the Tony Creek stand will be done on a new "patch" system under the supervision of expert forestry officers.

Cutting will be done in patches and when a patch is cut it will be re-seeded before operations move onto another patch. In this way officials hope to put the forests on a sustained yield basis so there will always be timber to harvest.

Properly managed the forests are about the only natural resource that will last forever. So far the surface has only been scratched in Alberta. The province has thousands of square miles of forests waiting to be utilized. With a pulp industry developing it is bound to be used and under proper management it can be an important source of revenue indefinitely.

LIQUOR HEARINGS END

The liquor committee hearings ended in Calgary last week with a flush of briefs from wet interests advocating relaxed liquor laws. Even so, they were outnumbered greatly by dry briefs asking for further restrictions on drinking or at least that existing liquor laws be retained.

But probably the most important part of the legislative committee investigation will be held behind closed doors between now and the 1957 session of the legislature. The committee is planning private meetings with police officers and members of the Attorney general's staff here.

"THE EARLY YEARS" — Part III

Child Requires Affection, Security And Understanding

By R. E. Smith, M.A., M.Ed., Ph.D.

"The child is father to the man." "Give me the child until he is six . . ." These old sayings, many think, are barely half-truths, but still they have an uncanny way of proving themselves right. This is particularly the case with adult psychoneurotics. And the world, as everybody knows, is richly supplied with such people.

A psychoneurotic, Dr Fetterman says, is one whose failure to adjust to life takes the form of physical illness, severe discomfort, or character deviation. Physical demands and social stresses are too much for him. Guilt and fear lay hold on him, tension and anxiety build up. A kind of release or escape is found in physical disorder or abnormal behaviour. Fortunately not all abnormal behaviour is undesirable. Darwin, for example, and Chopin, and Leonardo are among the geniuses we honor. Their abnormal behaviour took the form of an astonishing output of creative energy. Indeed, someone has written a book, "So Glad You're Neurotic". But while neuroticism along with great talent may produce masterpieces it is no less true that neuroticism without talent too often produces only trouble and distress.

It should not be surprising that a great deal of nervous trouble begins in childhood. Early life experiences stamp the pattern for later reactions. And though childhood is pictured as the golden age of happiness, life, even for children, is not all sunshine and roses. The infant or child craves security and affection and may receive little of either. He likewise craves independence and freedom. The negativism of the two year old is his bid for a bit of independence, a demand to be recognized as a person. One youngster, J. H., failed in this. He was the only child, and his mother, over-protective, instilled in him fears and excessive caution. "Don't play with the boys or you'll get hurt . . . you mustn't go out alone, you'll be kidnapped . . . come straight home from school or I'll be worried sick."

J. H. grew up, his mother's boy, without the necessary spunk to rebel. Drafted into the army he just survived basic training and broke completely on bayonet drill and rifle practice. "Be careful. Don't do that. Don't get hurt. I can't live if anything happens to you." His mother's anguished voice still rang in his ears. Gunfire made him pale and limp, nauseated, brought him to the verge of collapse. He was the victim of induced, inbred fear.

Most children have the occasional bitter and frightening experience encountered apparently without harm. Family security and affection will take the edge off nearly any affliction. C. B. was brought up without either security or affection. Her mother was a nonentity, spiritless, mousey creature with neither past or future. Her father was a sickly man, probably a hypochondriac, but a violent man of vicious temper and ugly. Like an actor in tragedy he dramatized his pains, clutched at his heart, and gasped for breath. C. B. and her younger sister lived in dread.

Grown-up, C. B. failed, indeed feared, to marry and lived a solitary and unproductive life. Presently physical symptoms appeared, headaches, insomnia, choking spells, heart palpitations, fear of disease, precisely as her father had exhibited them. Her childhood dreads and anxieties were reappearing and converting themselves into replicas of her father's dramatic ailments.

Most childhood experiences are forgotten, at least up to age four or five. But oddly enough the memory traces seem never to be erased. They remain in what psychologists are calling the unconscious, and by certain word association techniques, many of them, especially those with strong emotional accompaniment, may be revived. Thus in one case of near drowning episode occurring at age four, and charged at the time with intense fear and sense of guilt, was brought to memory. The person all her life had suffered from a morbid fear of running water but found happy relief when this near-tragic mishap was brought to light. It has been said that the angel of mercy throws the blessed mantle of forgetfulness over the events of our childhood. It might be still more merciful if she obliterated the memories altogether.

What this means to parents is that children need, above all else, a sure sense of affection, security and understanding. With these elementary requirements they will thrive on poverty, hardship, considerable neglect, firm or even strict discipline, and moderate abuse. Perhaps this accounts for the remarkable success of primitive mothers in their child-rearing. Modern mothers, in their own interests, must have education, mental diversion, and even perhaps part-time vocations outside the home. But what they should not forget, at the cost of successful motherhood, is that while times may change child nature does not. Apparently the child of 1956 A. D. requires affection, security, and understanding just as the child of 1956 B. C. did.

19 Vermilion Cadets To Attend R.C.A.F. Summer Camp, Abbotsford

Twenty four hundred Royal Canadian Air Cadets from all parts of Western Canada will attend Summer Camp at the RCAF Station here during July and August.

The cadets are divided into three groups of approximately 800 boys.

The first troup arrives on July 8 for a two-week stay. Travelling from as far east as Port Arthur and Fort William, Ontario, and north from Whitehorse, Y. T., they will use every mode of transport from boat and bus to train and plane in getting to Abbotsford.

Once at Abbotsford, the cadets will undergo an intensive familiarization program, following a syllabus laid down by the RCAF.

Most of the training and supervision will be carried by Air Cadet Officers and civilian instructors, who will accompany their squadrons to camp. Regular RCAF instructors will handle training in specialized subjects.

Activities will include drill, rifle handling and firing, sports, leadership training and conducted tours to points of interest throughout B. C. In addition, each cadet will receive at least one hour-long flight in an RCAF Expeditor aircraft.

Excellent messing facilities have been provided for the cadets, including night-time snacks before lights out. The station hospital is completely manned by RCAF doctors, nurses and medical assistants.

Regular RCAF Officer Commanding Station Abbotsford for the Summer Camp will be Wing Commander F. W. H. Macdonell, of Tactical Air Command HQ, Edmonton.

Wing Commander W.H. Lee, Commanding Officer of No. 1 Wing, RCAC, Vancouver, is the Air Cadet Commanding Officer.

Nineteen cadets from Vermilion Squadron No. 97 will attend the third camp from August 5 to 18.

Mannville and District Local News

Holidays is the main item of conversation these days so this is a good opportunity to tell you that your local editor will be away for one week and any news of particular interest for the issue of July 27th may be left at the Telephone office but would not be sent in if left later than Monday, July 23rd. And it must be in legible writing as there will be no one to retype it. Also it would be a great help if anyone having visitors from out of town or leaving on holidays would let me know. Sometimes it is too late for the current issue of the paper when I learn of visitors, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Worwood and family of Kamloops, were week-end visitors at the Allanach farm. They renewed acquaintances with old friends in town as well.

Mr and Mrs. W N Crooks are holidaying at the Coast. Mrs. Ekin motored as far as Edmonton with them and then went on to Grimshaw for a visit.

Mrs. Eber McFadden has left to spend a month's holiday with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McFadden of Terrace, B.C.

Visiting at the Torrance home are Mr and Mrs. C. Garrison and children of Red Deer.

Mr and Mrs. Ken Scoggins left on Friday for the East. They will pick up a new car at Oshawa and then motor to Chicago to visit Ken's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour. This is the car Ken won several weeks ago in the Elks newspaper car bingo in Vermilion, and he is taking delivery at the factory.

Mrs. R. Diercks of Thorsby and Mr. J. Diercks and two daughters of Victoria were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rostron.

Among those attending the United Church camp at Lake Whitney are Ian Van Dusen, Raymond Lynch and Vernon Smith.

Miss Florence Schock has joined the staff of the local Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Mr A. (Sandy) MacLeod of the staff of the Bank of Commerce is at present on holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hamilton are visiting with their daughters in Edmonton.

Mrs. J. McLuckie returned home Friday evening after spending the past two weeks in Edmonton.

Mr. Ralph Leitch spent several days in Clair, Sask., his former home, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Jackson and Russell left on Monday for a holiday in Calgary.

Mrs. R. Beatty and son Kenneth of Elk Point are in Mannville while Mr. and Mrs. Scoggins are on holidays. Mrs. Beatty is in charge of the Coffee Shop in their absence.

NEWS from CLANDONALD

Little Neil Convey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Convey who was a victim of polio a few years ago, recently underwent another operation. It is too early yet to be sure but every hope is held that he will be practically free of any crippling effect of the dread disease.

Mr and Mrs. Scotty MacDonald and family now living in Edmonton, are here on holidays visiting with relatives and renewing several old acquaintances.

The general store operated by Bill Specht is currently undergoing extensive alterations inside as well as a face lifting outside. When completed Clandonald will have a modern self-serve food store. While the work is in progress business is being carried on as near usual as possible. Directly opposite across the street the old cafe building owned by Roberge's is also undergoing extensive alterations. Rumor has it that we are to have another hardware store but we don't know for sure.

Since taking over the hotel the new owners Bill Davies and Wes Castor have been making a number of improvements. Among these is a modern lunch bar where the dining room was formerly located. The old cafe across the street which had operated for almost 30 years and more recently run by the Pat Toner family, closed about two months ago.

At the annual meeting of the Derwent Shipping Association held in Clandonald this year, attendance was very poor, partly due to bad roads and also an auction sale. It was noted by the writer that during its twenty or more years of operation the Co-op has netted the shippers almost $30,000 in dividends and reserves. It is reasonable to assume that the gain to shippers by the increase in competition could well be many times that amount.

W.M.S. Entertain Mothers and Babies

The W. M. S. of First United church, Vermilion, were hostesses to the prospective members of the Baby Band and their mothers at a recent gathering. The W. M. S. is planning to sponsor the formation of a Baby Band group for which all babies whose parents are members or adherents of the United Church are eligible. To encourage interest in membership, the W.M.S. entertained the mothers and their babies at a meeting and tea held Thursday, June 28th. There were thirteen mothers and twenty-two babies present, in addition to sixteen W.M.S. members.

Mrs. F. J. French, on behalf of the group, welcomed the mothers and little ones, and introduced the president, Mrs. C. Barr, who added a note of welcome too. Mrs. M. Hill spoke to the group explaining the role of a Baby Band among the church organizations, and told the ladies that there had been a Baby Band in Vermilion a few years ago, and went on to say she looked forward to having one start again, feeling that it was a good thing to have young people grow up in the church and for them to have the training to take their place in all church activities. If young people didn't enter the church there would not be much future for it.

Because it was Mrs. H. N. Stephens' birthday that same day, Mrs. Barr presented her with a bouquet of flowers on behalf of the group and everyone sang "Happy Birthday".

Rev. C. W. MacKay was in attendance and was asked to close the meeting with a prayer, after which a social half hour was enjoyed with the serving of lunch.

Rust from a clothes line can leave bothersome stains on garments. But these can be removed by sprinkling salt over the stain, moistening it with lemon juice and then exposing it to strong sunlight, renewing the lemon juice occasionally.

Death Defying Exhibition

A death-defying exhibition of precise skill and split-second timing on a whirling miniature airplane will be one of the featured numbers in the Canadian Capers grandstand revue at the Edmonton Exhibition July 16 to 21. The Kimris, noted throughout the show world for their novel and original high thrill acts, will present their entire routine on an aerial stage 100 feet up in the wild blue yonder. After three years of negotiations, grandstand officials finally succeeded in contracting the Kimris who literally 'fly through the air with the greatest of ease', executing difficult, breath taking aerial routines. Their performance is brought to a dazzling finale with a blazing display of colored fireworks.

Canada's Tourist Promotion Lagging

Figures presented in recent issue of "Canadian Travel Business" shows an astonishing deficit in the amount being spent on tourist advertising as presented in the 1955 Canadian Government budget. During that year, the dominion and provincial governments combined spent approximately $2,250,000 on advertising and promoting Canada in the U.S. The amount received from the tourist industry in the same year totalled $304 million. This allotment for advertising is only .17% of the gross return from the industry.

Looking into other businesses, says "Travel", we find that average advertising expenses run from 1% as a minimum of gross revenue to 5% where the competition is high. Surely competition from across the southern border is stiff enough to warrant at least 1% of our budget being allowed for advertising. "Travel" adds. 'At that rate, our total advertising budget would have to be raised by almost $800,000, bringing it to over $3 million.

Here are some figures showing the average promotion expenditures per tourist for various areas:

Nassau, 1952	$10.00
Bermuda, 1953	7.24
Hawaii, 1953	6.96
France, 1953	1.86
Jamaica, 1953	1.41
Great Britain, 1953	1.23
Netherlands-West Indies, 1953	.90
Haiti 1953	.70
CANADA, 1953	.64

Average $3.45 per tourist.

A below-average rate is not the progressive sign expected from a growing and ambitious country such as Canada.

OBITUARY

JOHN LEONARD EDWARDS

Funeral services for the late John Leonard Edwards, of Vermilion, were held in the United church on Thursday, June 21st with interment following in the family plot in the Vermilion cemetery.

Rev. C. W. MacKay, assisted by Mr. C. Bowen, student minister of Attendale, officiated. A favorite hymn of the deceased, "Lord, I'm Coming Home" opened the service.

Pallbearers were all neighbors, Messrs. Jack Cross, Bill Cross, Bill Armstrong, Coley Cannon, John Nelson and Melvin Nelson.

Mr Edwards was a man of high principles, deeply religious and sincere. He ardently supported his church and knew lots of hard work. He was honest to the core and his faith in all humanity was beyond human understanding. He was always ready to help when trouble had befallen his neighbor. A family had felt his generosity. He will be greatly missed by all. Although he had lived a good and long life, having reached the age of 79 years and five months, his passing came as a great shock to the community.

Moyers were in charge of arrangements.

Beautiful floral tributes and memorial donations were received from:

Fair Plans Are Now Complete; To Open With Monster Parade

Preparations for what is standing up as Vermilion's premier fair in fifty-one years are well under way and patrons of this year's show are assured of an outstanding program. Entries for the various types of exhibits are being received daily at the office of the Secretary Manager and indications are that every single bit of space will be filled to capacity. Regardless of the increased costs of operation which now prevail the Directors have been adamant in their decision to offer advance tickets at the customary price of five for $1.00, thus providing a really outstanding event at a cost which the whole family can afford. In most places gate admissions are running from 50c to one dollar, while grandstand admissions are quite generally $1.25 to $1.50. With advance tickets gate admission is reduced to a mere 20c and as a rule three tickets are required for adult admission to the grandstand, the fine show is available in Vermilion Fair patrons at half price, or less, of that prevailing elsewhere. The Vermilion Agricultural Society has no desire to make money, other than sufficient to maintain their plant in tip-top shape and to maintain a reasonable reserve against inclement weather or other unforeseen adverse circumstances.

Through the entire year the Society carries on projects designed to further the agricultural knowledge of the young people, and the three gala days, now in immediate prospect, will doubtless receive the most generous support of the district.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CAMP

Starting on Monday, July 23rd, the Agricultural School, under the principalship of N. N. Bentley, will be home to 125 young farm people, the number being about evenly divided between girls and boys. Practical short courses are given the youngsters and they will be guests of the Fair Board during the three days. A special banquet catered by the Alberta Wheat Pool will be tendered them in attendance during the week and special awards will be made for efficiency, the prizes being generously donated by Messrs. T. Eaton Co. and the Line Elevators Association.

CALF CLUB SHOW & SALE

Eighty-five calves will be on show on Thursday morning, July 26 and after the judge has been made by a family and felt his generosity. He will be greatly missed by all. Although he had lived a good and long life, having reached the age of 79 years and five months, his passing came as a great shock to the community.

MONSTER PARADE

Following the huge success of the 1955 Jubilee Year Parade, the business men and organizations of the town and district are co-operating to stage another stupendous parade this year. Leaving the rink arena promptly at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning the parade will pass down Main Street to the Marion Service Station, thence south one block and west past the park and Brunswick Hotel to the exhibition grounds. Prizes are being offered boys and girls for decorated bikes or other entries and handsome rosette fares will be awarded commercial, district, comic and other floats. Plenty of music will be available to keep the parade in line and a cordial invitation is extended to all to see Vermilion's Big Parade on Thursday morning.

CUTTING HORSE CONTESTS

Acting in co-operation with the Alberta Cutting Horse Association the Vermilion Fair is staging a series of thrilling contests with $1,000 in prizes. These will take place in front of the grandstand, along with the regular show at no increase in admission price. Beautiful horses, superbly trained, will go through their paces and are required to handle wild cattle with dexterity and precision. Contests are timed for periods as follows: Thursday, immediately following the evening grandstand show at 9:00 sharp; Friday at 2 o'clock; Saturday at 1:30 p.m. and 7 o'clock. No increase will be charged for grandstand admission for this thrilling event. Showing in Northeastern Alberta for the first time.

GRANDSTAND SHOWS

Reports from Weyburn, Portage la Prairie and Yorkton are enthusiastic in regard to the Grandstand show, staged this year by Charles Sutton Talent Inc. organization, Chicago. Attractions streamers outlines a magnificent program and there will be plenty of comedy for young and old, with thrills abounding throughout the program. It is expected that, as has been the case

L. Croft, Kitscoty, Wins Pontiac Car At Vermilion Bingo

Lowell "Coffee" Croft, Kitscoty station agent was the new Pontiac car at the Vermilion Kinsmen bingo on Wednesday evening. He was the only one to call bingo in the big game. "Coffee" as he is fami liarly known has been a steady supporter of Vermilion bingos and his win last night was a popular one.

Until last week Mr. Croft had been in need of a car but then had finally purchased a speaking new Dodge Chances are that he will raise the $1200 cash offered in place of the car although he reserved his decision on this point until Thursday.

The crowd was short of those necessary to make this a paying proposition and as a result it is quite likely that the bingos will return to Saturday nights when there is a large crowd in the town to help out.

Winners of the additional prizes were: Mrs. Keating, Tony Korpel, Dave Rattray, Vegreville; Mrs. Cooper, Mrs McGaughey, Ralph Landers, Dewberry; John Boychuk, Plain Lake; Basil Mrs. Anne Trach, Eric Johnson, Derwent, Frank Dobdenzki, Chedonald Mrs. Andy Jawin, Derwent

FARM SAFETY

Farm Safety Week, July 22-28, is almost upon us, but why wait until that time to start thinking about safety on the farm? Why not think right now about the means and ways of preventing accidents. That moment spent in shutting off a motor, putting things back where they belong or erecting a sign may save your life or the life of your neighbor.

GIVE A THOUGHT TO THE TYPESETTERS—

Contributors to the news columns of the Standard are again respectfully reminded that typewritten copy must be double spaced and the lines should be kept short. This would be greatly appreciated by the typesetters and also ensures the inclusion of your news in the paper rather than being relegated to the waste paper basket.

Caroline Gunnarsson, Women's Editor of the Winnipeg Free Press Weekly Prairie Farmer was a visitor in Vermilion for two days last week. While here she visited the V.S.A., the Barr dairy farm, the Vermilion Provincial Park and the Standard plant. She is gathering material for a series of articles for her paper.

TIME FOR ACTION—

A serious accident at an Edmonton beach adds emphasis to the need of enforcement of the laws embracing the handling of motor boats.

The particular accident mentioned occurred in the middle of the afternoon when the motor boat came in close to shore and swerved to miss a group of swimmers only to strike another swimmer, a 19-year-old Edmonton girl. The unfortunate young lady is now in the hospital in serious condition with a fractured skull and severe head lacerations and whether she will live or not is questionable.

The laws are there, are sensible, and the sooner the enforcing bodies take advantage of them the better it will be for all concerned. Far better wounded pride of a few motor boat "hot-rodders" than wounded heads of innocent and law-abiding citizens out to enjoy a few hours of relaxation.

It is definitely time for action.

WEEDS ON ROADS

The Weed Act makes it very plain that the owner of adjoining land must destroy weeds to the centre line of roads. Weed inspectors in M D of Minburn are asking that farmers get rid of Sow Thistle, Canada Thistle and other noxious weeds on the road sides. This means everyone, because noxious weeds can be seen somewhere on nearly every mile of road. The co-operation of all farmers is requested.

SWARMING BEES

Two things a bee raiser can do to stop swarming: (1), give them plenty of room, that is, put on more supers; (2), open the hive every two weeks and if any queen cells are forming, then pinch them out. It is the young queen that starts the swarm so don't let her grow up.

FARM SAFETY WEEK

July 22 to 28 is Farm Safety week. I do hope that everyone living on the farm in this area will try hard to prevent accidents to themselves, their families and the hired help. It is a ghastly thing to see men's hands and feet lying around. Somebody has to go and pick them up.

KILL THE INSECTS

Chemicals are so cheap that cost is not an excuse for insects in the garden. Spray once a week with Malatthion. As this insecticide is poisonous do not spray vegetables that are to be cooked right away. After a week or so there is no danger of using the vegetables. Usually, however, derris dust or pyrethrum powder is safer to use on lettuce, cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, etc.

CLASS "B" FAIRS

In this district we have three of the finest Agricultural Fairs in Western Canada. Starting at Lloydminster on July 23, then Vermilion July 26, and Vegreville's three days start July 30th. There will be lots of good livestock and machinery exhibits. Every farm family can profit from at least one day at the fair.

STAKING THE GLADS

Not only "glads" but dahlias, hollyhocks, larkspurs and all tall growing flowers ought to be staked. Use ordinary wooden plaster lath. Binder twine or other string holds the flowers up. It is always a great disappointment when a wind and heavy rain breaks down unstaked flowers.

—E. H. BUCKINGHAM.

Pleasant Valley

It's quite pleasant at the time of writing, the rains make one feel so gloomy, having to stay indoors.

Gordon and Doreen Gould are taking in the Edmonton Exhibition.

Doreen Gould and the writer spent a very enjoyable day at the annual Women's Week at the School of Agriculture on Thursday. A most interesting talk was given by Mr. Bentley on income tax. He explained to us all how important it is to make out these forms every year in a correct manner, which will save one quite a lot of worry later on.

We met a nice group of ladies from Mannville, and all enjoyed dinner together.

Mrs. Gilbert was there from Edmonton — a very fine little lady past 70 years; she enjoyed every minute of the day. Do hope we meet again.

In the evening we journeyed to the Allandale supper which was lovely, as always — the best salads one ever tasted. We were sorry it stormed, so did not have our annual chat with our old friends. We just got home in time.

Sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Wells' mother; another fine old lady called to rest. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Percy Golby left on a trip to Vancouver to visit his sister Mary, who has been ill for some time.

Do hope you are feeling better, Tommy.

To the Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

Driving around the business area of our town one can see many varied and weird forms of 'Angle Parking', showing that we are all individuals who have our own ideas. Town regulations call for a 45-degree angle to park one's car. Whether we agree or not on the correct angle necessary, the town by-law calls for this and should be adhered to as much as possible. This will give all our visitors a chance to park as long as space is available, and we will not have one car spoiling the parking for two others, as is the case many, many times over. The curbs are again being marked and the correct procedure is to drive between these markings and not straddle them. Straight parking is extremely bad, as to get a car from the curb, and started in the right direction, one must needs back over the centre line, which creates a hazard to the other line of traffic, and it has been a wonder there have not been any accidents or crashes caused from this type of parking. A good amount of self education on parking right, along with a consideration of the other person's rights will make Vermilion known all over the province as the place where one can park with comfort.

Yours very truly,
THOS. WATTS.

The Dickens you say...

Maybe Charles Dickens was gazing into a crystal — or aluminum — ball when he made this prediction a century ago about a strange new metal called aluminum. He wrote:

"What do you think of metal as white as silver, as unalterable as gold, as easily melted as copper, as tough as iron? . . . In proportion as the cheap production of aluminum becomes more and more an established fact, the more we shall find it entering into household uses — for travelling purposes, for instance, for which its lightness is no small merit."

Very good, Charles — especially that bit about cheap production. That day has arrived, as Alcan's vast production and world sales prove.

Mrs. Maria Matilda Rollins Dies At 95 Years Of Age

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Maria Matilda Rollins were held in the United church on Monday, July 16th with Rev. J. T. McNair, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance officiating.

Mrs. Rollins was born in Elzivar Township, Madoc, Ont., July 31st, 1860, and passed away in the Vermilion hospital on July 12th after a confinement of some six months due to a broken hip. She came West some thirty-seven years ago with her husband, the late Samuel Rollins, residing at Kelliher, Sask., until the later passed away in 1940. Since that time Mrs. Rollins has lived with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Wells of Vermilion. Another daughter Mrs. D. Macbeth (Margaret) resides at Ft. Qu'Appelle, Sask. In addition to her two daughters Mrs. Rollins is survived by six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren, as follows: Donald Macbeth; John, Barbara and Linda Reasbeck; Phyllis and Douglas Wells; Ian, Neil and Ann Marie Horricks.

Mr. McNair, whose parents also were from Madoc, Ont., chose as the funeral text Psalm 90:12 — "Teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom". The speaker pointed out that to number our days wisely requires more than the ability to make mathematical calculations. Since the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, to apply the heart thereto assumes a personal faith in Christ, and a preparedness for the journey's end. Fitting tribute was paid to the patience and faith of the deceased.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from:

Margaret and Isa, Don and Egbert; Bert and Winnie and family; Jack and Jean and family; Mr. and Mrs. Horricks Sr.; Margaret and Bill Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reasbeck and family.

Donations to the Alliance Chapel Building fund: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Little and family.

Donations to Cancer Society: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jory; Mrs. Mabel Mackay and Francis.

W. C. Bruce Is Rotary Club Speaker

At the regular weekly meeting of the Vermilion Rotary club held last Friday, W. C. "Bill" Bruce of Edmonton gave an inspiring talk on vocational service. The speaker stressed the great value of service to fellow members, to others in the community and to humanity as a whole. In his talk Mr. Bruce related many personal incidents in a long life of service to Rotary.

The speaker was introduced by Elmore Stewart, an old friend. Mr. Stewart stated that before he retired Mr. Bruce had been Deputy Minister of Telephone and general manager of the Alberta Government Telephones. Mr. Bruce joined Rotary International in 1927 and in 1942 was president of the Edmonton club, going on to be District Governor in 1952.

Mr. Bruce visited Vermilion three years ago in the interests of Rotary and it was no doubt due to the ground work laid at that time that a club was started here.

Geo Webb expressed the thanks of everyone to Mr Bruce for a very fine address.

Chairman of the meeting was Ernie Buckingham who commenced a new plan whereby members will take turns in chairing the meetings.

Birthdays of Ed Herzog and Aldous Kent were recognized in the usual way.

Visiting Rotarians were Sid Millward former druggist here who now lives in Nakusp B.C., Bill Skinner and H Bestvater both of Lloydminster.

Ashley Cooper reported on the excellent band concert held at the lake on Sunday and the large crowd in attendance. The Rotary club was very fortunate in obtaining the North Battleford band on their way to the Calgary Stampede to spend a couple of hours at Vermilion.

Bill Sutherland reported that on July 15 the pipers of 'A' Coy, The Loyal Edmonton Regiment would provide the music at the lake.

President Reg Mitchell reported that Dr King, chairman Jim Robson and Mitch Taylor are a committee to enquire into the practibility of the club sponsoring the construction of a twilight lodge in Vermilion for elderly people.

Farm Women Enjoy Short Course Here

Ladies attending the special short course for farm women at the Vermilion School of Agriculture last week were keenly appreciative of the program arranged for them. Mrs G. O'Brien of Barrhead took the opportunity at their closing banquet to thank Mrs. V. McDonald, representing the Department of Agriculture, and Mr. N.N. Bentley of Olds College and Schools for the instructive program, the pleasant sociability and accommodation provided for them. Speaking on behalf of the delegates from various women's organizations as well as those ladies attending independently Mrs. O'Brien expressed their delight with all parts of the program and extended best wishes for the continued success of Farm Women's Week.

Following the evening banquet Prof. C. G. Hamilton of the Faculty of Education at the University of Alberta gave an illustrated lecture on "Alberta's Wild Life". Swimming Lessons In Progress At Lake

Over 100 Applications Received

This week the swimming lessons at the Vermilion Lake have started under the direction of Sid Moore, the Recreation Supervisor. Although classes have been organized, and have begun, it is not too late to send in a coupon or to see Sid about enrollment. Those classes are for young and old, as is indicated by their slogan, "6 to 60 Swim". The details of class times and the enrollment coupon will be found in the "6 to 60 Swim" advertisement on page 1, section 2, of this issue of the Standard.

Two of the most frequent questions asked of Sid are: How many lessons will my child take before he finishes? And, how many lessons will it take to get him to the point of swimming? He answers the first by saying "years" and points out that with swimming, as in any other skill, where ability, physical make-up and mastery of skills must be co-ordinated, it is a matter of progressive levels. At the end of the season the individual's level of attainment is recorded and then next summer he can continue from the beginning where he left off the previous season. That way he will make good use of every level and will progress in any stage he desires.

In answer to the second question Sid says that the number of lessons necessary to bring the student to the point of swimming depends on the individual. Most children or adults find that they are buoyant after a few lessons, usually about two. Possibly in a case of necessity they could save themselves if called upon to do so. However they cannot actually swim. Control is essential control of imagination (panic); control of breathing and control of limbs (preservation of strength). The time it takes a person to gain control is determined by his eagerness to become a accomplished swimmer. However, as a guide, a survey taken in Y.M.C.A. pools in Regina shows the average beginner from 10 to 15 years of age, can swim with a certain amount of confidence after 14 lessons. It is essential that the swimming student practice what he is taught.

Although there are already over 100 people enrolled in the swimming classes, there is still room for more. Get your application in immediately, and get into the "6 to 60 swim" soon!

Vacation School Is Again A Success

The daily Vacation Bible school held at the Alliance chapel July 2 to 13 came to a successful conclusion last Friday evening with a public program. The chapel was filled to capacity, as interested parents and friends came to see the various departments perform in song and recitation. A display table held samples of the handwork done by the various age groups from beginner to Junior High.

This year's school was larger than last with 152 enrolled and an average attendance of 98 daily. All of the churches in town were represented and the course "The King's Adventurers" was greatly enjoyed by all. By way of a Missionary project, the daily offerings of $48.46 were contributed to the sailing expense of Mr. Ken Geake who is under appointment with the World-Wide Evangelization Crusade, to the Canary Islands.

Pipe Band Concert Appreciated

A goodly crowd again attended the Sunday afternoon band concert at the Vermilion Park on the 15th when "A" Company Pipe Band provided excellent entertainment. The Pipers played on the beach and gave acceptable renditions of stirring pipe music. The program was very much enjoyed.

Other entertainment which attracted a large number of enthusiasts was the double-header ladies' fastball between Vermilion Cardinals and the Edmonton Fallings.

The locals attached the first encounter with the city team coming out on the long end of the twilight tilt. The games were played on the park diamond a short way from the beach.

Princess Anne W. I. Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Princess Anne W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. O. Strome, with ten members present and one visitor, Miss Edna Patterson.

The meeting opened with "O Canada" and the "Creed". The roll call was answered by naming a person who contributed to national health.

Mrs G. Mead gave a report on the bake sale held June 9th, which was very successful. A report was also given on a shower held for a local girl, and the assistance given in preparing and serving lunch at her wedding dance.

Receipts and thank you notes were received from A. C. W. W. travel fund, and also the Cerebral Palsy clinic.

Plans were made to assist at the wedding dance of a local boy to be married soon. A community picnic was planned for Sunday, July 15th.

"New Faces are Free" was the health paper given by Mrs. G. Richardson. The meeting closed with "God Save the Queen". All enjoyed the tasty lunch served by Mrs. Strome and Mrs. Mead. The next meeting will be held at the home of I. Parchewski.

Pledge Marriage Vows At St. Saviour's Anglican Church

INMAN—RICHARDSON

Surrounded by their many friends and relatives, Elizabeth Ann Richardson, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson of Islay and Ronald Jerome Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Inman of Islay pledged their marriage vows in a double ring ceremony in the St. Saviours Anglican Church, Vermilion on the afternoon of Wednesday July 4. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. K. A. Minchin.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of carnations, peonies and wild roses.

The bride was charming in a floor length wedding gown, fashioned of lace and nylon net. She wore a three quarter length veil, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her only ornament was a beautiful gold locket, the gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Miss Mildred Scarfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Scarfe of Vermilion who wore a ballet length dress of deep coral nylon tricot and carried a bouquet of Shasta daisies. Her small sister Karen was junior bridesmaid, and looked very dainty in a dress of dotted nylon sheer, carrying a small bouquet of Shasta daisies.

The groom was attended by Mr. Harold Roebuck, son of Mr. and Mrs William Roebuck. Ushers for the occasion were Bob Barr and Ed Lyons.

Mrs. W. Roebuck played the wedding music.

To receive with the bridal party at the reception in the Parish Hall immediately following the wedding, the bride's mother wore a bolero dress of Sahara tan rayon linen, with matching hat. The mother of the groom was dressed in a powder blue dress of crepe and lace. Both mothers wore carnations.

The bride's table was very attractive, centred with a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake, surrounded by pink tulle, and flanked by candles and bouquets of tea roses.

Mr. W. J. McIntyre of Vermilion, a lifelong friend of the bride, very ably proposed the toast to the bride. A very suitable reply was given by the groom. About one hundred and twenty-five friends of the young couple were present at the reception.

Congratulatory messages were read by the best man from Ronald Playne, Dawson Creek, uncle of the bride, and from the bride's Godmother in England, Mrs. Ronald Cary.

Mrs. Ed Lyons was in charge of the Guest Book.

Later in the evening the happy bride and groom and their parents entertained their many friends from near and far at a wedding dance in the Islay Hall.

For travelling the bride changed to a light grey Nubby Tweed suit and a rose pink hat, worn with a corsage of roses. Their honeymoon was spent at Jackfish Lake Saskatchewan.

Out of town guests were Mr and Mrs. D. Jellison of Red Deer, Mrs. E. Maire, Mrs. Mollie Downey, Mr. Geo. Richardson Jr. and Mrs Birmingham, all of Edmonton and Mr Gordon Scott of Drayton Valley.

Marriage Vows Exchanged At Clandonald Anglican Church

St. Mary the Virgin Anglican church in Clandonald was the scene of a pretty wedding the morning of Thursday, June 28th, when Rev. Brian Brown united in marriage Helen Mary, daughter of Charles Skrenkowich, and the late Mrs Skrenkowich, of Clandonald, and Dennis Leroy Waltz, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Waltz of Landonville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white, strapless, ballerina length gown of nylon lace and net over taffeta, with tiny matching net bolero. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a sequin trimmed headdress and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Mary Skrenkowich, sister of the bride, as maid of honor chose a ballerina length gown of yellow nylon lace and net over taffeta with net bolero. She wore a tiny white hat and carried a bouquet of yellow flowers.

The bridesmaid, Miss Yvonne Butz, wore a strapless dress of deep pink nylon and lace, with matching lace bolero. The bouffant skirt featured many rows of tiny net ruffles in scallop design. She wore a matching pink net headdress, rhinestone earrings and matching pin, a gift of the bride and carried a bouquet of cream-colored flowers.

The groom was attended by Archie Paleschuk, and the bride's brother, Stanley Skrenkowich.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where the young couple and their parents welcomed their guests.

The bride's table was laid with an ecru lace cloth, centred by a three-tiered wedding cake, topped by two lovebirds carrying gold wedding rings, set in an arch of flowers and wedding bells. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev Brown.

In the evening a wedding dance was held in the Orange hall, Clandonald where a large crowd enjoyed themselves to the music of the Mulgrew-Zahorka orchestra.

The young couple are making their home in Edmonton.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

(Held over from last week)

We wish Mrs. Addie Mead a splendid holiday, she left July 1st for Halifax to be with her son Bert and family.

Mr and Mrs. Wm. Armstrong and Mr and Mrs. Jimmy Armstrong and family spent a day recently at Lloyd, at a ball game and visiting daughter Myrtle, the Anderson family. Gary Anderson is home from the city where he attends school. Dianna Anderson returned home with her grandparents for a holiday.

A grand afternoon for our W. A. meeting at the Wm. Cross's lovely modern home and the yard is beautiful with all the flowers coming in [illegible] a treat in itself, and the lawn is lovely. Hilda must have been busy. It was pleasing to see so many visitors out. Discussion in part was of the supper. Report of W.I. dinner cleared $50, we were pleased. Thanks to all you folks who had such kind remarks about the dinner. August [illegible] at the [illegible] second Thursday Lunch - Mrs. I. Nelson and Mrs Omness.

'Reaching from Heaven'- from the name this would be a show everyone should see, is in Clandonald, Orange Hall July 13th and 14th, Friday and Saturday.

Belated birthday greetings from the Omnesses to Mrs. Fred Fausch in Victoria, and may you have many more.

Cpl Robert Hammond from Grand Centre (Cold Lake), called at the Don Wilson home July 4th, Wednesday and then came to the Omnesses for the evening and the night. Robert is a great-nephew of the Omnesses. He had been at Elk Point visiting Grandma Swanson and to Spring Park visiting relatives. He was on his way to Lashburn to visit his parents Mr and Mrs. Ray Hammond, and his two younger children, the oldest girl is holidaying with Uncle Albert and Auntie (Hammond's) at Spring Park. Henrietta (Mrs. Hammond Jr.) hasn't been too well and is in an Edmonton hospital.

We missed church two Sundays on account of rain. July 1st and 8th we had good attendance, grand sermons from our minister, Mr. Welsh. It was good to have the Starks children at Sunday School and the family at our last service. Our membership class, second lesson, was at the Omnesses after the service for Mr and Mrs. Woody Wilson. The third lesson will be at the Clandonald church Friday July 13th at 8:00 p.m.

Little Gerald Martin was kicked by a horse in the stomach on July 6th. He suffered mostly from shock and soreness. Mrs. Martin phoned Dr. King for information and advice. They took him in the next day. Gerald is getting on nicely, no internal injuries, and in a short time will be his little self again.

Drive last Sunday evening, side roads aren't too good. A very bad place at Wm. Cross corner going in from Merciers bridge. Dave Chase came to the rescue with a tractor and we were soon on our way. We did appreciate your kindness Dave, thanks again. The girls said, 'Gee, I sure like Dave.'

Last Sunday evening July 8th, Mrs. Don Wilson went to the city on the bus, returning Monday with her sister Della (Walsh) and family Adele, Doreen, Wayne and Laura. The Walsh family will be holidaying at her parents home, the Omnesses.

Marlene and Donna Wilson were with their Omness grandparents, Dorothy and Raymond at home with their dad, Don.

Miss Lorna Nelson will commence working as a book keeper at the McLeod store in town on Monday July 16th.

The Baldocks, Aunt Mamie and Evelyn, Glen's friend, took daughter Beryl and family to meet hubby Tommy Greaves half way at Vegreville last Sunday afternoon and they returned home to the city.

Five of the Allandale ladies received a $150 order from the Brandon Woollen Mills. The merchandise is grand and everyone was well satisfied with the order.

Our minister Mr. Welsh is keeping busy at boys' camp at Whitney during the week.

Closing thought: "We have tried thinking and living as we want; now try thinking and living as God wants."

FAMILY INCOME

To keep up with the Joneses next year, warns The Financial Post, you will need a family income of more than $5,000. Average family income in Canada went up 8% last year to $4,460, will go up 6.4% this year to $4,745 and to $5,077 in 1957, assuming we manage a 1957 increase of 7%. U.S. Department of Commerce had just announced the U.S. [illegible] income rose a little more than 3% in 1955 to $5,[illegible].

Her first stop
—the bank
When Mrs. Wilson planned to go shopping, her husband Tom said: "Meet you at the bank." It was a natural thing to say, for going to the bank is just a part of everyday life.
In the bank, Mrs. Wilson noticed Miss Ellis the schoolteacher ... Mr. Cooper the storekeeper ... and her neighbour's son Bobby, adding to his savings account.
When Tom arrived, he grinned: "Seems like everybody goes to the bank." It's true. Canadians find the chartered banks such a safe and handy place to keep money that practically everybody has a bank account. There are now more than 10 million deposit accounts in the chartered banks—more accounts than there are adults in the country.

WOODVALE NOTES

With electrical storms and heavy downpours we are experiencing one of the wettest July's for many a year. We are wondering what next? The countryside looks lovely and green, but many low-lying fields are rather water-logged.

Nevertheless, summer activities go on. Although the Woodvale picnic was rained out on the [illegible] also the one at Tolland, the [illegible] that evening was held and a nice crowd danced with much pleasure to very good music. The storm that day hit the Tolland store telephone but luckily no other damage was done. A brand new phone has been installed there since.

It is fortunate that the hard rains pack the roads and do not leave them soggy like an all-day rain does. How could the many visitors otherwise get around?

Mr. and Mrs. U. Holman of Victoria, B.C., spent a week with the McGrath family and met many of their old friends and neighbors again. Last week Donna and Myrna McLean stayed with them; they were [illegible] of Margaret and Eleanor and enjoyed seeing their schoolmates again. They live in Saskatchewan now. Mr. and Mrs. Dan F[illegible] made a flying visit to the Tolland district, having dinner at the McGrath's. Myrtle is going to supervise for the C.G.I.T. camp at Elk Island Park, taking her children with her, leaving Allan, the oldest with his aunt, Mrs. Frank Gibson of Basswood.

Emma Marklund spent a few days with the Wolters girls.

Ethridge Webber's nephew Orrin Webber has been staying with him the past few weeks and brought with him slides from India where he has been on Missionary work. He [illegible] them to [illegible] of young people at Wildwood when Mr. Phills organized an evening there in connection with his church work. The slides and talk and the whole evening, which included sing-songs, ball games and a weiner roast, was very much [illegible].

Enjoyed also was the church vacation school held this year in the Watson school from July 9th to 14th with over twenty yongsters attending. Miss Truscott of Lloydminster, Mrs. D. Seitz and Miss Susan Wolters of Tolland and Miss Eileen Jack of Wildwood were the goup leaders with Irene Wolters, Margaret McGrath and Beverley Jack as assistants. The very successful week came to a close with a progam in the afternoon. All the goups participated with singing, readings, recitations and even a puppet show with puppets made by members of one of the groups.

Friends of Mrs. Jim Ross will be very glad to hear that she did not need an operation and returned to her home on Monday July 9th from Edmonton. She is feeling quite well again.

Jimmy Isley is now the proud owner of a motorbike. We think the first one to make an appearance in these parts.

Congratulations to Corp. and Mrs. Marcel Benoit (nee Marie Goutier) who were married in Vermilion on July 12th by the bride's brother, the Rev. Father Maurice Goutier. After a wedding dinner in the church basement the party proceeded to the Goutier farm for a [illegible] and stayed for a late [illegible] at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Pelletier, enjoying the evening with happy singing and dancing until the storm drove the guests and young couple hurriedly away over the ungravelled road, not without a few of the last cars slithering into the [illegible]ches! However, all will remember for quite awhile the picture of the beautiful, happy bride in her exquisite gown and the smiling groom among their many Goutier and Benoit relatives and young friends and relatives. After a two weeks' honeymoon in the U.S.A. the young couple will return for a short visit here before leaving for Fort Resolution, N.W.T. where the groom is stationed with the RCA Signal Corps.

Cecile Goutier, who was one of the bridesmaids, is home for a month's holiday.

Father Maurice Goutier will go to the Blackfoot reservation near Cardston where besides his other duties he will make a study of the Indian language.

The [illegible] Cross group met at the home of Mrs. D. Seitz on July 12th with Mrs. S. Oldenberg co-hostess. She also brought the quilt to be worked. With twelve ladies present it did not take long before it was finished and left plenty of time for a meeting, a visit and full enjoyment of a delicious lunch. Everyone was pleased to have Mrs. C. McGrath with them for the afternoon again. The next meeting will be on Thursday, Aug. 2 at the home of Mrs. F. Van Wageningen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Preston and Frank Watson went to the Calgary Stampede last week. Chris Thompson also went there but stopped en route to visit friends near Camrose whose relatives he visited last winter in Denmark.

Bowtell Bulletin

We are pleased to report Mrs. Gow is doing nicely after her recent operation in Edmonton and is expected home this week.

Mr and Mrs. O. [illegible] relatives from [illegible] them this week. [illegible] Sunday folks. Baby [illegible] Repp is to be baptised.

The writer was pleased to have Mr. Gow and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wells, Mr and Mrs. McFarland, Miss J. [illegible] and Mr. O. Mansfield of Wainwright visit us Sunday.

Allan Coutts, his mother and sisters Margaret and Edith, journeyed to the Calgary Stampede Thursday.

Who broke the garden hoe, you or the pig, Bill? Maybe that was one way of getting away from gardening, Mr. Walker.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing in our district again: this time for Rena and Leslie.

Tom Sherwood [illegible] a good report from Edmonton, but at present is receiving [illegible] in the Vermilion hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Robinson and family were visitors Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Robinson. Mr. Kay of Onion Lake stopped off also at the same home on his way back from the Calgary Stampede.

The [illegible] was unable to attend the [illegible] party [illegible] at the hall for Mr. and Mrs. Tweedy, so cannot give a full report, but we understand they received a nice gift from the community and one from the Pleasant Valley ball team.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Payne and family were Monday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Repp.

Greek Catholic Church Is Setting For Pretty Summer Wedding

SADOWNYCK - LINK

A very beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Greek Catholic church, Vermilion, on May 9th when Miss Jean Link, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Link of Vermilion became the bride of Mr. John Sadownyck, son of Mr and Mrs. Fred Sadownyck of Smoky Lake. Rev Father Star performed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in her floor-length gown of lace and net over taffeta, with a Peter Pan collar and lily point sleeves. Her bodice was trimmed with pearl effect sequins. Her ankle-length veil was held in place with a sequin and net bandeau and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Doris Schmidt and Miss Jean Hildreth, were dressed identically in shrimp-colored waltz-length gowns of net over taffeta. They wore bandeaux of lace with pearl trim and matching mittens. They carried nosegays of fern and lily of the valley.

Misses Patricia and Diane Link, sisters of the bride, wore identical dresses of baby blue brocaded nylon over taffeta. They had net bandeaux trimmed with pearls and carried nosegays of lily of the valley.

Peter Link, brother of the bride, and Constable Denis Norton were groomsmen. Joe Zubkowsky and Mike Pilakoty were the ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Holy Name church, Vermilion, where sixty-five friends and relatives enjoyed a very tasty lunch served by the C.W.L. Frank Schmidt Jr. proposed the toast to the bride and Father Star wished the young couple a happy and prosperous future, to which the groom fittingly replied, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Link for a lovely bride.

Later in the evening friends and relations gathered at the home of the bride for supper. Miss Joan Eckford was in charge of the guest book in which more than seventy signed. Miss Anna Nelson helped the bride open her gifts.

For their honeymoon through the States and around to Chilliwack, B.C., the bride changed to a pink and grey taffeta dress with a matching pink duster. She wore white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Sadownyck will make their home in Chilliwack.

Double Ring Ceremony Performed At Wedding In Mannville

MANNVILLE — A beautiful double ring ceremony was solemnized in McQueen Memorial United church, Mannville, on June 22nd when Jenny, only daughter of Mr and Mrs. Mike Mytz became the bride of William, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borchuk. Rev. Ian Holter officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace over satin and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her necklace of rhinestones was a gift of the groom. She wore a fingertip veil which was held in place by a tiara of satin trimmed with rhinestones, matching her necklace.

Her four bridesmaids, Misses Mary Gruch, Doris Syer, Joyce Gamble and Kathy Stefanchuk, wore cocktail-length dresses of green, mauve, shrimp and turquoise respectively, with tiaras inset with pearls to match their accessories.

The attendants were Messrs Mike Borchuk, Walter Mytz, Fred Mytz and Fred Kuwica. The ushers were Stanley Hinton and Steve Smart. Mr Robin Stuart played the wedding music and the soloist Miss Ruth Gamble sang the "Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

The bride's mother chose an afternoon dress of navy crepe. The groom's mother wore an afternoon gown of floral crepe. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

At a reception for 225 guests at the home of her parents, the bride's table was decorated with white peonies and centred with a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake. The room was decorated with sprays of cedar inset with white and pink roses. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. I. Holter and responded to by the groom.

Out of town guests included many friends from Edmonton and relatives from Kimberley, B.C.

An open dance was held in the Orange hall in the evening where many more friends gathered to give the happy couple their best wishes. The music was supplied by the Melody Aces of Andrew.

After the dance the happy couple left for a honeymoon at Calgary, Kimberley, Couer D'Alene, Spokane and other points south-west. On their return they take up residence on the groom's farm south-east of Mannville. They extend a warm invitation to their friends to visit them there.

WE'RE CALMER

Canadians are calmer than their American counterpart if sales of "traquilizer" pills are any indication, says The Financial Post. Two of the largest downtown drugstores report sales of the 50-tablets-for-$6 bottles are "only a few a day". In U.S. however, where sale is by prescription, an estimated 35 million orders will be filled this year.

Artie Friedland was seen in Vermilion and went to see his old friend Ted Monger in Woodvale. He looked well and he and his wife and two married daughters are still all living in Ontario.

Jean Lee Becomes Bride Of Carl Eric Nelson

The Vermilion United Church was the setting for a beautiful wedding on Wednesday June 20th at three o'clock in the afternoon when Jean Pearl, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lee, became the bride of Mr. Carl Eric Nelson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nelson.

Spring flowers banked the altar for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. C. W. MacKay.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a two-piece, floor-length gown of nylon net with chantilly lace over satin with lily point sleeves. Her matching fingertip veil was draped from a coronet head piece set with rhinestones. She carried a trailing bouquet of red roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the groom.

Miss Marion Lee, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Rena Ronaghan, second cousin to the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mrs. Joan Roberge, cousin to the bride, was matron of honor. They wore identical cocktail length dresses in contrasting colors of nylon net with with matching headband with pearl setting. Marion was in blue, Rena in pink, and Joan in yellow, and each carried a fan shaped bouquet of gladioli.

The groom was supported by his twin brothers Johnny and Robert and his best friend Jack Bresman. Guests were ushered by Sellas Lee, uncle of the bride and Mike Mayowski. During the signing of the register Mrs. C. Laird sang 'A Wedding Hymn,' accompanied by Mrs. A. M. West.

The bride's mother was attired in a pink nylon dress with lace top and white accessories, her corsage was red roses and carnations. The groom's mother chose a two piece blue ensemble with white accessories, her corsage was of yellow roses and carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall. Miss Evelyn Nelson, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's table was covered with a linen table cloth which had belonged to her great-great-grandmother. A three-tiered wedding cake, baked and decorated with tiny rosebuds embedded in white tulle, by the bride's great-aunt Ellen Omness, centred the table.

During the reception Mrs. C. Laird sang "Because" accompanied by Mrs. West.

Orley Omness, great-uncle of the bride, proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded very fittingly.

In the evening a dance followed in the Islay hall.

For going away the bride changed to a charcoal suit with panama accessories and a corsage of roses.

The happy young couple left on a honeymoon to the southern states. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm in the Turkey Hill District.

Car Race

Thanks to a last minute surge General Motors ended the first half of 1956 in its customary position as Canada's biggest - volume automaker, reports The Financial Post.

All other Canadian manufacturers of new cars however showed percentage production gains during the first half compared with January-June in 1955.

These events it is presumed stem largely from a five-month strike at General Motors which lasted seven weeks into 1956 cutting deeply into first half production at Oshawa.

Here is the standing in car sales: GM 31.3% of all production (43.7% last year); Ford 33.8% (30.5%); Chrysler 27.7% (22.6%); Studebaker Packard 2.5% (2.2%); American Motors 1.7% (1.0%).

WILDMERE WINKS

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Wells on the loss of her loving mother Mrs. Rollins. In her long life of 85 years she must have seen vast changes in this old world from the days of oxen to jet propulsion. We wonder sometimes when we read of accidents if it is all for the better, but I suppose we must go ahead.

We were indeed sorry to hear of Mrs. Riley's accident, making it necessary for her to stay a few days in hospital. The injury was due to a fall down her basement steps. A speedy recovery is wished you by your many friends.

Many will have read of the sight-seeing bus accident at Banff on Sunday. The lady who lost her life in the tragedy was Miss Laura Guest, a school chum of the writer back in Ontario. She had been a teacher in Sault Ste Marie for many years.

Janet Cruthers is working for Mrs. Jack Taylor near Fabyan. Maureen her sister is visiting her this week while the Taylors go to the Edmonton Exhibition.

Congrats to Mr and Mrs. David Dibben of Basswood on the birth of a son on Saturday July 14th. Both are well.

The Curlers' picnic at Wildmere was a good outing despite the heavy rain the night before. A large crowd attended. Some good ball games big and little, races of all kinds were enjoyed and the booths did a good business all the afternoon. The dance at night was well attended in fact too many for the small hall but everyone seemed to enjoy the dance. H. Eylem and A Cleland furnished the music and H. Lumley was M.C.

Mrs. Wilson has her mother Mrs. Finlay visiting her at present. Mrs. Finlay spent the winter with her daughter Mrs. Fisher in Edmonton.

There was a nice attendance at church on Sunday evening. Mr. Smith sang the 23rd Psalm and Miss Craig from Vermilion led us in prayer.

Miss G. Craig of town visited at the Holte home for a few days, attending the Curlers' picnic, also church on the following Sunday.

Next Sunday July 22 church will be held at Preston Central school. Afterwards Mr Orrin Webber, who has been on a world tour will show slides and give a talk. Everyone is very welcome. A silver collection will be taken. Come and hear this young man. Everybody welcome.

Congratulations to the Grade 10s who have successfully passed their exams. Janet Cruthers, Hazel Whitlock, Sylvia Steele. We haven't heard yet how Martin Goal made out [illegible]

Miss Anne Garnett of Edmonton spent the week end at her home here returning Monday evening.

The writer enjoyed a wonderful birthday on Monday. Numerous phone calls of happy birthday were received from friends and neighbors. Harvey, William and Edward Haines and Kathleen, Wendy and Billie Cruthers sang 'Happy Birthday' over the phone. Mrs. Wilson and her mother called and brought me a lovely cake, so all in all it really was a grand day. Thanks again folks for all your kindness and to all you folks for your nice cards. [illegible]

We enjoyed nice chats with Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Teasdale and Mrs. Rund on Saturday.

Wildmere Women's Institute Notes

The Wildmere W. I. met at the Preston Central School on July 6th. Mrs. J. Bowman was to be hostess but as she was away, Mrs. Osterberg took over the duties of hostess. The meeting opened with the singing of 'O Canada' and the creed. Roll call was to name a remedy for accidents, [illegible] stings. [illegible] members were [illegible] and four visitors, Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Seale of Battleview, Mrs. W. W[illegible] from Basswood and Mrs. Balke [illegible]. The W. I. have purchased a hospital bed for the school in case some child becomes sick during school hours.

Mrs. C. Cruthers, delegate to the Conference, gave her report and this proved very interesting. The July project was a shadow bake sale when each member paid in 50 cents to help out the funds.

There was quite a lot of discussion regarding a float for the Vermilion fair parade. The committee appointed to look after the same is composed of Mrs. D. Hughes, Mrs. J. Wilson, and Mrs. F. Gibson. Mrs. W. T. Garnett is to make a placard for the W. W. I.

Our president, Mrs. F. Gibson, heartily welcomed the visitors and invited them all to come again.

Topic was given by Mrs. J. Wilson, "Keeping Fit by Exercise." The highlights of the talk were that as we get older we need less exercise but exercise should be taken regularly either before meals or 1 hour af[illegible]. Meat, vegetables and fruit make a good diet for not adding weight. Exercise to music waltz time is fine. She demonstrated many of the exercises. It was good and something entirely different.

The deadline for old woollens has been extended for a week longer so anyone wanting to send bring them along to Mrs. Roy Dibben, R. R. 3 Vermilion.

Johnny Jump Up was won by Mrs. Holte. The meeting closed with "The Queen". The members then enjoyed a delicious cafeteria style lunch.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Cruthers on Aug. 1st. Roll Call- "Favorite Recipe Exchange". Topic "Home Economics". Social Mrs. J. Wilson; lunch— Mrs. Rendell, Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Cruthers.

N. B. Will those who had handicraft at the conference take a look and see if Mrs. A. Rendell's tea cloth hasn't got into them by mistake as there is still one missing.

COFFEE PRICES

Coffee price per pound will stay high, at least to the end of this year, says The Financial Post, despite higher production and back-to-normal inventories. Health Unit Notes

ARTHRITIS

Arthritis is the term applied to a large group of rheumatic diseases which cause inflammation of the joints. These diseases are alike in that they affect the joints, but they differ from one another in causes symptoms and many other respects.

RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS — This is most common in young adults and usually begins before 40 years of age. Since these are the most productive years it has a special economic significance although it is seldom fatal. The first definite symptoms are usually preceded by a long period of ill health, the person is easily fatigued and is susceptible to colds. Heredity seems to be a predisposing cause and other contributing factors may be injury to joints, prolonged exposure to cold and damp, overcrowding and other unfavorable living conditions, infection and prolonged emotional stress. In fact, a severe cold, sore throat or emotional shock may be the trigger which sets off an attack of this disease. Rheumatoid arthritis is a disease to the entire system, not only the joints. If untreated it may lead to thinning of the bones at the joints and wasting of cartilages and muscles. The smaller joints are affected first, perhaps fingers and feet and later on the larger joints become involved. Slight joint pain and swelling may come and go for years until finally one joint after another becomes stiff, painful and swollen. In addition there may be anemia, fever, digestive disturbances, depression, irritability and loss of weight and energy.

OSTEO-ARTHRITIS — This is a disease of middle or old age. It rarely becomes established before 40 years of age. It is caused by aging of the cartilage of the joints and wear and tear of the joint tissues. The joints usually affected are those at the ends of the fingers and those which bear strain and have the hard usage of weight bearing, e.g., knees and spine. The changes progress gradually over a period of years. In certain cases of Osteoarthritis, injuries are partly responsible for the changes in the joints. The injury may be sudden, such as a fracture or it may come from a mild long continued strain perhaps by overweight or faulty posture. Physical defects (flat feet or curvature of the spine) which put an unequal pressure on a joint may also contribute.

The disease usually begins as a slight stiffness or soreness aggravated by exercise and this gets worse as time goes on. If untreated the joints become thickened and grates on movement. Small pieces of bone or gristle may collect in the joints and hamper movement, this makes the person feel unsafe and may suddenly throw him.

Another form of arthritis due to the joints becoming involved during an infection such as tuberculosis, pneumonia, scarlet fever and meningitis. This type of arthritis is becoming less common due to the more efficient treatment of the infections with modern drugs.

Arthritis associated with gout usually occurs in men between 40 and 50 years of age. There is a strong hereditary susceptibility to this disease, also overweight, overfatigue, sedentary living habits and excesses in food and drink are important. This form of arthritis responds very well to treatment and with care and attention the chronic stage may be avoided.

V. S. A. Alumni In Annual Re-union

The Alumni Association of the Vermilion School of Agriculture and Home Economics recently held its annual summer re-union, banquet and rose ball, at which the classes of 1931 and 1951 were honored.

The class of '31 were guests at the banquet, held in the dining room of the School of Agriculture. Mr. S. C. Heckbert of Vermilion, a member of the school staff in 1931 and guest speaker of the evening, introduced the class of '31. As each was introduced they were presented with an appropriately engraved silver spoon or silver letter opener to mark the occasion.

Greetings were extended to the gathering from the Department of Agriculture by Mr. E. Swindlehurst, Supervisor of the Radio and Information Branch of the Department and graduate of the Vermilion school in 1930.

Bruce MacDonald, toastmaster for the evening, and vice-president of the Alumni Association, presented the annual report in the absence of the president, Ross Gould. The Association, he reported, continues in a sound financial position. During 1955 the Alumni presented a piano to the school and gave two scholarships to members of the second year classes in Agriculture and Home Economics.

An important part of the banquet program was the election of officers. Mr Ken Stone, chairman of the nominating committee, presented his committee's recommendations. The recommendations were adopted as follows:

Hon. Pres. — S. C. Heckbert
Pres. — Geo. Austin, Ranfurly
Vice-Pres. — Florent Van Wagen-ingen, Tolland
Sec.-Treas. — W. S. Baranyk, Vermilion
Ex-Officio — N. N. Bentley, Principal, V.S.A.
Directors — Ross Gould, Bruce MacDonald, Ruby Bauer, Eva Langdale, Harold Roebuck, Bill MacLean, Alma Cameron, Mrs. Chas Findlay.

Mr. Heckbert, in his address, brought back to mind some of the highlights and achievements as well as some of the humorous sidelights of the "Class of '31". Mr. Heckbert pointed out the contribution to rural Alberta, of not only the class of '31 but of all graduates of the School of Agriculture and Home Economics.

The gym of the V.S.A., decorated in keeping with the Rose Ball theme, was the scene of the remainder of the evening's festivities. A large number of the graduates answered the class roll call. The singing of the Alumni song and giving of the school yell was a fitting ending to the program.

Killam Lady's 100th Birthday July 29th

Mrs. Anna Sorenson, grandmother of Hartley Sorenson of Vermilion, will celebrate her 100th birthday on Sunday, July 29th. Mrs. Sorenson has lived at Killam since 1912.

Mrs. Sorenson was born Anna Ericksen in Sogn, Norway, on July 29th, 1856. She came to America in 1868 and settled at Highwater, Cottonwood County, Minnesota.

In 1875 she married Mr. Ole Sorenson of Westbrook, Minnesota, where her family of four sons and three daughters grew up.

Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson moved to Killam in 1912 to join their four sons who had come to the Canadian West earlier and homesteaded in the Killam district.

Mrs. Sorenson was bereaved by the death of her husband in 1917, by a son Henry and three daughters. Living are her three sons, Nels, Andrew and Alex, all of Killam. There are 24 grandchildren, 62 great grandchildren and 12 great-great grandchildren. Some of these reside in the United States.

The last few years "Grandma Sorenson as she is affectionately known, has lived at the Bethany Sunset Home in Camrose. Except for her eyesight she enjoys fair health. She is looking forward to her 100th birthday on Sunday at Killam where open house in her honor will be held in the Baptist church hall from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., Sunday July 29th.

Over 200 in "6 - 60" Swim Classes

Keenness and enthusiasm are the keynotes of the 6-60 swim classes. There have been 209 registrations to date, from such widely different centres as Mannville, Buffalo Coulee, Wainwright, Bonnyville, Edmonton, Koknee, Tolland, Trenton, Ont., and of course, Vermilion.

The regular instruction staff consists of Sid Moore, Marjory Waldenberger and Ann Beatty. Also giving assistance as a lifeguard on Sunday afternoons in the swim area is Linda Long.

The "Clipper Swim Club" is doing much to promote better swimmers. Many are attending the better stroke classes, endeavoring to qualify for swim club membership.

Eligibility for membership depends on:

1. Ability to swim 25 yards in 15 seconds, free style.
2. Ability to swim 125 yards using five different strokes.
3. Once accepted, membership may be maintained only by swimming 'the marathon' — five lengths across the lake on five separate days before the swimming season ends.

Registration for the Clipper Swim Club is still open, but if entrants continue to qualify at the present high level, it will be necessary to establish a cut-off date.

Quite obviously the swimming classes, in fact the park and lake too, are fulfilling a great need in this area, and it is extremely gratifying to find that such enthusiastic use is being made of the facilities available to the people of Vermilion and district. Get in to the 6-60 swim and make use of this splendid opportunity.

MINBURN WINS

Minburn Softball team made it two straight last Sunday afternoon over the Vermilion Cardinals, taking both ends of a doubleheader.

The National Parks of Canada now cover more than 29,000 square miles of wonderfully scenic territory.

The Hoodoos are queer eroded pillars of clay on the banks of the Bow River in Banff National Park.

Vermilion Wins Little League District Championship at Vegreville

Vermilion boys won the district Little League championship at a tournament held in Vegreville on Sunday. Six teams competed: two from Vegreville and one each from St. Paul, Elk Point, Minburn and Vermilion.

To win the Vermilion boys had to play three games. The first draw brought them against the Vegreville No. 1 team and this proved to be the game of the day. The Vermilion boys emerged winners by 5 runs to 3 with Ferguson pitching to Manyluk. The line-up for this game was Manyluk, Ferguson, N. McPherson, Armstrong, Fare, Ferby, Porter, Upshall, Ford.

Vermilion turned back Minburn 8 to 3 in the second encounter. Ferby was on the mound with Manyluk again receiving. The remainder of the line-up was McPherson, Armstrong, Ferguson, Serby, Porter, Upshall, Ford.

The final game brought the fast travelling Vermilion boys against the Veg No. 2 team. In this game the local lads really had their batting eyes in and were clouting the ball with great abandon to run up a 13-4 victory. Ferguson pitched his second game of the day with the reliable Manyluk again doing the catching. McPherson was on first base and Armstrong, Ferby, White, Porter, Upshall, Ford completed the roster.

The tournament was sponsored by the Vegreville Chamber of Commerce and to the winners went a handsome trophy. The opening ball was pitched by veteran editor and ball player A. L. Horton of the Vegreville Observer with Mayor Bill Morton behind the bat.

Besides the cup each Vermilion boy received a treat of treats and then to wind up a really successful and well run event the gate receipts for the day were split six ways, each club getting $17.

This was the first little league tournament to be run in north eastern Alberta and the Vegreville Chamber has every intention to hold the competition on July 1st every year hereafter.

Vermilion [illegible] who accompanied the boys to Vegreville were very pleased with the way every team was treated and had high praise for the efficient manner in which the day's activities were handled. Four hundred spectators were present to see the Little Leaguers in action.

Baseball Play-Off Sunday at 2 p.m.

Vermilion and Two Hills will meet here on Sunday at 2:00 p.m. in the second game of the semi-final play-off of the Eastern Alberta Baseball league. The first game was played at Two Hills on Sunday with the Vermilion boys on the short end of a 7 to 6 score.

Vermilion was one up going into the last half of the 9th only to have Two Hills run in two counters.

It will be a good game on Sunday, July 29th at 2:00 p.m. and as we haven't had any too much baseball due to rainy weather everyone should turn out and make a real ball game of it.

Vermilion's Annual Golf Tournament August 5th & 6th

Qualifying rounds for the Vermilion men's annual open golf tournament will start at 8 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 5th and no entries will be accepted after 10 a.m. Every entrant is guaranteed a minimum of 36 holes of golf, and the tournament is planned as a two-day event, starting Sunday morning, Aug. 5th and concluding Monday, Aug. 6th, the Civic holiday.

There will be flights arranged to accommodate all classes of golfers, whether they shoot par or are week-end golfers at something over par. Good fellowship, a chance to meet some of the better golfers of north-eastern Alberta and to play on a sporty nine-hole course are promised to anyone entering the Vermilion tournament.

Hot meals and lunches will be served at the clubhouse by the members of the Vermilion Ladies' golf club.

The Rowe trophy will go to the winner of the tourney, and a fine list of prizes for each flight will be offered. Get your entry in and help make this tournament one of the best ever.

Householders Will Receive Report of Royal Commission

Every householder in Alberta will receive a copy of a summary of the report of the Royal Commission which investigated charges of maladministration against the government made during the last election campaign. Mailings started this week to ensure that a copy of the summary goes to every household in the province listed by the federal postal authorities, as part of the government plan to keep the citizens informed of government activities.

A total of 301,000 copies of the three-page summary are being mailed. They are contained in an envelope addressed to "A Citizen of Alberta" and bear second class mailing stamp.

The summary contains the points of reference of the Commission or items into which they were required to enquire. It contains immediately after each point of reference the exact findings of the Commission.

A complete report of the Commission which consists of 352 pages of testimony is available at cost from the Queen's Printer, Edmonton.

Vermilion Fair Exhibits Reach All-Time High

Every stall in the spacious barns of the Vermilion Agricultural Society has been filled and two extra buildings were transported to the grounds on Wednesday to make room for more cattle than could be accommodated in the regular barns. The buildings were made available through the courtesy of the Vermilion School Division and the Crown Lumber Co., having recently been completed in the V.S.A. shops and not delivered to their final location.

All beef breeds of cattle were unusually well represented and were being exhibited by well known breeders from all over Alberta and the western portion of Saskatchewan; the dairy herds were mainly represented by several fine herds of Jerseys and the competition is expected to tax the judgment of Leonard S. Brooks of the University of Alberta who will place the awards, starting Friday morning.

One hundred and seventeen light horses will compete through the balance of the week for prize list placings and the fine silver trophies offered by the Society, while the heavy horse classes will have their usual appeal when the groups of Messrs. Bryden of Mannville, Bobbie Burns of Pickardville and the Fowler Ranch at Innisfree take their place in the ring for the nod of George Reith of Bon Accord who will place the ribbons for the 'heavies'.

Exhibit halls are jammed to the roof with exhibits, entries in the school fair being particularly heavy and appealing. Junior fair entries have been received from as far distant as Innisfree, Marwayne, Irma, Wainwright, Mannville, Dewberry and Elk Point and the interest of the public in the fine display has been keen indeed.

A number of splendid displays are open to the public and are attracting wide attention. The M.D.'s of Vermilion River, Minburn and Eagle have gone all out to present interesting and instructive displays, while firms operating throughout the province have attractive lay-outs which will have wide appeal.

The first day of Vermilion's big fair, although cloudy and cool, gives every indication that all records will be broken before the curtain is rung down at midnight Saturday. The members of the boys' and girls' camp, 125 strong, are enjoying their stay at the School of Agriculture, and on Saturday will be guests of the Alberta Wheat Pool at a dinner arranged for their special benefit.

Next week's issue of the Standard will contain a full write-up of the 51st fair to be held in Vermilion and with the support of district citizens so keenly manifested as it has been for years and with something by way of improvement in the weather there is reason to believe that this important annual event will establish itself further in the interest of all.

Group Captain R. C. Stovel, OC of the Royal Canadian Air Force at Cold Lake, who officially opened the Fair on Thursday evening gave an outline of the progress of Vermilion Fair and his remarks must have been encouraging to those charged with the responsibility of this important event in the agricultural life of the community.

Holiday Time!

AUGUST 3 to 13

To enable the staff to have holidays, The Vermilion Standard will be closed from Friday August 3rd, and will re-open Monday morning, August 13th. The issue of The Standard of August 9th will be cancelled.

Would Cut Deeply Into Competitive Trade Area

Business Men Take Dim View Of Radio Station At Lloydminster

Vermilion business men engaged in the various lines of selling trades take a very dim view of the proposal for the installation of a radio broadcasting station at Lloydminster. At a meeting held in the Legion hall on Monday evening to discuss the matter, eighteen representatives, all owners or proprietors, decided that the matter was vital to Vermilion business and that action opposing the granting of license should be taken. Six more business representatives could not be present as they were going to be absent from town that evening but stated that they were in favor of some action as they could not see any good in the whole plan for Vermilion with the advantages all heavily weighted for Lloydminster. Two Lloydminster business men already have been heard to state that trade in other towns within the orbit of the broadcast especially the villages would suffer considerably as a result of the station and they might just as well have added Vermilion.

Business men at Kitscoty and Marwayne have already evinced deep concern over the possible effects on their business especially as the volume of trade does not allow for heavy advertising expenses, and that they have no means of combatting the air advertising. This territory between Lloydminster and Vermilion has always been a highly competitive trade area and very desirable and it was thought by the gathering that Lloydminster was taking this means of swinging the bulk of that business their way with the help of Vermilion money.

It is true that this means of advertising will be open to Vermilion merchants as well but Lloydminster being the largest town, its business firms are much more numerous and the majority of the firms are larger than those in any other centre consequently their advertising will dominate the air waves and cut severely into Vermilion trade and that of all the villages as well.

One business man who represented a company with many branches, stated that the experience of his firm with radio advertising was that it paid off well when the business was located in the same city or town as the radio station, but that returns were not worthy of consideration for branches located in other centres away from the radio station.

It was felt that even if local men did embark on expensive advertising programs over the air it would avail them little. Local men were not particularly enthusiastic over results obtained from the odd ad tried over Edmonton stations.

It was the general opinion that any advantages of a station at Lloyd would be greatly outweighed by the inroads into the trade of the town and that such a station was needed about as much as a second thumb on each hand. The area is already well served by the CBC stations, the University, and by any number of commercial stations from Edmonton and elsewhere. It was suggested that the country as a whole would be better off with fewer stations let alone another small station to further clutter up the air waves.

Some present expressed the opinion that Vermilion would lose 25 per cent of its trade from the country to the east, and villages would lose even more. General regret was expressed that a project which apparently requires Vermilion support, as a canvass of the town businesses and organizations, some not connected with trade at all, was made by a representative of the broadcasting company had not been publicly discussed and a town-wide stand taken on the question before any such soliciting for support was done. As it is some instances of signing the letter occurred without due knowledge or consideration.

The outcome of the discussion was the decision to have briefs prepared and letters written, pointing out that another radio station was entirely unnecessary in this area, and opposing the plan. These are to be forwarded to the proper officials at Ottawa in the very near future.

Lorne Corson is in Edmonton visiting [illegible] Hall, Mr. [illegible] and family and son Edmund and Mrs. Corson.

Mr and Mrs Bill Phillips have come from Grande Prairie to spend holidays with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs Gordon Dunsmore and to attend re-union days at the Fair.

Mrs Gordon Williams is spending a few days in Edmonton visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter Dr and Mrs Marvin Crowell and getting acquainted with her new grandson.

STORES CLOSE AT 1:00 P.M. FRIDAY

In order to allow everyone to attend the Fair, all stores and business places in Vermilion will close at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, July 27th.

ATTEND OUR 51st FAIR

It will be your loss if you miss any part of the Vermilion Fair. The program arranged is outstanding and has so many and varied attractions that everyone is bound to be pleased no matter what their interest. The fair is the big event of the year for Vermilion and district — in to it go many months of planning by the manager and directors, and many weeks of work in actual preparation of grounds, buildings and all the hundreds of jobs necessary. Attend yourself take the whole family — it's a farm city project — and the help of everyone is needed to put it over. Fine objectives are achieved by this district-wide co-operation.

DRIVE SLOWLY

The attention of car drivers is drawn to the fact that scores of small children are now playing at the Kinsmen paddling pool in the west end of town and that to reach the pool all must cross busy streets. The most common path is that across 50th Street. It might be an idea for the town to erect a couple of real warning signs at this point for the summer months. Possibly the silent policemen at the high and narrow light should be moved and utilized during the vacation period.

Incidentally the school board and town generally are indebted to Al Jones East of Vermilion Beverages for his generous donation of the silent policemen for warning signs at the schools. Aldous donated four of these to the school board. The large black policemen are having a real job and are much more effective than the ordinary "Slow Drive" sign.

Canada's National Parks each year are home to more than three million visitors.

FARMERS CUTBACK BEEF SUPPLY IN EARLIEST WEEK

All reviews of rural Alberta have shown increase in the Farm Safety Week proclaimed by the provincial government which terminates today, July 28 according to reports received by the Alberta Safety Council.

Thousands of posters and circulars possibly have been distributed to municipal officials, of the Safety council and local committees organized to promote the province-wide campaign of its kind.

A report compiled by the Alberta Safety Council shows that 210 persons lost their lives in accidents in 1955. This is a tragic, needless toll. It calls for a vigorous campaign to halt the slaughter and one of farm accidents cannot be overstressed. The main killer was the motor vehicle which took 70 lives. There were 11 lives lost in farm fires, being the toll of misuse of firearms, 10 persons were killed by farm machinery other than tractors, 9 by tractors, 8 by drowning, 7 by electrocution, 6 by horses, 5 by falls, 4 by poisoning, 3 by explosions, 2 by lightning and 1 by a bull. Other farm fatalities included those from falls on the farm, while seven of the fatalities were due to the careless use of firearms.

Most of the deaths were in the 15 to 30 years age group, although the figure rose and or less and fell to 10 at age group.

During the year of 1955, Farm Accidents cost a National Disaster Fund of Approximately $1,000,000 in compensation payments for the Alberta farmer and the help of Provincial Funds.

Traffic Safety Lane

MR. J. W. McKAY, Director of Safety Education, Department of Highways.

MARKING OF GAME PROTECTION

Good driving habits should be formed by children at an early age.

Pedestrians need a new knowledge of traffic signals. This is true both on city streets and on rural highways. Many pedestrians are responsible for their own safety and that of others and have proven more than good habits of safety. They will not be here to walk. They are "dead" because they had neglected safety habits which they could have formed from safe walking habits on the farm, while never out of the incidence were due to ignorance of safety rules.

Many of the deaths were in the 5 to 10 years age group, although the figure rose and or less and fell to 10 at age group.

During the year of 1955, Farm Accidents cost a National Disaster Fund of Approximately $1,000,000 in compensation payments for the Alberta farmer and the help of Provincial Funds.

SUMMER COTTAGES THE NEXT STEP

A demand for cottages at the Vermilion Park lake is steadily growing, and only those tourists who would like to spend a night or two at this beautiful and convenient spot, but from people in the surrounding country and village who are attracted by the many facilities offered and would like to spend a week holidaying here instead of making the trip to more distant lakes.

A concession similar to that of Elk Island Park might be the answer or maybe the Parks Board could erect and maintain a few cottages for rental purposes. The fact remains that the park is attracting visitors in greater numbers and as it becomes more widely known the need for cottages will be more and more pronounced.

SPEED OR LIFE

J. V. McAree in the Globe and Mail of Toronto quotes Science Newsletter to the effect that in an automobile accident in which someone is injured chance of a death are very small as hour are one in sixteen, at 35 miles an hour one in twelve at 45 miles an hour one in six. This is just about what one would expect. And in view of the shocking increase in the number of fatal automobile accidents surely some attention should be paid to statistics of this character.

It would seem that the mad desire to get from place to place in a hurry is responsible for the fact that if there is not some constructive planning all of the splendid results of applied preventive medicine may be lost by increased accident rates. Speedways high powered cars capable of going faster than any human being needs to go and impatient human beings are creating a death toll which is not only tragic but unnecessary.

As a matter of fact if the publishers of Science Newsletter are correct there should be immediate action to reduce speeds on all highways as well as the manufacturers of cars capable of making unnecessary speeds. Otherwise one can only come to the conclusion that SPEED IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN LIFE.

Semi-Final Series Finished Off in Edmonton

Crystal Glass Wins Over Eastern Alberta All Stars

DEWBERRY — Another double-header between the Eastern Alberta All Stars and Edmonton Crystal Glass was played at the Carter Stadium baseball diamond in Edmonton on Sunday, July 15. The All Stars won the first by an 8-4 score, forcing the second game.

Cyril Samuelson handled a six-hitter for the All Stars and received credit for the 8-4 win. The big batch of this game came in the Star's half of the 7th and final inning with the score at 4-3 in favour of the All Stars. Ed 'Dutch' Gerritts, with two away and the bases loaded, smashed a three and two pitch inside-the-park center to drive in three runs. This made the score 7-3 and another triple by Bruce Bowman rounded out the scoring for the Eastern Alberta team. Salabuk was the losing pitcher for Crystal Glass.

In the second game however, the story was entirely different as the Crystal Glass whipped the All Stars by a decisive 10-1 score. In winning, the Edmonton squad garnered 13 hits from four All Star pitchers who were, in order of appearance in the game, Jimmy Sasso, Johnny Williams, Allan Buck and Eddy Gerritts. The longest hit of the day was a home run by Jarvie of Crystal Glass in the first inning while Jim Jones was pitching. Thereafter the Eastern Alberta team could manage only one run even though potential scorers were on base several times. Art Revelo, pitcher for Crystal Glass, received credit for the win as he threw the three-hitter.

The boys who were on the All Stars for the series were: Allan Buck, Ray Kuzby and Dean Myky-tiw from Heinsberg; Vernon Nelson from Clandonald; Bruce Bowman, Cyril Samuelson, Ronald Mathison, Ronny Bednar, Bobby Hines, Gary Ure and Johnny Williams from Marwayne; Willard Stewart, Eddy Gerritts, Allan Cote and Billy Wilde from Kitscoty.

The winner of a series is entitled to pick two players from the defeated team and Crystal Glass has chosen Allan Buck for the balance of the play-offs.

The series was actually a best of three affair but to ensure that two games were played, a double-header was played the first Sunday in December. If the Edmonton games had been rained out, the two games at Dewberry would have both counted. As it turned out, the first third and fourth games were counted. The second game at Dewberry was merely an exhibition encounter.

Congratulations are due the Edmonton boys who now meet Stettler in the Northern Alberta final and the best of luck is wished them.

Rotary Club Sees Anniversary Film

On July 20th a new film entitled "The Great Adventure" was shown at the regular weekly luncheon meeting. This film was prepared by Rotary International to commemorate 50 years of service by Rotary. The Vermilion Club was fortunate in obtaining this film for presentation to its members.

Gerald Stephens gave an account of his recent trip to California and other states south of the line. Jerry travelled by air which he claims is the only way to get around these days.

Gil Rampling arranged the program and was assisted by members of the meeting. President Reg Mitchell thanked Gil on behalf of the club for providing such an interesting program.

Mr Mark Vaughn, associate director of 4-H club work for the State of Montana was a guest of Newcombe Bentley. Alex Palin was a guest of Gil Rampling and Mr. MacPherson introduced Mr. Smith, inspector of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for this area.

Visiting Rotarians were Jeff Mitchell and Mel Lavold of Lloydminster.

Mitch Taylor was complimented on the weekly letter sent out to members which has now reached to Vol 1, No. 3.

The band committee headed by Bill Sutherland reported that the Pipers band of the Loyal Edmonton Regiment would be in camp overat Vermilion Lake July 29th. On behalf of the Rotary Club it was also to bring the Lake Club to the beach. The band members of the Vermilion Rotary Club were expected themselves at very reduced rates to the beach and other facilities enjoyed at the lake. The chairmen of the committee in this connection was Clint McCready.

ONTARIO NEEDS FARM WORKERS

Does Ontario need working hands appeal to you? Plan, then here's the chance you have been waiting for.

This year farm workers are again needed to assist in the harvesting and harvesting operations in Ontario's farms. Any man is eligible who is between 18 and 65 years of age and who has had some experience on a farm is eligible. Wages are attractive and the cost to the worker is only $50 to go and $11.20 to return. Transportation is provided by farm owners, and experience, but should be accompanied by a good record and upward, plus board and room.

Anyone interested in proceeding to this farm assignment should immediately contact the Unemployment Office or your District Agriculturist, states Mr. F. H. Hannah, Minister of Provincial Public Labor Services.

All children, Scouts, Guides, Cubs, Brownies, Police Forces and Safety Clubs are carrying out effective instruction and "safe walking" campaigns in many places to give pedestrians proper habits when they are young. This is the time pedestrians should be formed. If all pedestrians forms these three basic habits, they would make form as a movement, and to some extent the dangerous would things that make him a traffic menace. He walks on sidewalks, rather than in the street without looking for traffic approaching. He never steps into the street from behind parked cars or cars across the street, and consequently He never weaves in and out through traffic zig-zagging aimlessly from one street spot to another.

When you are a traffic pedestrian, Labor speed cars to follow the three major pedestrian habits at crossings mentioned there, such as when.

(1) It is dark raining or snowing
(2) You are in a hurry
(3) You are carrying large parcels or packages
(4) The streets are slippery
(5) Crowds are obstructing
(6) You are out and
(7) You are worried or distracted.

Dear Sir:

Regarding "Weeds on Roads", I have often wondered why an owner of adjoining land should be held responsible for weeds on the road allowances.

This is not his property. It belongs to the municipality. Then why should at any time any owner be emplowable for weeds on property? No the road allowances belong to the municipalities and they should get busy and do their duty by removing the weeds that are threatening to pollute other farmers' fields.

Yours truly,
Shelly Wear

THE NEW BAND SHELL AT VERMILION PARK

The fine new band shell recently completed at the Vermilion Park is already in use, the first function taken on the occasion of the visit of the North Battleford Kinsmen band which was the first one-night stand of this popular musical organization.

The shell is a very capacious one and designed with square corners instead of the usual dome shape. This is to accommodate square dance parties and dances. The new building has been used on many occasions for meetings and such as dances.

Erection of the new band shell was made possible by generous donations from the M. D. of Vermilion River and the M. D. of

New Auction Mart Opened Tuesday

The latest acquisition to Vermilion business, the new auction mart located one mile west of town, was officially opened on Tuesday by His Worship Mayor Hill of Vermilion.

The Mayor congratulated the owners, Ed Wilson and Mr Kitt on the excellence of the accommodation, the building sales ring, coffee counter offices and corrals, denoting efficiency and experience in what was [illegible]. Mr Hill visualized the new service as being of decided value to everyone in general.

Mr. Ed Wilson who has lived here for the past several months, outlined the plans for sales, rates of commission and also gave a lot of information regarding the operation of the sales mart. He also introduced his new partner Mr. Kitt who is an experienced auctioneer from Two Hills. Mr Kitt has purchased the interest of Mr J. Bolton of Stettler in the new business. Mr Kitt spoke briefly. Ed Wilson then went into action and made the first sale, a bunch of ten weanling pigs, knocked down to Joe Green, thus launching the sales mart on its career.

Auction sales will be held every Tuesday, and any article may be listed.

Physical Education Degree Is Introduced At University of Alberta

A Bachelor of Physical Education degree will be introduced for the first time with the commencement of the fall session at the University of Alberta. It will replace the Bachelor of Education in Physical Education degree which was formerly offered.

The new course of study for the B.P.E. will be three years in duration, as against four years for the degree of Bachelor of Education in Physical Education.

The effect of the introduction of the new degree is to provide qualifications appropriate to two groups of persons interested in training in physical education.

The group which has hitherto not received full attention is composed of those persons who wish to make their life work the improvement of the facilities offered to the general public to enjoy leisure through recreation and the improvement of the physical standards of the community outside the school system. Such persons do not need the teaching certificate of the Department of Education for which the former 4-year B.Ed. degree qualified. They act as directors and instructors in recreation and in physical education, including swimming and life-saving, in community centres and in such institutions as the Y.M.C.A.

The new degree will, in addition to providing the technical competence required in such a career, tend to raise general educational standards [illegible] instructors by the inclusion, among the 24 compulsory subjects of the degree, nine from the Faculty of Arts and Science. Other courses will cover such matters as school health and physical education, first aid and care of athletic injuries, elementary anatomy, organization and administration of health and physical [illegible] community recreation and preventive and corrective physical education, in addition to the practical courses and to [illegible] work carried out under actual conditions of employment. Graduates will be able to specialize by further study, which may lie outside the somewhat narrow field usually defined by the words, "physical education".

The new curriculum will be similar to those already established at the Universities of McGill, Toronto and British Columbia.

The second group consists of students who wish to teach in the schools. As in the past, they will be qualified to do so after four years from matriculation. After obtaining the degree of Bachelor of Physical Education, they will take one year in the Faculty of Education. If they then wish to proceed to the degree of Bachelor of Education, they can do so in two summer sessions.

Farmers Evince Deep Interest In Safety Week; Toll Must Be Checked

All sections of rural Alberta have shown interest in the Farm Safety Week proclaimed by the provincial government which commenced Sunday, July 22 according to reports received by the Alberta Safety Council.

Thousands of posters and other publicity pamphlets have been distributed to municipal officials, of the Safety council and local committees organized to promote the first province-wide campaign of its kind.

A report compiled by the Alberta Safety Council shows that 69 farm residents lost their lives in accidents in 1955. This is a tragic, dreadful toll. It calls for a vigorous campaign to halt the slaughter and make farm operations safer for all concerned. The main killer was the tractor which took 22 lives. There were 11 lives lost in farm fires, 9 from the use or misuse of firearms, five from poison gas or carbon monoxide, and four persons were killed by farm machines other than tractors. Farm animals were responsible for five deaths, while lightning took two lives; five persons died from falls on the farm, while seven of the fatalities were due to miscellaneous causes.

Most of the deaths were in the 10 to 19 years age group, the group nine years old or less and the 40 to 49 age group.

The death toll from farm accidents must be checked now and that is the challenge which the Alberta Safety Council is sounding along the wide front that covers more than 80,000 Alberta farms.

"We feel that Alberta Farm Safety Week is a good start on a permanent farm safety program," said W.J. Perkins, Farm Safety Director.

Paul Lawrence, Safety Director for the Alberta Safety Council, says, "The observance of Alberta Farm Safety Week will, we hope, cause many thoughtful people to consider what action they as individuals, or members of a group, might undertake during the coming year to aid farm safety education."

The official emphasizes that regular reports, tabulated monthly dealing with farm accidents and compiled by local volunteers, should be an important factor in accident prevention. Interest in them would be aroused, safety or accident-consciousness would spread and there would be greater knowledge of hazards and how to avoid them. One of the campaign features is to bring about the prompt removal of accident hazards by making careful inspection of farm dwellings, buildings and machines.

The Alberta Safety Council already has launched its drive against farm tractor accidents. Two tractor tipping demonstrators will be in action at different district fairs in southern and northern Alberta. They are Prof B T Stephanson, of the University of Alberta, and Mr Perkins. Each will operate a machine which will show operators the causes of tractor tipping and other preventable accidents. The demonstrations proved so popular last year, and there have been so many requests for repeat showings this year, that it was necessary to largely expand the program.

As a result, thousands of farm residents will be given fresh lessons in safe operating of farm machinery this year, all combining to make Alberta safer for the farming industry. Also, it means that there should be less tractor and other accidents on Alberta highways.

Farm leaders have expressed their strong endorsation of this Safety Week. Government leaders and officials are giving it their full support.

The theme is "Safety Pays All Ways." It is believed that this campaign will save lives in Alberta and protect many homes from the tragedy and sorrow of farm fatalities.

Buffalo, wapiti or elk, moose, Rocky Mountain sheep and goats, and bear all find safety in the national parks of Canada.

Jasper National Park, Alberta, is the largest national playground in North America, with an area of 4,200 square miles.

Greenlawn Goodwill Club

The Greenlawn Goodwill club met at the home of Mrs. Max Maddex with twelve members in attendance. Following a short business meeting Mrs. R. Goad gave an interesting report on the Farm Women's Week at the V.S.A.

The August meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Goad if roads are passable, otherwise at Mrs. R. Tomsda's.

The hostess served a delicious lunch which was much enjoyed by all.

As of July 18 the total rainfall for Vermilion this season was 7.91 inches, compared to the normal rainfall of 7.61 inches to that date. During the last week .27 inches of rain fell at Vermilion. Farm Ladies Hear Address On Civil Defence

Ladies attending the special short course for Farm Women at the Vermilion School of Agriculture recently, heard an address on Civil Defence by Ashley H. Cooper, editor of the Vermilion Standard.

Following introductory remarks, Mr. Cooper divided his talk into three sections under the following headings:

1. Why we need Civil Defence Planning;
2. A simple explanation and description of the action of the atomic and hydrogen bomb;
3. What can we do about it?

Following each section there was a discussion and question period. As practically all of the material in the talk was new, many questions were asked and considerable discussion took place. The final section emphasized evacuation plans of key cities and the part that women in rural Alberta would play in such cases.

At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Cooper had the civil defence sound film, "Operation Lifesaver" shown, the projectionist being Mr. Alex Palin of the V.S.A. staff. This film depicts the evacuation of a portion of the city of Calgary which was carried out last fall.

At the end of the program Mrs. V. T Macdonald, on behalf of the ladies present, thanked the speaker. The evening was completed by serving refreshments.

Mr. George Martin, Civil Defence Director for the M. D. of Vermilion River, and the Town of Vermilion, attended the meeting and was introduced to the gathering by Mr. Cooper. The latter attended the newsmen's course in Civil Defence at the Civil Defence college at Arnprior in May, and accumulated considerable material on civil defence development.

Hail-Producing Clouds Investigated

This summer a co-operative investigation into the physics of clouds, with particular attention to those producing hail, is being launched under the joint auspices of the Meteorological Division, Dept. of Transport and the Research Council of Alberta, announces Dr. N. H. Grace, Director of the Research Council of Alberta.

So that an effective scientific study of the serious hail problem which exists in Western Canada can be made, Albertans are asked to report their observations of all storms accompanied by hail whether damaging or not. The information required is: the exact place of occurrence, the precise time of beginning and ending of the hail, and the approximate size of the largest hailstones (pea, grape, walnut, golf ball, etc). In addition, any remarks concerning the accompanying lightning and high winds will be welcome. The research group will appreciate any eye-witness accounts (preferably accompanied by photographs) of tornadoes or of funnel-clouds.

Even though a great deal of valuable information regarding hail storms is available through the insurance companies, this must be supplemented by as many reliable on-the-spot observations as possible if the complete life history of these storms is to be determined. All observations should be addressed to "Hail Studies, Research Council of Alberta, Edmonton."

Orin Webber, World Traveler, Visits Uncle At Tolland

Orrin Webber of Toronto, grandson of the late O. H. Webber of Tolland, is visiting with his uncle E. E. Webber and his aunt Mrs. M. Webber at the family home. Mr. Webber is on his way home after travelling for a year around the world.

The following story was written by Stan Martindale, staff writer for the Times of Coos Bay. The story appears in a regular column titled, "Along the Waterfront" and follows:

Orrin Webber of Toronto, Canada ended a year-long "round-the-world trip on $1500" Wednesday at Coos Bay Lumber Co. Dock in Coo Bay.

He arrived aboard the Swedish lumber ship, the Mongabarra, from Japan, the last of over 20 countries he said he visited in his trek that began a year ago in June.

Webber said he started from Vancouver, B.C. and went to England. From England he went to France and on to Germany. Italy was next, then Greece, Cyprus, Arabia, India, Hong Kong, the Philippines and on to Japan.

Works As Seaman

Webber said he worked the last leg of his trip from Japan as a seaman aboard the Mongabarra. He said he used every means of transportation during his travels, but went mainly by ship.

The voluble, 28-year-old traveler said he went on his trip because he was interested in YMCA work and enjoyed visiting foreign countries and understanding their people.

"I was searched very thoroughly by customs when I entered Cyprus," he said. "The tension there is terrific. They were searching for guns, I guess."

Webber was high in his praise of people encountered in foreign countries. "Of all, I guess the Japanese were the most cordial – a very friendly and courteous people. I enjoyed my stay in Italy too, and in Germany with some chaps I met at the YMCA conference I attended in Paris."

Most People Good

"I'm convinced that most people are good eggs although there are a few bad ones around. There is one Egyptian boy I should never have loaned some money to," Webber said.

Travelling always by the cheapest available transportation, Webber said he figured his expenses on the trip were close to $1500, including hostels or YMCA offices while in Europe.

He praised the strawberries in Japan and the general good nature and helpfulness of most travel agencies connected with getting him from country to country.

No Passport Trouble

Passport and visa difficulties did not impress Webber. "As a Canadian, I had no trouble whatsoever. I did need a separate passport for Israel but I chose the Arab countries instead. If you travel to Israel, you can't go on to the Arab countries."

Webber is filled with anecdotes about his travels that range from blinding sandstorms in Arabia to near starvation when funds ran low and he had only passage money to the next stop.

He said he is a devoted backer of the YMCA movement and is interested in missionary work as a Christian. He said he is planning to study and give lectures on his travels and philosophy when he gets back to his home at 38 Chaplin Crescent, Toronto, Canada.

MOTHERS

It is a long time since anyone has written a good song about Mothers or a decent play or poem. Perhaps this sour world can't stand sweetness any more. A writer told me that if he wrote a play that glorified Mother, it would be rejected as having too saccharine an approach. "It's fashionable," he said, "for Canadian television plays to deal with sordid psychiatric problems and Mother fits better as a villain according to the experts who decide these things. Motherhood is purely schmaltz these days'".

I've no quarrel with psychiatry or psychology but this trend to belittle motherhood makes me somewhat nauseated.

If I had to choose someone to raise a boy or girl of mine, I'd choose a mother in preference to any of the eminent 'eggheads' who prate of 'Momism and related complexes. Many of these amateur Freudian 'experts' could do with a long walk in the sunshine down any Canadian street. They'd see a few mothers in action.

The other day walking down a suburban street I saw a typical Mother. She was standing in her front yard, her face a study in anxiety. Across the road her freckle-faced boy was threatening to heave a rock through a neighbor's window. At her skirts another howled for permission to go to the wading pool.

As if that weren't enough to plague one human being, a third youngster, tears streaming down his face, came hobbling to her with a scraped knee.

A mother with three active children (she probably had more) faces a thousand crises daily. Just to retain her sanity is an act of courage, but to go on day after day from early morning until late evening solving her problems with patience and love deserves eloquent praise.

Added to all this, most city women now have a husband around the house a great deal of the time. His hours of work grow shorter, his holidays increase, and he takes quite a bit of caring for at home. Increased leisure and lighter work for higher pay usually makes him moodier and less easy to please.

Mothers haven't heard of the 8-hour day. They're on shift whenever any member of the family needs them.

So, let's have some songs of praise for Mother, and let the egg-heads go their Freudian way!

FARM SAFETY

Several farm safety principles are worth keeping in mind:

1 Youngsters should never be allowed to drive a farm tractor, combine or other self-propelled equipment.

2 There is no place for passengers on farm tractors.

3 Safety shields should be replaced immediately if for some reason they have been removed.

4 Adjustments should be made while machines are stopped.

These and other safety rules must always be kept in mind.

Farm Safety Week is worthy of the support of all groups in our society but farm people should practise Farm Safety Week every week'.

On Friday, July 20, the last day on duty at the Telephone Exchange for Mrs. L. P. Horne, about sixteen friends gathered for tea on the lawn at the Exchange to honor her. Mrs. W G. Keating, on behalf of the assembled group, presented Mrs. Horne with a "Lazy Susan", and expressed their best wishes to her for much happiness in her years of retirement.

Several changes of staff personnel in the Telephone Exchange have taken place recently. Mrs. L. P. Horne has retired after thirty years service; Miss Alice Thompson resigned recently, to be married; Miss Hilda Brass has been transferred to the Edmonton telephone office; and Miss Shirley Hicks will be leaving Vermilion July 31st to go to Lloydminster where she will be with the telephone exchange.

Mrs. A. Cameron returned home on Saturday following a month spent at the coast visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John King and family at Haney, B.C. She was accompanied by her grandson Don Cameron on the trip. From Haney a trip was made to Victoria where a visit with Mrs. Rod Fraser, formerly of Vermilion, was greatly enjoyed. Two of the Fraser boys, Wilfred and Lawrence, also live in Victoria. Other friends visited included Mrs. Johnson in Vancouver and Mrs. Green at Abbotsford. Several sight-seeing tours were enjoyed with 'Little Mountain' a beauty spot near Vancouver, as being outstanding and very well worth a visit.

Civil Defence and Natural Disaster

Thirteenth in a series of 24 articles

Much is spoken and written these days about the destructive forces of the hydrogen bomb. Nations have their national defence plans and their civil defence plans cooking on the front burner in case they should be attacked with nuclear weapons. But there is another enemy, one that existed long before the H-Bomb and is capable of just as much destruction. It is, moreover, ever present: Nature.

In recent months, nature in the form of floods, hurricanes and even landslides has wrought destruction across widely scattered areas of Canada and the United States. The loss of life and property and the attendant suffering, both physical and mental, have been almost as great in some instances as if an H-Bomb had fallen. And the after effects linger.

Preparation for disaster, almost any kind of preparation, could have prevented some of the loss and lightened much of the rest. The threat of disaster from the H-Bomb seems to have released a good many Canadians from a common inertia over preparing to defend themselves before the need to do so is forced upon them by emergency conditions. Canada's civil defence planners and more and more Canadians are beginning to see the advantages a civil defence plan in any community can provide, even if, as everyone earnestly hopes, the horrors of nuclear warfare never call it into play.

In the New England states last fall, for example, the destructiveness of hurricane and flood was greatly lightened in many areas because towns and cities, under the threat of the H Bomb, had set up civil defence organizations.

In New Haven, Connecticut the damage was light within the city itself. But its civil defence rescue units were able to come quickly to the aid of nearby communities hard hit by the elements. The New Haven civil defence units alone were credited with rescuing almost 1,000 persons who otherwise might have perished or at least undergone prolonged discomfort.

The same thing happened in Manitoba's Brandon area when floods hit there last fall. The residents, through their extensive civil defence organization, were able to protect themselves. They did not have to call on the armed forces for aid.

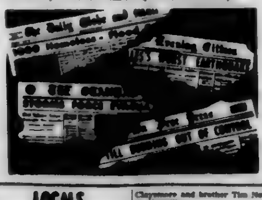
The little civil defence organization just beginning to blossom in Nicolet, Quebec, had a part in rescuing some of that village's residents when a section of it slid into the river in October. Afterwards it set up a welfare centre to help care for those made homeless.

So, while civil defence aims primarily at organizing and training Canadians to protect themselves in event of war, its organization is proving invaluable in peacetime as well. For it provides direction and know-how. Willing workers are always available when disaster strikes, but for all their willingness, their efforts are often not nearly as effective as they would be with proper training.

A civil defence plan should, according to federal planners, be flexible. Therefore, a lumber town for example, can organize its civil defence plan with the idea of meeting the threat of forest fires.

In that case not only can lives be saved that might otherwise be lost, but property also can be saved if plans to meet the disaster are ready beforehand.

Canada's Civil Defence Co-ordinator F. F. Worthington, has said he hopes civil defence will never have to be used in a war. But he added that when any disaster strikes where there were no previous plans to meet it, somebody always suffers needlessly.



Demonstration Of Water Safety Viewed By Large Crowd Sunday

The weatherman really outdid himself on Sunday, July 22 and so it was possible to watch A. Gilmet, provincial director of water safety for the Canadian Red Cross and the Alberta Safety Council, stage a very interesting demonstration.

A large crowd was in attendance and the only trouble was that the "H" pier was just not long enough for everyone to see every item demonstrated.

Heartfelt thanks go to Mr. Gilmet and those who so willingly assisted. There were Marjorie Waldenberger, Anne Stewart, Linda Long, Anne Beatty and Herman Rohwer, all of Vermilion. Also assisting were Ian Winchester and Bill Boyd, of Peace River. They presented different methods of rescuing drowning victims along with water and boat safety.

Mr. Gilmet outlined what was being taught in the swimming classes, then a number of the different swimming strokes used by a swimmer were demonstrated.

Following this was a demonstration of the new Holger Nielsen method of artificial respiration on the beach. A number of persons in the audience had a try at this.

WATER SAFETY

What To Do If You Cannot Swim

To aid a person who has slipped off a pier, remember that simple but effective reaching out to them is best. A hand, foot, or an oar extended out to the victim so that they may grasp it, while the rescuer supports himself on the pier.

To aid a person farther away from the pier, a ring buoy or can buoy on a rope may be tossed out making sure it lands past the victim so that he can get hold of either the rope or the buoy. Be sure to allow for any wind or current. Then gradually pull him in by the rope. A can buoy consists of an empty gallon can with a lid securely fastened on it, tied to a long [illegible].

Other things that will float a person are a gallon pail, even if it has no lid; a hip rubber wading boot, inflated by blowing air into it and holding the top end closed; an empty soft drink case; even a pair of cotton trousers with legs knotted and then inflated. These all will help to keep a person afloat for quite some time.

To Aid A Drowning Person If You CAN Swim:

First accustom yourself to the water by splashing some on your legs, arms and neck, so you won't happen to faint from the shock of the cold water to your blood vessels, causing them to contract too quickly.

Try to take something along with you, such as a flutter board or a towing torpedo-buoy. This will make it easier to tow the victim into shore.

BOAT SAFETY

When in a boat and you wish to exchange places, always move one at a time, otherwise you might tip the boat over.

If you are fishing or shooting ducks do not in your excitement place your foot up on the side of the boat as you might lose your balance and fall overboard. In such a case the remaining occupants should extend an oar to the person in the water. One should always climb back into a boat over the end gate at the back of the boat.

If everyone falls into the water and the boat is capsized, remember to stay with the boat even if you can't swim or are too far from shore to swim. The occupants of an overturned boat may hold on by holding onto each others' hands across the overturned boat. If you are able to turn the boat right side up and although it is full of water it will still float and support three people.

On behalf of the Vermilion Home and School Association and the people of Vermilion, many thanks to Mr. Gilmet and his assistants for this water safety demonstration. It is greatly appreciated.

Entertain Rotary Members and Wives

The well-kept attractively planted grounds of the Bill Cross farmstead was the scene of a picnic, garden party style, for the Vermilion Rotary members and their wives on Sunday last about six o'clock.

Each couple brought a picnic lunch with coffee in abundance being supplied by the host and hostess. The lunches were 'pooled' with a resultant variety of foodstuffs that were an unresisted temptation, even to those worried about 'curvature'.

After a tour of the farm buildings, and a demonstration of horsemanship by Bill Cross, the party gathered around a big bonfire, welcome in the chill of the evening, and joined in an enthusiastic singsong.

Miette Hot Springs, in Jasper National Park, Alberta, are among the hottest on the continent; one of them reaches 128 degrees F. at its source.

Dance at Triangle school on Wednesday, August 1st, Wes Funnel's orchestra. Everybody welcome: come one, come all.

A troupe of European acrobats brought along with them, to "support" them in their U.S. circus tour, a 66-foot tapered aluminum tower. Atop this rotates a 26-foot, motor-driven ladder, on which they go through their aerial routine.

If we were in their tights, we know we'd make darn sure that everything holding us up was plenty strong. No doubt that's why they chose aluminum. Plus the fact that this light metal would make much easier work of erecting the contraption. We're pleased that they, like so many other people, found just what they wanted in this light, strong, versatile metal.

Vermilion, W. I. Notes

The final meeting of the Vermilion Branch W. I. before the summer holidays was held at the picnic grounds at Vermilion Park on July 10th, with Vermilion members as hostesses to Happy Center Branch, Mannville ladies.

[illegible] the roll by giving a safety [illegible] and twelve sick calls were reported. We were very pleased to welcome seven visitors: Mrs. James McLaughlin, Mrs. J. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. R. H. Scott, from Happy Center branch; Mrs. Ivor Larsen from Buffalo Coulee branch; Mrs. Ivy Pare, Miss Marjorie Waldenberger and Miss Ann Beattie of Vermilion.

After a short business session reports were given on the lucky draw for a fruit cake by Mrs. O. Clark; cards sent to sick and bereaved by Mrs. Ethel Rooks, and a short report on the conference by Mrs. Marion Davis. Incidentally the cake drawn for was baked and iced by our own president, Mrs. Olive Clark, and won by Mrs. Mabel McKay and Mrs. P. McCambridge of Princess Anne Branch W. I.

A highlight of the afternoon was when Miss Marjorie Waldenberger and Miss Ann Beatty arrived. Miss Beatty acted the part of a drowning victim and Miss Waldenberger gave a very interesting and instructive demonstration of artificial respiration, which was intently watched by all present. In fact, so interesting was the demonstration that Marjorie was asked to repeat it.

After the demonstration and the revival of the victim, a pot lunch was spread out on the tables and coffee poured. Certainly no one went home hungry, and all were happy to spend one afternoon in such a lovely spot.

Free Party?

Perhaps only people who lack free political parties appreciate their usefulness, remarks Bruce Hutchison in The Financial Post. The ordinary Russian doubtless would glady contribute a day's wages to his own party if he had the chance. Here most of us expect to enjoy that benefit for nothing, seldom join a party and prefer to let invisible interests pay the election bill for motives good or bad, which we don't care to examine and generally deplore.

Health Unit Notes

EAR TROUBLE

The ear has three parts: outer, middle and inner. The outer ear canal is about one inch long and at the inner end of it is the thin flexible ear drum. Behind the ear drum lies the small middle ear cavity which passes directly to the throat through a narrow passage about an inch and a half long called the eustachian tube. Across the middle ear cavity is a tiny chain of three jointed bones and beyond these is the inner ear which consists of a labyrinth filled with fluid and semi circular canals. The labyrinth is a coiled up passage and is the hearing mechanism. The semi circular canals control balance and unusual pressure or change in the fluid may cause dizziness or sea sickness.

HOW WE HEAR

The outer ear helps to gather sound which travels down the outer ear canal to the ear drum. The sound causes the ear drum to vibrate and the vibrations pass into the middle ear and through the chain of little bones into the inner ear. There the agitation of the fluid creates nerve impulses which travel to the brain and are heard in the form of sound. Hearing is reduced when infection or injury damages the ear drum or blocks the eustachian tube or the outer ear canal.

In the past [illegible] cases of adult [illegible] from neglect of [illegible] childhood. This [illegible] necessary for [illegible] promptly when a child [illegible] of [illegible] infection and guard against loss of hearing.

Two main causes of [illegible] trouble and defective hearing in children are an acute infection of the middle ear and a milder chronic infection which blocks the eustachian tube and causes mild inflammation of the ear drum.

ACUTE MIDDLE EAR INFECTION

This is usually a complication of some childhood disease such as measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough or influenza. If your child has any such general infection watch for signs of ear trouble, such as earache, sudden rises in temperature, difficulty in hearing, and a noticeable turn for the worse in the illness. If the child is too young to tell you about earache and dull hearing he may show signs of ear trouble by a sharp rise in temperature, increasing illness, restlessness, crying with pain and sometimes pulling at the ears. If your child shows some or all of these signs call your doctor at once so that the condition can be checked before serious damage is done. An acute infection of the ear can develop so fast that an abscess may be formed in a matter of [illegible] so any delay in treatment can be serious.

Mount Calvary Lutheran church, Calgary, was the scene of a recent ceremony which united in marriage Miss Ida Katherine Schafer, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schafer of Delia, and Mr. Roy Atkinson Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Barnett of Islay. Rev. A. F. Miller officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a strapless gown of white lace and net over satin, complemented by a net bolero. Her chapel-length veil was held in place by a sequinned coronet. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. E. Hewitt, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor wearing a gown of turquoise nylon with matching jacket. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

The flower girl, Miss Barbara Ann Oldach, wore a white net over nylon dress and floral headdress. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

Mr. James Barnett was best man and ushers were Mr. Henry Schafer and Mr. William Hart.

The bridal toast was proposed by Rev. Miller at the reception at Arlo's.

Following a honeymoon trip to Coeur D'Alene Mr. and Mrs. Barnett will make their home in Calgary.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Alberta Indian Tribe Asks Full Citizenship Status

EDMONTON — Alberta last week sat in on the first phase of what could turn out to be an interesting experiment in Canadian citizenship.

A three-man board heard representations from the 115-member Michel Indian band, near Edmonton, which wants to revoke Indian status and attain full citizenship rights.

Chief Judge Neiles V. Buchanan of the northern Alberta district court headed the inquiry board, which will submit a confidential report to Citizenship and Immigration Minister Pickersgill at Ottawa.

The majority of the band members appear to be in favor of the plan, and there was very little opposition expressed during the 3-day hearings which featured testimony from municipal, church and Indian Affairs department officials as well as from the Indians themselves.

The Michels, descendants of Iroquois guides and hunters who accompanied the first white explorers to western Canada, live on an 11,000-acre reservation a few miles northwest of Edmonton.

If their application for citizenship is granted, the reserve land will be divided among band members. By asking for citizenship, the Indians are seeking to abandon their Indian status and give up their annual treaty payment in return for the voting and property-holding rights of any other citizen.

The Michel band is taking the initiative at a time when there is growing concern in Canada over the problem of the Indian. The country's Indian population is now steadily declining, and there is a feeling among many that the reservation system is not the answer.

Some church officials and government men believe the problem should be approached from the angle of helping the Indian to gradually integrate into the white man's society, rather than keeping him segregated on a reservation, under government care, where there might not be as much incentive for [illegible]

It is generally agreed that the white man has exerted a bad influence on the Indian, and it can be argued that the influence is worse under a system where the Indian is low man in a type of class distinction.

Giving the Indian a feeling of independence might well be part of the answer, and the Michels might be the ones to prove it.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS HEAVY IN JUNE

June was a particularly bad month for traffic accidents in Alberta this year according to the figures compiled by the Alberta Safety Council. Road mishaps during the month took 25 lives — ten more than in June of last year.

Perhaps part of the reason is that Alberta was favored with some fine, warm weather during June, resulting in unusually heavy traffic on provincial highways. The majority of the fatal accidents during June, twenty to be exact — were reported from rural areas, with the remainder in the cities.

During the six months from Jan. 1st to June 30th Alberta had 98 traffic fatalities, an increase of only one over the figures for the same period last year.

B.C. TO THE POLLS?

Election talk is brewing in B.C., the only other Canadian province with a Social Credit government. The guessing is that Premier Bennett will call a vote sometime this fall.

If he does, you can expect to see a cavalcade of Alberta cabinet ministers and Social Credit MLA's heading west to help wage campaign wars on behalf of the Movement.

Undoubtedly they'll hope to have more effect than they had in the recent Saskatchewan election, which returned the CCF to power despite an invasion by Alberta ministers and MLA's.

The British Columbia campaign, whether it's this fall or sometime next year, won't be as tough a task, with Social Credit already in power and no evidence of really widespread dissatisfaction.

the Snapshot Guild

When you visit the circus or the zoo, don't spend all your time looking for traditional pictures. A "sleeper" like this makes a fine snapshot.

Your Camera at the Circus or Zoo

The next time there's a carnival or circus in town, you might like to try your hand at a project that should please the youngsters in the family. The only equipment you'll need for this little experiment will be your own camera and a few rolls of film. Any time you visit the zoo, you can do practically the same thing.

Wander around with camera in hand, keeping an eye out for all the colorful characters and sights that make carnivals and circuses so much fun. The barker, the clowns, the acrobats and animals — you'll find a gold mine of picture material at every turn.

When your snapshots come back from the photofinisher, you'll be ready for the next step—selecting the best shots for enlargements and then choosing a suitable album to hold the pictures. A sturdy 9 x 12 or 11 x 14 book with transparent folders is a practical choice, for all you have to do is insert your pictures.

And there it is—a wonderful custom-made picture book that your child is bound to treasure for years to come! What's so very nice about the whole idea is that anyone with even the simplest camera can do it. Why not try a special picture book such as this for your youngster? The many pleasant hours he'll spend enjoying your handiwork will make it seem an extremely worthwhile project, indeed!

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Maintaining the appearance of your car may actually save your life. There's a national 'Get the Dents Out of Your Fenders' committee who recently consulted psychologists and driving authorities on how much pride in your car's appearance influences your driving habits. Their virtually unanimous answer is, "Plenty!"

The psychologists say that disorder and dirt create a sense of chaos which carries over, with unfortunate effect, on one's driving habits. Anyone who is proud of what he owns instinctively wants to protect it. But if the car is rusty and unrepaired, you'll take more chances because you have "less of a car" to protect.

One venerable police magistrate said that in his years of experience, the motorists usually hauled into the court are those who drive poorly maintained, banged-up vehicles.

The only group that gains from neglected cars is the repair man who ends up collecting from three to five times as much money.

I hope your car can stand the spotlight of this summer's sun—for your sake!

MOVABLE GRANDSTAND

Another motor accessory to be available soon in Canada, says The Financial Post, will be seats you can put on your car roof. Not for riding but for use as a 'balcony' at such things as sports events.

The waters of all the hot springs in the mountain national parks contain principally dissolved gypsum, limestone and epsom salt and closely resemble in chemical analyses the famous sulphur springs of Bath, in England.

One of the largest herds of elk in Canada ranges the plains and woodlands in Riding Mountain National Park in Manitoba, and may often be seen in the meadows near Audy Lake.

Traffic Accidents Claim 25 Alberta Lives During June

Alberta's traffic accidents took 25 lives in June, ten more than in the same month last year, according to a summary of statistical reports compiled by the Alberta Safety Council. It was one of the highest single months for some time.

For the six months from Jan. 1 to June 30, Alberta had 98 motor traffic fatalities, one more than the comparable period of 1955.

Of last month's death toll, the majority was represented by rural accidents. The R.C.M.P. reported twenty deaths at outside points as against 13 in June of last year. Edmonton reported two traffic deaths in June, as against none a year ago. Calgary also had two, an increase of one. One death also was reported in an Alberta town.

Since the first of the year 1778 persons have been injured in motor traffic mishaps, compared with 1,679 in the similar period of last year. The number for June alone was 386, an increase of 61 over June, 1955.

The R.C.M.P. reported 254 persons hurt in accidents at rural points, which had reported 182 a year ago. These represented the major part of the increase as Edmonton dropped from 90 to 87 and Calgary from 51 to 34.

In the motor accident category, the six months' total was 8,222 — an increase of 723 over the similar period of the previous year. The total is inclusive of 1352 accidents in June, compared with 1145 for June of last year.

Rural areas again led the province with 536 accidents last month, up from 449 a year ago.

Edmonton was in second place with 464, an increase of 41, while Calgary rose from 208 to 265. Other cities recorded increases along the line.

Alice Thompson Becomes Bride In Double Ring Ceremony

Baskets of peonies and vases of gladioli formed an attractive setting at Holy Name Roman Catholic church for the marriage of Alice Lorraine Thompson to Rudolph H. Scheibelhofer at 11:00 a.m. on July 11th. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. J K Thompson of Vermilion and the groom is the son of Mrs. M. Daratha of Wilkie, Sask., and the late Mr. Anton Scheibelhofer.

The Rev Father Hermann of Wilkie performed the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of white lace and net over taffeta. The strapless bodice was modified by a lace jacket with lily-point sleeves and Peter Pan collar. Her finger-tip veil of illusion net, with appliqued sequin flowers, was held by a coronet of lace. She carried a white prayer book, a gift of the groom, enlayed with deep pink Sweetheart roses.

As maid of honor, Miss Patricia McLaughlin wore a waltz-length gown of coral chiffon and net. Miss Margaret Gow, as bridesmaid, chose a waltz-length gown of turquoise tulle over taffeta. Both wore white gloves and their jewelry was pearl chokers and earrings, gifts of the bride. In their hair were daisy bandeaux and they carried fans of white daisies.

Attending the groom were his brother John Bell and Ken Martin. Ushers were Keith Fooks and A J Thursby. Gifts to the groom's attendants and the ushers were pearl cuff links. Miss Elsie Novak played the wedding music.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for thirty immediate relatives and friends.

In the afternoon a reception was held in the Legion hall where a three-tiered wedding cake, set in tulle and rosebuds and flanked by pink tapers and vases of roses, centred the bride's table. The Rev. Father Hermann proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom suitably responded.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bride wore a pink and white flowered dress on grey background, with white and black accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations. Mrs. Daratha, mother of the groom, wore a lace and crepe dress of deep blue. Accessories were white and black, and her corsage was pink carnations. Miss Patricia Thompson, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book, which was signed by 86 guests.

For a honeymoon to Banff and several points in Saskatchewan, the bride changed to a suit of green tapestry tweed, with yellow and brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Scheibelhofer will make their home in Red Deer.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M Daratha, Rev. Fr Hermann of Wilkie; Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Miss Margaret Gow, Miss Shirley Cross, all of Edmonton; Mrs. Edith Carlyle of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs Vernon Carlyle of Turner Valley, A. J. Thursby, Mrs. E. Fowler and Kathleen of Edson; Bert Bertram, Nanaimo, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. R Cameron and Judy of Joffre.

"And the Chapel Bells Were Ringing . . ."

It was in a charmingly typical French manner as they say that community singing, jokes, stories, and a taste of dark wine tallied one another in rapid succession all afternoon and evening, Thursday July 12th, when Marcel Benoit of Vegreville and Miss Marie Goutier of Vermilion, joined hands at the altar to blend their destinies into one.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Paul Goutier, the bride was radiant in a beauty of snow-white lace and net. A waltz-length dress with fitted bodice of nylon lace and deeply flounced with tiers of filmy net gathers for a full skirt, a cover up lace bolero with long pointed sleeves and Peter Pan collar adorned with pearls, a heart-shaped tiara from which flowed a sheer waist-length veil and a bouquet of American Beauty roses, comprised her ensemble.

The groom, formerly of Vegreville attache of the military base in Uranium City as wireless operator was impressive in his uniform and stripes. The bridal attendants were Miss Cecile Goutier, all in flowing pink, and Miss Yvonne Gamache, ravishingly gowned in royal blue. The groomsmen were Robert Morin and Camille Goutier.

The nuptial blessing was given by Rev Fr Maurice Goutier, Missionary Oblate of Mary Immaculate while Joseph and Robert Goutier, all brothers of the bride served at the marriage mass during which Joseph Dubuc of Vegreville, accompanied by Miss Angeline Lamonte, sang very appropriate hymns.

After congratulations, confetti, snaps and movies, a delicious banquet was served at the parish hall by the ladies of the C.W.L. thus grouping friends and relatives for an intimate reception which was especially noted for the community singing in honor of the newlyweds under the leadership of Father Goutier.

The whole gay company then took to the road, in a noisy cavalcade following tastefully decorated wedding coaches, over hill and vale to the bride's home almost twenty miles out of town where a buffet supper was waiting at Mrs. Arthur Pelletier's, sister of the bride. With singing and laughing, jokes and stories, tricks and the like, the happy hours speed on, until an oncoming storm lashed everyone into action, especially the "pavement drivers" who were quite impressed by country roads in those conditions. It would have taken more than that to put a damper on everyone's happiness, yet a wise retreat was in order and all the guests were able to reach home without other incidents; save for the practical joker who didn't realize until he was 25 miles away that he had made a mistake, and that the suitcases he had taken were not the bride's. What else could he do but turn sheepishly back, through the blinding storm, confess his mistake, and then get stuck in the middle of the night to top it all!

Allow one more slight indiscretion — the newlyweds were not to get away without also paying their respects to Mother Nature — their first half mile on the road of wedded bliss landed them in the ditch, and it took a tractor to haul them out. But those were only the first few miles of a honeymoon which promises to be very interesting — Calgary Stampede, U.S., Mexico — and the last few moments of a happy day wherein these happenings, far from darkening the picture, served only to engrave yet deeper its dearest memories. To Marcel Benoit and his new bride who will be called upon to establish their first home at Fort Resolution, N.W.T., our best wishes for health and love in a long and happy life together.

Former Thorncliffe Man Married At Rimbey, Alberta

Miss Viola Mae Schrader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Schrader of Rimbey, became the bride of Frank Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schneider, now of Bentley and formerly of the Thorncliffe district, in a ceremony solemnized in Rimbey United church on July 4th. Pink and white streamers, peonies and roses decorated the church for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Julian.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a three-quarter length gown of white nylon lace over satin, complemented by a nylon lace bolero and a chapel veil misted from a coronet headpiece trimmed with pearls. The bride carried a white Bible, with roses and streamers.

Miss Inga Jacobsen as maid of honor, Miss Jackie Hoag as bridesmaid, and Mrs. Evelyn Schrader, sister-in-law of the bride, as matron of honor, were attired in waltz-length gowns of yellow, mauve and aqua net respectively and they each carried Colonial bouquets.

The best man was Martin Schneider, brother of the groom, and Clifford Schrader, brother of bride and Richard Zeluf, also attended the groom. Vernon Proudfoot of Bentley and George Reiser of Bluffton ushered the guests.

Mrs. Allan Moore of Bentley played the wedding music and Mr. L. Dewar sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

A reception for fifty-five guests followed the ceremony. Rev. D. G. Littlejohns of Calgary was master of ceremonies and Mr. Dewar sang "Because". A toast to the bride, proposed by Mrs. Ruth Wiley, was ably responded to by the groom. Following the reception, a wedding dance was held in the Forshee hall.

For a honeymoon trip to Banff, Radium and Lake Louise, the bride chose a suit with pink accessories.

On their return the happy couple will make their home in Alder Flats where the groom is employed.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

No rain for over a week and we are experiencing some very hot days, around the 90 mark.

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Wilmer Hogoboam of Derwent on the death of her brother, Charles Christopher Jacklin of Nanaimo, B.C., on Tuesday July 10 from a heart attack. Aunt Mamie has lost three brothers in the last two years.

Chris, as we all knew him, was well known in these parts and lived several years ago in the Pelican Lake district. He left for B. C. around 1924. He was one of Vancouver Island's pioneer police officers and a retired R.C.M.P. sergeant.

Not so many at church on the 15th, a grand sermon was heard as usual, however, on Faith. Church services are fifteen minutes later now, 11:45 a.m. Mr Welsh met his friend Miss Phyllis Ostry Sunday afternoon in Vermilion. She is working in Edmonton and was off duty until Wednesday and was a guest at the Laird home while in Clandonald. Miss Ostry is an art student at the University of Toronto and came west for the [illegible].

Our fourth membership class was held at Clandonald on the 13th at the church; the 17th at the R. Mead home and the evening of the 22nd at the Woody Wilson home. The show "Reaching From Heaven" was grand, a good moral and a lesson [illegible].

On July 15 Mr and Mrs. Gus Throndson left on a holiday, motoring to Valley View to visit their daughter Lucy Enoch and daughters Elaine and Florence, the Lundblads on to Peace River town where they will board the plane to Yellowknife to visit sons Eddie and Theodore, Mabel and family. Son Alvin is at home and Mrs Stella Mayers is keeping the home fires burning.

Orley Omness accompanied his daughter Della and family home to Edmonton on July 10 and spent a day at the exhibition. He saw quite a change since 1919 when he and his brother Rufus attended the fair there.

News from France is that there was a terrific heat wave there beginning July 10th and lasting for four or five days and [illegible] rain which is common there. The Whelans Orlene, Paul [illegible] Paulette and Michael spent the week end of July 1st at [illegible] visiting friends in the No. 1 [illegible] Paul is in No. 2.

On July 10th a pleasant surprise at the Omness home when Mrs Linton from Islay and Mrs [illegible] Oram who is holidaying from Winnipeg called.

Our church supper was [illegible] out on July 11th but we had a [illegible] successful evening [illegible] the supper and bazaar [illegible] of the W.A. "to all who [illegible] anyway thanks a lot [illegible] Cross, Mr and Mrs Bal[illegible] Aunt Mamie for all their extra work, thanks very much." [illegible] around 5:30 that afternoon [illegible] heavy clouds hung overhead [illegible] about 10:00 when we arrived [illegible] we were the last to leave, we experienced one of the worst electric storms we have had in years [illegible] ing until 4 in the morning [illegible] power was off for over 12 hours.

July 12th was a happy day for relatives who had never met when Mr and Mrs Homer Thompson, Uncle Homer and Aunt Emma and friends Mr and Mrs Ralph Riggs from Hill Side Kansas called at their niece's, the Milton Lee home in Vermilion and the Johnny Nelson home at Allandale. They had never met their nieces Eunice and Barbara. Brother, Mr. C. Thompson passed on in December, 1939. The families had a very fine day on July 15th for a picnic and fishing at Muriel Lake and were very successful too. They found Alberta quite interesting and were certainly amazed at the rapid growth of the crops and gardens. Their harvest was finished before they left. They seed in March. Coming here they travelled through the Bad Lands and Black Hills in Minnesota and the Dakotas, a very interesting road.

On the evening before they departed there was a gathering of all the families at the Milton Lee home in town. Plans of the visitors included a day at the Edmonton Exhibition; going through Jasper and Banff to view some more of Alberta's beauty; a stop at Salt Lake City to visit the Riggs brothers. Safe journey folks.

On July 12th Mr. and Mrs. Art Roberge, Lorna Nelson, Tommy Stockwell and Bobby Carlton motored to Calgary to spend the balance of the week at the Stampede. They returned home on the 15th.

A good morning's exercise — Miss Shirley Leahy left Vermilion at 6 a.m. July 19 to spend a day at the Jack Cross farm at the Baldock's. She biked the distance 15 miles, in two hours.

July 18th Dave Hogaboam from Homestead Florida, his grandson from Detroit Mich., and sister Mrs Elsie Rafter from Helena, Montana called at Derwent for a short holiday with brother Wilmer and Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Chevalier (nee May Phillips) and family [illegible] Phillips home. [illegible] Andy's brothers in Saskatchewan.

July 14th Mr and Mrs Julius Kormos (nee Nora Phillips) and son [illegible] from Saskatoon [illegible] sister [illegible] of Wainwright.

WILDMERE WINKS

Tolland had a good day for their picnic on July 13th and a large crowd attended both the picnic and dance. Basswood Tigers won first in the ball games. That just about rounds up the picnics for this summer.

A few Wildmere-ites took in the bingo at Vermilion July 16 but no one managed to win any of the prizes. It would be nice if Vermilion would get bingo cards like they have at Wainwright with little dots to put the markers in. They don't slide all over if your sleeve happens to brush them. We also think that a Saturday night is Vermilion's best bingo night.

We were pleased to see Mr and Mrs. Oscar Sharp of Cut Bank, Montana, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarise Sharp of Babbit, Nevada last week when they made a short visit to Vermilion. They took in the picnic and dance at Tolland and met several old friends there. Then on Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gibson of Basswood held open house for many of their old neighbors to visit them. It is twenty years since they left our part but outside of getting a little older looking they are the same jolly people. Mr. and Mrs. Clarise Sharp have two sons and one daughter married, have four grandchildren and two single ones and a daughter came with them, also a niece and a girl friend Otis, Harvey and Eloise Sharp live quite close to their parents at Cut Bank and all are married. Thanks Mr and Mrs. Gibson for all your kindness and hospitality.

Mrs. David Dibson and baby son Richard returned home on Saturday from the hospital.

There was a nice attendance of sixty people at church Sunday evening. Mr. Smith took as his text "Plain Christianity", a good sermon. We were pleased to see Mr and Mrs. L. Mayhew, Keith and Helen from town; also Mrs. Mable Webber, Mr. Elbridge Webber, Mr. F. Slocum, all of Tolland, and Mr Orrin Webber of Toronto who is on his way home from a world tour. After church Mr. Webber gave a brief but very interesting talk on his trip around the world. He also showed slides and commented on them. He surely has seen and visited many people and countries. It is something he never will forget. Mr. Webber is studying to be a Baptist minister and we all wish him every success in his chosen work. He is a fine upstanding young man. His father Roy Webber grew up in Tolland and he and his wife must be very proud of Orrin.

This week Betty and Marie Smith, Mary Gibson Doreen Martin, Hazel Whitlock are guests of the Wildmere Beavers girls' club and are attending the Fair week at the agricultural college in Vermilion. Kenny Graham is also in for the week.

Mr Blaine Smith, our student minister, is attending at the Junior boys' camp, Lake Whitney, this week.

We are pleased to see Billie Steele home again after his long siege of illness in the hospital. Take it easy and you will soon be your old self again Billie.

Come to church next Sunday and see what Wildmere W.A. ladies can do. The W.A. is taking the service of July 29th so plan to attend.

We forgot to mention that a silver collection was taken up at Mr. Webber's meeting and he suggested we keep the money and buy wool to knit toques for a tribe he visited in India. He would like to get a thousand to send over. They can be given to Mr E. Webber of Tolland and he will forward them to Toronto.

The shipment of old woollens by the W.W.I. will be made Aug. 1st now so anyone still wanting to send with us there is still time.

We chatted with Mrs. Rogan, her friend from Edmonton Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. G. Symes. Mrs. Donily, Mrs Howard, Mrs. R. Martin, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. Finlay and Mrs. R. Smith on Saturday, so the time really flew by.

Many are busy haying in our corner these days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Garlett and family of Basswood spent a few days in Edmonton last week. Mr. Smith did their chores.

If busses are allowed to run up (because of fire regulations) into the Peace River country next week there will be no Winks as the writer will be away. A cousin from Cherill and yours truly intend to go by bus to visit another cousin at Fort Nelson, B.C.

Mrs. Gordon Green and son Glenn attended the pictures on Sunday evening.

Four of Canada's National Parks are located in Alberta.

The most northerly fortress on the North American continent was Fort Prince of Wales, Manitoba on Hudson Bay. It was built in the years between 1733 and 1771 and is now a National Historic Park.

St Lawrence Islands National Park, Ontario includes 13 islands along the St Lawrence River.

Now We Eat It All!

Up to only a few years ago, points out The Financial Post, Canada had to have a big export of beef cattle in order to keep the domestic market healthy.

Now we are producing more beef than ever before but we are eating all of it ourselves. Cattle are coming on the Canadian markets at the rate of around 33,000 a week and Canadians are consuming all of them. Before the war whenever the weekly run approached the 20,000 mark, or less than two-thirds of today, prices began to sag.

There are two reasons why we are eating more beef — more prosperity and more people.

With moderate prices people are eating beef freely and regularly not just occasionally. But more important is the fact that we have more people, almost 16 millions compared with less than 12 millions pre-war and all that increase and more has been in urban population, in food consumers not food producers.

It is that growth in population, that growth in the domestic market that is solving many of our former marketing problems. And population growth will continue to solve these problems provided we are sensible and let prices and production follow their natural courses.

Aside from wheat, in which Canada is a major world producer, practically everything the farmer will be growing 25 years from now will be absorbed by the domestic market.

Alberta Livestock Co-operatives Hold Annual Meeting In Edmonton

One of the best annual meetings of the Alberta Livestock Co-Operative Limited was held in the Moose Temple at Edmonton on July 5 and 6. Interest in all phases of livestock marketing and production was continuously at a high level. This was the 18th annual meeting of the organization.

A total of 22 livestock shipping associations were represented and membership at large sent in nine men to represent the interests of those persons who consigned livestock to the central selling organization from areas where co-operative shipping associations do not operate. In total approximately 40,000 individual livestock producers were spoken for by the delegates.

Mr. C. P. Hayes, A.L.C. President, reported handlings for the year ending May 31, 1956, of: 125,596 cattle and calves averaging 2807 head per week; 467,437 hogs averaging 8,989 per week; 16,792 sheep and lambs averaging 322 per week. Gross handling again reached an impressive figure totalling $31,198,398.73. Net earnings amounted to $70,865.95.

Mr. Hays decried the apparent lack of interest in the problems of the Alberta Livestock Producer and Farmer, basing this assertion on the fact that neither press nor radio were in attendance at the meeting.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the first evening session for many years which was devoted exclusively to the discussion of Marketing Boards. The discussions were enlightening and resolutions concerning these matters were finalized.

A feature of the meeting was an excellent address by W. H. T. Mead, Livestock Commissioner for the Province of Alberta concerning hog quality and the means available for improvement and the licensing and bonding of all livestock dealers. Mr. Alex Charnetski implemented Mr. Mead's address with colored slides showing various types of hogs, expounding their desirability or their faults.

Indicating wide representation throughout the province, officers for the coming year consist of:

President — C. P. Hayes, Strome
Vice-Pres. — Carl J. Anderson, Brooks
Exec. Director — R. H. Carlyle, Blackfalds
Directors — Hugh W. Allen, Hualien; C. D Lane, Neutral Hills; J. R. Tomlinson, Foley; Archie Hogg, High River.

Floe Lake in Kootenay National Park, B.C., is dotted in summer with small icebergs that break from the lip of Floe Glacier.

The Columbia Ice-field in the Canadian Rockies is the source of three great rivers, the Athabasca (765 miles); the Saskatchewan (1,205 miles) and the Columbia (1,210 miles).

Are we proud of our new Pontiac? You bet! Every time I think about this Pontiac's superb performance I want to get in and start driving. And style! . . . comfort? . . . real luxury! Well, just look at it! And when you get your Pontiac you'll say it, too. It's great . . . simply great!

Being a woman, I'm naturally attracted to color and style . . . and this new Pontiac of ours—as well as all the others we see on the roads—is teaching me lots of new tricks with color and design. Pontiac's trim good looks make it easy to "dress up" to. That's important and very pleasant!

Isn't it divine . . . I mean really! Absolutely everybody is proud of our new car—and not just because it's another Pontiac. It's because . . . well, it's a little hard to explain, but I guess it's because Pontiac this year is the most—a real cool car. I mean . . . really!

Gee whiz! I'm the most popular guy on the street—all the kids want rides in our new car. And no wonder, because—honest—it's a real honey! Dad's new Pontiac is even better than the last one and he's been getting Pontiacs for a long, long time. When I'm old enough to own a car, it'll be a Pontiac, too!

Car Market Race

Automobiles this year will make spectacular economic news, predicts Jack McArthur in The Financial Post.

There's a very good chance Canadians will buy 400,000 new cars during 1956. Best year to date was [illegible].

This is the year of the big battle for second place in the new car market. Slugging it out are Ford and Chrysler. General Motors is still comfortably in first place.

Chrysler of Canada automobiles in May outsold Ford products for the second consecutive month, measured in terms of new-car registrations. Ford retained a fractional lead in car sales for the January-May five-month period.

The reliable May breakdown: GM, 43%, of the market, Chrysler, 23%, Ford 22%.

Only two years ago Canadians were buying more than two new Ford-produced cars for every one Chrysler product.

Four great national parks and thirty-four main provincial parks preserve scenic beauty and wildlife in British Columbia.

PUT UP EXTRA CEREAL HAY

Put up extra greenfeed and improve the appearance of your grain fields by mowing field margins.

Usually the outside four or five feet of grain in a field is lost because it is pushed down at swathing time.

If field margins are cut when the grain is in the dough stage, cereals make excellent feed, so conserve what is usually waste for extra greenfeed this year urges Mr. R. L. Pharis, Supervisor of Crop Improvement Service. It will help in building up Alberta's depleted hay reserves.

The town of Jasper, Alberta, in the Canadian Rockies, has an altitude of 3,470 feet.

Vermilion's 51st Fair Marks Further Success

Vermilion's 51st annual exhibition closed on Saturday last after a most successful three-day run. The attendance balanced with that of 1955 when the 50th anniversary was celebrated and [illegible] among the thousands of patrons were many former Vermilion people, now resident in various parts of the West who had come back to Vermilion for Re-union Days and who thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to meet their friends of former years. All received a warm welcome and almost 500 signed the register at the Old Timers' cabin which proved a popular spot indeed for the full three days.

The grand parade, staged on the first morning of the fair, proved to be considerably larger than that of 1955 and many business houses and organizations from town and district contributed in no small measure to the success of the event. All connected with Vermilion Fair are most appreciative of the co-operation received in connection with the parade.

The livestock show this year far surpassed any held here previously and many visitors were heard to remark that the Vermilion show vastly exceeded that of the A class fairs of Calgary and Edmonton. The Provincial regional Shorthorn show drew marked attention as did the fine showing of heavy and light horses, for which Vermilion Fair has built up an unusually fine reputation over the years.

The Cutting Horse contests, for the first time outside the major cities, proved popular and the uncanny intuition of the horses working the ring drew rounds of applause from the large audiences thronging the grandstand on all three days.

Chief among the attractions for a great many people was the Junior Fair which reached an all time high for entries and which drew from such outside points as Marwayne, Elk Point, Dewberry, Clandonald, Derwent, Wainwright, Irma, Innisfree, Mannville and Minburn, as well as many points within the district. The junior building was filled to the roof with exhibits and the quality of the work was high, indicating progress from that of previous years. The assistance of teachers and pupils is very sincerely appreciated.

Exhibits in the main exhibit hall proved attractive, being well displayed and of a variety to appeal to everyone; Vermilion is fortunate in having a fine building which lends itself to pleasing arrangements and the judges were loud in their praise of the fine showing.

The grandstand attractions filled the stands to capacity each day and while one or two of the acts were probably not up to the unusually high standard set on the B circuit for some years past, proved entertaining to young and old. The attractions people were most generous in acquiescing to demands for encores and played twice to capacity houses on Friday night. A Thursday afternoon show drew a fair crowd. The directors have decided to stage afternoon shows on the first day in future, so that those coming from a distance will not be disappointed and it is suggested that those with larger families of small children might well take advantage of the opportunity to see the show without the crowded conditions which exist on Friday evening.

The show and sale of calves by the Manville, Vermilion, Derwent, and Marwayne clubs proved exceptionally popular on Thursday afternoon and the splendid showing of high quality calves gives evidence that the work of the District Agriculturist and the club leaders is not at all in vain. Details of the club show will appear elsewhere in the Standard and should prove interesting reading to all interested in the work of the boys and girls on the farms.

The Boys and Girls' Summer camp proved popular as usual, there being 120 young people in residence at the School of Agriculture from Monday until Saturday; fine short courses were conducted by Principal Bentley and his staff and the splendid assistance given the Fair Board in this intensely interesting effort is greatly appreciated.

Altogether, Vermilion's 51st Fair may be termed a most successful event, representatives of the Provincial and Dominion Departments of Agriculture and visitors from a wide area were loud in their praise of the contribution being made through the work of the Society and those charged with the responsibility of conducting the annual fair and its allied programme for agricultural extension are deeply appreciative of the fine support received from all sides.

It was revealed to the management that advance tickets, the sale of which officially ends on Wednesday night prior to the Fair, were being offered on the streets by juveniles on fair days; the public is warned that such tickets being offered for sale are offered in contravention to the regulations governing such sale and suspicion exists that tickets offered the public during the fair are stolen tickets and their purchase should be avoided. The Fair Board would greatly appreciate it another year if they might be advised of the names of persons offering advance tickets for sale on the streets of Vermilion after the official closing of the sale on Wednesday preceding the opening date.

It is the desire of the Board of Directors to extend to all who contributed to the success of Vermilion's 1956 Fair their most sincere thanks and appreciation.

4-H Club Rally At The V.S.A.

On Monday, July 30th, a 4-H Club rally took place at the Vermilion School of Agriculture. About one hundred and fifty 4-H members and their parents attended the gathering which commenced at 2 p. under the direction of E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist. An address of welcome was given by N. N. Bentley, Principal of the school, and a talk on the value of 4-H clubs was given by E. R. McCrimmon, executive assistant to the Deputy Minister of Agriculture. A sing song led by Mr. Folk was enjoyed by all.

Later on in the program a tour of the farm and field crop plots was completed by the visitors and a ball game rounded out the program. At 6 p.m. everyone went down to the lake for a swim after which a picnic supper was held in the park.

Special visitors were 27 Lougheed Beef Club members accompanied by Mr. A. Edwards, Agriculturist at Sedgewick.

Islay Retired Farmer Dies

William Machell of Islay passed away in the Islay hospital on July 25th at the age of 74 years. He was predeceased by his wife in December, 1955.

The late Mr. Machell came to the district of Islay in 1907 where he farmed until his retirement in December, 1954.

Left to mourn his loss are two sons, George of Islay, and Charles of Gananoque, Ont.; one brother and two sisters in England, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at St. Saviour's Anglican church in Vermilion on Saturday, July 28th at 2:00 p.m. Rev. K. A. Minchin officiated at the services and interment took place in Vermilion cemetery. Moyer's were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Second Annual Parade Opens Vermilion Fair Thursday Morning

A total of fifty-six entries in the Vermilion Fair parade combined to make it "bigger and better" even than the 1955 parade when the 50th anniversary celebrations provided a catchy theme. Colorful floats, comic numbers, modern machinery, musical bands, fancy horses and numerous "brain wave" ideas for the promotion of various community activities made a mile-long parade which took twenty-five minutes to pass before any particular point in the crowd of onlookers thronging the streets.

The committee of judges named the following entries for special commendation: Organizations — Old Timers' Association, Knights of Columbus and the Nurses' Association. Commercial — Craig's Ltd., Alberta Wheat Pool and Clendenning's Family Wear. Communities — The Farm Radio Forum from Buffalo Coulee. Juniors — Boy Scouts, 4-H Club. For kiddies decorated bikes the winners were: Karen Williams, Judy Long, Dean Jacula.

Although no special class was provided for comic entries, several were exceptionally entertaining.

The parade serves a particularly useful purpose in giving Vermilion's fair a good send-off on opening day.

Ratepayers of Vermilion will go to the polls on Thursday, August 9th to vote on two money by-laws, details of which have been well advertised in the issues of the Standard of July 12 and July 19. A summary of the by-laws also appears under the editorial heading in this issue of your paper.

Polls are at the Elks hall on Thursday, Aug. 9th from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Every ratepayer is entitled to vote.

H. W. Johnson is the returning officer.

St. Paul Plays At Vermilion Sunday

The final series for the championship of the Eastern Alberta Baseball League will commence in the Vermilion baseball park on Sunday, the game commencing at 2:30 p.m.

St. Paul eliminated Derwent while Vermilion was handed the decision over Two Hills as that team failed to show up here Sunday to complete the semi-final series.

This brings Vermilion and St. Paul, the same two teams as last year, together in the finals. Vermilion won the title both in 1954 and 1955; can they make it three in a row? Turn out Sunday and see for yourselves. It has all the earmarks of a real series.

Rotarians Donate $250 to Parks Board

The members of Vermilion Rotary Club were entertained on Friday by Steve Evans, one of the performers from the grandstand entertainers at the Fair. Steve was introduced by Charles Zemater, manager of the Zemater Productions of Chicago, who sponsor the show. Steve's performance in imitating various types of characters was very well received.

In addition to the two above guests Jack MacKay, Director of Traffic Safety, and Ed Simpson of the Highway Traffic Board, were guests of George Senz. Ross Hosker had as his guest Captain Holden, who has recently taken charge of the Salvation Army work in Vermilion. Reg Mitchell had as his guest his brother Bill Mitchell of Czar.

Visiting Rotarians from Lloydminster were Nick Ewanowich, Bill Skinner, Bruce Aasley, Art Shortell and Ed Clarke. All were welcomed by President Reg Mitchell who was in charge of the meeting.

FINE DONATION TO PARK

President Reg also announced the granting of a donation from Rotary of $250.00 to the Vermilion Parks Board to be used in further development of the popular lake resort.

CIVIC HOLIDAY MONDAY, AUG. 6

Monday August 6th has been declared a Civic holiday in Vermilion, consequently all stores and business places will be closed. The practice of declaring a Civic holiday on the first Monday in August is now quite widespread.

Chief holiday attraction here will be the open golf tournament at the Vermilion Golf club, to say nothing of swimming, fishing, boating and camping at the Vermilion Park lake.

Holiday Time!

AUGUST 3 to 13

To enable the staff to have holidays, The Vermilion Standard will be closed from Friday August 3rd, and will re-open Monday morning, August 13th. The issue of The Standard of August 9th will be cancelled.

"Sandy" Morrison Receives Degree

A graduate of the Vermilion High school in June 1947, Sandy Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morrison, has now graduated with the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Cornell University, Ithaca, New York state. From Vermilion High school this young student went to the University of Alberta where he obtained his Bachelor of Science in Agriculture in 1951 and was Gold Medalist of the class. Continuing his studies he was awarded his Masters Degree at Alberta varisity in 1952.

The following year he worked as Nutritionist at the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa.

After careful consideration he selected Cornell University at Ithaca for the courses leading to his Doctorate. His work there was marked with the same brilliance so evident during his high school days in Vermilion and university at Edmonton. He thus achieves his Doctor of Philosophy degree at the age of 25 years.

Dr. Morrison majored in nutrition, bio-chemistry and physiology. On Sept. 1 he will join the Mead-Johnson Pharmaceutical Laboratories at Evansville, Indiana, where his work will be in research.

Dr. and Mrs. Morrison and their three children arrived in Vermilion on Tuesday and are visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morrison on the farm east of Vermilion. For the next month their time will be divided between Vermilion, and Edmonton where Mrs. Morrison's parents reside.

Cardinals Win Two Games Sunday

Vermilion Cardinals took both ends of a double-header fastball attraction from a determined Innisfree team on Sunday. The first game ended 13 to 8 for the Cards, while the second was a ding-dong battle with only a one-run margin separating the teams at the end of seven innings.

In the first game Hazel Barr pitched to Lily Thompson for the Cardinals while Marg hurled for the visitors and Marion received.

The second encounter saw Eva Gordey on the mound, with the small but mighty Lily Thompson again behind the bat. For the Innisfree girls Marion again did the receiving and P. Roland the twirling.

The needed spark to win the game came from the bat of Lily Thompson. The mighty atom screamed out a terrific grounder into the far outfield for a home run which accounted for two counters.

Irvin Gordon was umpire and Tom Wilson the base ump. A goodly crowd watched the games despite the lack of advertising which makes one think that these girls could really pack em in if they gave some preliminary notice of the games.

There were 36,922 cases of measles reported to Canadian medical health officers in 1953, 20,000 more than in the previous year.

150 To Take Swim Test; 200 Registered In Lessons

Approximately 150 swimmers will take qualification tests in the second or third week of August. Miss Ann Stewart will be in charge of the tests as laid down by Red Cross Swim and Water Safety.

There are now over 200 swimmers registered in classes at our Vermilion Beach. However, some 30 of them, those between ages of 6 to 8 years, will not receive Red Cross tests unless they show exceptional skill. These youngsters will, however, be examined locally and a record kept of their standing. It is apparent, then, that all registered swimmers attend every lesson until that time - and do some practice out of class period. Those in charge try to stress the need for extra practice after each lesson, and their time has not been wasted, some of these swimmers are advancing through stages at a terrific rate.

A WORD TO BOAT OWNERS

The instructors finds children often playing on the boat pier and in the boats. He gets a very "bul lied" look from them when they are told in no uncertain terms to leave, and sometimes an argument that their fathers own the boats and that they can play there if they wish.

A person no matter how constant a swimmer he may be, can get into difficulties around this type of equipment. From the "H" pier the guards haven't a chance to save someone if the occurrence did arise. If these boys have permission to play in their fathers boats, please write the instructor a note, or see him personally stating your responsibility for whatever happens. Otherwise the instructor will continue to keep that pier and equipment about it clear of little people.

Let's keep "6 to 60" free from accidents.

35,111 Head Tested in 3 M. D.'s — 30 Reactors

T. B. Testing of Cattle Herds Commencing In Eagle M.D.

Starting Monday, Aug. 6th, eight veterinarians from the Health of Animals Division, Dept. of Agriculture, under the supervision of Dr. E. J. Young of Vermilion, will commence testing all cattle in Eagle Municipality No. 81.

This testing is compulsory as laid down by section 10 of the Animals Contagious Disease Act. Compensation is paid for all reactor animals taken from the owner's herd, and the testing is done free of charge.

Testing of cattle in the St. Paul M. D. No. 86 has just been completed and owners co-operated 100% with respect to having the cattle in at the time requested by the veterinarians. It is hoped that the same fine response will be received in Eagle M. D. No. 81, as this determines the length of time it will take to complete the area.

35,111 HEAD CATTLE TESTED — 30 REACTORS

During the period May 26 to date there have been 1330 herds with a total of 35,111 cattle tested in the M. D.'s of Minburn, St. Paul and Eagle. In this number there have been 30 reactors found by the veterinarians conducting the testing program.

First Car Theft In Many Years Here

No trace has been found of a 1954 Ford four-door sedan which was stolen from outside the home of Mrs. Rose Harle sometime Sunday night or early Monday morning. The car is green and the license number is PE 821.

This is the first case of a stolen car in Vermilion for several years. Mrs. Harle, a little late for work Monday morning, hurried down the walk through the yard to the front gate to where she had left the car, with the car keys in her hand, but there wasn't any car. The Ford was parked in between two neighbor's cars, the thief choosing it and making a clean get-away.

George E. Hayward Dies In Edmonton

George Eldon Hayward, a pioneer Vermilion business man, died in Edmonton on July 26th at the age of 74 years.

Mr. Hayward started the first lumber yard in Vermilion in 1905, when in partnership with the late F. C. Long the business of Hayward and Long, Lumber and Drugs, was commenced in a tent. He personally operated his yard here until 1916 when he moved to Edmonton to better supervise his lumber yards which were located in many towns in this section of Alberta. The local Hayward's Lumber was operated until purchased by the Crown Lumber Co. some twenty years ago.

Survivors include a sister in Vermilion, Mrs. W. S. Cash, and a brother also very well known here, Rennie Hayward of Kamloops, but who spends spring and fall on his farm north-west of Vermilion.

Islay Pioneer Passes Away

Joseph Wm. Belton, well known old timer and pioneer of the Islay district, passed away at the Islay hospital on Thursday morning, August 2nd. He had reached the advanced age of 87 years and ten months.

Funeral services will be held at the Islay United church on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in the Islay cemetery.

Mr. Belton was predeceased by his wife in 1921. Surviving members of the family are three sons, William of Islay, Thomas in Edmonton, and Allen in Nova Scotia. There are five grandchildren.

Moyers are in charge of funeral arrangements.

Much Activity At Vermilion Airport

The activity at the Vermilion airport on Sunday attracted considerable attention and many wondered about all the flying, take-offs and landings that were taking place.

Student pilots from the Cold Lake Flying Club were flying back and forth most of the day, getting in the cross country time a student pilot must have to get his license.

Mr. Hancock of Marwayne has had his plane stationed at the Vermilion field quite a lot of the time lately, but has now sold it. The plane is being taken by its new owner up to the north country.

Mr. Hancock had practically all of his family and next of kin, as well as many friends, up for a last ride in the little red aircraft on Sunday.

Canadians, per capita, spend $8.80 a year at the movie box office and go to the theatre 17 times a year.

Ernie Everitt who at one time was nicknamed Vermilion's Wandering Willie, as he was always disappearing and then turning up in the most unexpected places — Toronto, Montreal, even overseas — was in town for the fair last week. Ernie has now reached the age of discretion, he was 70 recently, and makes his permanent home in Edmonton. Two events he cannot miss in Vermilion, the fair and the Old Timers' annual round-up.

Cutting Horse Demonstration Pleases Large Fair Crowd

A special feature provided as an "extra" to the grandstand performance at the Vermilion fair this year was a Cutting Horse demonstration. Specially bred and highly trained quarter horses displayed amazing ability in performing one of the most skillful jobs that the working cowboy and his horse do in regular ranch work.

This is the feat of "cutting out a selected 'critter' from a herd of cattle and then keeping it separated in spite of its natural determination to rejoin the herd in one end of the corral. In this display the rider selects the animal to be cut from the herd and from that point on the horse works entirely on its own without reining, spurring or cueing from the rider. Experienced cattlemen and ranch hands were amazed with the "cow sense" and agility displayed by the horses.

The Vermilion show consisted of a competition in two parts with five horses competing. The preliminary contests were held on Saturday afternoon and the finals in the evening. Judging was in accordance with the rules established by the Canadian Cutting Horse Association whose secretary, Denny Migheel, was one of the judges. He was assisted by Stuart MacRae of Calgary.

Competitors included Mrs. Phyl Ross of Edmonton, riding "Cocoa Buck", a mare imported by Mr. Ross from California last winter; Kem Spay of Nanton, riding his own horse "Sparks"; Cliff Ross of Edmonton on "Cousin Bar" another imported California quarter horse; Royal Burrows of Midnapore on "Honest Jack" and Miss Gail Ross on "Sleepy Sally". When the judges' scores were totalled Cliff Ross was named the winner with Royal Burrows in second place.

Interest created by this demonstration suggests several developments for the Vermilion fair in future years. Certainly a novice class for local competitors holds interesting possibilities.

Local Man Winner In $500,000 Contest

Mr. John Raymond Williams of Vermilion has submitted a winning entry in the Sealy $500,000 Posturepedic contest it was announced on Wednesday by Sealy Inc., Chicago, manufacturers of mattresses and convertible sleep furniture.

The winner, who will receive a Posturepedic mattress from Simonsen's Furniture of Vermilion, where the contest was offered locally, now is being considered for a grand prize of $50,000 in cash or common stocks, or an expense-paid vacation for two in Jamaica via Delta Air Lines.

Entrants were asked to choose a name for the Sealy Posturepedic Girl widely used in advertising the mattress. The contest, one of the largest ever held, drew hundreds of thousands of entries from every section of the U.S. and Canada.

Some 1000 qualifying winners, who are to receive Posturepedic mattresses from their dealers, were selected by the Reuben H. Donnelley Company, Chicago, contest judges. Grand prize winners will be announced in mid-August.

SUPPORT THE BY-LAWS ON THURSDAY, AUGUST 9th

Ratepayers of the Town of Vermilion are being asked by the town council to approve two by-laws calling for the expenditure of $31,700.00 for a water treatment plant, and of $14,000.00 to provide a duplicate supply line from the town well in the valley to the underground water reservoir up [illegible]

Both projects have been given considerable thought by the coun[illegible] best interests of the citizens of [illegible]

The water treatment plant removes the iron and some minerals from the water. This means that rust will disappear from the water as well as that iron stain from sinks, basins and bath tubs. It will, moreover and this is a major advantage -condition the water so that water softener systems in homes will prove quite effective much more so than prior to the water being so treated.

The second supply line speaks for itself. At present one line supplies all of the water to the town. If something went amiss it would mean that there just wouldn't be any method of pumping water from well to reservoir. The second line always provides an alternate means.

The voting takes place on Thursday Aug 9th at the Elks hall. Be sure to register your approval of these two by-laws. Both are progressive steps and the value of the water treatment plant will be quite apparent from the first moment it is in operation.

From 1926 to 1954 infant mortality in Canada was reduced from a rate of 94 deaths per 1,000 live births to 32. Approximately 27,000 children lived to their first birthday in 1954 who would have died at the rate prevailing in 1926.

FUN AT THE FAIR

A little girl skipped happily by her [illegible]

"Hurry mommy, see the clowns
We'll be late!" she cried.
By the ticket gate they went and paid the smiling man.
Soon the gay midway was reached and then the fun began
"Hot dogs! Hot dogs!" came the cry
"Mommy, I'm so hungry!
"May I have some lemonade and an apple candy?"
Cotton candy ice cream, so delicious to the eye
"Why can't I just eat everything?"
she asked with such a sigh.
"Oh, mommy see the darling ponies! May I have a ride?"
"Ooh! and look at those cute toy cars. See them all collide!
[illegible]
ing in the water!
"They sway up and down just like my teeter-totter."
"What is that funny clacking sound coming from that booth?"
"Oh there is Mrs Stevenson and her daughter Ruth.
"May Ruth and I go see the monkeys in their cage?"
"Indeed, you can, I'll sit and rest;
there's a difference in our age."
The mother watched her daughter trot merrily away.
Her dress was soiled, her ribbons dragged, her curls were all astray
But mother smiled gently at the tot without a care,
Let the darling have her fun, she was at the fair!

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM BERNARD SCHMIDT

July Bride Wed in Double-Ring Ceremony

The Holy Name Catholic church in Vermilion was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli and white satin pew markers for the wedding of Lois Adele Herzog, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Herzog of Vermilion, to William Bernard Schmidt, son of Mr and Mrs. Frank Schmidt, also of Vermilion, on Wednesday, July 4th at 11 a.m. Rev. Father Gorman of Lloydminster officiated at the service.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, looked charming in a white satin wedding dress of tulle and lace with a full skirt of floor length. The sleeves of her nylon lace bolero were lily point style. Her chapel veil was held in place by a beaded coronet and her only jewelry was a matched set of rhinestone earrings and necklace, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses.

The two bridesmaids, Misses Doris Schmidt, sister of the groom, and Alice Brix, wore dresses of identical style, in nylon net of ballerina length; Miss Schmidt was in pastel rose with matching veil, and Miss Brix in pastel blue, also with matching veil.

Ken Herzog, of Prince George, uncle of the bride, was best man, and the groomsman was Lawrence (Bud) Baddock. Arnold Herzog, uncle of the bride, and Ted Schmidt, brother of the groom, ushered the guests to the pews.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of "Regina Coeli" played by Jim McGaughey. During the marriage service Mrs. Martin Shalka sang "Ave Verum" by Mozart and while the register was signed she sang "Panis Angelicus" by Cesar Frank.

As the bride and groom left the church little Lenora and Laura Herzog held baskets of confetti for the guests to use in showering the newly-weds.

A wedding reception was held in the Elks hall at 1:30 p.m. at which the guests gathered for a bridal luncheon. The mother of the bride chose a lime ensemble of orlon boucle in street length, with white accessories. Her corsage was of talisman roses. The mother of the groom wore a long waisted eggshell colored dress with pink accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

The brides table covered with a lace cloth centred with a two-tiered wedding cake was also decorated with bouquets of gladioli. A bride and groom miniature set and wedding bells made an attractive top for the wedding cake.

Bert Herzog, uncle of the bride, was master of ceremonies at the reception and Dr. R. A. Payment proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom replied. It was of added interest that the young couple's wedding day was the 51st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herzog of Mayview, Saskatchewan, grandparents of the bride. Bert Herzog proposed a toast to the bride and groom of 51 years ago to which Mr. Fred Herzog suitably responded.

A musical program entertained the guests during which Mrs. Martin Shalka sang a solo and the four Schmidt sisters, Doris, Theresa, Gertrude and Marjorie rendered a quartette. Aldous Kent played saxophone solos accompanied by Jim McGaughey and then some dance numbers accompanied by Mrs. Harold Moyer.

Members of the O. O. R. P. lodge catered for the luncheon.

The young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Edmonton, Saskatoon and Prince Albert. They plan to live in Vermilion for a short while until the groom is transferred to the C. U. L. plant in Forestburg.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. Mary Lang, Cudworth; Mrs. Ella Greenfield of Saskatoon; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schmidt, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gorman, Grande Prairie; Mrs. Marjorie Heffernan, Heinsburg; Jim Goodwin, Edmonton; Mrs. Greta Goodman, Devon; Miss Gertrude Schmidt, Victoria; Miss Agnes Herzog; Mr. and Mrs. Len Herzog and Bud Stockman, all of Prince Albert; Ken Herzog, Prince George, B.C. and from Mayview, Saskatchewan Hedie Bader; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Herzog and daughters Marilyn and Aleta; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Herzog; Mr. and Mrs. Albin Herzog; Robert Herzog; Mrs. Fred Herzog and daughter [illegible] and son Vernon; Mr. and [illegible] Herzog.

Mrs. Mead Enjoys Maritime Trip

Mrs. [illegible] Mead has just returned from a month's vacation, most of which time she spent visiting with her son and daughter-in-law Commander and Mrs. R. W. Mead and family of [illegible]. They travelled around the Maritimes visiting some of the beauty spots, camped for ten days at Stanhope, P. E. I. and explored the Island from that point, dug clams on the beach and played golf on the Anne of Green Gables golf course in Charlottetown. Near Shubenacadie, N.S., Mrs. Mead found great interest and delight in handling pottery in every stage of its making, from the primitive clay right through to the final formation of a dish. The Maritime scenery was beautiful but on returning home Mrs. Mead found that Campbell Lake impressed her as being on a par with anything that she had seen. And she felt that the view of Vermilion Lake from the north hill, with the trees mirrored in the water and the buildings tucked in the curve of the bank, could not be excelled at the present time.

Once again Vermilion was fortunate in having no rainfall for the exhibition days. The only precipitation during the last week was a welcome shower of .24 inches Wednesday evening, Aug. 1st. The rain was accompanied by quite an electrical display with one really good bolt of lightning which seemed to strike a transformer in the vicinity of the pool room. Lights were out in this area of the town for about an hour. Temperatures now show a tendency to rise after reaching a low of 38 degrees, only 6 above the freezing point, last Thursday night, July 27th.

GOOD MECHANIZATION PAYS BY GETTING A LOT DONE WHEN CONDITIONS ARE RIGHT

A big advantage of good mechanization is its ability to get a lot of work done in a hurry once you can get on the land to put the crop in or into a field ready to be harvested. This work output of good equipment pays off in two ways—it enables you to offset or forestall the effects of unfavorable conditions and with it you can make the most of the period when conditions are most favorable. You stand to benefit the most when you can do a lot of seeding or harvesting when the time is right.

From the 1956 Massey-Harris and Ferguson lines of equipment engineered to meet the needs of farming today you can select machines that will enable you to gain the advantages of modern mechanization —your local dealer will be glad to give you full particulars.

Scrumptious Straws

It's not what you drink, but what you drink it with that's important, according to The Financial Post. Chocolate flavored straws will soon be on the market and will be followed by strawberry and vanilla varieties.

Radio Sales Are Up

This is the paradox about radio and television sales, says Rodney Touche in The Financial Post. Television was expected to cause a slump in radio sales. Instead they are booming. The market for selling television sets is still wide open, but sales are declining.

Here's the explanation. Radio sales are soaring because of adaptation in size and use. Television sales have slowed mainly because color transmission is casting its shadow before.

Enjoy Picnic At Vermilion Lake

Seventy families numbering ... people, all agents, delegates or travellers of the Alberta Wheat Pool met at Vermilion Park for their first annual Wheat Pool employee picnic on Sunday July 22.

These people from as far away as Beaver Crossing, Owlseye, Edmonton, Wacketenau, Tofield and Edgerton met at this fine park for a day of comradeship to renew old friendships and to meet people they had worked in co-operation with for years but had never seen.

Each of the three travelling superintendents of this northeast territory, Roy Findlay, Harold Ripley and Harold Merrick had a soft ball team of men from their own respective divisions, and they played two games, each loyally supported by the people of his own division.

Children's races, a nail driving competition for the ladies, and other games made up the sports program.

Ice cream, coffee and lemonade were supplied to all and many little boys were seen on the grounds with ice cream literally running out of their ears.

A picnic supper was enjoyed at 6 p.m. at which time Ken Urquhart, member of the Parks board, welcomed all to the park and hoped that everyone would take full advantage of the facilities offered to enjoy their visit to the fullest.

From reports received to date all had a wonderful time and many expressed surprise at the fine park at Vermilion and said that they

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride where 150 guests gathered and enjoyed a bountiful lunch served outdoors, and where everyone spent a fine social hour with friends and neighbors.

For the special occasion the bride's mother wore a dress of check silk with white accessories. Her corsage was of white and red carnations.

The groom's mother chose a light tan dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of carnations, white and red. The wedding table was centred by a lovely three-tiered wedding cake, cut by the bride and groom.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr Allen Ronaghan to which the groom suitably responded in his smiling manner.

Borradaile Times

The people of this community have decided to start sending in bits of news to the Standard. These news items will come under the heading of "Borradaile Times" and it is hoped that they will be of interest to everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bjork have recently returned from their holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tweedy have left our Borradaile district where Bob was grain buyer at the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator. Bob is now in charge of the Pool elevator at Wets which is just six miles from the city limits. The best of luck is wished Bob at his new location.

It is understood that James Hinton will now be the new Wheat Pool agent at Borradaile. People who have recently been to the Pool elevator have found quite a change in the place.

Rain amounting to half an inch fell in and around Borradaile district during the past week. It was noticed that the rain was welcomed by most farmers, at least by those who had their delivery quotas hauled in.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Freestone and family plan to leave for Banff around the first of August on their much anticipated holidays. Have a good trip folks.

Considerable activity was noted around the National elevator last week. Mr Gow, the agent, says a construction crew has succeeded in repairing the annex.

Elevator agents found Borradaile a very active place during the last few days of the old crop year.

Ed Dardis has had a new paint job done on his house. Mr. Dardis was lucky in obtaining the help of the young generation of the community. They did nice work.

Bob Johnson was home for the week end. On his way back to work his sister Shirley accompanied him as far as the V.S.A.

J. W. Freestone shipped out two carloads of scrap iron last week.

F.U.A. Backs Calgary Farmer In Dispute

EDMONTON. — The Farmers' Union of Alberta will provide financial help to enable a Cochrane district farmer, Clarence Copithorne, to carry his legal dispute with a power company to a higher court. This decision was announced by FUA president, A. W. Platt, following a three-day meeting of the farm union's board of directors in Edmonton.

"We deem this as a test case on behalf of all Alberta farmers", stated Mr Platt in announcing the farm union stand. "Final decision will determine what rights — if any — a farmer has on his own property."

According to information presented at the board meeting, Calgary Power Limited some time ago secured a ministerial order authorizing entry onto Copithorne's land for the purpose of constructing a power line. Farmer Copithorne claims he was not notified that such ministerial order had been issued nor was he given an opportunity to voice his objections.

The farm union believes that Mr Copithorne's objections are soundly based and feels committed to aid in establishing the scope of farmers' rights. Mr Platt concluded.

Fan Cleans and Cools

Could your office use this new fan? It cleans as it cools as it hums. The Financial Post reports. It's mounted horizontally, not vertically, has revolving paper-like discs instead of blades, shoots the air at 70 mph through a hole in a cowl covering the discs. Heavier-than-air dirt clings to the replaceable discs.

Miss Elizabeth Jean Noster, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noster, became the bride of Mr Theodore Klaczyk at a pretty wedding ceremony in the Roman Catholic church at Derwent recently.

Pink and white peonies decorated the altar for the wedding of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noster and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Klaczyk of Glendon. The bride is a 1954 graduate of St. Joseph's General hospital at Vegreville.

Rev. Father Zenko performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of embroidered crystalline fashioned in tiers with a bustle back. Her headpiece featured a network of pearls to hold an elbow-length chapel veil. She carried a prayer book, decorated with streamers of Sweetheart roses and a white orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Olga Miller and her bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Charchun and Miss Olga Lychak. Their gowns of blue crystalline with white lace were worn with matching white crystalline picture hats.

The flower girl was Eleanor Charchun with Clem Charchun and Douglas Charchun as junior attendants.

Mr Roy Klaczyk, brother of the groom, was best man and ushering the guests were Mr Allison Toronchuk and Mr. Edward Noster. Miss Donna McConnell played the wedding march and soloist was Mrs. Pearl Algot.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where Dr. Melvin Miller proposed the toast to the bride.

For a wedding trip to Seattle and Spokane the bride wore an English tweed suit in beige with a matching beige picture hat. Her accessories were in tangerine.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Klaczyk will make their home in Edmonton.

Wheat Pools Commend National Railways

A resolution expressing the commendation of thousands of Western farmers to the personnel of the Canadian National Railways is recorded in the following letter to Mr D Gordon Chairman of the Canadian National Railways, by the Canadian Wheat Pools:

"The full boards of directors of Alberta Wheat Pool, Saskatchewan Wheat Pool and Manitoba Pool elevators assembled in Winnipeg on July 19 and 20 in an Interprovincial Pool meeting. These directors are elected by, and represent, the united Pool membership of some 230,000 active farmers in our Canadian West. Many matters of vital importance to our members came before this Interprovincial Pool meeting for consideration and action. Salient among these was the handling of grain shipments by rail during the current troubled crop year.

"The united Pool directors passed the following resolution unanimously and instructed that it be brought to your attention forthwith:

"Resolved that the directors of Alberta Wheat Pool, Saskatchewan Wheat Pool and Manitoba Pool Elevators in Interprovincial Pool meeting assembled, record unanimous and deep appreciation of the manner in which Canadian National Railways has served Western farm people and all Canadians throughout this difficult crop year, first in realistic assessment of the difficulties which Western farmers faced in marketing their grain, as well as the vital importance of that grain movement to our entire national economy; and further, in the efficient action taken to move grain forward in the utmost possible volume. The courteous co-operation of the Western staff of Canadian National Railways at all levels, is particularly appreciated by the farm people who comprise our Pool organizations."

Marwayne F.W.U.A.

The farm women held their regular "gathering of the clan" at the home of Allie Milne on Monday, July 23rd with Marney Lafoy and Frances Leslie as co-hostesses. There were 23 members and 2 visitors present. The singing of "In the good old summer time" brought the meeting to order.

The horticulture show to be held Friday, August 17th was the main topic for discussion. Plans and committees were formed. It was also decided to have a "Sniffle Tree" with the proceeds from this tree for the Home and School Association.

Joyce McClean's report of the Farm Young People's week at the Provincials was read by her mother as Joyce was unable to be present. Joyce thanked the Club very much for sending her, and her report was certainly enjoyed by all.

Betty's and Ollie's report on the Farm Women's Week will be given at the next meeting.

Two more donations have been received for the Mental Health Association. $5.00 from the Legion and $5.00 from the Women's Auxiliary.

We will soon be selling tickets on a sewing comforter.

The next meeting will be at the home of Olive Midgley August 27.

WOODVALE NOTES

The postponed Tolland picnic was, as it usually is quite successful with ball games and races and a lot of friendly visiting among the crowd. A dance was held at night and proved very enjoyable.

Margaret McGrath spent back with her parents Donald and Mrs McLeod for a visit at their home in Saskatoon.

Robert Goutier showed his sister's films at the home of Mr and Mrs. Wm Isley where the whole Goutier family gathered and the Read's. There were several new films amongst them one of the branding of calves taken earlier this spring.

The senior room of Woodvale school won a prize for every entry at the Vermilion fair. The junior room which had far more work sent in also did very well.

Mr J. Hobel spent the week end home from Edmonton where he is attending summer school. Mrs. Hobel is not the scholar with her husband is sorry as she has a sieve and enjoyed staying with her and the children.

Come again old friends and neighbors came to be with George Mitchell when he alone of his family brought one of his parents to their last resting place. Seven months after his wife's death Mr. Wm Mitchell passed away, also after a long illness, the latter part of which he spent in the Isley hospital. During all that time his quiet sense of humor and cheerful news never left him. Gentle, who looked after his parents for so many years, will first go with friends to visit a brother. Then every one hopes he will be able to find happiness and peace, his own work probably in the electrical and radio field. One thing is sure, and that is Mr and Mrs Mc-; will never be forgotten in the district neither will George's devotion to his parents.

Mr and Mrs Hans Christensen of Rimbold B.C. and five of their children are visiting Ethel's sister and family in the Wilderness district. They left the Woodvale district seventeen years ago and were very much surprised at the changes, especially in the roads! On Sunday they came to see a few of their Woodvale friends and talks about the old days were very much enjoyed.

Mr and Mrs F Van Tyen of Red Deer spent part of their holidays at Elk Island Park and at the writer's home.

Health Unit Notes

An abcess in the middle ear may grow so fast that the pressure bursts the drum. Pus from the abcess will escape through the hole in the ear drum and appear in the outer ear — this is a running ear. The rupture of the drum will ease the pain which is caused by pressure but this does not mean that the condition is clearing up and the infection must be treated to prevent it becoming chronic. If the condition is untreated the discharge will continue for a month or so and may then dry up with some loss of a hearing. If the child is subsequently exposed to cold or damp the discharge will start again with more loss of hearing after each attack. If this happens often enough and is untreated complete and permanent deafness may occur. When the ear is running do not block the canal with absorbent cotton. Let this discharge escape freely and wipe it off when necessary with absorbent cotton that has been moistened with warm water. If there is a hole in the drum take care to prevent water getting into the ear as it sets up an irritation which may cause a fresh discharge. For this reason ear plugs should be worn while swimming.

MASTOIDITIS

This is a serious complication of acute ear trouble and usually develops a week or so after the acute infection is over suddenly the child's temperature rises he complains of increased earache and tenderness behind the ear. This means that the middle ear abscess has not drained completely through the ruptured drum and the infection has been forced inwards and pus gathers in the bone behind the ear. Immediate operation is imperative. Fortunately this complication is becoming rare as more acute ear infections are treated early.

OBSTRUCTIVE DEAFNESS

This is a milder form of ear trouble that occurs more often in older children. It is usually due to mild infections of the nose and throat. There may be no earache but the child has difficulty in hearing when he has a cold or sore throat. The difficulty in hearing is caused by infection blocking the eustachian tube and this can usually be relieved quickly by proper treatment.

Blocking of the eustachian tube and resultant deafness may be caused by enlarged adenoids. The adenoids will usually also block the nose making breathing through it difficult and so the child becomes a mouth breather. These conditions are cleared up by removal of the adenoids.

A frequent cause of defective hearing in healthy children is the presence of some object in the outer ear. Usually it consists of wax, which may swell up suddenly overnight and produce deafness. It is easily treated by a doctor or nurse who can syringe it out. If a small object gets into the ear canal, do not probe for it yourself as you may injure the lining of the ear or the eardrum. Have a doctor remove it.

Vermilion River Ratepayers Charge Injustices And Inconsistencies In 1956 Assessments

KITSCOTY. — Charges of injustices in the 1956 assessment just completed in the Vermilion River M.D. were heard at a protest meeting held on Aug. 2nd by J. B. Laidlaw, chief provincial assessor.

A seven point brief was presented to the meeting, outlining injustices and irregularities in the 1956 assessment just completed by the council of the Vermilion River M. D. No. 71.

This brief was prepared by a committee of three from each of the following F.U.A. locals: Kitscoty, Marwayne, Fenham, Willowlee, Streamstown, Alcurve, Riverton, Greenlawn and Durness. This brief was circulated among the ratepayers of the respective districts in the form of petition, receiving some 300 names.

The chairman of the meeting, Mr. Charles Swan of the Alcurve local, outlined briefly the purpose of the meeting and called on several ratepayers who each covered a point of the brief.

The main complaint was the inconsistence of assessors in assessing parcels of land varying in some cases to over $500 with no relationship to soil or arability.

Another complaint was the action of the Court of Revision in not taking into consideration road conditions last spring when ratepayers were unable to attend on account of wash-outs etc., and missed the appeal date deadline.

One ratepayer's assessment increased 120 per cent with no improvements on the land since the 1946 assessment.

Another ratepayer claimed that the assessment on his land increased 49.9 per cent.

Ratepayers complained of the assessors assessing land in the late fall with four inches of frost in the ground and unable to take soil samples.

Mr. Joe Batty, secretary-treasurer and chief assessor of the Vermilion River M.D. gave to the meeting percentages and figures pertaining to the assessments and also answered many questions.

Figures presented by Mr. Batty showed an overall raise in assessment in the M.D. of slightly over ten percent.

Mr. J. B. Laidlaw, chief assessor for the Province of Alberta, addressed the meeting explaining why assessments were called and the methods used by the assessor in the M. D.

Mr. Laidlaw suggested [illegible] until the Assessment [illegible] had completed their hearings before the committee presented the brief to the Minister of Municipal Affairs. More specific information on particular parcels of land that seem out of line should also be obtained.

Many other ratepayers gave information as to assessment variations which seemed most unreasonable.

A motion of censure on the M.D. Council for not appearing at the meeting was passed.

The ratepayers present instructed the local committee to call a meeting in Marwayne at an early date to further the objective of a more equitable assessment.

Some 55 ratepayers were in attendance.

Monday was spent inspecting the well run camp, and watching the 698 cadets at work and at play. Monday evening the newsmen were again taken into Vancouver where they went to Empire Stadium and watched the exhibition football game between Toronto Argos and Vancouver Lions. Take-off from Abbotsford was at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday and the landing at Edmonton made at 3:30 p.m.

Nothing was too good for the visiting newsmen, the RCAF and the Air Cadet officers at the camp combining to make the visit a most enjoyable, informative and enlightening experience.

Present from Vermilion, at the camp which breaks up this week end are Flt.-Lt. Stanley Manyluk who is officer comanding the entire Alberta contingent of 187 cadets. Flying Officer A. E. Moore civilian instructors Ken Stone and Wm Novak. Cadets LAC Earl Ireland, LAC Bob Waldenberger, LAC Bob Green, LAC Elmer Leahy, F Sgt. Gerry Marshall, LAC Bob Carmichael, LAC Morley Marshall.

The Standard intends to carry additional stories of the air cadet training and activities at the Abbotsford camp in its next issue.

Workers Remember Dead Companion

Many people will recall the sudden death from heart failure of Gerry Vezina which took place during the fair at Vermilion [illegible] ago. Gerry was an employee of the Jimmy Sullivan Shows.

The Sullivan Shows paid all the funeral expenses and before they left ordered and paid for a tombstone. This year they still remembered their companion and a group of fellow workers and Mr Sullivan visited the grave and covered it with flowers. A very genteel gesture and one quite in keeping with Jimmy Sullivan.

Tigers Win First Play-Off Ball Game

The booming bats of the Vermilion Tigers backed up the steady pitching of Ray Jones on Sunday and this combined to give the homesters a 10 to 3 victory over the St. Paul Bears. This was the first of a best of three series for the championship of the E.A.B.L. and was played in Vermilion.

The second game will be played at St Paul on Sunday Aug 19th. If a third game is necessary the action will swing back to Vermilion on Aug 26th.

Ray Jones went the whole route for Vermilion with Ken Fisher receiving. For St Paul the battery was Bob Sambo to Joly.

Irvin Gordon umpired.

Substantial Majorities for Two By-Laws

The two by-laws submitted to the burgesses of Vermilion on Thursday August 9th, were passed by very substantial majorities.

By-law No. 5 which called for the expenditure of $31,700 to provide a water treatment plant for the town's water supply, was endorsed by a vote of 177 in favor with 29 votes against. There were three spoiled ballots.

By-law No. 6 asked for the expenditure of $14,000 to provide a duplicate water supply line from the wells in the valley to the underground reservoir up town. The result of this was 174 in favor, 31 opposed, with 4 spoiled ballots.

The total number of votes cast was 209.

The council held a special meeting on Thursday evening last week to give third readings to the two by-laws.

Football Proposed For Vermilion

Football is in the process of becoming another one of Vermilion's major sports. Nothing is definite as yet, but plans are being made to organize a town representation, supported by an inter-town league. It is proposed that boys will start playing organized ball at ten years of age and continue playing little league up to 14 years. A town representation will consist of boys above that age in the form of a high school entry, or a district team. Equipment is the biggest problem. How to raise funds has not been decided.

For the spectators it is proposed to meet a few nights to discuss the rules, formations, tactical situations and answer questions.

Who knows, we may have a Glen Dobbs, Jackie Parker, Rollie Miles, Eagle Keys or Lynn Bottoms right here in town! Let's give him a chance to develop and at the same time fill in the off-season between baseball and hockey with one of Canada's most colorful sports.

Watch The Standard for news of developments along this line and if you wish to help, contact Syd Moore.

LOVELY GARDENS AND GROUNDS

Having wandered around a little during the past ten days, the editor had occasion to admire numerous flower gardens and landscaped grounds in other centres, but the idea predominated that home grounds and gardens in Vermilion compared very favorably with anything seen. Just to prove this, an hour, much too short a time for a thorough inspection we'll admit, was spent on Wednesday evening driving around the residential sections of the town. From the brief observation it was easy to see that the number of beautiful grounds in Vermilion is increasing every summer, and that nice gardens, well kept lawns and trees are now the rule here. This indicates a high percentage of home ownership, a very desirable condition. It is always interesting to note the various avenues of effort that well-kept yards or grounds take. Many run to flowers, others to vegetable gardens, some take pride in something a little more lasting and durable such as trees and shrubs, while practically all try their fortunes at lawns, varying in shape and size. It all adds up to attractive grounds around neat, well preserved and nicely kept homes.

Incidentally the overall road picture in the town of Vermilion is simply head and shoulders above anything seen in the numerous villages, towns and cities visited.

AGRICULTURE AND HOME ECONOMICS

Now is the time to start thinking of the future. The Alberta Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics prepare sixteen year olds and over for a useful and successful life. How? By giving practical instruction in agriculture and home economics and training youth in leadership and citizenship. You'll [illegible] wonderful time at any of these schools located at Olds, Vermilion or Fairview, among the gay companionship of congenial boys and girls.

How advantageous it is for any girl to have a thorough training in [illegible] and sewing and all that [illegible] with proper management and [illegible] a home. It is knowledge that [illegible] useful whatever profession she chooses. The Schools of Agriculture also prepare her for the business world and at the same [illegible] provide ways for developing [illegible] personality. She can relax and [illegible] herself through dramatics, [illegible] and various social activities. It is learning in a downright enjoyable way. Just ask past graduates.

Something new has been added for the girls this year. It's a course called Vocational Home Economics. This course will include Foods, Clothing, Home Management, Typing, Bookkeeping, English, Public Speaking, Horticulture and [illegible]. And on completion [illegible] a fair chance for immediate employment.

Application forms and information are obtainable by writing the Principal, School of Agriculture and Home Economics at Vermilion, Olds or Fairview. Applications should be made as soon as possible. The Schools open Tuesday, October 30th and closing exercises will be held April 10th, 1957.

HUMAN FRAILTIES CAUSE MOST ACCIDENTS

During the holiday months, there are many fatal accidents and numerous citizens are caused physical injuries, some of a permanent nature.

The margin between having an accident and avoiding one is very narrow. Observance of safety, it is obvious would supplant accidents by better driving results.

Four rules for a safe holiday are listed by the Safety Council. [illegible] number of accidents during a holiday period could be drastically reduced if every motorist would remember and practice these rules:

1. Show all motorists and pedestrians the courtesy you would have them show you.
2. Obey the letter and spirit of all traffic laws.
3. Don't try to drive too far or too fast on a holiday.
4. If you must celebrate with alcoholic beverages, don't drive at all.

A prominent hospital authority has said that if it were not for drinking drivers, the emergency stations in hospitals would have little to do at night.

"Make Courtesy Your Code of the Road" is a good slogan at all times.

The four greatest immediate causes of highway accidents are: 1. Speed. 2. Violation of the rules of the road. 3. Alcoholic Influences. 4. Ignorance of safe driving practices.

Eighty-five per cent of all accidents are caused by human frailties. It is the human element which is to blame.

"Take it easy and live," says the Alberta Safety Council.

After a high temperature of 78 degrees above on Wednesday it cooled suddenly to a high of 47 degrees today (Aug. 16). This remarkable and unwelcome sudden change is highlighted by the fact that southern Alberta, where the cool air has yet to arrive, is enjoying temperatures in the 80's. The change was accompanied here by rain.

Anniversary Marked By Mannville Lodge

MANNVILLE. The Royal Black Knights of the British Commonwealth and members of the L.O.B.A. from Edmonton, Lethbridge, Red Deer and Mannville commemorated the 266th anniversary of the Siege of Londonderry by attending a church service in the Orange hall conducted by Rev. C. MacPherson. Mr James Steed, the Provincial Grand Master from Lethbridge, Mr R. E. Jones, Grand Master of Grand Black Chapter of Alberta, as well as many other distinguished visitors were present.

A bus was chartered from Edmonton and when the visitors arrived in Mannville they were served a delicious luncheon by the Anglican W.A. groups.

The visiting Orange Men and Ladies as well as local Black Knights and L.O.B.A. members proceeded into the hall for the 7:00 o'clock service which was well attended.

Variety of Church Activities, Marwayne

MARWAYNE. — Alliance Tabernacle Vacation school is over for another year and we are glad to report that this year was an excellent one with good attendance at the school throughout its duration. Our hearts were thrilled when four asked the Lord Jesus to come into their hearts. The church was filled for the final program which challenged all with the need of making Jesus Christ their King.

On Friday the 17th there is a team of two young men, who have been attending a Lutheran Bible college in the States, to be with us. For the past year they have been out on Evangelistic work both on this continent and in Norway. They will bring us a special service of song, testimony and message. Be sure to come along at 8 p.m.

On Sunday night Aug. 26th there will be a 'Singspiration' service following the regular Sunday evening service when Mr. Roland Koch of the Shanyiman will be with us to show pictures of their work, and to present a challenge of the "Camps" in our own province.

We are trusting to have a "Baptismal Service" at the river on Sunday, Aug. 19th.

A hearty invitation is extended to join us in our regular services which are as follows: Sunday school at 10:30 a.m.; Worship service at 11:30 a.m.; Evangelistic service at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor.

James A. Smith, M.P., has now returned from Ottawa following adjournment of the House of Commons. He was accompanied on the trip by daughter Merilyn who has spent some ten days in the Capital. Mr and Mrs. Smith and Merilyn are presently [illegible] at Loon Lake, Sask., for a holiday.

"GREEN ACRES"

HOG SELF FEEDERS

We have a supply of plans to build self feeders for hogs. These are built of plywood and have "over hangs" and agitators. Now is the time to build one before the cold weather sets in.

PUTTING UP HAY

Hay that has been cut in the field during a few days of wet weather may easily lose one quarter of weight and 30 per cent of food value. Nearly all vitamins will be lost. This means that the hay crop in this district being light already has been injured by the late cutting and rain on it after it was cut. In order to have enough rough feed some oats ought to be cut for green feed to be sure of enough long feed for stock this winter. A lot of the sloughs are full of water and hay cannot be cut. Maybe there is some prairie hay that could be cut. What I am trying to say is that there is [illegible] to be a shortage of hay this [illegible] and every forkful that can be saved will be worth money to you or to some of your neighbors.

LET THE BARLEY RIPEN

Nearly all the barley in this area is cut on the green side. The kernels look big and plump [illegible] down it comes. The grain was full of moisture and soon dries out. Then there is a sample of thin barley and low grade. It pays to wait until the barley begins to harden before cutting.

GRADE "A" PIGS

Some pig raisers are taking a licking on low grade [illegible]. It is not only the premium of two dollars per pig, but also the extra cost of feeding poor type pigs. It looks like the premium [illegible] go up to $4 per pig. Why [illegible] get a purebred Yorkshire boar and if your sows are not so good get a few good type gilts from someone who has healthy, well bred pigs.

ORDER TREES NOW

There is a shortage of free government [illegible] for planting next spring. Anyone getting land ready for trees ought to get the order in soon. [illegible] are available from this office.

SHORTAGE OF HARVESTERS

Reports have come to [illegible] there will be very few [illegible] from the east this fall. Anyone needing men should list requirements at this office. Also, you should try to get people from town to come out for evenings or days off. Every day's work from [illegible] or neighbor will help to get the crop harvested.

NEWS from ISLAY

Mr. Norman Carey ran into an unusual occurrence last week when he had two flat tires on the same trip.

Mrs. N. McEachern, Catherine and Mrs. Bob Armstrong (Mary) left on Wednesday Aug. 8th by way of Wainwright for Smooth Rock Falls, Ontario.

Someone might build a house or two here as they are in demand. A gentleman from Kitscoty was here this past week looking for a place to rent or buy.

Quite a number of Islay folk were noticed at the Vermilion Lake park on Sunday last to hear the Wetaskiwin band: The Bill Shaws, Dave Martins, McGuigans, Kowalskis, Dr. Sweets, the Stones. It was a beautiful day to spend at the park and the band was excellent.

The August meeting of the Islay Church W.A. met at Mrs. Linton's. Several visitors were there including Mrs. Shattuck Sr. and Jr., Mrs. Lila Oram, Mrs. Ellen Osmans, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. McPhee. It was decided to hold the usual W.M.S. rally Sept. 6th and the annual chicken supper Oct. 24. We hope you mark your calendar.

Mrs. Fyfe has returned after being in Edmonton and Miss Robertson is home after holidaying in Edmonton, also journeying with the Harry Robertsons to the U.S.

Noticed Emerson Turnoster rolling along in a nice new-er Ford.

Gravel trucks are speeding down the road these days. Ev Inglis says his school bus route will be all gravel.

Mrs. McFarlane of Winnipeg visited her sister Mrs. R. Martin, on her return trip she was accompanied as far as Saskatoon by Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Janet Hancock and Peggy and Marilyn where they will visit Mrs. Martin's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Scott.

Mr. Walter Calson made a neat piece of work in razing the old municipal building. Material is on location and men are working on a new building for housing of the M.D. machinery.

The quarter section known as the Hugh Gilchrist homestead and recently owned by the daughter Mrs. Lloyd McFadden, has been purchased by Mr. Zig Budzilko.

University Graduates Married in Vermilion

DR. AND MRS. JOHN STEELE GRAHAM

Dorothy Eidem, August Bride, Will Live In Edmonton

At a pretty mid-summer wedding held in First United church, Vermilion, on Saturday August 4th, Dorothy Mina Eidem, daughter of Mrs. O. J. Eidem and the late Mr. Eidem, and granddaughter of Mrs H. C. Oakley and the late Mr. Oakley, was united in marriage to Dr. John Steele Graham, son of Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Graham of Ponoka. Both bride and groom are graduates of the University of Alberta, the bride receiving her B.Ed. in 1954, and the groom his M.D. in 1955.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Dr R. N Eidem, to the strains of the Wedding March played by Mr. Jack Brown, church organist and choir leader.

The church was beautifully decorated by Mrs. M. Hill and Mrs. S. C Heckbert with tall baskets of gladioli, delphiniums and sweet peas. The guest pews were marked off with white tulle bows and nosegays of sweet peas.

The junior choir rendered "O Perfect Love" prior to the entrance of the bride and also sang "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. Mr A. Karl sang "The Wedding Prayer" while the bride and groom knelt at the altar following the spoken prayer by Rev. C. W MacKay, who conducted the ceremony.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of embossed nylon over net [illegible]. The matching crown, trimmed with iridescent sequins, held her shoulder-length veil in place. Her only jewelry was a sterling silver brooch set with rhinestones, gift of the groom. She carried a white Bible surmounted with pink roses and white streamers with heather and white stephanotis.

Mrs. R. N Eidem, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Betty Joan Hawley, the bride's cousin, was bridesmaid. Miss Mavis Eidem, also a cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, and little four-year-old Miss Kathie Milner, niece of the groom, was flower girl. The three attendants wore identical gowns in turquoise and rose crystalline, made with tight bodices and full waltz-length skirts, while Kathie's dress was of pale pink organdy with a very full short skirt. They each wore a bandeau of white daisies and each carried a Colonial bouquet of roses, sweet peas and other summer flowers.

The groom was attended by a former classmate Dr Darrel Maulsby of Ponoka. Ushers were Alan Graham, twin brother of the groom, Dr Donald Gee of Edmonton and Bliss Dickson of Innisfree.

At a reception held in the church hall catered to by the W.A. Mr T. C. Eyre of Luseland, Sask., proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded. During the afternoon Mrs. Melvin Hill sang "Through the Years" accompanied by Mr W. B. Elford at the piano. Pouring tea were Mrs. Basil Hawley, aunt of the bride and Mrs J. F. Northcott of Ponoka.

For a wedding trip to Banff and the Yoho Valley the bride wore a matching sheath dress and duster coat of cream bengaline. She had a small white flower hat of lilies of the valley. Her corsage was of pink roses and she had matching pink shoes and purse.

Dr and Mrs Graham will make their home in Edmonton.

Out-of-town guests included Dr and Mrs M. Graham, Mr Alan Graham, Mrs J. F. Northcott and Dr D. Maulsby, all of Ponoka; Dr and Mrs R. N. Eidem, Drumheller; Mr and Mrs Milner [illegible] Anne and Kathy of Winnipeg; Mr and Mrs Henry Eidem and Mavis of Kyle, Sask.; Mr and Mrs Henry Lyle of Smoky Lake; from Luseland, Sask., came Mr and Mrs W. Hohman, Mr and Mrs A. Wilson, Mr and Mrs. J. C. Beck, Mr and Mrs T. C. Eyre, Mrs M. Van Fossen, Mrs H. Love and Miss Muriel Love; guests from Edmonton included Mrs M. Hoskenstad, Miss W. Gardiner, Mr and Mrs Peter Nettleton, Dr and Mrs Donald Gee, Miss Elsie Bradshaw, Miss Anne Pasechnik, Miss Rose Fliuk, Mr Knut Svidal, Miss Betty Hawley, Mr Bliss Dickson, Miss Joan Maxwell, Miss Marilyn Maxwell. Miss Florence MacKenzie came from Leduc, while from Calgary there were Mr and Mrs Vernon Larson and Miss Margaret McNeil.

Congratulatory telegrams were read during the afternoon from many places including Yellowknife, Cut Knife, Sask. (from the bride's grandparents, Mr and Mrs J. Eidem), Edmonton, Calgary, Jasper and Regina.

THE WEATHER IN AGRICULTURE

The great humorist, Mark Twain once observed that everyone talks about the weather but nobody does anything about it. What this is, at least, only a half truth. Today, with command of the record instrument of the Agricultural Institute of Canada, and the co-operation of the Agricultural Institute of Canada, and the co-operation of a whole meeting number, was devoted to the subject of Meteorology and where a broad view that is being done in an attempt to provide important services to agriculture and agricultural production was outlined by various specialists. Members of meteorological staff of the Department of Agriculture were present to report on their work and interest in the subject. Others present were from the universities, the Canadian Weather Service, the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and the Canadian Press.

Dr. W. H. Gallagher, Dominion Horticulturist, Ottawa, chaired the meeting.

extended period (5 to 6 day) business. Authorities realized however that due to the complexity of atmospheric forces, long range forecasts in Canada still cannot be considered reliable. Indeed research efforts through closed-seeding science which has emphasized the importance of Northern Hemisphere forecasts in recent years, is thought to have possibilities not only for improvement of the accuracy of a short-term forecast but for the prediction of the occurrence of long term abnormalities. Such predictions could be of great importance to agriculture and agricultural production. It was outlined by various specialists. THE BORRADAILE TIMES

Gordon Brett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brett, returned home for a week's holiday recently. Gordon is employed by an oil company which at the present time is working in the northern part of the province.

Rainfall in the Borradaile district during the past week was 2.1 inches.

Conservation work has been underway on the Borradaile-Clandonald road for the past three weeks.

Haying operations around Borradaile have recently got into full swing.

A carload of barley was shipped into Borradaile last week. Mr. Robinson, the owner, was very happy to receive it after a long wait.

All are sorry to hear of the recent illness of Mrs. Gow and a speedy recovery is wished her.

James Hinton, agent of the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator at Borradaile has found batching much too lonesome, tells us that he has finally found a girl who wants to make his life a bit more interesting. James says that the big day is set for Aug. 23rd.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Dr. Sweet and the nursing staff of the Islay Municipal hospital for the kindness, care and attention given to our father during his illness.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank Dr. Sinclaire, Dr. Hasinoff, Dr. Evans, Miss Keith, the nurses and staff of the Lloydminster hospital for the kind attention they gave me while I was a patient there. I would also like to thank my many friends who so kindly sent flowers, cards and fruit baskets.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother,

HENRY HARAN

who passed away Aug. 17, 1955.
Just the face I long to meet in prayer.
And feel a presence as I prayed.
Lo, it was Jesus standing there.
He took the nail pierced hand.
He said, "Peace be unto you."
And while we learn to feel her near.
With Thee, we trust she is.
He answered, "I am the resurrection."
Dear Lord, how shall we know that she Still lives above with God and Thee.
Her steps, nor wanders far away!
He said, "Abide with Me".
Ever remembered and sadly missed by her son James and daughter-in-law Mary Haran, Sister, Mrs. Preston and Mrs. O'Hara.

The New Consumer

For the past ten years, the consumer has been characterized by the novice: the bride, the first time parent, the new home owner. Doubtedly, it's fairly easy to see some of the needs of such a consumer: a range, fridge, washer, dryer, garbage cans, lawn mowers.

But then the changes in population, says The Financial Post, the market is likely to become not all of a sudden, but gradually different. The average consumer will be the experienced home owner who has time to shop, who's got many of the basic necessities and is ready for the second, third or fourth set in his particular category. Whose children's needs are varied (ranging from playpen to 32 office) and who is no longer thrilled by the mere process of buying for his own house and family.

The basis of the question may be how interested is change-is-which time he was ten years ago. He's not the only great need of basic household items, and he's discovering that life's too short to spend hours in stores when deals to be had.

BATHING SUIT TIME MEANS FUN FOR ALL (and calorie counting for some)

It's easier for the rest if one swims, and it's easier for one if the rest swim. With most of the men at the week-end, I'm not sure which is more tempting—the cool water or the cool shade. Anyway, I'm not overly generous in donations to the silver collection, with the result that the total was short $75 of the $75 guaranteed the band to cover their travelling expenses. The balance was made up by the Rotarians who sponsor the Sunday afternoon entertainments.

The Rotarians and the Park committee wish to publicity thank the Wetaskiwin band for the very fine entertainment provided and sincerely hope that they will return for another concert some summer.

The committee in charge was comprised of Ches Waldersnes, chairman, Gerald Stephens, Gordon Park and Ed Herzog.

Stolen Car Found Near Redwater

The car belonging to Mrs. Rose Harle which was stolen here on Sunday night July 29th, was found abandoned just two miles south of the town of Redwater on Thursday afternoon Aug. 2nd. The thieves had used up the bulk of the gas and removed the radio. An attempt had been made to get into the trunk of the car, some damage being done to the upholstery and springs in the back of the back seat in the attempt. Had they but known the trunk was not even locked, but was somewhat tricky to open. No arrests had been done to the car mechanically.

Mrs. Harle went to Redwater Sunday to withdraw her property which was in the custody of the RCMP, who had found the car.

Open Centre For Servicemen At Wainwright

An interesting event in the town of Wainwright was the recent dedication service on Aug. 2nd of the Servicemen's Centre there.

This new building situated on Wainwright's main street is sponsored by the Soldiers' and Airmen's Christian Association, under the direction of Rev. Ellwood Hill and supported by the voluntary contributions of interested people in various denominations. The object of the association is to meet something of the tremendous social and spiritual need which always arises in an area where there is a large concentration of troops.

Appropriate words of appreciation were given at the dedication service by the mayor of the town of Wainwright, Dr. J. D. Walker, the Senior Padre of the training area, Capt. Hobbs, and [illegible] others. The dedication ceremony was conducted by Rev. Cyril Hunt, Church of Rev. Bible College, Calgary.

A large crowd was in attendance including the local M.L.A., Mr. H

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Posers For Politicians

EDMONTON. — Posers for political pundits — or, some questions which may (or may not) be answered before, during or after next year's session of the Alberta legislature:

1. Will Premier Manning call another election in view of the report of the Macdonald-Mahaffy Royal Commission, which found no evidence of maladministration on the part of the Social Credit government?

Some observers still insist an election is a distinct possibility, although when the report first came out the Premier only chuckled at the suggestion. The commission findings should leave the opposition forces in a somewhat embarrassing position, because the investigation was held to probe their pointed questions and insinuations. Those same questions and insinuations led to the 1955 snap election, which saw Social Credit boost strength drop from 51 to 37.

Premier Manning might just take the attitude that an election would eliminate any lingering doubts.

2. What will the opposition members have to say about the commission report? You can be sure that Social Credit will have to the time of their Boss quoting from the findings and jeering at their opponents.

Conservative and CCF members can say they had no part in levelling the charges under investigation. The Liberals, on the other hand, have the choice of maintaining a silence or insisting that the investigation was incomplete. It won't be surprising if the Liberals take the stand that the probe was stifled by restrictive clauses in the terms of reference.

Undoubtedly something will be said about the government having a digest of the findings prepared and printed for distribution among Alberta citizens. And it could be that there was some special significance behind this move, too, such as laying the groundwork for a general election.

3. Will Albertans be given a new set of liquor laws as a result of the legislative committee investigation now in progress?

Nothing definite will be known until the eight-man, all-party committee presents its report to the [illegible] any guesses is that Alberta's liquor laws will be relaxed, maybe not as much as in other provinces, but to some extent.

Education Minister Anders Ashberg is the only cabinet minister on the liquor committee, and as such should be the member most familiar with government thinking. During the public hearings, he repeatedly asked spokesmen for religious and temperance groups how the government could be expected to enforce restrictive laws which the majority of the public does not condone or support.

Premier Manning personally has no use for the liquor traffic, but the government isn't blind to the fact that in Alberta today there are some 600,000 valid liquor permits, each one representing an individual liquor outlet (or should that be bars).

There are almost certain to be some changes in the Liquor Control Act. The government and the committee members seem agreed the existing act is outmoded and is not serving the purpose for which it was designed. The committee will have to decide whether the answer is more restriction or freer liquor laws.

4. Will citizens of the oil provinces be paying a sales tax or some other new form of tax as a result of Provincial Treasurer Ted Hinman's campaign for a "new deal" in municipal financing?

There hasn't been much said lately about the study into provincial-municipal financial relations, but Mr. Hinman is still making the odd speech around the country, and the municipal committee set up to investigate the matter is still at work.

It probably will be sometime this fall before anything definite begins to emerge from all the discussions So far, however, Mr. Hinman has seemed determined that the municipal revenue structure should be placed on a more even keel, with tax sources sufficient to meet responsibilities.

The sales tax has been mentioned most often as a tax which could spread the burden more among citizens who own property and those who do not own property. It will create a demand for municipal services.

On the face of it, the arguments sounds good, but there are bound to be loud cries of anguish from a large segment of the public if the government introduces a sales tax. The main question asked by the man in the street is: Why does a province as wealthy as Alberta have to talk about sales tax?

Sooner or later, Mr. Hinman will have to provide the answer

Carl Heckbert Addresses Rotary

The luncheon meeting of Vermilion Rotary held on Friday, Aug. 10th featured an illuminating address by one of Vermilion's prominent business men, Mr. S. C. Heckbert. The speaker chose for his topic a subject of vital interest to all those present, "Liability Insurance". He stressed that in these days of increasing costs what appears to be at the beginning a slight accident, may result in ultimate costs far beyond the ability of the average person to pay. The speaker pointed out that particularly in automobile insurance, substantial increase in limits of coverage may be achieved by a nominal increase in annual premium. Even a simple operation such as a toe-off shot by a golfer striking an onlooker could result in a claim of considerable proportions.

Bill Pettigrew introduced and Ches Waldersnger thanked the guest speaker for an interesting and informative address.

Jim Robson presided at the meeting and introduced visiting Rotarian Neville Goss of Lloydminster. Ken Howe had as his guest Jack Muirhead of Sedgewick and Martin Shalla introduced Walter Antonluk of Peace River and formerly of Vermilion.

Weather Balloon Down South of Mannville

MANNVILLE — Last week the family of F. Renapis and Mr. and Mrs. Emmott Sr. watched with interest a huge weather balloon that seemed to be losing altitude It settled finally in a field nearby and upon inspection proved to be from Rome, New York, U.S.A. The balloon which was about 20 feet across made of cellophane and aluminum foil, filled with hydrogen and no smoking sign was on the balloon! Mr Renapis filled out the question naire that was attached to the balloon and returned it to Rome N.Y. but as yet has had no reply He brought the balloon into town during the week where many interested people saw it.

Route and main pastors and tax rates from various towns and districts following the set were some of vacancies that the recreation lounge in the basement to have a look at the various facilities and to enjoy a cup of coffee.

Farm Safety Demonstrations At The Edmonton Exhibition

EDMONTON. — Bill Perkins is one of the few men who can break a furrow mile in the middle of driving a farm tractor, and still live to tell about it.

As farm safety director for the Alberta Safety Council, Bill puts on a demonstration in which he intentionally does everything wrong just to show what is right.

I caught his act while covering the 39th annual Edmonton exhibition and at the same time learned that Bill will be staging the demonstration at various communities all through the rest of the summer.

The only reason Bill survives the series of jolts, back flips and lurches with his tactor is that the machine is rigged with a special protective framework which stops it from rolling over completely.

His first demonstration shows what happens when a load is hitched to the tractor at a point higher than the regular drawbar. This changes the machine's centre of gravity and causes it to flip over backwards when the clutch is engaged.

The leverage created in such a situation takes weight off the front wheels and makes it easier for the power of the engine to turn the frame around the axle rather than the wheels against the load.

Bill's second demonstration shows how to remove a jammed wheel. The rear wheels become bogged down in a deep hole. A common practice is to chain a peg to the front of the rear wheels to provide artificial traction.

However when the drive wheels are low in a hole, the centre of gravity is changed again, and the engine flips the tactor over backwards. Incidentally, it happens so quickly the operator can do nothing about it—within half a second to several and a half.

Once during the week Bill's demonstration didn't work out quite as he planned. He had a bet with Maurice Lavoie, of Bonnyville, that the log chained to the wheels, Bill's foot slipped off the clutch. Instead of flipping backwards, the tractor lurched out of the hole. The safety director had to give up until it came into jolting contact with the protective framework.

The point Bill tries to prove is that you should back a tractor out of a hole or, better still, find someone to tow it out for you. Playing around with the centre of gravity is bad business and has already caused too many deaths in Alberta.

RIDE 'EM FARMER

Another popular feature of the summer fair in the capital city is "Operation Tractor", the biggest, if not the only tractor rodeo in Alberta.

Farmers from all over northern Alberta have been entering the contest of skill and science for the past four years, and this year's champion tractor operator is 27-year-old Norman Bittner of Thorsby.

Plans are being made now to enlarge the tractor competitions for next year, and if they materialize, many more Alberta communities may be able to get into the act.

Paul Lawrence, safety director for the safety council, says letters asking for information on the tractor rodeo have been received from directors of many rural fairs. To provide the information, a booklet will be prepared and copies distributed.

Then, if everyone will agree, rodeos will be run off all over the district and the winners at each centre will meet in Edmonton for the finals. Safety Council and Exhibition Association officials believe this will create much wider interest in the competition.

In the competitions run in Edmonton, drivers undergo a written safety test, a tractor inspection, driving trials over an obstacle course, and a tractor driving competition. The winner of each day's event wins himself a berth in the finals. The champion for the week wins the Alberta Safety plaque, a silver cup and $50.

The two tractor shows at the fair had added significance because they were used to promote Farm Safety Week. Also featured was a demonstration by officials of the provincial fire commissioner's office on the safe handling of petroleum products. Daily, the men set fire to a tractor, extinguished raging gasoline fires and showed how the vapor from gasoline, diesel oil and kerosene will explode.

The table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, backed by bouquets of gladioli and surrounded by gifts. Among the gifts was a beautiful chest of silver from their children.

A happy gathering of twenty-eight ladies met at the home of Mrs. Don Harrison on Wednesday afternoon Aug. 8th to honor Miss Patricia Fenton with a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

These gifts were safely "navigated" to the guest of honor by a very young and handsome sailor, Ricky Calvert, who manfully pushed the decorated "ship".

There were certainly surprises aplenty among the beautiful gifts, part of the cargo being a tiny chubby pup to guard the future home. After the gifts were admired and the puppy had received his share of attention, the bride-to-be made a nice little speech, thanking all for their gifts and good wishes, and the hostess for her kind hospitality.

A delicious lunch completed a really enjoyable afternoon.

CEREBRAL PALSY

The human brain is like a telephone exchange. It receives a message, it studies it and sorts it out from other messages and decides what to do about it; it then sends the message out directing appropriate muscles to take action. This kind of process — translating a desire into action—is so quick in the normal brain that one is not conscious of any mental action. But if the brain is damaged or that part which controls muscular action, it may be physically impossible to perform even the simplest action—this action is called cerebral palsy.

A child with cerebral palsy may not be able to pick up things, he may have difficulty in walking or he may not be able to control the muscles of his throat and tongue in order to speak. A child may be able to understand what you say even though he cannot talk. There are two main types of cerebral palsy depending on which part of the brain is damaged.

1. Spastic Type: The muscles are tense and contracted and so will not work properly.

2. Athetoid Type: The muscles are in continuous purposeless movement and cannot be directed.

A child may have a combination of various types of cerebral palsy but usually one type predominates.

Damage to the brain usually occurs before the baby is born, as an unborn baby is subject to injury and defects in development. Cleft palate and hare lip are other examples of such variation. The damage may occur during birth or afterwards due to an accident or illnesses such as whooping cough and meningitis. Cerebral palsy is not hereditary and casts no reflection on the mental or physical health of the parents.

A child with cerebral palsy has all the needs, desires, hopes and fears of any normal child. They are constantly frustrated by their inability to translate their wishes into actions and are unable to play with children of their own age. Because they are unable to dress themselves or walk or talk many people think they are mentally retarded, this however, is only true in a small proportion of cases.

With special training by highly skilled people a palsied child can be taught much. The slightly affected child can be taught to be independent and self-supporting and the more severely affected child can be taught to walk, talk, feed and clean himself. Treatment will be carried out by a doctor, a psychologist to advise on the child's ability to learn, a social worker to help the family to get adjusted, a physiotherapist to train the muscles, an occupational therapist and a speech therapist. Training should start early and be continued without interruption. Cerebral palsy cases all differ from one another and so need individual attention. A child with cerebral palsy cannot be expected to progress as quickly as a normal child and this must be appreciated by the parents. It is important not to threaten or ridicule the child as this may produce a condition of maladjustment.

The 1957 Cars

Cars of 1957 says The Financial Post, will be longer, lower and flashier.

The variety of color, chrome treatment and body style will be ever greater than in the past. The long low look is more in vogue than ever.

Prices probably will be a little higher. The buyer trend to more extras and slightly more expensive cars will continue. So will the boom in four-door hardtops. Black will continue its comeback as a popular color and more cars will have gold grilles.

Most 1957 cars will have 14 inch tires instead of 15. The new tires will be slightly wider, take lower air pressure. The centre of gravity will be lowered adding to the car's safety and lending themselves to the low look. At least one car is expected to offer a fuel injection system involving direct delivery of fuel into the cylinder eliminating the carburetor.

Projection Equipment Jubilee Auditoriums

The Hon. James Hartley, Minister of Public Works announced the first of the week that the contract for projection equipment for the auditoriums in Calgary and Edmonton had been awarded to Sharp's Theatre Supplies Ltd. Film Exchange Building, Calgary for the price of $32,821.70.

Other tenders received for this equipment were: Perkins Electric Co. Ltd. Vancouver, $33,252.60; J. M. Rice & Co. Ltd. Winnipeg $34,239 and Dominion Sound Equipments, Edmonton $35,187.26.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

When there is a baby in the family, the simplest answer to summer fun is picnics. Pleasant outdoor dining areas can be found within a short driving distance from any Hometown Canada. And picnics give the busy mother a chance to relax from housework while eliminating the chore of packing and carting all the equipment essential to baby's comfort during a long trip.

Here's how to keep the infant well-fed, gurgling and dry while the adults relax under the trees.

1. An insulated bag will hold an ample supply of bottles and formula, sterilized water and canned baby food. Always take along an extra feeding just in case you stay longer than you anticipated. Handy for heating baby's food is the food warmer that plugs into the dashboard cigarette lighter. Add baby's own spoon which can be sterilized if necessary.

2. Keep baby off the bare ground. It might be damp. The car crib which has rollers and screens is most convenient. But a blanket with two pillows will make a suitable ground bed. Since it may become chilly towards evening add an extra sweater and cap.

3. A thermos of warm water is needed for the inevitable clean-up process. Don't forget absorbent cotton, powder or lotion and a few extra diapers.

Will Lay Pipe As Fast As Obtainable

TORONTO — "Trans Canada Pipe Lines Limited will lay pipe as fast as it comes from the steel mills and will continue to push completion of the Alberta-Winnipeg section just as long as weather conditions permit," Chas. S. Coates, executive vice-president and general manager of the pipeline company said Monday.

In answer to reports that a company official had told a representative of a utility company that gas through the line would not be available until next summer Mr Coates said that neither Trans-Canada nor any official of the Company had ever made such a statement.

Mr Coates stated that the steel strike obviously will result in pipe deliveries later than the originally contracted schedules. However until the strike is over and pipe deliveries are resumed it is impossible accurately to measure the effect of the strike on the construction program.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The crops were flattened on the evening of Aug. 1st, some from the heavy wind and some from rain. There was very little hail. The electric storm that same evening caused damage in some places. The gardens and crops in general are doing nicely however and harvest is not too far away.

Mr and Mrs. John Arnold are the proud owners of a new 1956 Pontiac. Mr and Mrs. Dick Arnold and family are accompanying them on holidays to the coast to visit daughter Agnes and family. They plan to leave about the middle of this month.

Birthday greetings go to Dad Bowser on his 88th birthday on Aug. 10th. May you have many more.

Mr and Mrs. Rufus Omness, daughters Janice and Irene from New Serepta and the latter's parents Mr and Mrs. Bury from Portland Oregon, were visitors at the Armstrong home on Aug. 1st.

Mrs. Thelma Armstrong and son Neil left on the bus on Aug. 1st for The Pas, Manitoba to visit her brother Billie McNeely and family. Carol, Karen, Murray and Arlene are holidaying with relatives.

July 30th was a lovely afternoon for the Ronaghan-Sherwood wedding in the little Pleasant Valley home church. It was a beautiful wedding. Our congratulations and best wishes to Rena and Leslie — Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood.

It was a happy occasion for sister Gertie Swanson of Elk Point when most of her family gathered at her home to wish her "many happy returns" on her 68th birthday July 28th. Those in attendance from away from home were daughter Florence and Raymond Hammond from Lashburn; daughter Myrtle Howard Robertson and family from Provost and the families from Spring Park.

On July 23rd Mrs. Gertie Swanson accompanied son Lawrence, Vera and family Ellen and Ronnie on a trip to the coast. A note came from Radium City stating they were having a grand time and enjoying their trip immensely.

Mr and Mrs. Howard Robertson of Provost left the first of the month for a holiday in the States. Members of the family are staying with friends and relatives.

Through the kindness of Mr and Mrs. Herb McPhee Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Omness attended the Islay W.A. at the Linton home on Aug. 2nd. Not knowing exactly where to go we inquired in Islay and were directed in the north way. Went exploring so to speak, followed by another car directed the same way, the Horricks family. In places the land is rugged and hilly, used mostly for pasture. Mr. Horricks' car ran out of gas so Herb took the family along. We were almost there, yet so far away, low places, so we back-tracked and got on to the right road, arriving just as the meeting was over, but sure enjoyed a delicious lunch. It was grand seeing old acquaintances and meeting new ones. Mrs. Lila Oram was a guest at the Linton home. She will return to Winnipeg shortly. Couldn't find your address Lila.

One could sit quietly and go back in the past in the Linton home. Go for a sleigh ride all tucked in over the snowy banks and through the glen perhaps last winter, or up north through the pines in search of blueberries and see too the lovely white birch and around home the rolling land dotted with the green trees. These thoughts are engendered by a few of the lovely paintings that hang on the walls in the Linton home, done by our hostess. Thanks again for a grand afternoon.

We shall remember clothing for Korea, the W.M.S. rally on Sept. 5th in Islay, and the chicken supper Oct. 24th.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dwyer of Edmonton on the birth of a daughter Jayne on Aug. 1st, a sister for Donnie, sorry we haven't her full name.

Church service was held July 29 with a good attendance. A grand sermon was preached by our minister Mr. Welsh. The final membership class, lesson 8, will be at the McIntyre home on the evening of Aug 60th. Only five more church services [illegible]. Our summer goes so quickly.

It was a pleasure to attend the Clandonald - Allandale Vacation school closing at 11 a.m. on Aug. 3. Truly a wonderful week for the children.

The power being off so much of late must be annoying and cause much inconvenience, especially to those with stoves.

The last letter from daughter Orlene (Whelan): Paulette had a touch of bronchitis and at that time wee Michael was in the hospital with asthma and bronchitis. We hope that he is all better by now.

The week end of July 29th Mr and Mrs. Allan Russell from Stettler visited the latter's mother Mrs. Johnson, brother Ronnie, sister Joyce and Eddie Lyons. Mrs. Johnson returned with them to Stettler for a week's visit.

Noticed Dick Elliott mowing the side of the roads in these parts — this will be a great improvement.

Mrs. Elinor Farley is in the district visiting old friends. She is staying with Stella Mayers.

Our congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds, Mr and [illegible].

We hope that the Standard editor and staff all enjoyed a good holiday, although we can imagine one week must seem all too short.

The Vermilion Fair was the largest and best yet, favored with good weather. There was a two-day total attendance of 4500.

Mr and Mrs. A. McIntyre of Edmonton are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLellan.

The first prize two year old steer at the Vermilion fair owned by Jas. Barr and purchased by W. Timms, local meat merchant, tipped the scales at 1400 pounds.

Dr. J. J. Knoll, who will be favorably remembered for his work during the 'flu epidemic when he spent two and a half years with Dr Smith has taken over the latter's practice and will be in Vermilion about September 1st.

Miss Margaret Cavil resumed teaching at Thorncliffe on Monday.

Breath Holding Children Lack Emotional Security

Breath-holding attacks in children are basically an emotional disorder symptomatic of profound insecurity in the child, according to a report on the work of Hinman and Dickey reported in the Lancet, received by the Health League of Canada.

Most of the children who suffer from these attacks are between six months and five years of age. Although the attacks are by no means rare, they are often diagnosed only after much anxiety and unnecessary investigation. Perhaps, states the report in Lancet, it is their rarity outside the home which has made many doctors unfamiliar with them.

Fear and fury, as well as frustration, precipitates attacks, but they may also be started by a sharp pain, a fall or a sudden dream. The symptoms may be alarming: after a few cries, the breath is held and the child may go blue and lapse into unconsciousness. If the attack is prolonged past this state, convulsions may ensue, followed by confusion or sleep.

Neither parents nor child are helped by giving in to every whim of the child, nor by trying to stop the attacks by slapping him or pouring cold water on him. Reassurance and a sympathetic regard for the whole emotional background will do most good in preventing attacks. Provided that the child receives security and affection in proper measure the attacks are best treated with apparent unconcern. When love and security are clearly lacking the whole family needs expert guidance.

Take Snow Boots On Mid-July Train Trip

WINNIPEG. — A party of 11 Eskimos equipped with mackinaws and snow boots, left here recently on the Canadian National Railways Churchill train bound for their homes in the north.

Made up of five women and six children, they were brought to Winnipeg earlier this year for medical treatment by the Indian Health Service of the Department of National Health and Welfare. Another six Eskimos joined the group at The Pas.

On arrival at Churchill, they embarked in the "Rupertsland" to go to their homes at various points north of the port.

WOODVALE NOTES

Heavy downpours Aug. 1st and 3rd did considerable damage especially in the Union district where crops were flattened and fields flooded. Elsewhere the grain has started to lodge dangerously. Haying operations were held up last week too due to rain.

Summer visitors have been many again: here are a few we have heard about. Mrs. Sadie Oldenburg's daughter Lee Ramsay and small daughter were home from Edmonton recently. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Oldenburg received a surprise visit from her brother Mr. Clifford Todd of Oreland Calif. and his family.

Peggy Lyons and her two boys Art and Jim stayed with Mrs. Fona Lyons for a week after the Vermilion fair.

Mrs. Dorothy Portsmouth has with her the four children of her sister Mrs. Walter Meyer of Rife, Alta.; the youngest is nine months old. Gordon Clark returned for a second visit to the Wolters' home this summer. Susan and Irene spent a few days in Saskatoon with his mother while their own parents went on to the wedding of Rev. C. A. MacDonald at Biggar, Sask., on July 25th. Rev. MacDonald was a student minister in the Tolland district in 1949 and 1950.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Benoit returned home for a few days after their honeymoon in the U.S. They will spend a week in Edmonton before moving to Fort Resolution, N.W.T.

Eleanor McGrath was a patient in the Islay hospital where her tonsils were removed.

Mrs. A. McQuid left for Edmonton to spend a few weeks with her daughter Marion.

The ladies of the Red Cross Auxiliary held a meeting at the writer's home on Aug. 2 and were kind enough to work on a quilt for Mrs. F. Van Wageningen who will be 80 years old later this year, and whose children, grandchildren and local friends this week have a share in the birthday gift of a warm wool filled quilt. A birthday card was signed by all and afterwards Mrs. Wolters took pictures in the garden. Lunch and a friendly visit were enjoyed after a busy afternoon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wolters on Thursday, Sept. 6th.

May we remind our readers that a big dance is planned for Aug. 17 in the Woodvale community hall.

Mr. Joseph Batty left this week for Beverly where he has accepted a position as secretary treasurer of that town. Mrs. Batty and family will follow later this month.

Without Health Why Live To Retire?

"Retirement, which should have been a serene culmination of a lifetime of accomplishment, was actually a death sentence for some and for others an eternity of emptiness and tedium, punctuated with aches and pains," writes Robert Collier Page, M.D.D. in the current issue of Health Magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

Dr Page was describing the effect of too early retirement upon active men. He points out that there is considerable controversy over what is the proper retirement age. Some say 65, some 60, some 55 and some go as high as 70. From the health standpoint, retirement planning should begin as early as the age of 40, for that is the age at which work patterns have become established.

Dr Page calls for more research into the problem of setting retirement ages according to the biological age of the person, rather than the chronological age.

"Go to the 20th reunion of any college and look at the gathering of erstwhile classmates ... all nearly the same age chronologically. You will see erect, young-looking men with springy step, clear eye and ready laugh walking alongside veritable antiques with trembling hands, tortoise-gait, listless eyes and querulous voices. From a medical point of view it is absurd to think of these persons as being the same age biologically, yet the chronological yardstick is the only one we now have."

Better Farm Prices

This fall promises somewhat higher prices for products from [illegible] farmers than a year ago. That should mean continued moderate upward pressure on food costs.

But there will be no price runaway — in either direction, says The Financial Post. Overall volume of grain, vegetables, fruit and other field crops should be too close to 'normal' for that. That's the general picture shown in a Financial Post survey by provinces.

A helicopter may hover like a bird, but when it comes down to roost on a roof it weighs plenty, and sets up quite a strain. So engineers have devised a gimmick. New Look In Golf Bags

New look in golf bags this summer is the tweedy look. The current trend away from the drab club-carriers has been made possible by the use of plastic-coated fabric to replace the usual canvas. It comes in a wide range of gay colors and patterns and is proving ideal for the purpose because of its lightness and toughness. The fabric is scuff-resistant and can be cleaned with a damp cloth. These "Fabrilite" bags are available in half a dozen colors and several sizes including a hefty bag for professionals.

How Civil Defence Operates in Natural Disaster

Fourteenth in a series of 24 articles

The basic job of a civil defence organization is to save life in disaster, whether caused by nuclear weapons or nature in the form of flood, fire or hurricane. But services set up and enhanced by a civil defence organization can also do much, especially in the case of natural disaster, to protect property [illegible]

For civil defence is not some new entity seeking to gain a place of prominence for itself in the community. It is merely the name given to a plan under which existing services can be unified and supplemented for swift action in the face of unusual emergencies.

The threat of war to North America has only served to point up the need of such an organization.

Civil defence seeks to recruit volunteers from the civilian population in cities, towns, villages and farms to train as auxiliary firemen, police, first-aid workers and so on. For while these forces exist already in numbers sufficient to meet normal requirements, there are often sudden emergencies when it is humanly impossible for them to meet the demand.

In towns where floods may come unexpectedly, there is no time once the water is in the streets to train the residents how to save themselves and others. Mistakes can be made without danger in a course on artificial respiration, for example, but on someone nearly drowned, a mistake can be fatal. The same goes for first aid. Civil defence aims at training the population to combat such emergencies before they arise.

Fire seldom comes with warning. Suddenly there is a shout, then flames, then destruction and sometimes death ... unless the resources to quench the flames in time are ready. Civil defence aims to provide these resources through volunteer training, resources in the form of persons who can give firemen and rescuers trained and efficient assistance in saving property as well as lives.

The same swift, workmanlike organization possible under an alert local civil defence organization can go into action to meet any other form of disaster, including the worst of all: war.

And once the initial onslaught of disaster has been met, it is equally as important to know how to clean-up and alleviate the aftermath. Civil defence planning, as conceived by federal and provincial officials, has dealt with that angle, too. It provides for trained health and welfare group.

That means a town or village can be prepared to provide food and shelter for persons made homeless. Persons trained in civil defence first-aid procedures can help doctors and nurses, who are usually overworked in disaster anywhere, to bring fast attention to those who need it.

But possibly the most important aspect of the civil defence plan in any community is that it takes in all the services necessary to meet disaster and provides thus to make use of them in the most efficient way: a plan.

LETTER TO W.I. MEMBERS

Hello W.I. Members:

In going over the branch reports I noticed that some are missing. It is not at all surprising however as this past month has been a busy one and perhaps you forgot — could be?

It is amazing the amount of activities each branch engages in. I noted from many of the reports that A.W.I. and A.C.W.W. travel fund and Pennies for Friendship fund have not been forgotten. The Pennies for Friendship Scheme developed in 1947 provides most of the money necessary to carry on the work of the A.C.W.W. We in the Women's Institutes are fortunate indeed since we belong to the A.C.W.W. we are part of the great band of countrywomen, one of the 107 organizations in 70 countries, states and provinces, bent on understanding each others viewpoints, sympathizing with one another's difficulties and sharing one another's burdens.

I'm looking forward to visiting [illegible]

HOW TO WRITE

I can split infinitives and knock grammar over the head as well as the next fellow, and there's no doubt that those who know their Fowler's Good Usage sometimes shudder at my syntax. Yet I pound out a lot of wordage every day and practically all of it gets printed.

Credit for this good fortune goes to an aunt of mine, from whom I learned about writing.

Aunt Maude's letters were prized by me and all our family, because when you finished reading one of them you had actually been with Maude. She had the faculty of not being a 'writer' absorbed with fancy construction or mere wordage.'

Aunt Maude's letter might begin with: "Hot here today. 85 degrees. But planted 100 Beefsteak Tomato plants — laid them on their sides so [illegible] root [illegible] even if withered. Jeremy came to help, carried water and ate up my oatmeal cookies — likes the brown sugar bubbles in them, a good boy freckled, loves fun like poor Fred . . ."

Maude didn't spell very well, and she'd never heard of an infinitive, but she said what she had to say without straining. Told you the facts too, like the kind of tomato plants how hot it really was, and how she set the tomatoes on their sides. Lots of meat in her letters.

So when I write, I try to keep away from f[illegible] words and stick with facts about real places, people, and things. That's why so many editors print the stuff.

It seems to me Canadian politics would be healthier if politicians would write and speak like Aunt Maude about real things. When they say they are sponsoring culture, for example, what do they mean? What show? Who is on it? What is it really like when it comes out of the radio loudspeaker, or onto the T. V. screen? How much money does it cost? We spend $40 millions a year now, through C B C. for culture— but C B C officials clam up when asked to say which programs are cultured. They know it would show how ridiculous the whole broadcasting system is if they tried to answer in plain English.

Another offender, in my opinion, is the Department of Health and Welfare. They spend a fortune of the taxpayers' money, but what do they really do for us? I've never never been able to find out in plain English, what I owe them.

We need more Aunt Maudes around to nail things down with honest facts and words.

St. Paul, Vermilion In Final Ball Game This Sunday Aug. 26

Vermilion Tigers were turned back at St. Paul on Sunday last by a score of 6 runs to 1. As a result a third and deciding game for the championship of the Eastern Alberta Baseball League will be played at the Vermilion ball park this Sunday afternoon, Aug. 26 at 2:30 p.m.

This will be the last baseball game of the season and both teams will really be out gunning for the title. Vermilion Tigers have won the pennant for the past two years and are trying to make it three in a row.

Roy Jones pitched to Eddie Fisher on Sunday and made a good job of it, the Bears of St. Paul only getting one earned run. The Tigers had a poor first inning and never recovered from it.

Legion Plans Decoration Day Sunday Next, August 26th

All returned men and the members of the ladies auxiliary will march from the gate to the cenotaph as in previous services. They will be led by the "A" Coy pipe band.

Captain Holden of the Sal[illegible] Army will conduct the Dec[illegible] Day service and music will be by the Salvation Army band.

Swim Tests Are Underway at Lake

Swim tests at the lake are under way. By this week end most tests should be finished. If you are a registered swimmer in the "6 to 60" Swim and haven't yet been tested, better get down there and have it.

No buttons or certificates are being handed out on the waterfront. Sometime in early September, after swimming is closed, parents, swimmers and everyone interested will all meet and the certificates will be presented. Possibly at the same time there will be a movie shown, and the Provincial Director of Red Cross swimming will be there to present your certificate. It is important, then, that all swimmers are tested so that everyone can be included in the event.

Miss Ann Stewart is giving tests for Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors. Ann will be here for only a short time; everyone should take advantage of her qualifications before she must return to the University of Alberta.

Registration At High School Aug. 30-31

Registration of high school students will take place at the high school Thursday and Friday next week, August 30 and 31 between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. All students planning to attend high school should register on those days.

Schools will re-open on Tuesday, September 4th.

Old Timers Enjoy Re-union Days at Fair

One of the features of the Vermilion Fair for 1956 was the welcome accorded to the old timers and former Vermilion and district residents who returned to visit the Fair and to renew many acquaintances of by-gone days at the old timers' cabin.

They were greeted and made welcome by a friendly hostess at the signing of the register. This was under the supervision of the Old Timers Association and in charge of Mrs. Annie Cameron. Refreshments were served to them, and badges of welcome were presented through the courtesy of the Vermilion Board of Trade.

Gifts were presented to the oldest, youngest and the persons who had come the greatest distances from east and west. The prize winners were: Wm. Steele, Vermilion; Mrs. Eleanor Farley, Ottawa; Frank Atkinson, Victoria; Mrs. Mitchell, Edmonton; Mrs. Harmony, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. McGaughey, Vancouver; Neil East, Winnipeg; Mrs. Cameron, Vermilion.

The gifts were presented with the compliments of the Nelson-Hill Hardware, Craigs', Stephens, McLaughlin's, Long's, Boulter's, and I. Miller's 5c to $1.00 store.

On Tuesday evening at a gathering of male friends Mr. Findlay was presented with a Kaddie-Kar and golf bag, along with a host of best wishes. A new and very modern cafe for the convenience of the general public opened its doors this week, and patrons who have already visited the Westpoint Cafe located just a mile west of town on Highway 16 say that it is just as good as it claims to be.

The new Westpoint Cafe serves meals, sandwiches, soft ice cream, and is open 24 hours each and every day including Sundays. Design of the building is taken from new cafes in the U. S. and is effective and practical.

Ladies Tee Off Sunday In Annual Open Golf Tournament

Next Sunday, Aug. 26th, the Vermilion golf course will be the scene of special activities in connection with the ladies' annual golf tournament, which will be played off as a one-day competition at that time.

The club is pleased to announce that a new trophy, a splendid looking affair, has been donated for annual competition by the Vermilion Wholesale. It will be awarded to the player with the lowest total score for the two nine-hole rounds of the tournament, to be retained for one year or until the next ladies' tourney when it will be put up for competition again. Besides this large trophy, the winning golfer will also receive a smaller one for permanent possession.

The tournament next Sunday will take the form of a qualifying nine, starting at 9 a.m., which will place the golfer in her allotted flight, and then another nine will be played at the conclusion of which the lowest score for the 18 holes in any one flight will receive first prize. Second prizes are also being given.

Prizes have been purchased for six flights and there will be three "specials" — for pitch and putt competition; for lowest qualifying score, and for highest total score for the day.

Arrangements have been made for lunch to be served at the club house. The tournament is open to any golfer, club membership is not a necessity. The entry fee, including a free lunch, is $1.50.

Competition for the highest score will be keen, as well as for the lowest score. Come and enjoy the sociability of the occasion as well as the fun of the game itself!

Jas. B. Bell Farewelled By Friends Here

James B. Bell, for the past several years principal of the Vermilion high school, was feted by his friends at a stag party held on Tuesday evening last week in the Legion hall.

During the course of the evening Jim Ferguson on behalf of the large gathering of men, presented the guest of honor with a set of binoculars, hunting jacket, six boxes of shells and a card inscribed with the names of all present.

Mr. Bell is a past president of the Kinsmen club, has coached junior hockey teams, and has been active at promoting community activities. It is generally felt that his leaving is a distinct loss to the town of Vermilion, and he will be missed by adults and students alike.

Entertainment during the evening was comprised of an original rhumba composed and played by Jack Brown, and several vocal numbers led by Johnny Webb, some by the famed Kinsmen quartet of which Mr. Bell was a member.

Mr. Bell has recently been appointed a superintendent of schools.

In a reply to the presentation he stated his regret at the prospect of leaving Vermilion, and invited everyone to come to visit them, wherever they might be located.

LEGION NOTES

Don't forget folks that the Legion social evenings are to be resumed on Wednesday Sept 5th and every first and third Wednesday thereafter. Keep these important dates in mind.

It is hoped that every member attends the Decoration Day Service on Sunday next, Aug 26th, when we again pay tribute to our companions who have gone on before.

Mr and Mrs Martin Shalka and family left Sunday for Radium Hot Springs where they will spend their holidays.

Ring Returned By Fish "Express"

Jerry, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bowman of Placentia, California, and grandson of Mrs. H. N. Stephens of Vermilion, was swimming in the ocean a few miles from his home when he noticed that his Placentia high school ring was loose. Fearing to loose it in all that ocean of water, he asked his sister Jean who was with him, to fasten it to the string of her bathing nose plug. She obliged, but unfortunately lost the plug, string and ring in the water.

The family all searched for the articles, but shortly concluded that it was a futile effort, and gave them up as lost.

A few days later a friend of the family who is the secretary of the school board phoned them to say that she had received word from a fisherman at Pomona, Calif. He was a successful sportsman who not only hauled in a fish, but, when he examined his catch found a nose plug, string and ring wound around it's tail.

Jerry was a pleased boy when he went to claim his property that had been returned to him by the one fish who, in a whole oceanful of creatures, had worn his school ring for a while. Perhaps the fish belonged to a different school and didn't feel right about wearing one from Placentia High.

Rotary Club Hears Address On Salesmanship by Mayor Melvin Hill

The luncheon meeting of the Vermilion Rotary held on Friday Aug 17th was addressed by Mayor Melvin Hill.

The speaker traced the origin of trade from the time of barter to the early days here in the West, and then to the present highly competitive era. The salesman now has to take into consideration new inventions, latest models and trends, also to attempt to anticipate what customers will want and why they will want certain lines of merchandise. The salesman too has learned to compete at a very small margin of profit.

He attributed much of our high standard of living to good salesmanship. How long can our present high standard last? He stated that the world may at times have unsettled periods but the human race is very resourceful and we can expect progress to continue for a long time to come.

Gerry Stephens introduced the speaker and the thanks of the club were expressed by George Secu[illegible] for the absorbing address.

Israel Miller presided at the meeting and introduced visiting Rotarians Bill Ranby of Prince George and Mel Lavold of Lloydminster.

Kitscoty Wins Fastball Play-Off In Exciting Three-Game Series

Kitscoty girls won the third and deciding game in the provincial fastball play-downs here on Sunday and advanced to the [illegible] where they will meet Innisfree.

Playing before a large crowd of enthusiastic fans the Vermilion Cardinals won the first game handily 8 to 2. In the second the visitors came back just as strongly however and turned in an 11 to 4 victory.

Kitscoty had won the first game on their home diamond the previous Sunday to took the best of three series to advance another step in the Intermediate 'A' play offs. A year ago it was a different story. Vermilion Cards eliminated the Kitscoty girls.

FIRST GAME TIED SERIES

The Cardinals won the first game with a fine display of ball hitting and fielding well to take the 8 to 2 decision. Eva Gordey was on the mound for the winners with Lilly Thompson doing a stellar job behind the bat. For Kitscoty it was Doreen Ebbetson pitching to Pat Tyler.

KITSCOTY ROARS BACK

The second game was a reversal of the first. The girls from the east were never in trouble. They played flawlessly until the very last inning when the Cards ran in three to make the final score read 11 to 4.

Individual star of the game was left fielder Joan Stewart who banged out a long homer with two on in the third inning to start Kitscoty on their way to victory. The blond outfielder also snagged every fly ball coming her way without a miss.

The Kitscoty battery was again Ebbetson to Tyler, while Eva Gordey carried the major portion of the game for Vermilion, giving way to Hazel Barr in the last two innings.

A TIMELY MOVE—

More and more people particularly families when on holiday tours, make use of the spots where [illegible] are located wayside tables for meals. Not only are such places usually selected for natural beauty [illegible] such as tables and seats are available while some spots provide water and a fireplace. With the growing use of the wayside table, the move towards more of them in Alberta will be welcomed. Only recently two such spots have been provided along highway 16 between here and Edmonton. The Town of Vermilion could quite easily create one in the town park in the vicinity of the water tower, even though the unexcelled facilities of the provincial park are very handy while a corner of the beautiful grounds at the V. S. A. is another spot which would prove popular. In the tourist season a [illegible] either east or west of Vermilion will reveal groups pulled off the road at an intersection or into a farmer's gateway having their meal. Usually it's a happy family, sometimes just couples. A shady spot, a handy table, a bench or two, and they would have everything they desire. It seems that one of the essentials of a picnic table is that it be right along the edge of the highway. The holiday trip whereby the party provides their own meals and camping equipment is growing rapidly in popularity and the need for wayside tables will come more and more into demand. Travelling from Jasper to Banff, there are many such wayside picnic tables and it remarkable that no matter what time it happens to be, every one will have its quota of cars and people.

Canada's consumer price index advanced 1% from 116.6 to 117.8 between May and June this year. This was the largest monthly increase in the index in several years and compares with an index of 115.9 a year ago. The increase was due almost entirely to a 2.9% advance in the food series.

Pledge Marriage Vows In Double Ring Ceremony At Vermilion

JOHNSON—COLTON

A beautiful summer wedding was solemnized in St. Saviour's Anglican church, Vermilion, on July 20th when Josie Edna Colton, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Colton of the Islay district and Murl Roy Johnson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson of Makwa, Sask., pledged their marriage vows in a double-ring ceremony.

Bouquets of gladioli and fern formed an attractive setting for the ceremony performed by Rev. K. A. Minchin. Mrs. M. Simonsen played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white lace and nylon over satin. The fitted bodice featured lilypoint sleeves and a lace collar. Her three-quarter length veil was held in place by a sequin trimmed headdress. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Peggy Reid, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a blue cocktail-length dress of nylon net and matching headband with sequin setting. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of white and yellow carnations. Miss Geraldine Johnson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, wearing a pink cocktail-length dress of nylon net and matching headband with sequin setting. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of white and yellow carnations.

Little Bernice Horpestad, niece of the bride, made a sweet little flower girl with a dress of yellow nylon. She wore a band of yellow rosebuds and carried a fan-shaped bouquet of pink carnations.

Henry Reiger of Lloydminster was best man. Gerald Colton, brother of the bride, and Cliff McNeil, brother-in-law of the groom, ushered the guests to their pews.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Colton wore a dusky rose dress of crepe and lace. The mother of the groom chose a dress of navy blue crepe. Both mothers wore white carnations en corsage.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Brunswick hotel for relatives and close friends. A lace cloth covered the bride's table which was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Betty Horpestad, sister of the bride.

Cliff McNeil proposed the toast to the bride.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson and Lester Meyers of Makwa, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meyers, Mrs. Bertha Shortell, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff McNeil and Mr. and Mrs. Marvel Horpestad all of Lloydminster.

Later in the evening a wedding dance was held in the Islay hall at which a large crowd was in attendance.

For travelling the bride changed to a blue tweed suit with white and pink accessories. The happy couple will make their home in Lloydminster.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Weather has been very favorable for haying and ripening of crops and garden produce.

The marriage was announced of Miss Katherine Louise Cox to Rev. David John L. Pritchard on Aug. 3, at the Metropolitan United Church, Edmonton. Jack was our student in 1946. To them congratulations and our very best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Throndson enjoyed their holiday very much and the plane trip. Going they experienced sunny weather, coming home they flew above the clouds in places. Birthday greetings to Gus on his 71st birthday on Aug. 14th.

The Allandale W.A. met at the Throndson home on Aug. 9th. Visitors were Mrs. Farley, Mrs. Mayers and Mrs. Wilson and family. It was a pleasure to have Mrs. Farley with us. It will be over 30 years since Elinor was president of the Allandale W.A. In those days transportation was by team and buggy and horseback — and we had grand attendance. There was a break of a few years and our present W.A. started around 1939. Mrs. Armstrong is the only member of the first organization. The September meeting will be at the Baldock home on Sept. 6th in the afternoon. Lunch — Pot luck. Everybody welcome.

Sunday Aug. 12th a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed at the Harold Cooper home at Ethelwyn visiting Dad McBride and the family. Dad McBride is quite well and has the very best of care. He is happy and contented, enjoying the quiet home life. Don, Joyce, Evelyn and family were home a few weeks ago. The women folk were busy canning as Opal always manages to have a grand garden.

On Aug. 15th Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Walsh and family Adele, Doreen, Wayne and Laura from the city arrived at the latter's parents' home, the Omnesses, for two weeks holiday.

Square dancing was enjoyed very much at Clandonald on the evening of Aug. 15th, the last dance until after harvest. It was good to have our caller Mr. Walter Donnenworth. Mrs. Donnenworth and family with us. It was announced by our president Mr. Zabb that lessons would be given this fall providing there were enough signers.

Orley Omness and daughter Hilda Wilson spent last Friday in the city.

Word came from Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson and family in Vancouver that their holiday would be delayed. At the time of writing Earl was suffering from virus pneumonia.

A grand sermon was given by our minister Mr. Welsh on Aug. 12, "Hosea the man with a problem". On Aug. 19th the service was conducted by Rev. MacKay assisted by Mr. Welsh. Holy Communion was received by the congregation. Six children were baptised and two adults [illegible] membership into the United Church. Rev. MacKay gave a very inspiring service. There were around 60 in attendance. Only three services left and these will be at the usual time, 11:45 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Hogaboam of Derwent spent the week end of Aug. 18th at their niece Mildred's, the Baldock home. Aunt Mamie will be leaving on the 23rd to spend a few weeks with her son Prentice and family in the city.

Gary Anderson from Lloydminster and Jimmy Edwards from town are holidaying with their Armstrong grandparents.

A slight frost occurred on the 19th and 20th, just darkened the leaves of the tender vegetables.

Mrs. Idelore Nelson and son Leslie spent most of the week with Elsa's parents, the Ockermans at Ferguson Flats, picking blueberries.

and Mrs. R. A. Johnson attended a leadership course in Alberta College for three days last week.

We are pleased to have the roads open again with no detours.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elliot on the birth of a son in Lloydminster Hospital August 14th.

Closing Thought: "Perfect love begets perfect trust, therefore, as we learn to love, do we cease to fear. Fear of life, fear of death, fear of eternity vanish from the heart that loves the Father."

Weather

A week ago, Thursday, Aug. 16, an afternoon rain gave Vermilion 1.47 inches of precipitation. There has been no rain since, until at time of going to press the rain had started again. During the first part of the week weather was cool, coming close to freezing both Friday and Saturday nights. From Monday on [illegible] temperatures soared eliminating the frost danger for the time being at least.

Keep it under your hat!

The bright idea of a New York Fire Commissioner gives us an idea, too. He liked his dress cap; disliked the regulation fire helmet — but he recognized the ever-present danger of falling debris. So he simply had an inner shield of aluminum made and fitted into the cap.

And that's where our idea comes in: A lightweight aluminum shield that would fit under a wayward husband's fedora and save him many a [illegible] in late at night to a rolling-pin reception by the little woman. [illegible]

WE ARE RAISING THE Subscription Price OF THE STANDARD TO 5c per week

On and after October 1st the subscription price of the Standard will be $2.50 per year, or 5c per week on the basis of 50 issues for a year.

YOUR CHANCE!

This is your opportunity to renew your subscription to The Standard, or become a new subscriber if you don't already read your home town newspaper, at the old rate of $2.00 per year. Such subscriptions are limited to one year only. Even if your sub. does not expire for some months, you are entitled to a one year further renewal at the lower rate if paid prior to October 1st, 1956.

THE REASON

There have been at least four increases in the price of newsprint since the $2.00 per year subscription rate went into effect. The total amount taken in subscriptions in 1955 did not fully pay for blank paper and ink used in printing The Standard, plus the freight on the paper from Edmonton, let alone anything towards labor and equipment.

All other newspapers of similar size printed in Alberta have been $2.50 or $3.00 for the past several years, as for example the Vegreville Observer, St. Paul Journal, Wainwright Star-Chronicle, each at $2.50 per year in this immediate part of Alberta.

We are raising the Subscription price to 5c per week—

Back To School

Sharpened pencils, shining faces and skipping feet all tell us that "Back to School" days are here again. Canadian shoe manufacturers have made sure that those skipping feet are also happy feet! Everyone knows how important it is for growing children to have well fitting shoes, shoes that are comfortable, that will stand up to the wear and tear that youngsters inflict on them. Pictured here are two styles that will certainly fill the bill.

Made of sturdy leather that gives both flexibility and support, these shoes will skip their way to school this September with real enthusiasm.

It is nice to take advantage of the sun's rays while on vacation but it is a wise person who guards against over-exposing himself. Condition yourself gradually until you acquire a protective coating of tan and make sure to always use protective lotions.

Farm Fires Take Many Lives

Farm accidents in Alberta resulted in 37 deaths during the first six months of the year, or three more than the corresponding period of last year, according to a summary compiled by W. J. Perkins, farm safety director for the Alberta Safety Council.

The summary reveals that nearly half of the fatalities resulted from fires which took 16 lives in various parts of the province. In the comparable period of last year farm fires caused six deaths.

On the other hand, tractor deaths showed a substantial decline this year, due in large part, it is believed by officials, to campaigning by the Alberta Safety Council for safety and the holding of tractor tipping demonstrations. In the six months ended June 30 this year, there were three deaths in tractor accidents, compared with 14 in the same period of last year. For the whole of 1955, there were 22 fatalities in tractor mishaps.

The report shows that six deaths were due to poison gas or carbon monoxide, as against two a year ago.

Deaths due to firearms numbered two, one less than a year ago. This year the A.S.C. featured the safe use of firearms as the subject of a farm essay contest in which more than 30,000 rural school children participated.

There were two deaths in connection with the operation of various farm machines, two caused by farm animals, one from a fall and five due to miscellaneous causes.

The results of the province-wide Farm Safety Campaign proclaimed by the provincial government from July 21 to 28 are not included as this was held only recently. The figures will be studied shortly.

A further analysis of the first six months of this year shows that four of those who lost their lives from fires were in the 10 to 19 years age group while there were two from 70 to 79 and two over 80. Three of those who died from poison gas were between 10 and 19 and two were between 20 and 29.

Those who died from tractor accidents ranged in age from 40 to 69.

Pleasant Valley News

The weather is quite nice at present, good for haying. Flowers are certainly looking their best right now even though the wind and hail did play havoc with them. So glad to hear you enjoyed your trip Mrs. Wallington. Did you think of us back home pulling red tops from the garden?

The writer enjoyed a recent visit with Mrs. Jenkins and son Dickie.

On Sunday the Moore family, Mrs. Gillies, Mrs. Fraser, the writer and hubby, journeyed to Lea Park for the day. This is a lovely spot with good roads all the way. This could be made into a real picnic park right at the stampede grounds. The view is lovely with the two rivers, the bridges taking shape and the high hills to climb. Why go to Banff to climb the mountains? If the grounds at Lea Park were all cleaned up and the rubbish burnt after the stampede it would certainly be an appealing spot.

Mrs. Fraser spent a week at the writer's home.

Not much news these days as everybody seems to be busy getting ready for harvest. August has slipped by very quickly and the evenings now are noticeably shorter.

Hi Ellen, did Iantala arrive yet? Our phone was out of order for about three weeks. It's keeping the operators busy asking 'number please'—the rings are going through central.

Mr and Mrs. Shaw spent Sunday at Doreen's home. A lovely turkey was enjoyed for dinner.

Mrs. J. Gould and daughter Laura were supper guests at the writer's home on Sunday.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear little son and brother

KENNETH DIBBEN

who passed away Aug. 22, 1955.

"When we reach the heavenly garden
And see him in full bloom,
The flower we loved so dearly
And thought God plucked too soon.
Oh then we'll know the reason,
Though we know it not today
Why in his fragrant beauty
God took our flower away.

Ever remembered and sadly missed by mother, daddy and sister Sharon.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Drive-In movies have become one of Canada's favorite evening entertainments — what's more — as a friend of mine and her husband have found, the Drive-Ins are a good solution to the baby sitter problem. The entire family, baby and all, just pack-up and drivesbofin a local outdoor theatre.

This does take some planning. The wheels begin to turn immediately after dinner. The baby is mother's responsibility; she gets the bottle, extra diapers, blanket and night clothes necessary to prepare the baby for bed. It's up to dad to see that baby's car-bed is in place. Meanwhile, the other members of the 'under-five' set are getting into pyjamas, slippers and bathrobes. A favorite toy, plus a pillow and small blanket are part of each youngster's movie equipment. Pillows make good theatre seats, and the blankets will ward off any evening chill. Teeth are brushed, faces washed and the children are all set to go. A few cookies and a thermos of milk or fruit juice takes care of those nocturnal hunger pangs.

It's wise to plan on an early show with cartoons first on the program. These will keep the children happy and put them in a good frame of mind to sleep through the main feature.

By 8:30 according to my friend, the small fry are asleep and Mom and Dad are enjoying the movie. Before midnight everyone's home in bed after a pleasant family outing at the "Drive-In".

EPILEPSY

Of all the ailments to which humanity is subect, few have been so widely misunderstood as epilepsy. Superstitions, half-truths and prejudices, accumulated through the centuries, work their damage to this day despite the fact that medical science has changed the entire outlook for the epileptic from discouragement and resignation to well-founded optimism and hope.

Epilepsy is a fairly common disease — there are over 75,000 cases in Canada. Authorities now state that with proper treatment four in every five, can lead relatively normal lives. The emphasis, they point out, lies on the words with proper treatment because the real tragedy is that so many epileptics are not receiving the proper medical and social care.

Epilepsy is the Greek word for seizure and it is the seizure or fit which is the most characteristic thing about the disease. They have been classified into three main types but there is an infinite variety of ways in which they may occur in respect to their timing, severity and other effects on different individuals.

GRAND MAL — This is the French word for "great illness" and is the most common type of epilepsy. The patient loses consciousness completely, his arms and legs twitch convulsively and he falls to the ground. There may be some frothing at the mouth accompanied by groans and cries. The attack usually lasts about one minute after which he usually lies relaxed. This looks very unpleasant to a bystander seeing it for the first time but the patient is not in any pain and it is not necessary to hold him during the jerking stage. Placing some object between his teeth prevents him biting his tongue and lips and it is wise to move any furniture out of his way. The patient may sleep heavily for a few hours after the attack (and this is the time to move him if necessary) or he may get up and feel dull for a short time. No stimulants should be given.

PETIT MAL — This type is also common and some of the attacks may be so mild that they are overlooked. The patient loses consciousness for only a few seconds and an eyelid or eyebrow may twitch rhythmically and he may drop what he has in his hands or stop in the middle of a sentence. He rarely falls. Petit mal attacks in children may disappear without treatment or may develop into grand mal so prompt medical advice is necessary.

PSYCHOMOTOR SEIZURES — The mental stability of the patient is temporarily affected, he becomes unreasonable, has a tantrum or suddenly behaves oddly such as throwing things to the floor. The patient cannot remember what happened although he may appear to be quite aware of what is happening during the seizure. They may last from a few minutes to several hours.

JACKSONIAN SEIZURES — Convulsive movements start in a leg or arm and then spread to the rest of the body. The patient usually stays conscious and is aware of the jerking or numbness spreading from his limbs.

All forms of epilepsy are caused by one of many factors, some still not fully understood: infections, tumors, brain injury and glandular disturbances in other parts of the body. In the majority of cases the cause is not known. An emotional upset may be the trigger setting off the seizure. Some patients feel a seizure coming on and have time to prepare for it, withdrawing from whatever activity they are doing. Heredity is not now considered to be a very important factor in epilepsy.

Present were the Minister of Agriculture the Hon. Mr. H. C. Haimrast and the Minister of Education the Hon. A. O. Aalborg, also a representative of CKUA who made a tape recording of the official opening, and the head of the seed cleaning plants in Alberta.

Princess Anne W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Princess Anne W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Parchewski with ten members present and one visitors, Mrs. F. Cameron of New Westminster, B. C.

The meeting opened with "O Canada" and the creed. The roll call was "A country I would like to visit and why."

A motion was made to give our W. I. cup to our new bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Mead.

Mrs. Scarfe and Mrs. Mead reported on our very successful Community picnic held at the Vermilion Park on July 15th.

It was agreed to send a card of sympathy to Mrs. McKay's daughter, Mrs. Bitcon of Port Coquitlam, B. C., whose thirteen year old daughter was drowned.

Mrs. R. Mead read a very interesting paper on Twilight Lodge at Red Deer, a home for elderly people.

The meeting closed with "God Save the Queen" after which a nice lunch was served by Mrs. West and Mrs. McIntyre.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. MacKay with Mrs. Scarfe and Mrs. Richardson serving lunch.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Five Members of Alberta C.C.F. Party Return From Russia

EDMONTON — Five members of the Alberta CCF party, a little starry-eyed perhaps, have returned from a visit to Russia which has caused a major upheaval within the party ranks.

The concern arises over statements attributed to 75-year-old William Irvine, Alberta CCF [illegible], as carried by the Russian news agency Tass and translated by Reuters news service for Western consumption.

Apparently high officials of the party think Mr Irvine was too favorably impressed with what he saw in the Soviet Union, and as this was being written at the week end it appeared certain that an executive meeting would be called to discuss the possibility of disciplinary action.

One of the statements was to the effect that the travelling CCF-ers found the Supreme [illegible] had a "democratic nature ... which is matched by few parliaments in other democratic countries."

On his return to Edmonton last week Mr Irvine said Tass carried his statement correctly but that due to errors in translation the Reuters dispatch misinterpreted it somewhat. Actually he said, he was referring to one particular act of the Soviet government — distribution of copies of a new pension bill two months before it was introduced. The idea was to give the public a chance to discuss the bill and make recommendations, and this, he felt, was truly democratic.

Mr Irvine insisted he did find evidence of a striving toward democracy and he struck back at the officials of his party who have been questioning his statements, with these words: "One would almost think some people are afraid Russia might become democratic."

The CCF president also insisted he found evidence of economic democracy in the amount of control over industry in the hands of the factory workers. In his words: "Not only do they share in plans for the industry in which they work but we found they are more interested in reaching the quotas which they set for themselves than any capitalist could ever be."

Mr Irvine a federal MP for 18 years also found more equality of the sexes in Russia, although he admitted that women can be seen doing heavy work. On the other hand he added, nearly half the doctors in Russia are women.

The [illegible] concern among party officials arises from dispatches which quoted Mr Irvine as speaking on behalf of the CCF party. Before the group left, the provincial executive made it clear to them they would be travelling as individuals and would not represent the party.

Mr Irvine denied that he ever spoke on behalf of the party while in Russia, but added that most of the other statements quoted in news dispatches were, in the main, accurate.

At the week end, two top party officials were calling for an executive meeting. Jack Leavens, Edmonton provincial board [illegible], said, "this is a matter that has to be ironed out fast."

H J Ryan, second vice-president, said that if Irvine was quoted correctly some of his statements were "ridiculous in the light of the execution and jailing of socialists behind the iron curtain."

The CCF party, which harbors socialist theories, is ever fearful of being identified with Communism, and can be expected to become indignant when some of its hierarchy appear to become too chummy with the comrades.

The brass was out in Ottawa to meet the travellers when they reached Canada and Lorne Ingle, national secretary, after questioning them said it was a matter for the provincial board.

Mr Irvine was accompanied on the trip by Harold Bronson, Edmonton first vice-president of the party and provincial organizer; Floyd Johnson, president of the Edmonton CCF; Otto Wobick, of Barons, and Byron Tanner of Lethbridge.

In all likelihood, the ruckus is a tempest in a teapot which will blow over fairly soon, but it's a pretty good bet that the provincial president will get his knuckles rapped.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

Construction Evident In Clandonald

SLIGHT FROSTS

Slight frosts were recorded on at least two nights during the several days of unusually cool weather experienced the past week. Cutting will not be general until almost the end of the month, although some early sown barley fields are already swathed as well as some others, probably on account of wild oats.

Haying seems to start early in July and continue during most of August nowadays. The varied methods [illegible] are quite noticeable. Many [illegible] prefer the square type, others swear by the round ones. Some are using forage harvesters and making silage while others cut the hay up dry. The tractor mounted sweep [illegible] the most commonly used while a few still stick to the old [illegible] of the hand fork and rack. [illegible] twenty-five years ago there [illegible] hardly a field of tame hay to be seen for miles.

CONSTRUCTION EVIDENT

Some building activity is noticed going on this summer. Work on the new two-roomed public school is proceeding rapidly. The new building is just to the north of the present school and will provide much-needed accommodation for the greatly-increased attendance, due mainly to the closing of several country schools and the establishing of three bus routes.

Mr and Mrs. Bill Goad are busy erecting a fine modern house on their farm eight miles north of town. The Carlston brothers, Joe and George, are in charge of construction.

Local merchant Bill Specht has now completed extensive alterations in his grocery and dry goods store and this fine layout is well worth inspecting.

Tom Stockwell is busy gathering material for some sort of a shelter but has stated definitely that it is not a dwelling house.

Early in the summer the Imperial Oil agency operated for several years by Steve Wasylishen, was taken over by his brother-in-law Arnold Olson formerly a farmer of the Angle Lake district. Recently Mr and Mrs. Olson have moved into the Wasylishen house located on an acreage at the south-east [illegible].

Steve had been in the oil business for about sixteen years and felt ready for a change. He has gone into the school bus business and the family plan to make their future home in Vermilion.

A few weeks past the Olson family were bereaved by the death of Mr Olson Sr. He had farmed for many years in the Angle Lake district but was living in the B.C. interior at the time of his death.

We are very pleased to be able to report that Mrs. Ellstrom of Hay Lakes, Mrs. Harry Brake's mother, is greatly improved in health since the last report. Her condition was not nearly as serious as at first feared and the family have every hope of a complete recovery.

Alex Stockwell recently spent a week at his old home renewing acquaintances and making himself generally useful. Although having left the district over 25 years ago in favor of the teaching profession he has not entirely forgotten how things are done on the farm.

TWO BRIDGES BEING BUILT AT LEA PARK

Work is going ahead on the two bridges at Lea Park but it would appear that the project will not be completed until some time next year. Work on the continuation of highway 45 east of Dewberry has been [illegible] the excessive rainfall. On account of the sandy soil in the area clay has to be hauled a mile or more for fill. A farmer's field has been stripped for this purpose, the black soil having been pushed to one side to be replaced later.

This week end Doug Windsor, whose home is in southern Manitoba, arrived to relieve John Helm who has been second in command at the Toronto-Dominion bank for two years or more. We understand that John will be going to Lloydminster. Doug belongs to the air cadets and met several Vermilion lads at Abbotsford where he has just returned from his holidays and training.

Congratulations to Mabel, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R J Hagen, whose wedding takes place in Red Deer on Saturday, Aug. 25th. [illegible] and Vermilion residents plan to be present for the event.

[illegible]

During the past week the old Clandonald-Dewberry highway has received a badly needed coat of gravel for about two-thirds of its distance. Although rather treacherous at present the first heavy rain will improve matters to a great extent. The road across the lake east of the Hagen farm is quite passable now but required a considerable amount of work to build it up owing to the abnormally high water.

BEAVERS MOVED

The beavers which were causing considerable annoyance on a creek near the Goad farm in the Landonville district have been removed to another location over 100 miles away. Trapping was done by a provincial game warden.

Cars Damaged In Passengers Injured, Hill Top Collision

Cuts and bruises requiring medical attention were suffered by several passengers of two cars which [illegible] donald recently. Owner of one vehicle, Mrs. Colin Gallagher, received a severe cut to the head, while her son who was driving was shaken up considerably. One passenger in the other car owned by John Zlumek also received a severe gash on the head.

The head-on collision occurred at the top of a hill on a curving portion of the road, and caused extensive damage to both cars.

6,000 New Customers For Natural Gas

Northwestern Utilities announced Wednesday that construction is being made on their 5 million dollar 1956 construction program.

To date 13.5 miles of a 24-inch pipe line and 2¼ miles of 16-inch have been laid from the City of Edmonton, in addition to approximately one mile of large diameter distribution pipe in the city.

Rapid progress is being made on the installation of the transmission system to serve the communities of Lamont, Millwood and Minburn. Over 40 miles of 4-inch and 2-inch transmission line are required. The system is more than half completed and it is expected that gas will be turned on some time in September.

The transmission line to Millet and the distribution system in that centre have been completed. The turn-on ceremony was held on the morning of Aug 9th.

The installation of the distribution systems in Clyworth and Sylvan Lake will be proceeding shortly. The 6-inch transmission line from Red Deer to Sylvan Lake will be started at the end of August

Northwestern Utilities Limited has been granted the right by the Town Council to place a franchise proposal before the proprietary electors of the Town of Edson. The vote on this franchise took place on Aug. 13th. The Company has undertaken to complete installation of its facilities by December 1.

It is now anticipated that approximately 600 new customers will be added to Northwestern's system in 1956. Of this total nearly 400 already have been given service. At the end of 1955, 6,155 residential customers served by Northwestern Utilities are expected.

Double Ring Ceremony At St. Saviour's Anglican Church

Baskets of gladioli and delphiniums banked the altar at St. Saviour's Anglican church, Vermilion, on July 13th, when a very pretty ceremony was solemnized uniting Audrey Marie Barclay and Lawrence Edward Barlow in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barclay of Caslano, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barlow of Vermilion. Rev. K. A. Minchin performed the double ring ceremony.

White ribbon bows and peonies marked the guest pews and carnations were placed on the altar.

The bridal party entered the church to the music of the wedding march played by Mrs. M. Simonsen.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in a full-length bridal gown fashioned in redingote style. The dress was of nylon net over satin, and the redingote was nylon net with an all-over French embroidery pattern and featured lily point sleeves. It was fastened from the tiny pointed collar to the waist where it parted slightly to fall over the full bouffant skirt of the dress. Her finger-tip-length veil of illusion net edged with sequins and rhinestones was held in place by a tiara of pearls and rhinestones. She wore a double strand necklace of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the groom and her bouquet was of red roses.

Miss Joyce Barclay and Mrs. Mildred Elliott, sisters of the bride, were attendants. Joyce wore a ballerina-length dress of nylon net over taffeta with a matching net bolero complemented with a matching headdress and gloves. Her jewelry was a yellow necklace, a gift of the bride, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Mrs. Mildred chose a pink ballerina-length dress of nylon lace over satin with a matching net bolero, headdress and gloves. She wore a blue necklace, gift of the bride, and carried a bouquet of blue Esther Reeds.

The groom was attended by his brother, George Barlow, and the bride's brother-in-law, Gerald Powell. Gerald also ushered the guests to their pews, as did the groom's brother Jack. They received gifts of the clips from the groom.

During the signing of the register Miss Shirley McCormick sang "The Wedding Prayer."

Following the ceremony an open reception was held in the Legion hall. To receive the guests the bride's mother chose a pale blue crepe dress with an overlay of lace on the skirt. She wore navy and pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother was attired in a two-piece flowered crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake placed on a white lace tablecloth and set in white tulle. Vases of pink roses and white candles flanked the cake on either side. The guests were served by friends of the bride and groom.

After the wedding cake was cut Mrs Laird sang "Because". George Martin proposed the toast to the bride and the groom fittingly replied.

Miss Gail Goddard was in charge of the guest book which was signed by over one hundred guests. A congratulatory telegram was received from the bride's relatives in New Westminster, B.C., and was read by the best man.

Before departing on their honeymoon, the bride changed into a charcoal suit with rose and panama accessories, a corsage of carnations. On their return the young couple will reside on the groom's farm south of Vermilion.

Out-of-town guests were Mr and Mrs. J. Laird and Miss Joyce Barclay of Edmonton; Mr and Mrs. S. Cooper, Bert and Edward Cooper of Archerwill, Sask.

WILDMERE WINKS

Lloyd Howard is the first in our corner to cut grain. He has a big field of seed barley cut and stooked.

Everyone got quite a scare when the weather turned cool last week but in our part at least there was very little damage done by frost. We hope Jack Frost holds off for awhile yet.

We are very pleased to report that Mrs. Rendell's tea cloth has been found. The W.W.I. heartily thanks everyone for their kind co-operation in finding it.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers (nee Louise Stone) and we wish them a long and happily married life.

Congratulations to the grade 9 students of Preston Central who have successfully passed. Those we have heard of are Mary Gibson, Betty and Marie Smith, Doreen Martin, Arlene Newman and Kenneth Graham. This leaves Doris Fadden and Alice Clark to hear from and we wish them good luck too.

On Thursday evening Norman Smith of Edmonton drove down by car to Wildmere to get his daughter Dianna who had spent three weeks visiting with her cousins, the Cruthers children. Little Dianna will start to school this fall.

Mrs. J. Wilson attended the Rogers-Stone wedding at Auburndale United church on Saturday afternoon and reports a very lovely wedding.

On Sunday afternoon the Cruthers family of Wildmere and the Gibson family of Basswood were in to the Vermilion park. They celebrated Wendy Cruthers' and Isabelle Gibson's birthdays with a picnic supper there.

On Sunday evening the children attending Church Vacation school held service at Wildmere church with Maureen Cruthers in the pulpit. They all did wonderfully well in taking parts of the service. It's nice children can get good training like that. Mr. Smith heartily thanked the children, the leaders Janet Cruthers, Mary Gibson, Lela and Helen Newman, Clara Green, Valarie Vletch and Betty Smith who so faithfully helped him at the vacation school also Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines who very kindly supplied a hot cooked dinner on Saturday to the children at Basswood Community hall. What the children had made was on display for their parents and friends to see. Each article was highly treasured by the little folk. Well done children, we are all proud of your work.

Please note that church service will be at 7:30 in the evening and not 3:00 in the afternoon as stated last week. Rev. MacKay will be out to hold Communion and Baptismal service, so plan to attend.

On Sunday Bill and Adam Smith accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cruthers and baby son of town visited at the Ort Strome home north of town. Adam showed his pictures in the evening.

Mrs. Roy Dibben of Basswood has her cousin Mrs. Harding and three children visiting her for a few days.

Where are you keeping yourself these days Mrs. Moore? Have not seen you in town for a long while.

The writer had a nice chat with Mrs. Riley at her home in town on Saturday evening. She is slowly getting over her tumble down the basement steps when she injured her neck.

Cool as a breeze for warm summer afternoons and evenings is this flowered print dress in crisp shades of blue. The dress featuring the cowl neckline and low waistline so popular with the young set is made of 100 per cent "Terylene" the new wrinkle-resistant fibre now being produced in Canada. An ideal companion for a garden party is the ever-popular pinwheel hat this time repeating the floral design of the dress. Dress by Jonathan Logan. Hat by Irene of Montreal.

1,200 Die Yearly In Small Boat Accidents

Most of the 1,200 victims who, each year, lose their lives in accidents involving small boats are in the 20-24 age group, according to a report from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company received by the Health League of Canada.

A study revealed that, in addition to the greater number of men who die, nearly three out of every five insured persons who drowned were fishing: one quarter of the victims were cruising, rowing or canoeing for pleasure; one tenth were duck hunting, and an almost equal proportion were playing on rafts—these were practically all boys under 15.

Circumstances surrounding the deaths make a list of safety violations to be avoided by small boat users.

Small boats turned over when occupants stood up or shifted positions in the craft.

Overloading was responsible for a number of deaths.

Dangerous practices such as speeding, sharp turns and horseplay.

Numbers of the victims could not swim. In some instances they were alone or with fellow passengers, also non-swimmers.

Physical weakness or impairment.

Sudden squalls or treacherous currents added to the toll.

Motor-driven craft, largely outboard, were listed in three-fifths of the drownings; rowboats in one-fifth; canoes and rafts in virtually all the others. Sailboats, despite the popularity of sailing, appeared in the records of only two death claims.

Son of Kitscoty Lady Weds Calgary Girl in Victoria, B.C.

In an afternoon ceremony, July 14, in First Baptist Church, Victoria, Ruth Marion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hall, Calgary, became the bride of Kenneth Gordon Forster of Victoria, son of Mrs. Helen Forster, Kitscoty, and the late Mr. Earl Forster.

Rev. G. R. Easter performed the ceremony, which took place before a background of white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and white and mauve stocks with fern. The guest pews were marked with white carnations tied with white ribbons. R. Kroeger played traditional wedding music and Miss Georgina Harper sang "Blessed Wedding Day" before the ceremony, and "O Perfect Love" during the signing ofthe register.

The bride was gowned in white lace over net and taffeta styled in ballerina length with three quarter length sleeves and a scalloped neckline inset with nylon lace. The fitted bodice featured a dropped waistline with a full skirt. She carried a white Bible topped with a gardenia and tied with ribbons knotted with roses. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a sequin studded headband. Her jewellery was a double strand of pearls and a gold watch, the gift of the groom. She was attended by her twin sister, Mrs. Ruby Fleming, as matron of honor, and Miss Judy Fleming, her niece, was flower girl. Mrs. Fleming wore a turquoise gown identical in style to that of the bride. Her floral headdress was of yellow and pink carnations and she carried a shower bouquet of the same kind of flowers. Miss Fleming wore a pink nylon sleeveless dress, with sweet peas in her hair, and she carried a basket of white carnations and roses. Best man was Norman Wilson and the ushers were Robert Fleming and Clifford Mason.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hall chose an afternoon frock of navy with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a rose pink taffeta dress with navy and pink accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed at 721 Courtney street where a three-tiered wedding cake, brought from Calgary by the bride's mother, was set on a large mirror and centred the bride's table. Turquoise tulle dotted with rose buds encircled the cake, and white candles completed the table arrangement.

Telegrams of congratulation were read. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Helen Forster and Miss June Forster from Kitscoty; Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Murphy, Arthur and Ellery, Grande Prairie.

Leaving for a honeymoon trip down the Pacific Coast, the bride wore a gold and navy printed silk dress, with navy fitted coat, navy accessories and a gardenia corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Forster will live at 2415 Quadra street, Victoria, B.C.

Men Who Make Alberta

THE CORNER GROCER

The corner grocer is an affectionate mystery of modern distribution and management. Year after year, the venture goes on supporting a family and serving a community. Occasionally a wholesaler has to be lenient, but, in recent years, the corner grocer has increased his volume, learned how to cut expenses, and put a few dollars away in reserve. He makes a living, sometimes a good one, and seldom complains about the long hours.

He laughs at his own troubles, and lends a sympathetic ear to the customers chit-chat about politics, children and the weather.

The corner grocer "belongs"; he's rooted deep in the community, paying his bills even if he sometimes neglects to pay himself. His margin for error is small but he manages to survive from year to year — holding the respect of customer, supplier and community in general.

Newly-Weds To Live In Edmonton

DOLLINGER — KEMBER

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Holy Name Catholic church, Vermilion, at 10:00 a.m. Saturday August 4, when Eleanor the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kember of Vermilion became the bride of Peter Dollinger of Lloydminster. The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Landrigan of Vermilion.

The church altar was decorated with bouquets of assorted flowers. The wedding march was played by the church organist as the bride entered walking down the aisle with her father. She looked charming in a floor-length gown of white nylon over taffeta. The matching jaunty bolero had lily point sleeves, and her fingertip-length veil of illusion net was held in place by a white crown with sequins. The bride carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and orchids, also a white prayer book, a gift of the groom.

Maid of honor was Miss Kay Winterhalt of Vanity, Sask. who chose a floor-length gown of blue net over taffeta with matching blue lace bolero and blue shoulder-length nylon veil held in place by a white crown with sequins. The bride carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and orchids, also a white prayer book, a gift of the groom.

Bridesmaid was Miss Elaine Kember, sister of the bride. She was dressed identically to the maid of honor.

Best man was Ed. Dollinger, brother of the groom, wore a soft brown afternoon dress with attractive white hat and shoes. Shania mums, worn as corsage, completed her ensemble.

During the signing of the register by the church choir sang appropriate songs. There was soft music played throughout the ceremony by the church organist which created a beautiful atmosphere for the occasion.

A reception was held at the Brunswick hotel for thirty-two guests. The bride's table was centred with vases of cut flowers, and a three-tiered wedding cake baked by the bride's mother, and decorated by the bride and her attendant.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Father Landrigan and very fittingly replied to by the groom.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. W. Kemple and her son, Mich Keller and small daughter Sylvia, Mrs. Kiepert, all of Victoria, B.C.; Miss Betty Kiester of Morinville, Mr. and Mrs. Isslinger, Mr. and Mrs. Art Isslinger, of Onoway; Mr. and Mrs. P McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gardiner of Edmonton.

For their honeymoon at Banff the bride changed into a grey tailored suit and wore a white orchid corsage. On their return the newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton. The bride will continue with her nursing career at the General hospital in Edmonton.

"TIRE RIPS"

By JIM BRABAN

Two pint-sized prospectors making like Long John Silver and Captain Kid, on the verge of finding Buried Treasure, when they tangled with a couple of hoodlums over "stirring their colors" when they tangled being what is commonly known as fisticuffs.

The two small boys had launched their vessel, which was a hastily constructed raft, on the treacherous waters of Beaver Basin one summer afternoon when the tide was going out. Their waters are very treacherous when they start to ebb. Although they appear to be very still, they are actually moving out to sea quite rapidly. In this case the tide had the small craft completely in its grip and was moving merrily out towards when the pair of adventurers spotted the two hoodlums.

Naval authorities at Halifax were alerted, and a helicopter from the H.M.C.S. Shearwater, Canada's new R.N. was dispatched to capture the two novice seamen.

When the two officers arrived on the scene the pilot eased up the situation and realized it would be impossible to land on the deck of the raft as the added weight would surely capsize it to ship. The boys at this time were far more interested in the aircraft, than in any prediction that they might have been in.

The quick thinking pilot decided to use the wind created by his rotor blades. He hovered just above each on one side of the raft and the helicopter blew it ashore

Once the lads were on the beach a sailor was lowered from the air craft by means of a basket and he hastened each boy in turn to the wire and they were hoisted back up to the helicopter. Back at the naval base at Halifax they were returned to their parents.

The youngsters were greatly thrilled by the events of the afternoon. They had learned one lesson though to be piratee terrorizing the Spanish Main, and had wound up playing Space Cadet Famous Trichologist Will Demonstrate How To Grow Thicker Hair and Guarantees It!

DEMONSTRATION TO BE HELD HERE

This new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Vermilion, Alberta on Friday ONLY, August 24th.

Those private individual demonstrations will be held at the Brunswick Hotel on Friday ONLY.

LONDON, Ontario. — In an interview here today William L. Keele, internationally famous trichologist and President of the Keele Hair Experts, Ltd., said: "There are 16 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense a person must realize no one tonic or so-called cure-all could correct all the disorders," he explained.

GUARANTEED

"The Keele firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offer a guarantee," Keele said.

Once a person avails himself of the Keele treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days your money will be returned."

BOWLING CAPS DISCHARGED

First the Trichologist is quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the hopeless cases are few. Only if a man is completely, utterly bald is he in this last category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin or colorless, the Keele treatment can probably help the fuzz on the added weight would surely pull it to the floor. The boys at this time were far more interested in the aircraft, than in any prediction that they might have been in.

Be sure to see Mr. Keele personally and no appointment is necessary. After the examination the client is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost.

NO CUT-BACK

"We have no cure-all for slick shiny baldness." Keele emphasizes, "and there is little or no hope at all for those who are completely bald on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

HIS TIN LIZZIE

"If clients follow our directions during treatment and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives," Keele said. "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment. It all depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules."

HOW'S YOUR HAIR?

If it worries you call Trichologist George Cole at the Brunswick Hotel in Vermilion, Alta. on Friday ONLY, August 24th

You do not need an appointment. The examinations are private and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way. Both men and women are welcome. —Adv.

Sid Gurney Finds Oddity In Wood Pile

Sid Gurney, well known Kokane district farmer found this oddity while sawing up wood recently. Apparently a branch of the tree had caught in the larger branch above it and during the years grew right into the tree trunk, forming a natural graft.

Sid claims that this is nature's way of making handles and that there are so many other ways of heating and cooking these days that Mother Nature's magnificent natural handles for easier picking up of the firewood.

The photo was taken by Tony Korpel. The stick of poplar wood is on display at the Standard office and has caused a lot of conjecture as to just how the singular graft happened.

Public Reception

Fine Farm Home Burns Near Dewberry

The fine farm home belonging to Mr. E. B. Walker and family located 7 miles north of Dewberry, was completely destroyed by fire last Thursday morning; Aug. 23rd. The fire broke out at 9 a.m. apparently in the basement and quickly engulfed the whole structure. So fast did the flames spread that not a thing was saved.

The house, practically new, was regarded as one of the best in the whole area. It was large, fully modern with built-in garage, and very finely finished.

The loss was only partially covered by insurance and will be very heavy as all personal belongings were lost along with the home.

Primary Placements Appear This Week

If you are just starting to school or are in one of the grade 2 classrooms you will find your teacher is the same one you had last year. In this issue of your Standard you will be the pupil cannot read this, but his father, mother, big brother or sister can.

Choice Cattle Shipped From Dewberry

DEWBERRY — This district is certainly producing choice cattle, as ten carloads of top grade beef have been shipped from Dewberry within the past week. Many of these cattle have been catching the top market and brought $22.20 per hundred.

Joe Mergl, well known Dewberry district cattle buyer, personally marketed 42 head of heifers which were shipped straight to the eastern market at the Toronto stockyards last fall and has kept them loose in his pasture all winter and even since $18.25 per hundred clear was realized on these heifers.

Many of the Dewberry district are excellent with no damage reported with the exception of some sledging due to the very heavy stand.

FROM SEA TO SEA—

This week, down in Quebec province, "Canada's biggest family party" is being held.

It first got its name when it was tagged in Toronto in 1954, and the label has stuck.

Attending the "party" are close to 300 persons mostly members and their wives of the world's biggest press association - the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association.

Canada has close to 800 non-metropolitan weekly, twice-weekly and tri-weekly papers and the large majority of them pay dues, ranging up to $75 per year to support their national newspaper association. In Ontario alone there are over 280 weeklies.

It is true that the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association has a few economic objectives and is concerned to some extent with the over $25 million of advertising and printing its members produce each year. But primarily it lives simply for the promotion of Canadianism.

Although its head offices are in Toronto the Association's annual convention is held each year in a different part of Canada. This year it is in Quebec. In 1957 it will be Banff, Alberta; in 1958, Halifax. And to these conventions come the publishers and editors of not only the bigger journals but the little ones too, the Fundy Fisherman of Blacks' Harbor, the Fort Saskatchewan Record, the Altona Red River Valley Echo, the Fort Qu'Appelle Valley Legend, the Osoyoos Times and the Similkameen Spotlight — names as picturesque and as Canadian as Canada itself.

At their conference tables and their after-hour discussions editors of English, French and foreign language papers, men and women from rugged Newfoundland fishing villages, from Prairie grain lands and from industrial centres in Ontario, each year re-discover the common ties that bind them and their communities into a Canada that is truly one Dominion from sea to sea.

Unsubsidized by government, little heralded in the Massey reports, and seldom probed by sociologists, we wonder if there is any single factor which looms larger in the development of a Canadian culture than the annual get-together of the weekly newspapers of this land. This year's Alouette convention at Murray Bay will be their 37th.

CARE IN HARVESTING IMPORTANT

One of the factors that lowers the grade of wheat, oats, and barley is the soundness of the kernel. If damaged, broken, peeled or hulled, the price immediately drops.

Therefore, when threshing or combining special care should be given to cylinder and concave settings and cylinder speed, R. Pharis, Supervisor of Alberta's Crop Improvement Services tells us. All equipment should be kept in good repair. Carelessness at this stage can mean damage to the kernel.

It's rather interesting why damaged or hulled kernels bring a reduction in price. With regard to barley and the malting process, only a very high grade of grain is used. Broken or hulled kernels either do not germinate or fail to sprout uniformly.

Eastern importing countries require first quality barley when using it as a rice substitute. Evidently whole sound kernels produce a more uniform, desirable product when pressed.

The farmer who produces a fine crop and takes care harvesting it can obtain a top grade which will net him 3 to 14 cents more per bushel. Top quality grain merits top pay and it increases our foreign markets.

"THE TIPS"

By JIM BRAHAN

Ingenuity and a high sense of humor seem to be born into the men who follow the sea for their livelihood.

Take the case of the Canadian sailor during the Second World War who hoodwinked the Halifax City Police for a couple of days in to believing him to be an Eskimo.

The sailor had overstayed his leave and knew it was only a matter of time until he would be picked up by the Naval Shore Patrol. To give the patrolmen a good run for their money he dolled himself up like an Eskimo, including the sealskin jacket and high topped moccasins, and ventured out onto the Halifax streets.

However before he met any navy guardsmen he was picked up by the Halifax police for some minor misdemeanor and held in custody until he could appear in court the following morning.

A friend who was with the 'Eskimo' at the time of his arrest, explained his mate could not speak English, and his name was Cargit Resolution Island, of Baffin Island, N.W.T. The reason he did not have the facial features of his stated race was because of his being the son of a white trapper and an Eskimo mother.

The police court was packed with spectators. It seemed everybody wanted a glimpse of the man from the Frozen North. With his friend acting as interpreter the 'Eskimo' answered all questions in a gobbledy-gook language which none but his pal could understand.

Every few minutes the 'Eskimo' would bark out something unintelligible. The interpreter would claim the man in sealskins had asked for a cup of coffee. His wish would be granted and court resumed.

After innumerable cups of coffee, an RCMP Sergeant who had spent many years in the North, and who could speak most Eskimo dialects, denounced the 'Eskimo' as a phony.

The 'Eskimo' with a twinkle in his eye chucked in the towel and admitted who he really was. The court then turned him over to the Naval authorities to answer charges of why he had overstayed his leave without permission. But the people of Halifax had had a good laugh, and when a city in wartime can laugh the value is immeasurable.

At the foundry of The McKinnon Industries, Ltd., Grantham Township, Ontario, over 1,000,000 cubic feet of air are moved every minute for ventilating, dust collecting and cooling systems.

"In recent years, interest has been stimulated by the discovery of laboratory procedures which provide better means of identifying the causative agents of the common cold. The progress made in this area enhances the prospect of developing effective vaccines and new methods of therapy."

"GREEN ACRES"

SOIL BANK IN U.S.

One of the means taken in the United States to reduce surplus build-ups of cotton, wheat, etc., is to bonus farmers for seeding down land to grass. Anyone in this country raising grass or alfalfa seed is going to get in on the sale of seed to the U.S. The price will no doubt be quite high and the demand will be there for two or three years. In this district we have been pretty slack in using grass seed as a special crop but here is another chance.

SPRAYING FOR LICE

Most of the cattle in this area seem to get thoroughly infested with lice before spring. Even on good feed these cattle get thin which shows the losses caused by lice sucking out the blood. Spraying in the fall is becoming a common practice in some parts of Alberta. Why not form a group of cattle raisers in your area to buy a power sprayer? Particulars and price lists are available from this office.

SAVING STRAW

There is lots of straw in this area but there will not be enough to go around unless some means is worked out to gather up combine straw. Bunchers and straw carriers can be bought or made to pick up the straw. Then the farm hand can quickly slip the bunches into stacks.

HARVESTING ONIONS

Onion stalks should be broken over by this time so that growth stops and the onions have a chance to ripen before harvest. As a matter of fact onions ought to be pulled now and dried for a few days in the hot sun before storing in a dry place for the winter.

DIVIDING PEONIES

Peony roots several years old should be divided and replanted by Sept 20th. The crown should not be covered with more than two inches of soil. Do not get manure near the roots. The manure could be buried a few inches below the peony roots. Bone meal is a fine fertilizer for peonies.

SEEDING FALL RYE

Fall rye should be sown between Sept. 1 and 10. Newly threshed rye is good for seeding.

Radio Farm Forum Committee Held Meeting At Vegreville

Mr. Jim McFall, Provincial Secretary of the Alberta Radio Farm Forum attended the meeting of the Northern Committee which was held August 26th at the Prince Edward Hotel, Vegreville, and brought a summary of the special June meeting together with revised Directives to Council and Committee members. Mr. Stewart Eyben has been asked to be vice-chairman and second Council member until the Spring Rally.

The Regional Workshop is to be held at Saskatoon October 9th to 13th but committee members did not see where it would be possible to recruit candidates for the course at such early dates, but would watch for special circumstances that may permit someone to attend. The Banff Workshop, dates November 7th, 8th and 9th, promises to be most interesting and all Farm Forum members are invited to solicit applications for attendance.

With regards to a local Workshop the committee gave support to Mr. Dan Giebelhaus to try and organize one, in co-operation with the Exhibition Board, the F.U.A. to be held preferably during January.

The goal of 41 new groups was accepted as an objective and it was agreed that two special nights be publicized, namely November 19th and January 7th, that a very concerted effort through all possible channels be made on these nights. In the organization of groups, it was agreed that a permanent chairman as well as secretary, be appointed in order to receive mail and get information to groups.

Bride And Groom Exchange Rings At Mannville Ceremony

DOWDELL—HAMILTON

An attractive summer wedding was solemized at the McQueen United church, Mannville, on Tuesday, August 21st at three o'clock in the afternoon when Miss Sheila Eileen Hamilton became the bride of Mr. Lyle Cameron Dowdell. The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar graced with baskets of gladioli and sweet peas.

The date chosen for the happy event was the 33rd wedding anniversary of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dowdell, and the 81st birthday of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. W. Hamilton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hamilton of Mannville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dowdell of Vermilion. Rev. Ian Helter performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a white cystalette ballerina - length gown with hand tucked bodice. With this she wore a bolero and mittens. A coronet headdress of sequins and pearls held in place her shoulder-length veil of illusion net. Her trailing bouquet was of red roses and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

As her sister's bridesmaid Miss Audrey Hamilton wore a ballerina-length gown of pink crystalette with ruching around the bodice, a short bolero and matching headdress. Her flowers were kokomo carnations and her jewelry a black diamond necklace, gift of the bride.

Mr. Keith Dowdell attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Mr Stuart Bothwell, uncle of the bride, and Mr William Elechko.

The wedding music was played by Miss Betty Proudfoot. During the signing of the register she rendered "O Perfect Love" on the organ very beautifully.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered cake set in tulle and flanked by pink tapers and vases of cut flowers. Presiding at the coffee and tea urns were Mrs. J. L. Dowdell, mother of the groom, and and Mrs. R. W. Hamilton, grandmother of the bride.

The serviteurs were Sharon Miller and Donna Cooper, cousins of the bride, Shirley Besse, Donna Hanning and Margaret Seward.

Little Miss Lois Cooper of Vermilion, a cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Ashley Cooper and fittingly responded to by the groom. Several telegrams of best wishes to the newlyweds were read by the best man, Mr. Keith Dowdell.

For the special occasion, Mrs. Hamilton, mother of the bride, wore a rose grey dacron afternoon dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Dowdell, mother of the groom, chose an afternoon dress of pink linen, with pink and blue accessories. Her flowers were pink sweetheart roses.

For their honeymoon trip to the mountains the bride changed to a blue linen box suit with white accessories, and wore a corsage of red roses. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Dowdell will reside in their new home in Vermilion.

Out-of-town guests present at the happy event were Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Miller, Sharon and Stewart, and Miss Margaret Broadfoot, all of West Vancouver, B.C.; Mr. Clifford Hamilton of Dewberry; Mrs. A. L. McCallum, Edmonton; Misses Margaret Seward and Shirley Besse of Kitscoty; Mr Billy Elechko and Mr Albert Terry of Edmonton.

Students from 46 states of the United States, Canada, Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, France, Germany, and New Zealand are enrolled in co-operative programs at General Motors Institute, Flint, Michigan.

The Cold War Progressing

Some surprising facts have emerged concerning the common cold, according to a release from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, received by the Health League of Canada.

Colds are more frequent among women than men, and children have more colds than adults. Furthermore, adults in families in which there are young children have more colds than those in families where there are only older children. The common cold is the leading cause of absenteeism reported among elementary school children, and this includes the little angels who come up with a special cold on the day when a tough exam is scheduled.

The five year period from 1951 to 1955 shows a seasonal pattern: a rise in the incidence of colds from a minimum in summer or early fall to a peak in midwinter, followed by a rapid decline to a level which approached the minimum level by late spring.

These five-year data relate to the recorded experience of the Navy and Marine Corps, which goes to show that the common cold is just as lethal for rugged marines and sailors as anyone else.

The statisticians, after confessing that until recently, research on colds had been desultory because the possibility of its control seemed dubious, came up with a ray of hope.

Louise Stone Married Last Saturday In Auburndale Church

The Auburndale United church, decorated with baskets of gladioli, delphinium [redacted] dahlias, was the [redacted] for a lovely summer wedding on Saturday, August 18th, when Isabel Louise, daughter of Mr and Mrs Alex G. Stone of Buffalo Coulee became the bride of Lawrence George Rodgers, son of Mr and Mrs W G Rodgers of Liverpool, England. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C W MacKay. The guests were ushered to pews marked with sweet peas tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a white floor-length gown styled with a long waisted French lace bodice with stand-up petal collar and lily point sleeves. The full skirt was of silk organza. Her fingertip-length veil was held in place by a bandeau style headdress, both of which were trimmed with iridescent sequins. Her only jewelry was small pearl earrings and an onyx bar pin which had belonged to her grandmother Stone. She carried a trailing bouquet of red sweetheart roses.

Miss Doreen Stone was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Audrey Symes, the bridesmaid. Miss Alayne Stone, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, with little Miss Janice Bang, niece of the bride, acting as flower girl. The bridesmaids [redacted] identically styled cocktail-[redacted] gowns of embroidered taffeta in colors of aqua, yellow and apricot, with full [redacted] and cummerbund sashes of matching plain taffeta. Their headdresses were [redacted] bandeaux and their identical bouquets were of trailing yellow daisies centred with white [redacted]. The flower girl wore a [redacted] styled waltz-length dress of white embroidered organdy with a bandeau of yellow daisies. She carried a basket of yellow and blue daisies.

The [redacted] attendants were William [redacted] and Peter Wright, both of Edmonton.

Mrs Alf Green was the organist and Blaine Smith sang "Soft Were Your Hands" before the entrance of the bridal party. After the spoken prayer during the ceremony Mr Smith sang "The Wedding Prayer". Tom Watts was the soloist during the [redacted] the register singing "I'll [redacted] You".

To receive the guests at the garden party reception on [illegible] and beautifully landscaped lawn, the bride's mother chose a crystalline gown in shades of grey and blue complemented with black accessories and pink roses en corsage. The bride's [illegible] laid with a lace cloth, was centred with the wedding cake, surrounded by pink tulle and sweetheart roses. Several subsidiary tables were decorated with bouquets of sweet peas.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. William [illegible], Miss Laura Allyn and Mrs. R. Bang poured tea. The guest book was in charge of Miss Elsie Yewchuk. Alf Green proposed the toast to the bride which was fittingly responded to by the groom.

For their honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast the bride wore a black [illegible]

WILDMERE WINKS

Through the kindness of our student minister, Mr. Smith, Mrs. Cruthers, Mrs Holte and Mrs. Wallington were able to attend the Little-Eyben wedding last Wednesday afternoon. The Auburndale church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A large crowd attended, filling the church to overflowing. Grace made a lovely bride. She was attended by her sister Mrs Samuelson (Ruby). Rev. Mather of Vegreville performed the wedding ceremony. After the wedding a reception was held at the bride's home where many gathered to offer best wishes. The happy couple received many useful gifts. Mr and Mrs. Little left on their honeymoon amid a lot of cheers and the rattle of tin cans that were tied on to their car. May this young couple enjoy many years of happiness. We forgot to mention that Mr Smith sang a solo while the register was being signed.

Mrs. G Gibson of Cloverdale, B.C. and her two grandchildren Kenny and Berna Schroeder are here visiting her son Frank and family of Basswood, also her daughter Mrs. Erle Madill of town.

Mrs. Gibson, Kenny and Berna have been to Manitoba where they visited her two sons Don and Howard and a daughter Mrs. Keast. While there another daughter Mrs. York and three children came from Finnigan, Alberta. Mr Gibson is still in Manitoba helping to take off the harvest. We were pleased to see Mrs Gibson looking so well, also pleased to see Kenny and Berna as their parents are well known in our corner, both having lived here for many years.

While at the wedding, among the many people the writer met was a lady who was born and raised in Auburndale in the person of Ruth Delainey (nee Arthur), Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arthur's youngest daughter. Ruth now has four children and makes her home in Portland, Ore. She told the writer to keep on with the 'Winks' as her dad sends the paper on to her and she reads every bit of it. We'll do our best Ruth.

On Sunday Rev. MacKay held Communion service at the Wildmere church. He gave a very interesting sermon on the "Yoke of Christ". Rev [redacted] is a nice speaker and the service was enjoyed. Mr. Smith also helped out with the service. Mrs. MacKay accompanied her husband. We were indeed sorry to hear Rev. Langley had passed away at Grimsby, Ont. When he was a student on the north field he exchanged service with our student and spoke in Wildmere on Sunday. May God comfort his [redacted] and three children in their hour of sorrow.

Next Sunday will be our last church service. After the service which will be at 3 o'clock, a social hour will be held. All ladies west of the main road are to bring sandwiches and those on the east side, cake. Plan to attend. We are of course very sorry to see our services come to an end as we have enjoyed having Mr Smith with us very much and wish him success wherever he goes and may he have pleasant memories of his stay in Wildmere.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. Cruthers had nineteen to supper. Besides their own family, Bill and Adam Smith, Wildmere, Mr. and [redacted] G. Cruthers and Murray and [redacted] Marfleet of town, Mr. and [redacted] Bauman, Johnny and Ricky of [redacted]falo Coulee all visited at their [redacted].

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. R. Donly of Triangle on the birth on Sunday of a baby girl, a sister for Elnora, Larry and Diane. She is only a tiny sister, 4 lbs. and 6 ozs.

Mrs. C Cruthers called for a short while at the writer's on Sunday. Ian Clark visited on Monday evening at the Wallington home.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. J. Isley is a patient in the hospital. Also that Mrs. Gow has not been so well again. May both you fine people soon be feeling much better. Sorry, Hazel, to hear of your accident, too. Mrs. Bathe hurt her leg while visiting in Lloydminster. A speedy recovery is wished you.

On Sept. 4th, Margaret Graham, R.N. will be in charge of the Health Unit at Sedgewick, Alberta. Everyone wishes you lots of success, Peggy.

Canadian Utilities Announce Four Important Staff Changes

Mr. J. C. Dale, President and General Manager, has announced several changes affecting Canadian Utilities personnel. Effective Sept. 1st, four men having a combined employment record of ninety-five years will be assigned new posts within the Company.

Basic reason for the changes is the anticipated opening of the Battle River generating station. This plant will provide electric power to both the Vegreville and Drumheller districts, so close co-ordination is necessary. These two areas will now function under one operating head, and there will be a similar amalgamation of the hitherto separate Production departments.

Mr. G. D. O'Brien, a company veteran who has been Vegreville District Manager since 1951, will become Division Manager. In his new post, Mr. O'Brien will be responsible for all policy affecting the combined Drumheller-Vegreville districts. He will soon be moving to the head office of the company in Edmonton.

Production of the power plants at Drumheller, Vermilion, and Battle River will come under the Steam Operations Superintendent, Mr. B. B. Davidson of Drumheller. Mr. Davidson is a steam engineer who was at one time Drumheller Plant Chief. For the past six years he has filled the position of Drumheller District Manager.

The former Assistant District Manager in Drumheller, Mr. G. H. Parker will become Vegreville District Manager. Mr. Parker has been with Canadian Utilities [redacted] formation of the company.

In Drumheller, the post of District Manager will be filled by Mr. H. E. Davies. He has served the company in various capacities in the past, having been Office Manager and Accountant in the Drumheller Office for the past six years.

Many Perils To Children In Modern Home, Says Health Official

The importance of making the home safe for children is stressed by Mrs. Jean M. Wright, assistant director of municipal nursing services for the provincial health department.

Attention to this problem is directed by the Alberta Safety Council which sponsored the province-wide Farm Safety Week, proclaimed by the provincial government.

"I am certain each of us would bristle indignantly if someone told us that our home was not a safe place in which to live," says Mrs. Wright. However, let us look at hazards in all homes which you may not realize are perils to children.

"A home area accident is one in which a child is killed or injured while he is under the general supervision of his parents. The child who drowns in a fish pond, falls from a second storey window, is run over in his own driveway or swallows sleeping pills — these children for example are under the general supervision of their parents. These are home area accidents.

"We are not concerned with the little day-to-day accidents which result in a skinned knee or a split lip or a black eye. We are concerned about the terrible tragedies that prevent an appalling number of our children from growing up or doom them to living death as helpless cripples.

"These day-to-day losses of the lives of children are the major disaster of the 20th century. There is only one heartening thing about this grim situation — these accidents can be prevented. Dr. Harry F. Dietrich, of the Beverly Hills Clinic, senior attending physician at the Los Angeles Children's Hospital and clinical professor of pediatrics at the University of California medical school in Los Angeles, points out:

"No endowed foundation, no research laboratory, and no inspired investigator is going to develop a vaccine, serum, antibiotic, endocrine extract or operation that will prevent child accidents."

Dr. Dietrich places the responsibility squarely on the shoulders of parents and states: "For the prevention of these ghastly disasters, parents do not need money, X-rays, laboratory tests, child psychology books, formal education, doctors or even a telephone. They need only instruction, forethought and effort."

The ultimate responsibility for prevention of these home area accidents to children is yours and mine as adults and parents. No one else can do the job for us. The problem of child accident prevention may seem to be overwhelmingly complex and indeed it does have many variable needs but Dr. Dietrich advances a sound theory for its over-all solution. His theory involves a reciprocal relationship between protection and education, wisely applied by parents.

"Let me summarize our responsibilities as parents for the safety of our children. Firstly, we must PROTECT our children, conducting continuous home hazard hunts to remove dangers that threaten their lives and health. Secondly, we must EDUCATE our children, letting them learn in sometimes painful but never lethal situations," said Mrs. Wright.

FLUORIDATION VOTING

"In the discussions of fluoridation, frequent mention is made of municipal authorities holding referendums on fluoridation. Such action is most undesirable," states a report in the Canadian Journal of Public Health, received by the Health League of Canada.

"It may well be asked how far would chlorination of water have proceeded in 1911 if its value in eliminating typhoid fever was to be determined by a popular vote of the public, who were not in a position to judge the validity of the statements made, both by the supporters and opponents of the measure. How impossible, too, would have been the control of diphtheria toxoid if the public had to decide on the arguments of those opposed to toxoid in any form.

"The question raised is more important than the issue of fluoridation. The Medical Officer of Health is the recognized authority in health matters, and it will be most unfortunate if the responsibility placed in this office by the Public Health Act is overlooked and the votes of the electorate replace a decision based on sane, scientific judgment. The decision must be made on scientific facts and not by public referendum.

"Fluoridation is established as a safe, effective and practical method for reducing very substantially the amount of dental caries," the report concluded.

TRANSFERRED TO YELLOWKNIFE, N.W.T.

Al Carl of the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff, has received notice of his impending transfer to Yellowknife in the N.W.T. Al reports to his northern location on Sept. 10th.

Many former friends of the Rev. Laurence G. Sieber, at one time minister of the First United church, Vermilion, will be interested to learn of his recent appointment to St. Andrew's United Church, Mission City, B.C. Mr. Sieber goes to Mission City from Prince Rupert where he had been pastor of the United church for seven years. Mr. and Mrs. Sieber left here in 1943 when they moved to Revelstoke.

The Standard has in hand a copy of the Fraser Valley Record containing a story of the induction of the Rev L. G. Sieber as minister of the United church there. The attention of the editor was attracted to a picture which had a familiar appearance, which was explained by the name appearing under it, W. E. Jones. He looks much like his brother, Ray Jones of the C.N.R. in Vermilion. The Mr. Jones of Mission City is contesting the mayoralty there in a by-election.

BORN—To Fl.-Lt. and Mrs. Steve Pus at Ottawa on Thursday, August 23rd, a son, Gordon Michael, weight 7 pounds and 8 ounces.

McKENZIE — Born to Dr. and Mrs. Robert McKenzie at Vegreville on Aug 23, 1956, a son, Kevin Douglas, weight 7 pounds, 10½ ounces. A baby brother for Kim.

HERE'S A BIG ONE

Rod Sample has a wonderful garden as a good many people will testify, you have only to walk by it to realize that the garden is unusual. If anyone took the trouble to squint at Rod's tomato vines they would be amazed by the size of the fruit contained thereon. Recently one big red tomato weighed in at one pound and two ounces, picked ripe from the vine. The variety was Oxheart in case anyone wants to try the same kind.

ST SAVIOUR'S W.A.

St. Saviour's W.A. will hold a Dorcas meeting on Thursday, Sept. 6th at 3 p.m. in the parish hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baddock returned recently from a 3500-mile holiday tour which took them first of all to Winnipeg where they were guests of Mr and Mrs Clarence Anderson, formerly of Vermilion for two days. Travelling from there to Ridgeway, Manitoba, near Emerson, they visited Jack's father and mother at the old family home. Fargo, N.D. was the next stop following which a very interesting time was spent walking over the scene of the battle of Custer's Last Stand. The battle is depicted in miniature and the area of hostilities preserved in much its natural state. Incidentally the battle ground is some 40 miles off paved road and 20 miles off a gravelled trail. From there the journey was continued to Great Falls, Montana, through Glacier Park and home. Jack remarked on the very excellent crops seen on the whole journey. Harvesting was completed in North Dakota with a very high grade of wheat threshed.

Mr and Mrs Gale Elliott of Lakehurst, Ontario are in Vermilion this week visiting an uncle Mr. A W Elliott and aunt Mrs. Harry Elliott and other relatives. They plan to leave Saturday for Edmonton, Jasper, Banff and on to the coast. Mr and Mrs. Elliott are travelling by car, and this is their first trip west of the Great Lakes.

They travelled in company with their daughter Miss Jessie Scott of Edmonton. In Banff they called on Mr and Mrs Ken McDonald who are looking very well and who wish to be remembered to all their old friends in Vermilion. At Medicine Hat they were guests at the home of Mr and Mrs Bob Horne and family. Mr Horne is assistant superintendent of the Hat power plant. In Calgary a visit was enjoyed with the Rev and Mrs Doug Ford. Driving over the new Trans Canada highway to the south Mr and Mrs Scott were much impressed by the new road, but were also struck with the fact that the road goes through a rather desolate and misleading part of Alberta as far as the country is concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller and family of Edmonton were guests at the recent Eyben-Little wedding at Auburndale United church.

The sorrow of parting without farewell.

Celebrate 40th Wedding Anniversary

The Edmonton home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Goldsmith was the recent scene of a delightful surprise party as members of their family and friends arrived to wish them well on their fortieth wedding anniversary.

During the evening of happy reminiscence, Mr. Andrew Wilson, Landonville, the couple's best man, delighted the guests by singing an old Scotch wedding ballad. He then posed with the bride and groom of 40 years ago for pictures. Mrs. May Marshall filled in for her sister, now in Vancouver, who had been bridesmaid.

A table was centered with a heart-shaped anniversary cake banked by bouquets of asters and sweet peas and surrounded by gifts. After the cake was cut by the guests of honor, a lovely luncheon was served.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. C. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dorey and Mr. A. Wilson, of Landonville; Mrs. M. Marshall, Calgary; Mrs. I. Goldsmith, Vancouver; Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Cameron, Mr. Russ Lovell and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cameron of Edmonton.

The couple, well known in Landonville and district, were married at Fort Alberta, August 16th, 1916 and farmed ten miles north of Candonald for thirty five years until their retirement in 1951. They now reside at 12007 - 121 St., Edmonton and have four sons and three daughters: Alex, Harry, and Clarence of Landonville, Donald of Edmonton, Mrs. H. Trach and Mrs. W. R. Dorey of Landonville and Mrs. D. Cameron of Edmonton. They have ten grandchildren.

C. U. Staff Farewells District Manager

A large number of Canadian Utilities management and staff and their wives, and lady friends, gathered at the Elks hall Friday evening last to farewell Mr. George O'Brien, the genial Vegreville district manager who is being transferred to head office in the capacity of divisional manager.

The festivities, which were comprised of a cold buffet lunch, refreshments and dance, were arranged by the Vegreville District Employees Association.

Mr. O'Brien was presented with a lazee-boy chair by president Norman Henderson who expressed the good wishes of all present to George and Mrs. O'Brien for the future.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien made suitable replies. The former then introduced Mr. Gordon Parker who is succeeding Mr. O'Brien as the Vegreville district manager of Canadian Utilities.

Among the out-of-town visitors present were Mr. W. J. Lambert, director of Canadian Utilities Ltd., from St. Paul accompanied by his wife; also from St. Paul came Mr. K. J. Wostenholme, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and Mrs. Wostenholme; Mr. and Mrs. J. Demeris, manager of the New Hotel Bonnyville. From Vermilion invited guests were Mayor M. Hill and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Heckbert, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Urquhart, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley H. Cooper.

Rotary Club To Welcome District Governor

The rotary club of Vermilion next Friday, will be host to Harry Hutchings, Governor of the 171 District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the thirty-two Rotary Clubs in Western Saskatchewan, Alberta and Peace River. He will address the local club and confer with President Reg Mitchell, Secretary Tom MacPherson and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

Mr. Hutchings is the proprietor of H. R. Hutchings Mens' Wear in Medicine Hat and is a member and Past President of the Rotary Club of Medicine Hat. He is a native of Alberta and a keen student of Western history. He was elected as a District Governor of Rotary International for the 1956-57 fiscal year at Rotary's 47th Annual Convention in Philadelphia last June. He is one of 249 District Governors supervising the activities of more than 9,100 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 431,000 business and professional executives in 90 countries throughout the free world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, President Reg Mitchell asserted in discussing the Governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Vermilion because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength, President Reg Mitchell added. During the past fiscal year, 351 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 46 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa and the Islands of the Pacific, and seven countries were added to Rotary's roster — Angola, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, the Netherlands, New Guinea, Ruanda-Urundi and Swaziland.

Ball Game Cancelled Last Sunday

Disappointing to a crowd of fans who were on hand for the final, the baseball game scheduled between Vermilion and St. Paul did not materialize last Sunday. Apparently it was called off that morning. No attempt was made to spread news of the cancellation and a crowd of fans sat around waiting for the players of either team to appear.

Finally the Standard reporter drove down town, picked up the information that the game was cancelled and came back to impart the news to the disappointed fans.

Percy Willes Has Fine Display of Fruit

Percy Willes is of the belief that this is a fruit belt, and what's more he can prove it. He had on display last week no less than 12 varieties of fruit, and very fine samples they were too, all grown in his orchard at Claysmore.

The display was comprised of 3 varieties of apples, four kinds of crabapples, four of plums, and one sand cherry.

The biggest apple was a Heyer No. 12, a very good cooker. The Rescue apple crab is small but has a flavor exceeding anything ever tasted before. The Pattie apple crab is another larger variety. The fruit crop in his orchard has been particularly good this summer.

Mead-Bykewich Wedding Solemnized At Vermilion United Church

The First United church, Vermilion, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday, August 7th, when Natalka Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bykewich, and Alan Rock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Mead, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony. Rev. C. W. MacKay, assisted by Dorwell Welsh, performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor-length gown of white nylon net over heavy satin. The lace bolero was decorated with pearl sequins in a floral pattern, and the skirt, inset with lace, was also trimmed with sequins. Her floor-length veil of nylon net fell from a circlet of sequins and pearls, and her bouquet was of American Beauty roses. A pearl necklace and matching drop earrings completed the ensemble.

Miss Nadie Bykewich, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and she wore a waltz-length dress of pink taffeta with [illegible] a lace bolero. As bridesmaid, Miss Marian Mead, sister of the groom, chose a waltz-length dress of sunshine yellow lace, with bolero to match. Bridesmaid Miss Milly Bejusko wore a blue net over taffeta cocktail-length dress, and her bolero was of matching net. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of white roses on a gold background, with trailing lily-of-the-valley on pink ribbons. Their headdresses were of flowers matching the color of the respective dresses.

Little Miss Elaine Bykewich, the niece of the bride, was dainty in an ankle-length, yellow net over taffeta frock, featuring a low neckline.

Attending the groom were Glenn Mead, Leo McCambridge and Ronnie Johnson. Dave Mead and Eddie Bykewich ushered. Master Leonard Bykowski acted as page boy. Mrs. Helen Thorne, aunt of the groom, presided at the organ and Mrs. Laird of Clandonald was the soloist.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue crepe dress with a small hat of soft grey. Her corsage was of red roses. A redingote dress of navy and white, with hat to match, and a corsage of red roses, were worn by the groom's mother.

A telegram of congratulations from the groom's grandmother and great uncle in Ontario was received on the morning of the wedding.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Orange hall at Clandonald, where Miss Barbara Mead, cousin of the groom, was in charge of the guest book, and the Misses Louise and Iris Hanlan, also cousins of the groom, assisted her.

In the evening the bride and groom entertained their many friends and acquaintances at a dance in Columbus hall.

For their honeymoon trip the bride changed to a knubby tweed suit of airforce blue with white flecks. Her hat was pastel pink and white, and her accessories were white.

There were numerous guests at the wedding, relatives and friends of both the bride and groom, who had travelled considerable distances to be present on this happy occasion, and to extend their best wishes in person to the young couple.

Following a short honeymoon trip to the mountains the bride and groom are now at home at Campbell Lake.

Health Unit Notes

TREATMENT OF EPILEPSY

Only a qualified medical practitioner should diagnose and treat epilepsy. X-rays and brain-wave recordings give him additional information about the nature and the possible causes of the seizures. The electro-encephalograph is the machine which measures brain-waves by a simple and painless procedure. Flat metal discs are held against different parts of the head and the brain's own electrical impulses appear as wavy lines on a roll of paper. By studying these lines the doctor is helped in his diagnosis.

Recent medical advance in the treatment of epilepsy by anti-convulsive drugs used under strict medical control can control seizures completely in over 50% of cases and in an additional [illegible], seizures have been checked to such an extent that patients can lead a normal and productive life. It should be noted that treatment is more in the nature of a control than a cure (similar to insulin for diabetes). The medicine is usually taken by mouth and each patient must have his dosage carefully planned by his doctor. To attempt to cure oneself by patent medicines is less effective, more expensive and even dangerous.

Once his medical treatment has been worked out for him, the epileptic is faced with considerable social problems. To the ignorant, an epileptic is simply a "person with fits" who is to be shunned and treated like an inferior being and he may find it difficult to get a job or join in games. This can disturb and depress an epileptic and aggravate his seizures. It is to be hoped that education of the public about the true nature of epilepsy will eliminate these prejudices and get a better deal for epileptics. Too many people still think of epilepsy as an indication of mental inferiority and family "taint" — an attitude which is contrary to the facts. Not only can epileptics hold responsible jobs but they find that physical and mental activity is of great help in overcoming the seizures. It is only in about 5 to 10 per cent of cases that epilepsy is severe enough to require prolonged institutional care. Naturally there are some jobs which should be avoided, such as driving vehicles, working on scaffoldings or anything involving exposure to moving machinery. It has been found that epileptics do not lose any more time at work than others and also have no greater accident rate. It is unfortunate that many employers are unaware of these facts and are unwilling to hire epileptics. A person with epilepsy should be treated as a normal human being who has a handicap which may disappear with proper treatment or continue in milder form.

Epilepsy usually starts in childhood and so more children have epilepsy than any other age group, most cases showing up in the first two years of life. It is important that an epileptic child lead as normal a life as possible and that the parents do not try to do too much or over-protect him as though he were a semi-invalid. A full and happy active schedule rather than a guarded, isolated existence will actually decrease the severity and frequency of the seizure and will help to ensure that the child grows up into an emotionally mature adult. There is no reason why an epileptic child under proper medical care cannot attend a regular school and it is healthy for them to have the companionship of other children of their own age. They do not get hurt at school any more than any other children, and other pupils are not disturbed over seeing a seizure if they know that epilepsy is a disease but not contagious. It is only in severe cases that parents will have to make special arrangements for schooling at home or in special classes. A common sense approach to what the child may or may not do at home and at school should be worked out in consultation with the family doctor.

Work On Gas Pipeline Is Progressing

The smoke of battle has cleared away at Ottawa (for the time being, anyway) and work is progressing on the controversial Trans-Canada natural gas pipeline.

With every mile of pipe placed in the ground Premier Manning's government comes closer to realizing its fond dream of finally finding an expert market for this province's surplus gas.

Two contracting firms are on the job working eastward through Saskatchewan from the Alberta border, and at last reports about 60 miles of line had been laid. So far Trans-Canada has only 125 miles of pipe. The recent U.S. steel strike raised complications, but if all goes well there will be more pipe available when the current supply runs out.

According to the construction schedule, the line is supposed to reach Winnipeg and Brandon this winter. At this point no one seems to know whether it will or not.

The company which will supply gas to Brandon consumers has quoted Trans-Canada as saying gas will not be delivered until the summer of 1957. This has been denied by Trade Minister Howe. About all the public can do is be content to wait.

Canadians Demand More Driving Aids

WINDSOR. — Canadians, according to one of the country's leading automobile manufacturers, are demanding more and more of the "extras" in their cars this year.

These include such items as automatic transmissions controlled by push-buttons, power brakes, power steering, V-8 engines and even the power-operated seats and window lifts.

According to Chrysler of Canada statisticians, their new car sales have disclosed an increasing demand for all of these items.

In the low-priced lines, the push-button automatic transmission was installed in 40 per cent of all orders received this year, compared with 21 per cent in the 1955 models. Demand for V-8 engines rose from 17 per cent to around 44 per cent.

Full-time coaxial power steering and power brakes are especially popular with Canadians buying the medium-priced lines. Demand for power steering accounted for 31 per cent of all cars in this group compared with 21 per cent in 1955 models while power brakes were stipulated for 40 per cent of vehicles in this series as against 21 per cent for the 1955 models. The V8 engine and push-button automatic transmission are standard equipment in this line.

In the higher-priced models, power steering was demanded by a large majority of purchasers ranging from 83 to 97% of all orders, with power brakes being specified for more than half of the cars ordered in these series.

Increases were also noted for cars equipped with power-operated seats and windows, although these are still in relatively small demand.

Wheat Pool Picnic At Paradise Valley

Over 400 people turned out on Sunday, Aug. 5th to attend a Wheat Pool picnic at Paradise Valley. This is organized annually by Parke Dobson, Wheat Pool delegate from sub-district 502, with the aid of the several Wheat Pool committees in his territory, and Milo Fleming, Vermilion fieldman.

Wheat Pool members from all over the sub-district attend and meet their fellow members and officials and discuss the affairs of the Pool. Many were disappointed this year when no director was able to be present.

Soft ball, games and refreshments added to the social enjoyment. Both young and old endorsed the delegate's idea of bringing the members of his sub-district together once a year and say they are looking forward to next year's picnic. —Wheat Pool Budget.

New Bridge Over Athabasca River Officially Opened August 15th

The end of one era, and the start of another was marked on Wednesday August 15, at Fort Assiniboine, with the official opening of the three-quarters of a million dollar bridge over the Athabaska. Opening of the new structure before a crowd of more than 2000 people, by the Hon Gordon Taylor Minister of Highways, marked the end of service for historic Fort Assiniboine ferry. The ferry has been in operation continuously since 1908, and stopped for the last time at 3 p.m. when the bridge was formally declared open.

Construction of the 850 foot long, through-truss bridge was started in the fall of 1954. All work with the exception of the two-lane concrete deck, which was placed by contract, was done by the provincial department of highway's bridge crew.

Officiating at the opening ceremonies were The Honorable Gordon E. Taylor, Minister of Highways, The Honorable R. D. Jorgenson, M.L.A. Minister of Public Welfare, Charles Yuill, M.P. A. Frame Deputy Minister of Highways, Vic McCune, Asst. Chief Bridge Engineer, F. C. Harvey, Supt. Bridge Engineer, J. H. Johnston Chief Maintenance Engineer.

The bridge built of steel and set on three reinforced concrete piers, and two abutments has four spans, three 200 feet long and one 250 feet. It is located on Highway 18 immediately below the junction of the Athabaska and Freeman Rivers and ½ mile upstream of the settlement at [illegible].

The locale has an historic past. Thousands who were lured to the north-west by thoughts of gold and fortune found their way through this country on the "Trail of '98." country on the "Trail of '98"

Edmonton was the congregating point for those struck with gold fever. Trainload after trainload of fortune hunters flooded the city and organized pack trains for the overland trek to Dawson City. Many never reached their destination for the route was rough and rugged and had to be travelled mostly in winter on ice of various waterways.

Leaving the end of the railway, the groups would forge northwest through St. Albert, Paddle River, across the Athabaska at Fort Assiniboine and hence to Peace River, Fort St. John, Laurier Pass, Fort Graham, Liard Post and Dawson Creek. The trip took over twelve months.

One of the most heartbreaking hills that tried the [illegible] ingenuity even of old timers was at the crossing of the Athabaska at the north side of Fort Assiniboine. Tenderfeet experienced a great deal of difficulty in handling horses up the steep grade. The hillside was littered [illegible] boxes of supplies, smashed sleighs and harnesses. At the top of this hill once read a sign "To Dawson City — 2433½ miles." Underneath with an arrow pointing in the opposite direction was a subtle reminder — "To Home Sweet Home."

The ferry at the crossing began operating in 1908 and was privately owned. Two years later it was taken over by the Federal government. One man operated it until 1938 when a second man was assigned to help. A third stadier was added in 1951.

A motorized winding set was installed in 1945. The 60x18 ft. ferry is now guided by 1050 foot cable.

Since 1911, the chief operator has been a member of the Cartwright family. Presently his son, Dutee is one of the three men working the ferry.

[illegible] hope that the new bridge in addition to providing year-round service to the residents of the area will help open up the country. Previously all winter season river crossings were made over treacherous ice.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

A NEW LOOK AT SUMMERFALLOW

So accustomed over the years has the average farmer in Western Canada become to the practice of summerfallowing that any suggestion to the effect that he might be able to get along without it will have to be accompanied by clear and unmistakable evidence that it would pay him to follow a system of continuous cropping or a summerfallow-free rotation. Certainly the opinion of many leading agronomists is veering more and more to the firm belief that, in areas where rainfall is not a limiting factor and where there is no weed problem which cannot be met with chemicals, the summerfallow [illegible] can be [illegible] they say, continuous cropping in such areas, when it is accompanied by the proper use of phosphate and nitrogen fertilizer can mean higher yields and even when moisture is deficient if the shortage is not too severe a high nutrient status will [illegible] the [illegible] fertilized crops making more efficient the use of the available [illegible].

The matter of cost is, of course, an important one and it is recognized that a point is reached beyond which it does not pay to apply more [illegible] per acre are to be realized. Eventually perhaps when there is more certainty about being able to deliver all the wheat that is raised more and more farmers in parts of Western Canada will explore the possibility of eliminating summerfallow and of growing [illegible] and other crops more or less continuously [illegible] and adequate fertilization of the land. Any change in the system followed at present, however, is likely to be a gradual one.

Grace Eyben Bride of Stuart Little In Auburndale Church Ceremony

LITTLE — EYBEN

Miss Grace Elizabeth Eyben, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Frank Eyben of Vermilion, became the bride of Stuart Little, son of Mr and Mrs. Archie Little of Vegreville, on Wednesday, August 22nd, at 2:30 in the Auburndale church.

Rev G. B. Mather of Vegreville officiated at the double ring ceremony before a flower decorated archway and a background of baskets of gladioli and dahlias. Guest pews were marked with nosegays of pink everlasting flowers.

Entering the church at her father's side, the bride wore a crisp embroidered organdy gown with a ballerina length tiered skirt. The bodice was styled with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves, and was complemented by matching gloves. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a beautiful coronet. She carried a cascade of red roses with buds and trailing ivy.

Mrs Elmer Samuelson, sister of the bride was matron of honor and wore a soft pastel ballerina length yellow cotton dress, with matching shoes and a pert hat-like headdress. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white shasta mums and shrimp gladioli.

The groom was attended by Cameron Strong and Carl Eyben, brother of the bride, and Bob Turner ushered the guests to their pews.

The wedding music was played by Henry Eyben, uncle of the bride, and the soloist was the Rev. Mr. Smith who sang "Hold Thou My Hand" during the signing of the register.

To receive her guests the bride's mother chose an afternoon dress of rose lace and crepe with navy accessories. Her corsage was of yellow carnations. The groom's mother wore a royal blue and black splash weave dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink [illegible].

A reception for 200 guests at the home of the bride's parents was catered to by the district W.A.'s. Mrs H. E. Eyben, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. William Smith, grandmother of the groom, were at the tea urns. Lyla Eyben, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Rev. Mather proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom very fittingly responded.

A telegram of best wishes from Earl Hardin of Essondale, B.C., was read.

For a honeymoon at Banff and Jasper the bride changed to a fitted fall cotton dress in shades of rust and black enhanced with a corsage of yellow shasta mums. Her matching accessories were black and rust. On their return the newlyweds will make their home in Vegreville.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. A Jenning, Mr and Mrs. J Leach, Dr and Mrs. Ross, Miss Ida Eichmeyer, Miss Muriel Patterson, Mr and Mrs. G. Strong, Frank Haddow, Rev. and Mrs. Mather, Mr and Mrs. A Fedoruk, Mr. and Mrs. J Zeigler, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Shaw, all of Vegreville; Mrs. Ruth Delainey, Portland, Ore.; Mrs J. C. Jonson, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith of Edmonton, Rev. and Mrs. G Canteloe of Saskatoon; and Miss Glenna Little, Powell River, B.C.

Best catch of the day! Oh, we're not talking about the fish ... It's that Pontiac, and the smiles are for the car, not the fish. See it at your dealer's.

Seems like everyone's looking for the perfect ... the "compleat" ... car! And it's no farther away than your nearest Pontiac dealer. You'll find proof that Pontiac combines grace, beauty, prestige and performance and reasonable price ... a "compleatness" that goes far, far deeper than mere looks or accessories!

Then—Enjoy a Demonstration Drive in this car of cars. Believe us, you'll relish the way it hugs the curves, slides smoothly up or down hills, takes every straightaway with supreme confidence. The ride's the thing ... and with Pontiac what a wonderful ride it is.

All this is very enticing ... but the best part of all is this "compleat" Pontiac is the price. With all of Pontiac's pleasure and prestige, it's still easily within anyone's budget, priced right down with the lowest. Yes—just like a trout to a "Royal Coachman" ... that's how you'll rise to a Pontiac. Be sure you do—soon!

Former Mannville Girl Wed At Coast

MANNVILLE — Trinity United Church, Saturday, Aug. 4th at 7:30 p.m. was the scene of a pretty wedding when Patricia Elsie Margaret, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golish of Vancouver Island, became the bride of Ralph Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smyth of Merritt, B.C. Rev. A. Rutherford officiated.

For her wedding the bride chose a cocktail-length dress of white flowered net over satin featuring an off the shoulder neckline. The fingertip veil was held by a halo of rhinestones and she carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations. Her only jewelry was a two-string pearl necklace.

Miss Kathleen Smyth, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, wore a blue cocktail-length formal, matching headpiece, and carried white carnations.

Mr. Terrance Smyth was his brother's best man.

After the ceremony relations and friends gathered at the home of the groom's parents for a reception. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Golish wore a tan suit with white accessories and the groom's mother was in a pink afternoon dress with navy [illegible].

The happy young couple will make their home in Merritt.

OUR GAIN

Crop failures in Eastern Europe, particularly in grain-rich Ukraine, will send Russia and her satellites shopping for more Canadian wheat, predicts The Financial Post. Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and East Germany took 40 million bushels in the crop year just ended and will step that up considerably in the next, it is expected.

WE ARE RAISING THE Subscription Price OF THE STANDARD TO 5c per week

On and after October 1st the subscription price of the Standard will be $2.50 per year, or 5c per week on the basis of 50 issues for a year.

YOUR CHANCE!

This is your opportunity to renew your subscription to The Standard, or become a new subscriber if you don't already read your home town newspaper, at the old rate of $2.00 per year. Such subscriptions are limited to one year only. Even if your sub. does not expire for some months, you are entitled to a one year further renewal at the lower rate if paid prior to October 1st, 1956.

THE REASON

There have been at least four increases in the price of newsprint since the $2.00 per year subscription rate went into effect. The total amount taken in subscriptions in 1955 did not fully pay for blank paper and ink used in printing The Standard, plus the freight on the paper from Edmonton, let alone anything towards labor and equipment.

All other newspapers of similar size printed in Alberta have been $2.50 or $3.00 for the past several years, as for example the Vegreville Observer, St. Paul Journal, Wainwright Star-Chronicle, each at $2.50 per year in this immediate part of Alberta.

We are raising the Subscription price to 5c per week—

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Long Wait Prospect For Federal-Provincial Hospital Insurance Program

EDMONTON — It looks as though Albertans are in for a long wait before they can begin benefitting from the proposed federal-provincial hospital insurance program.

Alberta is ready to go ahead almost any time, but so far there aren't enough other provinces prepared to join forces with Ottawa in the plan which would provide Canadians with free hospital and diagnostic services.

To date, only the three western provinces have expressed a willingness to join in the scheme. Ottawa has made the stipulation that before it can be introduced at least six of the provinces — representing a majority of the Canadian population — must be prepared to participate.

This means either Ontario or Quebec must join, because they have the big concentration of population. So far Quebec has remained characteristically cool, and Ontario has not fallen all over itself in its haste to jump on the bandwagon.

At last reports, Ontario had set up a commission to study the matter, and until that commission makes its findings, there will be no national health program.

The Alberta health department has been working out details of a plan to submit to Ottawa when the federal government gives the green light. Health Minister Dr. W. W. Cross said last week that the plan is practically completed and that this province can go ahead any time Ottawa is ready.

However, with the delay in the east, the health minister wasn't too optimistic about early introduction of the plan. Officials now believe it can't possibly be introduced before the spring of 1958.

Of course, there is talk of a federal election being called next year, and undoubtedly the federal government would like to point with pride to an operative health plan as one of its achievements. But unless things develop faster than anticipated, or the election is delayed, the Liberals will have to be satisfied with merely promising the hospital scheme to electors.

ALBERTA, LEADER IN HEALTH, WELFARE MEASURES

Alberta, a consistent leader in health and welfare measures, already has its own hospital insurance program — available to 90 per cent of the population — with the cost shared by the patient, the province and the municipality. This plan will continue to operate until the national scheme goes into effect.

This province also was all set to launch a medical service plan, but it is being held in abeyance until the national program gets started.

Dr. Cross a year ago introduced the voluntary medical plan, under which the province would subsidize insurance firms, which in turn would sell policies to individuals at reduced rates. The legislature approved it and voted the money to start it.

When Ottawa decided to get into the health insurance act, the Alberta government decided to hold back the medical program. The hope is that once the hospital and diagnostic service is operating successfully, Ottawa will want to extend the field and provide medical coverage. In the meantime, Albertans will have to pay their medical bills as best they can, or purchase their own medical policies at full cost.

Changes With the Changing Times

Effective June 13th of this year a new body measurement standard was set up for patterns. This became necessary due to milady's modern bra and foundation garment which has somewhat enhanced and changed her contours. In order to get a pattern that will produce a well fitting garment, Miss H. Mosson, clothing specialist for Alberta's government, advises prospective pattern buyers to take body measurements. The bust measurement should be taken around the fullest part of your bust. The hip measurement too, correctly taken, is at the fullest part of the body about seven inches below the waistline. The waist measurement is at the natural waistline (around the narrowest centre part of your body). Every pattern provides for "ease" allowance in addition to body measurements so you can move comfortably in the finished garment.

The revised measurement charts for all pattern companies have been approved by Measurement Standard Committee of the Pattern Industry. So when planning to sew something for yourselves ladies, please buy the pattern size according to your new bust measurement advises Miss H. Mosson. If you are at all doubtful take body measurements.

The Hottest Question In Ottawa: "Who Will Be Next Prime Minister?"

The hottest question in Ottawa today is who will be the next Prime Minister of Canada, reports Blair Fraser in the current issue of Maclean's magazine.

He says there are serious doubts in the Liberal Party over who is best suited to succeed ageing Louis St. Laurent, now 75.

"The Prime Minister's political strength", reports Fraser, "which is certainly not growing and which may be waning somewhat, is a strength that is his alone; he cannot bequeath it.

"But he can bequeath the elements of weakness that the Liberal Government has displayed during the past 18 months — recurrent confusions and indecisions, the palsied touch in parliament, the tensions within the cabinet and [illegible] awkwardness in public."

It is believed, says Fraser, that the Prime Minister favors Minister of Finance Walter E. Harris as his successor.

But among voters, Liberal and independent, the likely favorite is not Harris but Lester Bowles Pearson, Minister of External Affairs. But the Liberals have doubts as to whether Pearson will be a candidate when the time for decision arrives.

He may become the new secretary-general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization when Lord Ismay retires, perhaps as early as next spring.

"Pearson's friends say that in spite of popular assumptions to the contrary, Pearson would be quite willing to serve under Walter Harris," reports the Maclean's article.

But this would do nothing to help Harris' chance of winning an election.

Says the Maclean's report: "Pearson, well known already, can be made even better known with ease, he goes over well not only in personal contacts but on television. Harris, in spite of over two years of build-up by the party, is still a relatively cold and remote personality to the public."

Other possible contenders for Liberal leadership, says Fraser, are Robert H. Winters, Minister of Public Works, Jack Pickersgill, Minister of Citizenship and Immigration and Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare. But all have disadvantages for the Liberals.

"If the cabinet and the Parliamentary group decide it's an impossible task to build up Walter Harris into a commanding National figure in time for the election campaign he would have to lead," says the Maclean's article, "they will no doubt resign themselves to Pearson.

"He gives them the same sense of uneasiness as Eisenhower gave the Republican professionals who would have preferred the late Senator Taft, a man whom they understood and who understood them, but for somewhat similar reasons the Liberal professionals too may choose a gifted amateur."

the Snapshot Guild

This snapshot is fine in black-and-white, but just think how wonderful it would be in color.

Color Has Such Winning Ways

Sometimes we think the English language is most revealing. For example, take a phrase like "uncolored by emotion," or "the facts in black and white." The inference in both expressions is that color has such winning ways it can easily sway judgment in its favor.

Well, that's doubtless true—certainly when it comes to picture-taking, anyway! Haven't you noticed how color pictures bring back colorful moments and scenes with almost unbelievable realism? Color serves as a flag to memory . . . helps you remember every vital detail of a time and place.

That's why we feel color film can be such a sound investment for picture-takers—something not to be relegated only to special occasions, but to be used regularly and often for the extra dividend of pleasure it can bring you in all your picture taking. No longer a luxury item limited to elaborate cameras, color film now comes in all standard roll film sizes to fit every type of camera that's currently on the market.

Basically, there are two kinds of color film—one designed for taking color snapshots, and the other created especially for making color slides. But the really big news today is for all you color-snapshot enthusiasts — and we think you'll be mighty pleased to hear it, too!

Now you can buy color film that may be used in daylight or with flash without the addition of filters or blue flash bulbs to compensate for the different light. This is the very first color film ever produced that you can load into your camera with nary a thought for whether you're going to snap pictures indoors or out, with flash or without.

Now—as never before even the most casual snapshooter with the simplest of cameras can have this colorful world completely at his command.

N. W. Utilities Have Top Safety Record

The National Safety Council announced this week that Northwestern Utilities, Limited has been presented the [illegible] Award of Honor for the excellent safety record of its automobile fleet.

The Award of Honor is the highest recognition obtainable for an outstanding safety record and is presented only where [illegible] record satisfies [illegible] standards laid down in [illegible] Award Plan for Recognizing Good Industrial Records.

Ned H. Dearborn, President of the National Safety Council, in a letter of congratulations to Northwestern Utilities, Limited explained that the company qualified because of its [illegible] injury rates in the 1954 award year. Its injury frequency rate was [illegible] better than the "par" rate, and its injury severity was [illegible] better. "Par" rates are computed by the National Safety Council [illegible] the Company's experience in [illegible] years and from the [illegible] of the industry classification [illegible] the company belongs.

Out of [illegible] Gas Utilities evaluated on the North American continent, only two qualified for the Award of Honor, of which Northwestern was one.

An earth "digger-loader" manufactured by [illegible] Division of General Motors Corporation, is capable of digging and loading material at the rate of one ton per second.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bentley are visiting their daughter Grace in Edmonton.

At the recent Boy Scout camp at Leon Lake under the leadership of their Scoutmaster the Rev. Andrew Potter, nine Marwayne boys attended along with the Kitscoty boys. Eldon Giles received his Camp Cook's badge, Johnny Bell his 2nd Class Scout badge and Billy Curtis, Ernest Holland, Harvey Graham, Grant Spence all received their Swimmer's Badge.

Swimming classes are over at Sandy Beach for another year. Quite a number of boys and girls from here have been attending again this year.

Mrs. Bobrocki Sr. has bought and will live in the house recently occupied by the Barnetts.

The men's soft ball club held a corn and weiner roast as a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Hanley. They are moving to a farm at Maidstone.

Mr. Frank Ball of Meyerton, lay reader, is taking Anglican church services while Rev. Andrew Potter is vacationing at Salt Lake City. Next Sunday's service here will be evensong at 7:30 in the school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Saltsberry are back from their holidays spent at Lacombe and Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rooks have moved to Blackfoot as Joe has been transferred to the Pool elevator there.

LIGHTNING STRIKES

Several homes were hit by lightning in the severe electrical storm which swept across this area last Thursday night. Fortunately no serious damage was caused and no one was injured.

In the Eastern Alberta Elks Hard Ball league Marwayne defeated the Heinsburg boys 8-7 in a very exciting game on Sunday afternoon. Marwayne will now play off with Kitscoty. Good luck boys!

By AMBROSE HILLS

A reader has tipped me off. He writes. "You are against everybody—industry, farmer, laborer. You berate the government one day, the C B C the next, and somebody else the next. Don't you like anybody?"

Ummm! Reading back, I note that I have been pretty querulous. A fellow ought to be for something once in a while!

Okay, fellow. I like the way industry is bursting out at the seams developing oil, minerals, and other resources. If I had money, I'd be into common stocks, because I think our industries are well managed. Most business men are honest and sincere, but I get sore at them when they run to the government for favors.

I like farmers when they're plowing straight furrows and keeping their fields rich and free of weeds, and fighting for prices which are right and just. I admire today's farmer, because he's had the courage to modernize, to produce more goods with less man power. The only time I get sore is when farmers take what I believe to be an immoral stand by attempting to ban a good food through power politics, while pretending they ought to wear halos like the saints. I like farmers more than anybody when they don't get to liking themselves too much! Lately, they've been talking in a learned way about everybody else's business, but when anyone else talks about farming, they cry, "how do you know? You're not a farmer!"

Like every city slicker who wears a collar, I've a sneaking respect for labor's brawn and muscle and camaraderie. Pass the hat for a sick pal or his family and working men are generous. I get sore at them only because they don't run their unions any more—and union leaders make suckers out of them as much as bosses ever did. Union leaders purport to speak for their membership on controversies where leaders and union members are as far apart as the poles...yet the workers let them get away with it!

I'm not entirely against governments, either, but I think somebody's got to howl when they exceed their proper powers.

But, starting next week, I'll try to have more sweetness and light in this column. I'll get up on the other side of the bed.

Beautiful Setting For Lennon-Burke Nuptials At Irwinville Church

LENNON—BURKE

Vases of blue delphiniums and white daisies banked the altar of Holy Trinity church, Irwinville, on July 21, in a beautiful setting for the wedding of Kathleen May Burke, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. M. Burke of Marwayne, and George Richardson Lennon, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Culford, also of Marwayne.

Rev. A. Potter of Kitscoty, performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of nylon net and lace over satin. The deep net flounce of the skirt was topped by gathered nylon net caught at intervals with tiny white rose-buds. The bodice of lace over satin was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, over which was worn a lace bolero with Peter Pan collar and long lily-point sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of embroidered net was held in place with a wreath of small white rose-buds. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her only jewellery was a pearl necklace and earring set, the gift of the groom.

Miss Leah Culford, cousin of the groom, was bridesmaid, and wore a waltz-length gown of yellow nylon, fashioned with Peter Pan collar and full elbow-length sleeves. She wore a wide brimmed picture hat of white straw, and carried a colonial bouquet of white baby carnations.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Jack Lennon, as best man.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Hugh Hutchinson.

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue linen with white accessories. The groom's mother chose a dark blue tailored suit with white accessories, and both wore white carnations en corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception for some 40 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centred with a beautifully decorated four-tiered wedding cake, and flanked by vases of red roses.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. A. Potter, to which the groom ably responded.

Out of town guests were Mr. J. Humble of Edmonton, grandfather of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hollington of Islay, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hollington and family of Hazeldine, and Mr and Mrs. J. Brind of Tulliby Lake.

A telegram of congratulation was received from the groom's sister in Vancouver, B. C.

In the evening, the young couple entertained a large crowd of friends at a dance in the Elk's Hall in Marwayne, after which they left on a short honeymoon.

They will make their home in Lea Park where the groom is now employed.

Pleasant Valley

At time of writing (Monday) it's pouring again. It was very hot last week as the men working in the harvest fields well know.

Bill Gillies and family of Edmonton spent the week end visiting relatives. They were dinner guests at the home of the writer and supper guests at Mr and Mrs. Lloyd Gould's. They returned to the city on Monday.

Say Mrs. Moore, do come down and see the lovely glads and the dahlias. There are so many pretty colors, the glads are five inches across and some have as many as 21 flowerettes on one stem. These were all cut by hail at one time too. The writer waxed some glads and dahlias and they turned out lovely. May be some readers would like to know how this is done. I would be very glad to tell them.

A lady friend phoned to ask how to make a pot pourri with rose petals. When given the directions she said it sounded like a spice cake recipe. Have you made it yet Marion?

Here are the directions for waxing any kind of flower: Cut the flowers, place in the frig for two hours; melt a pound of paraffin wax, although glads seem to take more, pour into a deep container (I used the boiler) plunge each flower into the melted wax, give a quick shake to remove excess wax, return to frig to set. Flower wires can be inserted through the stems. Be careful with the dahlias as the heads are heavy when waxed and [illegible]

The above directions cost the writer the large sum of 35 cents, and were obtained from St Johns, N.B. It is really worth while doing as the glads turn out simply beautiful. They will remain lovely when the snow is blowing and the thermometer is hovering around the 40-below mark.

The summer has gone by very quickly — evenings are really short now which makes the harvest a busy time.

Isabel, how about letting us [illegible] where the raspberry patches are and we'll be right over.

Hi folks, just received a package of rose petals through the mail from some kind friends. Many thanks, but no name inside so will just have to guess who.

Former Vermilion Lady Writes Of Experiences While On Overseas Tour

Miss Rosa Walters, well remembered as a former Tolland and Vermilion resident, is presently on an overseas visit to Europe. She tells us a very interesting story of her trip as far as she had gone at time of writing. Miss Walters writes as follows:

"I left Edmonton for Calgary on July 7, and caught the Canadian. The trip across Canada was very pleasant but the train was very rough, due, no doubt, to the speed, as it was an hour late and most of the time was made up when we got to Toronto. It was night most of the time in Southern Saskatchewan and north of Lake Superior so we missed the scenery there. East of Calgary we passed through an Indian reserve which was very flat and had miles of Indian farms with two identical houses and barns situated close together. We did see a large central school and administration buildings. There was also evidence of wind erosion.

The time passed very pleasantly as we had a dome car to view the passing landscape and a cafeteria which served lunch at any hour.

After we arrived in Ontario liquor was sold also.

The land north of Lake Superior was beautiful except for Sudbury, which had no vegetation for miles around. It reminded me of Butte, Montana.

We had a two hour wait in Toronto, so we took an elevator to the top of the Royal George Hotel and had a good view of the city. I had hoped to meet Miss Bowden in Toronto but she lived too far away.

It was dark when we left Toronto for New York but the porter called us at Hamilton's lights, and had us up early to see the Hudson River. Betty my travelling companion, saw West Point Academy but I was watching the mountains out of the other side of the train.

We passed Yankee Stadium and the home of the Dodgers but there were no flags up because of the All Star game in Washington, D. C. that day.

After getting settled in the McAlpin hotel on Broadway and 34 St., we took a tour of the city which included the Bowery, Chinatown, and Bedloe Island on which is situated the Statue of Liberty. We went up 10 stories in an elevator and climbed 168 steps up a spiral stairway closely packed with people to peep out of the brow of the lady. We saw Manhattan's skyline, and Staten Island and Brooklyn. We also saw the U. N. building and many more, and slept the clock around that night.

Next day after some shopping we went to the Broadway Theatre to see "Mr. Wonderful", a musical play. It starred Sammy Davis Jr., a colored boy, but it was too noisy for me. That night we went to the top of the Empire State building, 1472 feet and viewed New York a blaze with lights. The guide told us all the important buildings and bridges.

We were up early the next morning to get aboard the Queen Elizabeth. Then followed five smooth days of sailing with no worry but to stop eating the wonderful food and to sleep. We had a picture show every day and tea at 4, with a real orchestra. Betty and I went swimming twice and also had a turkish bath but found no time for dancing games.

Too soon we arrived at Southhampton and then on to London. It rained quite a bit there but we saw the Queen and the royal party arrive and leave a reception held in honor of the King of Iraq. We saw "Plain and Fancy", a musical at Drury Lane Theatre, and Betty left for Scotland and I went to Nottingham to visit a friend whose husband is with the R. C. A. F. at Langar. I saw castles turned into museums, and also an air show at Langar.

While in London on my way to Germany I saw part of Westminster Abbey and Westminster Cathedral. The latter contains the highest tower of London, 450 feet high and gave a good view of the city. I saw Piccadilly Circus and rode the tube underground railway from one end of London to the other.

Soon I was headed for Harwick, then across the English Channel to the Hook of Holland and on to Bremen, Germany where I changed for Sulingen and then by bus to Staffhorst where my aunt lives.

We are having quite a time making each understand what the other is saying but I believe that they are learning more English than I am learning German.

Tonight we had quite an argument about the merits of the Ford car and Mercedes which my relatives own. They speak of kilometres to the litres of gasoline (benzine). I wish I had learned more German at home and paid more attention to my metric tables.

Everyone in all the countries is very kind and helpful. The English think I am American, and the Americans think I am English so we all get along fine.

Holland and this part of Germany are very similar. I have seen windmills in action in both countries. England has beautiful lawns flowers, and parks but the architecture of houses and apartments is very bad. Holland has beautiful apartments and everything is clean and tidy. Every foot of land is used, even the land between the railway tracks and highways is all in gardens. It was dark when I passed through Germany so I saw little of it except from Sulingen to Staffhorst. Staffhorst is a small rural town and that is where I am at time of writing."

Seven Hundred Eighty-four Pupils In 29 Rooms

Vermilion's School Population Shows An Unexpected Increase

Schools opened on schedule in Vermilion on Tuesday with the enrollment showing an unexpected increase over the opening day a year ago. With registration still incompleted in Junior high and High school grades, total number attending has already reached 784, 21 more than one year ago. This, despite the fact that the number of beginners dropped to 65, the smallest grade 1 class for the past six years.

One more room was opened this term, located in the Junior high school. This exhausts every available spot for a classroom, there being in use at the present time three temporary classrooms in basements and two cottage schools. The extra room in the Junior high just opened, eliminates the lunch room and the games room, which in the past have proved very useful to the children from the country who spend the entire day at the school.

NUMBERS ENROLLED

Enrollment on Wednesday were as follow:

Primary school, 5 rooms	127
Elementary school, 10 rooms	286
Junior high school, 8 rooms	241
High school, 6 rooms	130
Total to date	784

KITSCOTY — Kitscoty Ladies' Fastball team which won the Northern Alberta Intermediate "A" Championship defeating Vermilion Cardinals and then Innisfree chartered a Greyhound bus last week end and accompanied by relatives and fans went to Calgary to play for the provincial championship against a Calgary team.

The Kitscoty girls won both the games having runs to spare by scores of 26 to 13 and 8 to 3, thereby annexing the provincial championship.

A rousing welcome was given them when they returned home on Monday evening congratulations being showered on players and the coach for bringing the Alberta Intermediate "A" Championship to Kitscoty.

Playing with the team were Pat Tyler, Doreen Ebbetson, Evelyn Sheppard, Sylvia Sheppard, Alice Blake, Nancy McLean, Joan Stewart, Frances Mitchell, Mrs. Kelly Quinn, June Lang, Mary Kuehn.

Public Reception

There will be a public gathering of Vermilion and district residents at the Vermilion Provincial Park on September 9th, commencing at 2:00 p.m. in honor of Miss Alice Keith, the retiring Matron of Vermilion Hospital. Everyone is invited, please bring picnic lunch and cups, coffee will be provided. If weather is unfavorable, gathering will be held at the Vermilion School of Agriculture.

Harvest Help Problem Will Be Aided By Board of Trade

Answering an appeal for aid in arranging for extra harvest help among men working at town jobs, the Board of Trade on Wednesday set up a special committee to gather up names of all who might be interested.

The committee is headed by Paul Godt, and all persons who would care to volunteer for stooking, threshing or tractor work should leave their names with Mr. Godt at the Co-op store or with District Agriculturist E. H. Buckingham. This record should show the days and times that the volunteer would be available.

Every year many people living in towns go out to help friends at harvest time but it is believed that a little organization would greatly increase the supply of men who would be willing to do anything possible.

If you want to help out and at the same time earn some extra cash for yourself, register with either of the two men named above.

Four Vermilion Students Pass Grade Nine Exams. with Honors

Four students who wrote the Grade 9 exams at the Vermilion high school passed with honors — Bryon Wilfred Calvert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rand Calvert; Dale Alexander Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott; Marie Laura Tovell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tovell, and Evangeline Fay Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, all won the coveted "H" standing.

There were 69 students who wrote the Grade 9 exams. Sixty-five obtained clear passes with four failing to pass.

GRADE XII RESULTS

Last June 23 students of the Vermilion high school wrote 93 Grade 12 departmental examination papers with the following results:

Six papers secured H ratings; 22 papers secured A ratings; 38 papers secured B ratings; 24 papers secured C ratings; 3 papers secured D ratings.

This would mean that 96% of the subjects written would carry credit for a high school diploma, and that 66% of the subjects written were of a University matriculation level.

Of the twenty-three students writing Grade 12 subjects, four were successful in making clear passes with University matriculation standing; seventeen more students secured marks in all subjects above high school diploma standing.

The president [illegible] was in the chair and a number of topics were discussed during the [illegible]

A committee was set up to handle extra harvest help for farmers of [illegible] this committee with help from the Agricultural, Industrial and Ways and Means committees, and District Agriculturist E. H. Buckingham.

Complaints of speedy driving down the river hills brought forth the suggestions that speed limit signs be placed at the top of the hill. The road committee was asked to interview the town council in this respect, asking for prompt action before someone gets killed.

Reasons for the garbage regulations were explained by Mayor M. Hill. Easier handling of the new cans elimination of possible food sources for rats thus keeping the town free of those undesirable rodents also a means of depriving the numerous skunks of a pantry.

At the suggestion of Thos. Watts the care of the two town cemeteries will come up for discussion and suggestions at the next meeting of the Board. A report will also be given by the Industrial committee.

A meeting of the executive of the Board will be held immediately after the regular gathering on Wednesday next.

The Board of Trade weekly sessions promise to be both interesting and worthwhile from the standpoint of results. All business men interested in the future prosperity of the town should attend regularly.

Rotary Club Sponsors Second Community Birthday Calendar

Every person, adult or child, in Vermilion and district may have his or her name printed in the second Vermilion Community birthday calendar being sponsored by the Rotary club again this year.

The calendar, which will have a local picture on it will contain all the information that any other calendar has, and will include the names of persons on their birthdays and wedding anniversaries. It will be a lot of fun and you will be surprised what a friendly community we have when your birthday or anniversary rolls around.

The members of the Rotary club, beginning on Sept. 10th, are going to contact you about putting your birthday on the calendar. Your cost — 25 cents per person. Each family also buys a calendar for only 50 cents and this is the actual cost of printing it. Extra calendars may be ordered if desired.

MAKE MANY DONATIONS

Proceeds from last year's calendar sales were used to supply books for the Vermilion library, radios for hospital use, funds for the Boy Scout building, student loans and a substantial donation to the provincial park board. It is hoped that these accomplishments may be expanded this year.

When the Rotary Club member calls at your home to secure names and birth dates of all members of your family, you will have your opportunity to be listed on this valuable calendar. Anyone from out of town or not at home, may have their birthday listed by contacting T. E. MacPherson, I. Miller, D. R. Mitchell or any member of the Vermilion Rotary club. 10c

Departmental Examination Results Are Announced At Mannville

MANNVILLE — In the recent departmental examinations, five out of nineteen Grade 9 students were awarded Honors standing. The Honor students were: Thelma Arnold, Donna Doherty, Jackie Hasinoff, Hans [illegible] Sawshuk. Another student, June Van Dusen achieved four H's and two A's and narrowly missed Honors standing.

The complete record for the Grade nine class was as follows: Honors Pass — 5 students; Pass — 12 students; Failure — 2 students. Gr. nine teachers in charge of the class last year were Mrs. Lily Park and Mrs. Mary Morrison.

In Grade XII the Department of Education rates marks in five categories: H — 80% or over, A — 65 to 79%, B — 50 to 64%, C — 40 to 50% and D — under 40%. D is a failing mark, while H, A, B and C are passing grades which earn high school credits. A mark of 'B' or better is required for Matriculation (University Entrance) with an average of at least 60%. A High School diploma is granted to a student who earns 100 credits, with certain subjects required (mainly English and Social studies). A mark of 'C' or better in each subject, with a total of 100 credits entitles the student to a high school certificate.

Twenty-six Grade XII students wrote one or more papers with 22 of these taking sufficient subjects to graduate, of the latter 22, sixteen earned a High School diploma while two were short one subject, two were short two subjects and two more than two subjects.

Of those earning a High School diploma, five had a sufficient average to gain University Entrance while three could gain matriculation by raising their mark in one subject at the supplemental exams which were written in August. Several of those not attaining full matriculation will qualify for admission to the one-year teacher training program or to one of the various [illegible]

In all, 123 Grade XII papers were written, with 107 scoring a pass standing of 'C' or better, for a passing record of 87%. Of these papers, 76 or 60% rated 'B' or better, which compares well with the provincial average.

One student, Howard "Bucky" Schreyer attained an Honors average of nearly 83% and has as a result been awarded a $500 Alberta Hotel Association scholarship.

Last year's Grade XII teachers were Miss Gertrude Nelson, Mrs. Willa Rea, Mr. Robin Stuart, Mr. Stuart Little and Mr. H.A. Doherty.

HOMETOWN PAPER FILLS AN IMPORTANT POSITION IN CANADIAN LIFE—

The "hometown" newspaper plays an important role in Canadian life and business, William Telfer, managing director of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association said in Murray Bay, Que., as the Association settled down for its annual get-together of editors from across Canada.

Commenting on the work done by Canadian weekly newspapers, Mr. Telfer said it was not commonly realized that their combined circulation now stood at well over 1,000,000, making the weekly press in Canada an important and influential medium.

Class "A" newspapers alone — those with a circulation of over 3,000 — now reach 295,000 homes in 64 markets whose annual sales top one and a half billion, he said.

Hundreds of smaller weekly, twice-weekly and tri-weekly newspapers with circulation under 2000 fulfill an important duty to communities across Canada, bringing them the news of the day and carrying the advertisers' message into the most isolated hamlet, he added.

Health Unit Notes

IT WAS GOOD BUT WAS IT SAFE?

Every year an uncounted number of social groups find themselves burdened with a guilt that follows a mass food poisoning or spread of contagion, either directly or indirectly traceable to some function which they have run.

Don't dismiss this problem with the off-hand statement, "Of course we wouldn't serve anything but fresh food and we keep our dishes and utensils clean." Even professionals, restaurant, hotel operators and caterers have their troubles. The Army and Navy, despite military efficiency and rigorous standards of cleanliness, have not escaped either.

Most common cause of food poisoning is due to Staphylococcus aureus, a germ generally referred to by health officers as "staph". No one is entirely free of this vicious creature, but its favorite haunt is the throats and nasal passages of those who have recently had colds, and infected cuts or burns.

"Staph" thrives on lukewarm temperatures and has a special liking for foods that are commonly served at social meals—chicken salad, turkey salad, potato salad, various ham dishes and creamed foods and custard desserts.

In the greatest number of cases, staph poisoning is traced by the Health Department to food which ...

... brought in by one guest or worker and spread to others. The results of these are not so immediate or so dramatic [...] but once started on the way, they are not restricted to your guests, but may rage through the whole community. No one knows for sure, but health experts are reasonably certain that many germs are spread by improperly washed dishes, cups and glasses.

Health officers are equally certain that most social organizations lack the equipment for safe and sanitary dishwashing.

HOW YOU CAN BE SAFE INSTEAD OF SORRY

Here are six easy to remember rules for sanitation:

1. Keep hands clean.
2. Keep cold foods cold-hot foods hot.
3. Don't let foods stand at room temperature.
4. Use paper service or be sure that dishes and utensils are scalded or disinfected.
5. Protect all food from contamination.
6. Don't let anyone with a skin infection or cold handle food.

These rules, approved by sanitation expert, deserve careful study and thought by anyone responsible for food handling or service.

For maximum health and sanitation safety, ask the advice of your local health officer or health department. You will find them eager to co-operate.

FREE HEALTH SERVICE

I have been participating in a free health service and I feel pretty good.

It works this way. You pay no premiums and there are no taxes deducted from your pay cheque. The only requirement is a willingness to do a few things for yourself. Here's how I gained my membership in the free health service clinic.

I took a 7-day holiday, and I devoted it to health. I went to bed early, rose early, limited my coffee and cigarette intake, drank plenty of good, fresh water, ate moderately, swam a great deal, sat in the sun, laughed, walked, and worried not at all.

Results? Well, my stomach flattened out and the muscles feel firm. I've a nice tan, which makes me look healthier, so I get a lift when I look in the mirror in the morning. The daily walk improves my wind; the swimming relaxed me; the sun provided vitamins; the laughter and fun was a tonic. At night I can pleasantly tired and sleep soundly.

I firmly believe that any person able to walk around can be healthy if he has a mind to be healthy. Water, sun, exercise, good spirits diligently cultivated, decent food and moderation can do more for you in a week than doctors, for all their skill, can do in month.

Now I'm trying to convince myself that I need not take a holiday to get healthy. There is no reason why I should smoke too much, or slab coffee into me or over-eat at any time of the year. Sunshine is always available and exercise can be fun if approached in the proper spirit.

About nine out of ten folks, judging by my friends, devote virtually no thought or effort to their health. Indeed, they spend money on just about everything but health — and then grouse when sickness catches up with them. It seems to me that government health schemes will never work out until we have a few more people with personal health plans.

How are you feeling? What are you doing to make yourself feel better. Try walking more, breathing deeply, eating slowly, and getting out in the sun whenever you can. My bet is that within two weeks you can have a new sparkle in your eye. Try it and see!

... this year for the third time. Of those who attended and qualified, 74 were attending for the first time, 34 for their second term and ... for the third year.

The courses are open to grade 12 students. If they are successful, they are given certificates which authorize them to teach for the coming term only. If they want to continue teaching, they must return for another six-week course.

Cookbooks can be protected from bearing signs of the latest culinary attempts by a polythene book cover. Just cut up a polythene grocery bag to fit the book and fasten it securely with clear tape. After each session in the kitchen a damp cloth wipes away any marks on the book cover.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Weather! Such a drastic change since last writing. Aug 23rd was 90 above and temperatures had been warm for a few days — then, at 9:45 p.m. we had one of the most terrific thunderstorms ever experienced. One crash seemed vey near, for a second all the lights went out, and later the power was off for a time. Around the first of September we had rain, snow flurries and a few degrees of frost.

Error rectified — the wee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dwyer of Edmonton was born July 31st. Name, Jayne Hilda.

A very bold chicken hawk landed in our chicken pen, killed a big rooster, just eats the head — same thing happened the next morning, but a bullet caused him to release his prey. The poor chicken walked away under its own power but its head was badly injured.

A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed at the Armstrong home on Aug 23rd when her sisters Stella and Mabel, Elinor Farley and sister-in-law Ellen called to wish sister Erna well on her 60th birthday, and may you all have many more.

Gravelling trucks are busy hauling from the old gravel pit on the original O'Fee farm, from Allandale United church corner, 7 miles west and to other places that are in need of the all-weather coating. Omer Easton was a surprise guest on the 31st at 7 a.m. on his way as gate watchman for the trucks.

On Aug 31 Mrs. Jim Phillips left on the noon bus for Saskatoon to spend the long week end with her daughter Nora, the Kormos family.

CAR ACCIDENT

Mr and Mrs. Tommy Greaves and family Brenda and Brian from the city were on their way home to the Baldock's on the evening of Aug 24th when they were in a car accident west of Vegreville. This caused their car to overturn on its side in a ditch full of water. They were able to get out safely but were soaked. Even the luggage and clothing were all ruined. Beryl and children were taken to the Vegreville hospital for a time suffering from shock and Beryl had a badly bruised right side. On hearing of the accident Louis Baldock and Glen left immediately, taking the family back to the city. All are getting on well.

Aug. 25th Mr. and Mrs. George Jacklin and sons Billie and baby Paul from Hamilton, Ont., and Mrs. Georgina Broadfoot from Saskatoon, were visitors at the Baldock home. They are a brother and sister of Mildred's. The oldest daughter of George and Peg's, Mary Lou, was holidaying with her grandparents in the east. It had been around 35 years since George left the west. On Sunday Glen and girl friend Evelyn were home for the day.

The following Tuesday afternoon Mildred accompanied her visitors to the city. They visited at the Greaves' home and uncle Prentice Jacklin, where Aunt Mamie is helping her brother and family. They have a baby daughter. George and family left for home on the 31st, going by way of Calgary. Mildred and Georgina came back to the farm, Georgina going home on Saturday to Saskatoon.

Glen Baldock has discontinued trucking and is now working at the Rowe garage. Glen and Evelyn spent last Sunday at home at the Baldock's.

Orley Omness and son-in-law Jimmy Walsh had a pleasant day Aug. 24th when they went fishing to Muriel Lake and picking blueberries. They caught a few fish and bought some berries. On the 28th Herb McPhee went along too and they had a very good catch.

Mrs. Stella Mayers and Mrs. Mabel Lee motored to Elk Point to visit their sister Gertie Swanson over the long week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells and daughter Dianne returned to the Jack Cross farm on Aug 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Souder and son Frankie from Edmonton were visitors in the Allandale district over the long week end. Frankie has been working near Hardisty but shortly he expects to be in Saskatchewan near the U.S. border doing seismograph work.

Our last church service is this Sunday, Sept. 9th at 11:45 a.m.

Church was held on Aug. 26th with a fair attendance and a grand sermon, "Lord, teach us to pray," by our minister Mr Welsh.

Miss Phyllis Ostry from the city spent the week end of Aug 26th in Clandonald, a guest at the Laird home, and accompanied Mr. Welsh to his four points of service on Sunday.

Sept 2nd was a rainy day, probably the cause of a poor church attendance for our M.M. Sunday. Mr. Welsh gave a very interesting talk on a Korean, a missionary the Rev. Chung Choon Kim, B.D., known as Kim. Many would have heard his voice in September 1952 when he was interviewed over CJCA. He was on his way to Toronto at that time having won scholarships in Korea. Mr Welsh knew Kim in Toronto and says he has a wonderful personality, always smiling and that he might well be called "The man with a smiling face". Although he endured many hardships through his life, was in a ... for many months near death, in the Communist war, he could always say, "My Cup Runneth Over", a booklet he wrote of his life, and very interesting: "Thou God has preserved my going out and my coming in. Surely goodness and mercy have followed me all the days of my life."

Let's see — what is there to mention? Oh yes, it's the weather. Anything wrong with it — well, just about everything. At time of writing it's both wet and cold and frost is forecast for tonight. Cheerful isn't it? As for actual news that's hard to find. Everybody is talking about one thing, and that is the weather. One cheerful thing to look forward to is our Indian Summer. We will see later on.

Yellow stars in green grass skies
Dancing overhead when we open our eyes,
See fields of golden ripe grain
And the combines humming again.
Smoke is flying from chimney stacks
For the wind is cold
And the sunshine lacks.

It was nice to see your Mrs. Wallington on Saturday even if it was out in the rain. How did you find your roads going home Mrs. Moore? Ours were very slippery we had to use both hands for driving and head too! We met a truck on the newly-graded road and thought for sure we would land in the ditch with wheels up. However we reached home safely but with nerves a bit jaded. Mrs. Gillies was along and enjoyed the ride despite everything and spent the week end at the writer's.

Laurence and Chrissie were supper guests with Mr and Mrs. Bert Gould Sunday evening and there were waxed flowers on top of the deep freeze which made Chrissie remark that it had a coffin-like appearance.

Well folks, try and wear a smile, and hope for some warm sunshine to cheer us all up.

Sayna-Payne Nuptials Pledged In St. Olga's Church, Vermilion

A very pretty wedding was solemnized August 22nd at 2:00 p.m. in St. Olga's Church, Vermilion, with the Reverend Father Starr officiating, when Miss Mary Payne became the bride of Mr. Michael Sayna in a double ring ceremony.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Payne of Vermilion and the groom is the eldest son of Mrs. K. Marciniw of Landonville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of chantilly lace and net over taffeta, featuring a sweetheart neckline and lily-point sleeves. The front of the dress from the waist to the hemline had tiers of chantilly lace crossing horizontally. Over this was another nylon net skirt terminating in two lace panels down the front. Her veil of illusion net trimmed with French lace hung from a sequin and pearl trimmed head-crown. The bride's only jewellery was a pearl necklace, gift of the groom.

Miss Kathleen Payne, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Annie Marciniw, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. They wore ballerina-length gowns of nylon net in a turquoise shade with headpieces in tone and carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Attending the groom were Mr. J. Marciniw, brother of the groom, and Mr. R. Payne, uncle of the bride. Ushering the guests were Mr. J. Frederick and Mr H. Frederick, uncles of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception for 90 guests was held at the Legion hall. Miss Beatrice Hillcox sang two selections "Because" and "I'll Walk Beside You." Mr George Martin proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded.

For her honeymoon trip to Banff and Jasper the bride wore a wine gabardine suit with white accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

Out of town guests were Miss Beatrice Hillcox, Edmonton; Mrs. Forrest Telford and daughter, Aldergrove, B.C.; Mr and Mrs. Vern Mattson, Wainwright; Andy Safranovich, Joan Safranovich, Chipman; Caroline Marciniw, Mrs. Y Marciniw, Mrs. Polechuk, Lawrence J. Polechuk, Mr. and Mrs. Geo Butz, Mrs. Annie Zuk, William Moyowski, all of Landonville. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Quickstad, A. Polechuk, Mr. and Mrs. E. Etherington, Jessie Etherington, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Quickstad, all of Clandonald. Mr and Mrs. Charles Burt, Keith Burt, Islay; Richard Robinson, Hazeldine; Mr. D. Jenkins, Langley Prairie, B.C.

WILDMERE WINKS

The weather man does not co-operate with harvesting operations very well. We do hope it soon clears up so everyone can get the grain in granaries nice and dry.

Laurence Graham who has been working north-west of Edmonton, spent the week end at the Wallington home. He returned to the city Monday evening.

FAREWELL SERVICE

On Sunday Mr. Smith held the last church service for the season. A nice attendance of 56 turned out despite a rather wet afternoon. The Wildmere W. A., Sunday school pupils, and young people helped out with the service. Mr. Smith gave a very interesting sermon on Salvation. He also heartily thanked everyone for the kindness and helpfulness shown him during his stay in Wildmere. Mr. Smith also sang a couple of solos, "Stranger of Galilee" and "Finlandia." Little Joanne Hughes sang "I'm a Little Soldier," a Welsh song.

After the service a social hour was enjoyed at which Mrs. Holte graciously presented Mr. Smith with a photograph album and a card signed by all present. Lunch was served by the ladies. Mr. Smith left by train early Monday morning for Edmonton. He then took a plane to Windsor, Nova Scotia to visit his parents before re-commencing his studies in Toronto.

We were pleased to see Miss G. Craig of Vermilion out to our church on Sunday. She spent the week end at the Holte home, Wildmere district.

Mr Millar and his son from Edmonton spent the long week end with his niece Mrs. Roy Dibben and family of Basswood. They attended church Sunday afternoon at Wildmere.

This week the teachers and children return to class rooms. Mr. R. Cosh of Vermilion is coming to Preston Central. Janet Cruthers, Kenny Graham, Mary Gibson, Betty and Marie Smith, Doreen Martin and Sylvia Steele are attending high school in Vermilion. Margaret Steele is also taking grade nine in town. Good luck to you all for the year that is ahead of you.

We understand Arlene Newman, another Preston Central pupil, will be taking Grade 9 at Buffalo Coulee school under Mr. Bauman's guidance again. The best to you, Arlene.

We noticed Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Lyons and two boys of Edmonton in town on Saturday.

Mrs. J. Wilson of Wildmere is teaching grades 4, 5 and 6 at Islay this term. Hubby John will be doing the baching once more during the school week.

Congratulations to all the happy parents on the birth of new babies noticed in the last Standard.

We had chats lately with Mrs. Fraser of Auburndale, Mrs. Moore of Deer Lake (her daughter Edna will be taking a business course at Lloydminster this fall), Mrs. Watson of Hindvile, Mrs. V. Watt near Kitscoty, Mrs. McGuigan and Mrs. Bert Gould of Islay, and Mrs. W. Ford of town.

Old furniture often contains wood of an unusually good quality even though hidden under several coats of paint. A liquid paint remover and a piece of sandpaper, then a new coat of paint or varnish will work wonders with a forgotten piece of furniture.

Family Gathering At Landonville Home

Guests at the Landonville home of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Goad were their daughter Gladys and family Mr and Mrs. Charlie Climie, Stanley and Ruth of Wetaskiwin; and daughter Wilma and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Easterday and their daughter Bernice from South Gate, California.

While they were at home Mr. and Mrs. B. P Goad, Mr. and Mrs. Climie, Mr. and Mrs. Easterday, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McCafferty and Mr. and Mrs Cliff Goad drove to Lac La Biche to attend the wedding of their granddaughter and niece, Miss Leola Schirrmacher and Alfonse Guerena, an event which was greatly enjoyed. Mr and Mrs. Bud Elliott of Dewberry also attended the wedding, a very lovely church ceremony, followed by a reception for well over 200. A big dance was held in the evening with Len McDonald's orchestra from Edmonton supplying the music. An interesting feature was that Leonard and his brothers played at the wedding dance for Leola's parents, 26 years ago at Landonville.

Near the close of the wedding dance at Lac La Biche Leonard asked the crowd how many were in favor of them staying over and having another dance the next night — the crowd approved of this idea in no mean fashion. So they had another dance on Friday night and to prove just how well the orchestra went over $135 was taken in at the door . . . This proves that Lac La Biche isn't too far back in the wilderness after all!

Fine Crop of Plums At Grand View Farm

A very fine crop of plums has been grown this year on L. R. L. Brown's Grand View farm south of Vermilion. The trees were simply loaded. The plums make delicious eating as fresh fruit while the jelly and jam just cannot be beaten for flavor.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

The Paradise Valley schools opened on Tuesday with the following staff: High School: D. Clark, K. Baptist, E. Walter; Jr. High: Mrs. E. Walter, and G. Garnier; Public School: Miss O. Hudson, Mrs. E. Welsh, Miss M. Jeseki. We do not know just what the enrollment is this year, but understand it is up from last year. Nothing has been done towards our new school, but we will look for it next year.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Squires on the birth of a son, Hal Dean, born August 28th at Adanac, Sask. Mrs. Squires was the former Marlene McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conarroe and family and Mrs. Stanton Murray and family of Hinton were down for the long week end. We understand that Mr. Dale Conarroe has been appointed to Marwayne school staff for the coming term.

The Misses Lois and Grace Stoddart left on Sunday for Red Deer where they will in future make their home. Prior to their leaving a social afternoon was spent when a number of their friends gathered to wish them all things good in their new home. We are sorry to see these young ladies leave as they always took part in all social activities such as C.G.I.T., 4-H club work and school sports.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tees whose wedding took place in the Church of God on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Tees is the former Violet Adams. The reception was held in the high school auditorium and an open reception was held at the bride's home in the evening.

Change in U. G. G. Agents

A change has been made in the United Grain Growers' agent at this point. Mr. Bernie Baxter has been transferred to Grande Prairie and Mr. M. Nysetvold comes to Paradise Valley from Lougheed. Mr. and Mrs. Nysetvold and family have taken up residence in the Imperial Lumber Co.'s house.

A number of baseball fans took in the games at Lloydminster when the Lloydminster team eliminated the Edmonton Eskimos. The Lloyd. team had to go back to Edmonton to do the trick. They won the play-offs 3-1 and one tie game. Our sincere condolences to Mr. John Ducey.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart left on Sunday for their annual holiday trip which will take them through B.C. and down to the U.S.A. Mrs. E. L. Kragness will be in charge of the store during their absence.

Prizes for Best Garden Club and Gardens

Miss Mildred Teasdale received the Wheat Pool prize for the best garden plot this year, and the Paradise Valley Club received the Wheat Pool prize for the best Garden club in the Wainwright district for 1956. Mrs. Karlsson and Mrs. Swayne are the leaders. Congratulations, all.

APPLE JUICE

Practically all Canadian apple juice will be fortified this year by adding vitamin C in industry to raise consumption, reports The Financial Post. Fortification began during wartime curtailment of citrus fruits importation. Vitamin C is the "skin vitamin"; lack of it brings scurvy.

Window Dressing Pays Off

The windows of Clendenning's Family Wear store in Vermilion have become quite famous for the original displays carried therein. Quite often these displays depict historical events sports events being held in town, current events, drives and campaigns both local and national, and every so often advertise some specific line of goods.

All these displays attract attention and not the least was the window dressing advertising Bata shoes. So taken were officials of the Bata Shoe Co., with the display that they sent Ernie $25 for the right to publish a picture of the window display and another $5 to pay for the cost of taking the picture.

Series of Special Pictures at Alta Theatre, Mannville

The Alta Theatre at Mannville is running a series of special pictures on Wednesday nights during the fall season. This series is to start on Sept. 12th and the first picture is Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra". This is a mighty motion picture and stars Vivian Leigh, Claude Rains and Stuart Granger.

On Wednesday, Sept. 19th the special picture will be "Melba", the life story of Madame Melba. The title role is taken by Patrice Munsel as the dazzling darling of a fabulous era.

On Wednesday, Sept. 26th Verdi's "Aida" will be playing, surging brilliantly beyond the confines of the stage. It's glorious arias sung by the great operatic voices of our age — it's powerful drama portrayed by a brilliant cast "Aida" is the film of the decade.

Other pictures in this series will include "Bitter Rice", English version and the Golden Coach. There will be two shows each Wednesday and regular prices will prevail.

Participate In Golf Tourney At Vegreville

Three determined Vermilion golfers played in the annual Vegreville Labor Day golf tourney which commenced on Sunday and, due to the rainy day causing a small entry list, was also completed that day. Despite the weather some 45 competed. Al Locke came home with second prize in the first flight; Mac Simonsen captured second in the third flight. Warren Rosequist won the consolation in the fourth flight.

Five Degrees Frost Wednesday Morning

Five degrees of frost were registered at the Beam station here on Wednesday morning, the first frost officially recorded this fall. A shower had fallen earlier that night and a heavy fog was also in evidence. It is hoped that due to these, damage by the frost was kept to a minimum.

Headway on harvest operations were further held up by rain on Saturday and all day Sunday. The precipitation amounted to .10 on Saturday and 28 Sunday which was a very cool and miserable day.

Two bright sunny days have followed the frost of Wednesday morning with warmer weather forecast.

Rotary Enjoys Two Interesting Programs

The plan whereby each member of the Rotary Club arranges the program for one meeting is certainly bringing forth dividends in the way of entertainment.

On Friday, Aug. 24th Ken Rowe was responsible and had as guest speaker Ed. Clark of Lloydminster. Ed is an insurance adjuster and gave the members quite an insight into this comparatively new profession. The meeting was chaired by Ken.

Last Friday Aug. 31st the program took a little different twist when Aldous Kent had a picture of considerable historic value leading up to present day interest, showing the development of the bottling of carbonated soft drinks. The film was a colored movie taking us back to the 19th century. Aldous had a short commentary to make on the local aspects of bottling, and Gerry Stephens was in the chair.

Visitors included Bill Novak who operated the projection machine, Carl Smith of the Canadian Utilities plant who will shortly be transferred to Forestburg as assistant superintendent. Ed Tanner, Charter president of the Canfield, Ohio, Rotary Club, and Bill Skinner, Hank Bestvater and Vern Minor of Lloyd. Rotary.

Hints On Safe Driving Given By President Of National Council of Women Of Canada

DRIVING HINTS [illegible] FAC
DOLLARTON, B.C. — "Every family looks forward with pleasure to a vacation of motoring together. Let it be a good memory through the team work for safety," says Mrs Rex Eaton O.B.E. President of the National Council of Women of Canada representing more than half a million Canadian women.

"The men will do more driving than women on long trips but the one who is not driving has a large part to play in safety," she adds.

In a statement on highway safety, Mrs. Eaton recommends that the rules set out by the National Safety Council which are based on studies of factors causing accidents and which make sense, be followed.

Make sure doors are locked — [illegible] to protect the children, and do keep the children from playing with the door handles or push buttons.

"Children get tired and are apt to disturb the driver by their noise or even by leaning against him. Try to distract them with games for the car or stories related to the trip;

"Sometimes a cold, sweet drink from a thermos will help the situation.

"Keep the front and back windows free of dangling ornaments and parcels interfering with rear vision mirrors;

"Insist on coffee breaks every 2 hours at least, and walk around for a little while;

"Psychologists tell us that an angry person is accident-prone. For safety's sake keep the conversation agreeable while en route.

"We fear accidents which all too frequently spoil a happy holiday but let us do some of these [illegible] things which will help to [illegible] some of the dangers of driving in heavy holiday traffic."

Safe Driving In School Zones Stressed — Passing School Buses

On Tuesday, September 4, thousands children returned to school in all sections of Alberta. Many of these youngsters are walking or riding on the highways, others ride in school buses, but all are excited over the resumption of school days.

The Alberta Safety Council is stressing the need of motorists using extra care as the schools reopen. Just a little caution and a bad accident will be avoided. Perhaps a little less speed and precious human lives will be saved.

The Alberta Safety Council reminds drivers that the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act contains certain sections which are designed to ensure safety for those in school zones.

Subsection 3 of section 42 of the act says "No person shall drive a motor vehicle within any marked school zone on a highway at a rate of speed greater than 25 miles per hour at any time between the hours of eight o'clock in the morning and five o'clock in the afternoon on any day upon which the school is held."

SCHOOL BUSES

Section 56A of the act lays down certain provisions as to overtaking and passing school buses. It says that when a conveyance bearing either the sign 'school bus' or 'school van' has stopped to receive or discharge passengers, no driver of a vehicle shall overtake and pass such conveyance until all persons who are about to enter or leave the same are safely clear of the path of the vehicle.

This section also adds that "When a conveyance which bears the sign 'school bus' or 'school van' has stopped to receive or discharge passengers, no driver of a vehicle approaching from the opposite direction shall pass such conveyance at a rate of speed greater than 25 miles per hour.'

CYCLISTS

The act also prohibits bicyclists or motorcyclists riding more than two abreast on any highway. If two or more bicyclists or motorcyclists are overtaken on a highway by a vehicle travelling in the same direction which sounds its horn to pass, the bicyclist or motorcyclists, as the case may be, shall travel in single file and shall ride as near to the right side of the travelled portion of the highway as circumstances and weather conditions permit.

Paradise Valley Garden Club Hold Mother and Daughter Tea

PARADISE VALLEY—The annual Mother and Daughter tea of the Paradise Valley Garden Club was held on August 21st at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Teasdale. Each Garden Club girl invited her mother and one guest and twenty-four were present. The afternoon's program was begun by giving pink and red corsages to each lady present. Then "O Canada" was sung and the girls gathered together to repeat the symbolic 4-H pledge. A friendly speech of welcome to the guests followed, by the Club leader, Mrs. Ewayne, and the chairman, Miss Marion Holgate added a greeting on behalf of the girls. A demonstration "First Year Planning in the Garden" was very charmingly given by Miss Alice Doty and Miss Mildred Teasdale. Next a very worthwhile demonstration "Things to do in your garden while it grows" was given by Miss Linda Stepenoff and Miss Ellen Teasdale. Two sisters, Miss Ellen and Miss Mildred Teasdale next gave a piano duet which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. A very interesting report was given by Miss Marion Holgate on Club Week at Vermilion which she attended this year as Efficiency winner for the Garden Club. Then Miss Emily Swayne reported on the Provincial Judging Competition at Olds which she and her partner Miss Grace Stoddart attended recently. The girls represented the whole Wainwright district 4-H Garden Clubs. Assistant Leader Mrs. Karlsson gave a short talk in which she welcomed the guests and hoped they enjoyed their afternoon with the Garden Club girls, and thanked the ladies for their support.

A lovely lunch was then gracefully served by the girls. Mrs. Gunn moved a vote of thanks to them on behalf of all the ladies present. The girls moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Teasdale for entertaining everyone in her lovely home. The program was concluded by singing of God Save The Queen.

Business Ahead

Canadian buyers remarks The Financial Post are inclined to agree with optimistic reports of (U.S.) National Association of Purchasing Agents on the business prospects through 1956. U.S. group, bearish in May June bases bullish view on orders upturn which followed labor settlements even though many prices higher. Some steel mills won't even be able to clear present backlog orders until 1957.

U. S. CONTROL

A list of 12 products of which newsprint and fertilizers are the only two that can be considered fully manufactured, accounts for 65% of all Canadian exports to the United States, reports The Financial Post. And it adds more than half this 65% comes from companies which are controlled and owned in the States.

U.S.-owned companies contribute nothing to the 35% of Canadian exports to the U.S. outside this list of little-processed materials.

Generous Offer Made By Hollander

Mr Jan de Jong of Nymegen, Holland who is a nephew of Mr H Van den Dolder of Vermilion, writes to his uncle that he has visited the graves of many Canadian soldiers in that country. He has kindly offered to take pictures of the grave of any friend or relative of anyone in Vermilion or district and will send them to all wishing them.

Any person reading this who desires the picture of a grave anywhere in Holland, should contact Mr H Van den Dolder, Vermilion.

In gratitude for what the Canadians did for Holland during the war Mr Jong will supply the photos absolutely free of cost.

The Dutch people take wonderful care of the graveyards of the soldiers and these are beautifully kept. 9-10

WOODVALE NOTES

Guests, rain and canning have kept us from writing any news and before more rain and more canning interfere again, we'll put down some of the notes made in August.

FINE EXAM RESULTS

First of all belated congratulations to the four girls, Emma Marklund, Margaret Nelson, Margaret McGrath and Irene Wolters who passed their grade 9 exams with such excellent marks and who all plan to take grade 10 in Vermilion.

There will be quite a number of new grade 1 pupils this year, giving Mrs. Roberts a very large class. We hear that they had to take a test before school started.

Art Pelletier will be driving the children in the south-west half to school. He returned home on Aug. 26th from Prince George where he worked this summer and bought a new motor car. He should have no trouble on the route because the east-west road and several side roads have been heavily gravelled, new approaches made and a big culvert put in the coulee near Arnet Brown's place, instead of the old bridge.

Ernie Isley will be teaching at South Ferriby school north-east of Marwayne. After summer school he took a trip to Windsor, Ont., with a friend to drive new school-busses back for the latter.

The dance at Woodvale hall was quite a success with a large crowd enjoying the evening there. That night Bill and Dorothy Wells returned with their baby from Saskatchewan and are once again working at the Cross ranch north of Vermilion.

On August 21st Fernand Goutier died at the age of 60 of a heart attack in St. Albert. He came to Canada 50 years ago from his native France and in 1910 he with his parents and brothers settled on the farm in Woodvale where his brother Paul and family still live. Fernand had been in poor health for the last few years and retired to a home in St. Albert three years ago where his brother Peter joined him last September. Paul and Joseph went to the funeral which was held in St. Albert on the 25th of August. Sympathy of the district goes to his brothers, nephews and nieces.

Mr C. Friedland was a visitor to our home a few weeks ago and though he visits in these parts often, we had not seen him in quite a few years. He was as cheerful and friendly as in the years when he lived in Woodvale. Despite his age, 85 years, and the use of a cane, since a serious car accident several years ago, he has not aged a bit.

Rev. T. E. Roulston of Olds, has been taking Mr. Philis' place for the past two weeks as the latter has been supervising a camp at Sylvan Lake. Mr. Roulston enjoyed meeting his old friends again from twenty-two years ago, when he worked in this field as a student minister. The enjoyment was mutual.

Mr and Mrs. J. Hohol and children made a four-day trip to Edmonton and Flatbush, visiting relatives.

Mr and Mrs. Otto Weissenberger and son, after a visit home, took Mr Proctor back with them for a visit to Toronto.

Sgt. Bernard Portsmith of Toronto, and whose parents live in the Tolland district, was recommended for a language course in Ottawa. As he is taking Russian, it is very likely that he will be stationed in that country in another year attached to the legation. We wish him success in this study. It is, we understand, one of the more difficult languages to master.

Mr and Mrs. Bill Green of Edmonton were guests at the home of Mr and Mrs. T. Preston the week end of the 26th. Daughter Joan is spending a four months vacation in England.

"TIDE RIPS"

By JIM BRAHAN

Nothing tugs at the heart-strings of a sailor like the sight of a crippled child.

This was borne out during a cruise HMCS "Ontario" made to New Zealand. The Canadian cruiser was open to visitors at Dunedin, when 8-year-old Alister MacLay, who had been crippled by polio, came aboard.

The youngster was having a difficult time trying to make his way around the various parts of the warship, when his plight was spotted by one of the crewmen. The husky seaman picked the boy up and carried him wherever he wanted to go for the remainder of the afternoon.

The two became fast friends during the course of the visiting hours, and when the ship was cleared of visitors the New Zealand lad remained aboard for supper as a guest of the engineering mechanics.

Before he was returned to his home in the ship's jeep, he was decked out in a cut-down naval uniform and loaded for bear with chocolate bars and assorted candies.

The little fellow had made such an impression on the Canadians that permission was obtained from the ship's captain and the boy's parents for him to sail with them to Wellington, N.Z., which was the ship's next port of call.

The "Ontario's" small guest was taken on a sight-seeing tour of Wellington and topped off a perfect day by paying each and every animal in the city's zoo a personal visit. It was hard to tell who was having the most fun, the youngster, or his Canadian guides. But, as with all good things, the end must come and Alister was placed aboard a commercial plane and flown home to Dunedin.

In addition to paying Alister's plane fare home the officers and men of HMCS "Ontario" presented him with a cheque for $500. The money had been raised by voluntary subscription from the Canadians for the welfare of the youngster and his three brothers, and one sister, two of whom were also crippled.

Lots of Them

It's much too early to shed a tear over the much-talked-of demise of family business in Canada, says The Financial Post. The latest DBS report indicates that in the major field of manufacturing individual or family ownership is still dominant though incorporated companies are closing up fast.

Of almost 37,000 classified manufacturing establishments in Canada 43.8% are under individual ownership and 39.5% are incorporated companies. Ten years ago the percentages were 47.3% and 33.4% respectively. In the same period partnerships have declined from 16% to 14.2% and co-operatives from 3.2% to 2.6%.

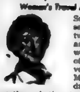
Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority



September is the season of the two "S's", school and safety, as well as the time of the more conventional 3 "Rs". Millions of children are thronging through the streets this month in their annual trek back to school.

The alarming records of school accidents can be decreased this school year if parents, motorists, school authorities and children themselves all work together. Motorists can carry their share of the burden of safety for the nation's children by being particularly alert, especially in school areas, and by obeying all traffic regulations. But the majority of responsibility for seeing that children reach school safely falls to parents. Here are some rules which parents will do well to follow.

Set a good example for children to follow by obeying traffic regulations and exercising courtesy and consideration in your own driving.

Take the children to school until they know the safe way. The route selected should be protected by adult crossing guards and school safety patrol members.

Impress upon them the importance of traffic safety rules, so they will give unquestioning respect and obedience to them.

Always see that your child leaves the car from the curb side.

In your own driving avoid double-parking near schools. Park only in designated areas.

83 Miles of Pipe Laid In Trans-Canada Gas Line

CALGARY. — Approximately 83 miles of 34-inch pipe have been placed in the ground by the two contractors working on the western section of the Trans-Canada Pipe Lines' natural gas line from Burstall, Sask., to Winnipeg.

Right-of-way has been cleared and graded for 106 miles, pipe has been strung 109 miles, 100 miles of ditching has been completed, 91 miles of bending, 86 miles of pipe has been welded, 86.2 miles of pipe has been cleaned, primed, coated, wrapped, 83 miles has been lowered in the ditch, 73 miles of ditch has been backfilled and 74.5 miles of right-of-way has been cleaned up, terraced, tilled and had fences restored.

Working on the project are Majestic Contractors Limited, from Burstall, Sask., to Leinan, north of Swift Current, and Canadian Bechtel Limited from Leinan to Pense east of Moose Jaw. Each contractor has a spread of about 110 miles.

Majestic has almost completed its construction through the Great Sand Hills south of Leader, Sask. Operations in this area were not as difficult as had been anticipated. There were a few cave-ins of the ditch and the coating and wrapping operations preceded by a clamshell ditcher were not delayed.

Majestic has moved its base of operations from Leader to Cabri and Canadian Bechtel has moved from Swift Current to Moose Jaw. Trans-Canada's western division construction office is at Regina and the district office remains at Swift Current.

Temperature and moisture conditions in the fall are ideal for reseeding and fertilizing your lawn. Because the grass "hibernates" during the winter months it is important to give it an extra supply of food such as Gardenite. Care should be taken to spread the fertilizer evenly over the entire lawn.

BRAIN FAMINE

Of all the labor shortages which threaten to hamper the expansion of Canadian industry, the most serious are those which will hit the longest, says Mac... Burtway in The Financial Post.

Worse than the shortage of skilled hands is the lack of trained minds. And, whatever we do now, this is a shortage which will dog Canadian industry, business and government for at least four or five years to come.

Worst shortage now are: 1. Engineers; 2. other professionally ... senior executives, applied scientists, especially geologists, economists, commerce and business administration graduates, teachers (especially for high school levels).

Worst shortages in prospect for 1960 are: 1. the same. 2. the same.

Successful Horticulture Show At Marwayne Is Well Attended

The third Annual Horticulture Show, sponsored by the Marwayne F. W. U. A. was held in the Elks hall on Friday, August 17th, with many attending.

All classes were well filled, with dahlias and bouquets for effect being the largest. The 4H Grain table was disappointing.

The lunch table where tea, coffee, buns and pie were served was very popular, also the produce table. The "Sniffle Tree" was very attractive and the sum of $11.00 was realized from the sale of hankies for the Home and School Association.

During the afternoon N. N. Bentley, Principal of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, and the judge of the show, gave a very informative talk on judging standards. He also announced the names of the prize winners as follows:

The exhibitors, those who donated prizes, or helped in any way to make the show such a success are sincerely thanked by the Marwayne Horticultural Society.

MISS ALICE KEITH

RECEIVES GIFT OF $1800.00

District-Wide Gathering Sunday In Honor of Miss Alice Keith, Retiring Hospital Matron

Appreciation for a working lifetime spent on their behalf was shown by more than seven hundred people who gathered at the Vermilion Park on Sunday to pay tribute to Miss Alice Keith, matron and superintendent of the Vermilion Municipal Hospital for the past thirty-six years. It was the largest gathering of its kind in the history of Vermilion and district. In fact, it was the first occasion at which people from east and west, north and south, and townsfolk all joined to honor one of their citizens.

Miss Keith retires from her duties at the end of September. While her future plans are indefinite it is hoped that she will reside in Vermilion where her friends and well-wishers are legion. During his address Mayor Melvin Hill digressed for a moment and asked the crowd how many of them had been born in the Vermilion hospital. A regular forest of hands was the answer.

Miss Keith graduated from the Royal Alexandra hospital in Edmonton in 1919. Following graduation she remained on the staff there until she came to Vermilion to the newly built municipal hospital. Nurse Keith remained here until 1929 when she returned to the staff of the Royal Alexandra. In the fall of that same year she went to the University of Toronto for a course in Public Health. Following the completion of this she joined the Dept. of Public Health of Toronto as a public health nurse. She remained in that position until 1932 when she was induced to return to the Vermilion hospital.

As matron and superintendent of the Vermilion municipal hospital she has seen the original hospital grow from twenty beds in 1920 to 37 in 1940 when a new wing was added. There was a further enlargement in 1953, bringing the hospital to 54 beds with the very latest in operating theatres, case rooms, wards and equipment.

No one knows a vocation or profession like one who has grown up in it - and such is the position of Miss Keith with the Vermilion hospital. The institution has prospered under her careful management as superintendent, the thousands of patients benefitted by her kindly personal interest and attention as matron. She well deserved the praise and tribute paid her by the speakers of the afternoon.

The program was informal and carried out in the band shell at the beach. Brenton A. Macnab, chairman of the hospital board acted as [illegible] and first called upon His Worship, Mayor Melvin Hill.

Mr. Hill explained the reason for the gathering. He explained how well the plan of expressing community wide appreciation had been received and supported. He stated that her kindness, care and personal interest in the patients was truly exceptional, and told of the variety of work she had done during the years the hospital was growing up. His Worship in closing his remarks used the Biblical quotation which so [illegible] of mercy spent in Vermilion, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant".

S. C. Heckbert said in his remarks that by her effective, efficient and acceptable service for more than thirty years Miss Keith had created a place for herself in the hearts of the people of this community.

At this stage Mrs. Hilda Cross presented the guest of honor with a beautiful basket of flowers on behalf of the Graduate Nurses' Association. Mr B. A. Macnab followed with a gift from the Hospital Board.

PURSE OF $1800

Dr. C. W. Stephens was called upon and in the course of his remarks handed Miss Keith a purse of $1800 as a gesture of appreciation for devoted service over a period of 33 years. The Doctor suggested that this amount would go a long way toward the purchase of a new car. The purse was accompanied by a scroll on which were listed the names of her well-wishers.

The honored guest was amazed at the magnificent gesture, and in acknowledgment stated that the gathering alone, just seing so many friends, would have been sufficient tribute and satisfaction. She then thanked everyone for the wonderful gift, for coming to the party, and stated that the list of names which accompanied such a breath-taking present would be prized all the rest of her life.

J. W. G. Morrison and Charles E. Thompson, two men of keen foresight who had been instrumental in the formation of the municipal hospital district back in 1918-19, both former chairmen of the board and who had been responsible for the selection of Miss Alice Keith as matron, spoke briefly. Their choice at that time was justified during the passing years. In their remarks each recalled interesting happenings of the early years on the hospital board, and each seemed to have a wealth of knowledge of the history of the hospital building and district.

The crowd at the conclusion broke into that well known laudatory song, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow", sung with deep feeling and zest by [illegible] who had gathered to pay public tribute to the devoted service of Miss Alice Keith.

The large gathering then broke up into lunch parties with coffee being made and served by members of the I.O.D.E. [illegible]

Mannville H. and S. To Meet Sept. 20th

MANNVILLE — The Mannville and District Home and School Association will commence the fall term meetings on Sept. 20th. This should prove to be a very interesting meeting and it is hoped that parents and others will do their utmost to attend. The executive is procuring a film and has other entertainment lined up as well. The presentation of scholarships, introduction of the teachers and display of work the local pupils had entered in the fair ... [illegible]

Danger In Handling out of condition Grain

The Canadian Wheat Board issued the following press release on September 7th:

"The Canadian Wheat Board today indicated that if producers thresh out-of-condition grain they must be prepared to store such grain on their farms until it can be delivered under unit and general delivery quotas as established from time to time by the Board."

The Wheat Board has also announced that they will not be granting out-of-turn cars for the shipment of out-of-condition grain, and farmers must be prepared to store such grain until it can be handled under the regular quota system.

Earl Pollard Wins Stock Car Races At Lloydminster

Earl Pollard of Vermilion invaded Lloydminster Stock Car races last Sunday and emerged the big winner for the day.

Besides winning two preliminary 10 lap races, "The Earl of Pollard" stepped out against eleven other cars in the feature 20 lap race, and romped home the winner.

In the feature race Earl had number 7 position, which meant that from the start he had six cars ahead of him. However, by a combination of skillful driving and split-second acceleration from his Ford V-8 "85" motor, lead position was gained with three laps to go and never relinquished. Pit mechanics were Gerald Isley and Gordon Allen.

It will be recalled that Earl Pollard won the Rotarian-sponsored car roadeo here last spring over a field of 15 drivers.

Stock car racing is heralded as the fastest growing sport in Canada today, and viewing the crowd at Lloydminster on Sunday it can be seen why. A suggestion made is that some parent body sponsor a club locally so a circuit can be run between all interested points from Saskatoon to Edmonton. It has its merits, and stock car races are a great spectator sport.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Rev. C. W. MacKay left on Sunday for Windsor, Ont. where he will attend the General Conference of the United Church of Canada. The sessions last for three weeks.

New Wheat Goes 40 Bus., Grades No. 3

Tom Sherwood of the Bowtell district delivered the first wheat of the 1956 crop to Logan Gow at the National Elevator at Borradaile on Monday this week. The grain was stook threshed, being cut and stooked before the frost. Tom had 100 acres of the wheat and it yielded 40 bushels to the acre. It is grading No. 3.

V.S.A. OPENING OCTOBER 30th

Fall term of the schools of agriculture will begin Oct. 30th, it was announced Monday.

Agriculture department officials say this is a week later than normal but it is believed the later opening will tie in more conveniently with harvesting operations. Last year, opening of the schools' fall term was delayed a week by the harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wood on Holiday Trip

Two Die In Highway Collision Ten Miles West of Vermilion

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wood of 11646 - 72 Avenue, Edmonton, met sudden death on highway 16 ten miles west of Vermilion on Saturday morning, Sept. 8th about 11 o clock when their new 1956 model car and a loaded tank truck were in collision. Melvin James, driver of the truck was uninjured except for bruises and a severe shaking up. Both vehicles ended up in the ditch on the north side of the highway. Neither car nor truck turned over, with the car being almost completely demolished and wedged under the engine of the truck. The tank truck was loaded with hot asphalt.

Mr and Mrs. Wood, well known residents of Edmonton, left the city that morning for a month long holiday trip to Eastern Canada to visit their son John at Peterborough, Ont. They had visited the East before but were making their first trip by car. A new car had been purchased for the holiday and had been driven only 1400 miles. The couple have only one other child, a daughter Marjorie, who resides in Edmonton. Mr. Wood was 59 years of age and Mrs. Wood 61. Mr. Wood was comptroller for Alberta Government Telephones. The bodies were taken to Edmonton for post-mortem examinations, and funeral services were held at Holy Trinity Anglican church on Tuesday afternoon.

The tank truck belonged to the Willoughby Trucking firm of Lloydminster and was engaged in hauling hot asphalt for highway surfacing from the Husky plant at Lloydminster to a point near Lacombe. The driver, Melvin James, was a new employee with Willoughby's but had [illegible] experience as a truck driver with the Husky Oil Co. He is 21 years of age, and claims to have had a full eight hours sleep the previous night. He also claims to be a teetotaler.

The accident happened on a mile of perfectly level straight road, where visibility was perfect. No other vehicles were involved in the crash and as far as known there were no witnesses to the fatal accident. R.C.M.P. are studying car and truck tracks and are investigating the case fully. An inquest will be held.

The actual collision took place well on the truck's side of the road. James states that he noticed the car coming and that it was over on his side of the highway. He swung over to his wrong side, thinking to avoid it but the huge weight of the oil tanker swerved him back to his own side of the highway and into the oncoming passenger car.

Lady Addresses Board Meeting

Miss Lillian Quesnel, a former Alberta high school teacher and now with the Johnson-O'Connor Research Foundation of New York, was the guest speaker at the Board of Trade meeting on Wednesday.

The Research Foundation deals with aptitude testing and research and Miss Quesnel gave some of the tests applied in evaluating the [illegible] talents of men and women. The services of the Foundation were in demand by many companies employing large numbers, in order that the proper avenue was found for each one. An employee is much more valuable doing work for which he is suited than if he were placed in the wrong department or type of work.

The talk was very informative and given in an entertaining and interesting manner. Numerous questions were asked and answered.

There was a very good attendance with the chairmen being Ross Boake president of the Board.

St. Paul Bears Win Final Game 7 to 6

TIGERS LOSE BASEBALL TITLE

St. Paul Bears won two titles on Sunday afternoon — champions of [illegible] league and for the biggest and best exhibition of beefing ever made in a Vermilion ball park. The boys from the north were behind until the ninth inning when they ran in four runs to tie the count at 6-6, then in the top half of the extra frame they squeezed over the winning run, holding the Tigers scoreless in [illegible].

The locals ran in three runs in their half of the first and at the end of the 8th apparently had the game well in hand, 6 to 2. Bob Holowattie was on the mound for the locals and had the Bears thoroughly tamed. He was backed up by timely hitting and never was in difficulty. However, he had to leave at the end of the 8th and veteran pitcher Ray Jones went to the hill. Ray was in difficulties from the beginning, a hit, two walks and a three-bagger and the damage was done. Ernie Larcombe took over to finish the inning, but four runs had come in to knot the count. In the lower half of the 9th the Tigers were snuffed out without scoring and the game went into extra innings.

St Paul squeezed Kotowich across with what proved to be the winning run in the top half of the 10th. Vermilion was left with two on in their turn at bat, the game ending St. Paul 7, Vermilion 6.

This broke Vermilion's hold on the league cup as they have held it for three consecutive seasons.

Stan Roberts went the route for the Bears in winning the title.

Irvine Gordon was umpire.

District Governor Visits Vermilion Rotary Club Friday Evening

Returning to Vermilion some 25 years after his last visit when he was a commercial traveller District Harry Hutchings of Medicine Hat made his official visit to the Vermilion Rotary Club last Friday evening.

The meeting convened in the Anglican parish hall where the Rotarians and their wives enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner served by St. Saviour's Women's Auxiliary.

Following the introduction of visitors and the presentation by Ben King of an appropriate birthday gift to the Club's most cigar smoking member Bill Sutherland the gathering was addressed by the District Governor. His message dealt with ... use of their "God-given" resources. To this end he urged Rotarians everywhere to greater individual participation in vocational, community and international service. He described Rotary clubs in the smaller centres like Vermilion and his own town of Medicine Hat as the "cornerstones of Rotary". Such clubs in his view, provided excellent avenues for Rotarians to make their influence felt for the good of their community and its people.

Following a club assembly where details of the Club's activities were discussed Ken Rowe presented a program of color pictures which he took this past spring in the course of an extended European tour. [illegible]

Highway Accident At Mannville Takes Life

A highway accident about 8:00 o'clock Wednesday evening claimed the life of Jack Cannan, a well known and long time resident of the Innisfree district. He was about fifty years of age.

It appears that Mr. and Mrs. Cannan had come to Mannville in the afternoon to visit their son who is a patient in the Mannville hospital. They had remained in town and Mrs Cannan was at the hospital in the evening with her son where her husband was to call for her. About 8:00 p.m. Mr. Cannan was driving south to the hospital from Mannville and on crossing the highway at the main intersection was in collision with a large moving van which was travelling west. The car was dragged a considerable distance. A second moving van travelling a short distance behind avoided a further collision by driving into and running along the ditch.

Just six miles further east a highway accident took the lives of two Edmonton people only five days before.

All the boys and girls who took the tests are expected to attend to receive their awards and they are invited to bring along their friends and members of the family. A movie short on swimming and water safety will be shown.

Mr Sydney Moore the swimming instructor has received inquiries regarding a community recreation program. Those people interested in such a program will please attend with their proposed plan and questions concerning its connection with the Provincial Community Recreation plan. Someone will be there to answer the inquiries.

SCHOOL DAYS WILL BE SAFER DAYS—

The Labour Day week end, the last of our summer driving extravaganzas is behind us. Deaths in Canada over the holiday week end totalled 45. Over the same period in 1955, 35 people were killed. This represents an improvement of sixteen percent, though we can scarcely refer to the killing of 45 people as an improvement.

Every province in Canada has stepped up its enforcement program and has extended its road improvement program. We are paying attention to Enforcement and Engineering, but we are neglecting to make the most of Education, which is the most important of the three "E's" of accident reduction.

Accidents are prevented through education. It is probably the strongest weapon we have. Education in our schools brings regimentation both for the children and for their families. Regimentation brings discipline. Discipline [illegible] and control — self-control or group control — outlaws accidents.

Now that [illegible] are back to school, week end travel has lessened, holiday trucking is over and pleasure driving [illegible]. We can look for fewer [illegible] because of less traffic density and fewer driver distractions. The classroom lessons in safe walking will infect child and parent alike. The children will be doing their share to remind us to drive and walk carefully. May we hope that as adults we will take a good look at our driving habits and try to drive with care and courtesy.

Accidents happen one at a time. They may be prevented one at a time. There are very few traffic accidents which would occur if the situation repeated itself. Few of us drive as well as we know how to drive.

Days grow shorter. Night comes quickly. Roads are more slippery. Driving conditions in general become more difficult during the fall. We must pay attention to these things and by our watchfulness prove that September, October and November need not be serious accident months.

Hazardous Whooper Flight Starting Soon

Residents of the prairie provinces were alerted this week by the Audubon Society of Canada for the dramatic fall migration of the world's last flock of whooping cranes. In sending out its annual appeal for [illegible] guidance of Canada's rarest [illegible] to their wintering grounds in Texas, the [illegible] warned [illegible] in the whoopers' most [illegible] period.

Five feet tall, with a seven-foot wingspread, the whooping cranes have long been tempting targets for careless shooters. Through eastern Alberta, Saskatchewan, western Manitoba, the Dakotas, Nebraska, [illegible] and Texas, in coming weeks the birds will face their sternest test.

During September, October and early November, the period during which the cranes must move 2,500 miles from the Northwest Territories to the Gulf of Mexico, the migration route is lined with hunters. Indiscriminate shooting can have disastrous consequences, the Audubon researchers said, because in order to maintain a safe breeding population, mortality must be cut by at least 50%.

Confusion with other birds is frequent, but whooping cranes may be identified by their habit of flying with long neck outstretched and long legs trailing. They are snowy white with jet black wingtips — as though the wings had been dipped in India ink. Other large white birds may have short legs, or fly with the head tucked back, or have completely white wings. But if everyone REFRAINS from shooting at ANY LARGE WHITE BIRD, the cranes' chances will be enhanced.

Conservationists, naturalists, citizens, farmers, sportsmen generally are urged to help spread the word. Do not shoot at ANY large white bird. It might be a whooping crane. Let's make our slogan — "KEEP THE CRANES FLYING".

Fred Brimacombe Sends Best Wishes

Fred Brimacombe sends along the following letter to the Standard. It is self explanatory.

"I find around our home that the "Standard" is a very important piece of reading material, and so I am [illegible] of the fact that our subscription is not up to date. I am enclosing $10.00 so that we may continue enjoying the Vermilion news for another five years.

We have just returned from a very enjoyable holiday in the Detroit Lakes area of Minnesota. It is our second year in this area, and we are very [illegible] in our praise of the facilities here.

We are all well and Helen and myself are enjoying the City of Brandon and the Province of Manitoba. Our children — Doug 10, Lynne 8, Elizabeth 5, and Karen 3, are all well and growing tremendously. Doug is playing Little League baseball and seems to be a better prospect than his father or any of his uncles.

Please convey to our many friends in Vermilion our sincere best wishes and suggest to them that they are [illegible] a very fine town in the Town of Vermilion."

"GREEN ACRES"

CUTTING FROSTED GRAIN

It is usually said that 5 degrees of frost over five hours will freeze grain crops so that all growth is stopped. Such frozen grain does not fill any further so it should be cut down right away. We did not get quite that much frost Tuesday night but almost. I think everyone knows that there is no use in leaving frozen green feed. The straw soon gets so woody that it is almost worthless for stock feed.

DIGGING "GLADS"

Gladioli bulbs keep on growing even after hard frosts so it is better to delay digging until Sept. 15th. Dig on a warm day, cut the stalks off close to the bulbs. Then dry the bulbs thoroughly by putting out in the sun for several days in shallow boxes or trays. Take the boxes in at night. Store in a cool place. If possible keep at a temperature of 35 to 40 degrees through the winter. Get a circular from this office on treatment of glad bulbs before storage for disease and thrips.

RAMS FOR SALE

It pays to buy rams early before the good ones are all gone. A price list is now available for Suffolk and Hampshire rams. The Department of Agriculture buyer is prepared to buy purebred rams for you and ship them free freight at cost price.

SEPTIC TANK FORMS

The Agricultural Engineer of the Provincial Department of Agriculture has drawn blueprints for septic tank forms. These are available from this office [illegible] a firm in [illegible] is prepared to rent out a set of forms for concrete work of a septic tank. Particulars are available from this office.

DEHORN THE CALVES

If you leave the horns on calves any longer it is going to be harder on you and harder on the calves. Calf dehorners are available for loan from this office.

SPIDER MITES ON SPRUCE

This pest is common in this area. They are so small that few people can see them except in bright sun light. If they are present on the spruce twigs use Malathion spray this fall and again next spring. They may kill the trees if neglected.

RATS ON THE MOVE

Everyone on farms or in towns living in ranges 1, 2 and 3 West of the 4th Meridian should check their buildings, lumber piles and under granaries for rats. At this time of year rats move to new places so everyone ought to be on the look out for them. Get poison bait free of charge from your municipal office. I think everyone knows that it is a violation of the Pest Control Act to have rats and not report them.

SPRAYING CATTLE FOR LICE

Every cattleman knows that lice on his cattle cause very big losses. Kits with pressure pumps are now available at reasonable prices. I can recommend for groups of several farmers to go together on getting one of these kits and spray cattle for lice and warbles. A lot of these units are in use in other parts of Alberta. Full particulars can be had at my office.

SAVE YOUR LAWN

Every year snow mould kills out patches of grass in quite a few lawns. Bichlorate of Mercury (corrosive sublimate) put on the lawns before the first lasting snow in the fall will control snow mould. Anyone interested can get information from this office.

COMBINE VERSUS BINDER

There are still too many binders being used in this area. Recent trials have shown that it is cheaper by $1.00 per acre or 4.7 cents per bushel to use swathers and combines instead of binders.

FALL CULTIVATION

Let us not forget fall cultivation of the summer fallow. Often the thistles, couch grass and toad flax are neglected at harvest time. This is a big mistake as a lot of the work already done is wasted if the perennial weeds get [illegible] again during harvest. Also it pays well to go [illegible] the stubble with diskers, oneways or cultivators. The time to fight perennials is in the fall.

Repeal of the centre parking by-law, long in vogue in Vermilion, was deferred until a later meeting of the council.

A new boiler for the power plant has been unloaded and the crew is hard at work in preparation for its installation.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

SEPT. 10th, 1924

The town council has proclaimed Sept. 17th a civic half holiday. The annual school fair is being held that day.

The O.E.S. gave a farewell party for Mrs. Wm. Pinkard who is leaving town.

G. J. Algot of Angle Lake is leaving this week by truck for Portland, Oregon for a visit there for the first time in 23 years.

Albert S. Rosborough, a V.H.S. graduate, has now received his medical degree from McGill university.

During the year 1923 Vermilion exported a total of 170 horses and 8,735 head of cattle, of which 3261 were for local markets. Value of the cattle shipped was more than $350,000.

Bulk of the grain in the Vermilion district will be in stock by the end of this week. No frost has been recorded to date.

SCHOOL HIVE OF ACTIVITY

The school is once again a hive of activity with three new teachers. While there are quite a few beginners a number of the older students are scattered far and wide. Clara Green is attending Strathcona Composite in Edmonton, Shirley Love is at the Wetaskiwin high school, Gloria Gannon is at the Separate school in Vegreville, and Norma Harle and [illegible] Brooks are at Vermilion High. NEWLYWEDS HONOURED

On Wednesday of last week a shower was held in the B. C. gym. for another pair of newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cooper. A good crowd was in attendance. Hazel Brooks and Nancy McInnis wheeled in a prettily decorated carriage containing many useful and beautiful gifts. Both Sidney and Beth thanked their friends for the gifts and good wishes extended to them.

It is nice to have so many new girls coming in to our community as brides and we feel they will all make a worthwhile contribution to the life and activities of the district.

W. M. S. MEETING

The Autumn Leaf W.M.S. group of the Auburndale church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Everett last Thursday. Following the devotional and business meeting a very interesting report of Conference was given by Mrs. Hamilton of Wainwright. Mrs. Hamilton is president of St. Paul Presbyterial and was accompanied by Mrs. L. M. Mitchell, Mrs. Stuart and Mrs. Robinson, all of Wainwright.

ATTEND RECEPTION HONOURING MISS KEITH

Quite a few people from B. C. attended the reception for Miss A. Keith at the Park last Sunday afternoon. The number present testified to the high esteem in which Miss Keith is held in the community. To one who has given so much of herself and her time over and above the call of duty, the very best wishes for a long and happy period of retirement.

Last Sunday was our last church service of the season with Mr. Smith but it is hoped to have Mr. MacKay hold some services a little later, after he returns from Dominion Council.

NEWS from ISLAY

School is now in operation with a full staff, not to mention full classrooms, some 95 pupils. The teachers are Mr. Moncrieff, Principal; Mrs. Irene Wilson and Mrs. Alex Dupuit. Mrs. Dupuit has the pleasure of nine beginners. The wee tots were starry-eyed, no tears, but can't say the same for some mammas. It's a great day!

A funny thing heard of a beginner here, but not this year's: A wee boy went home from his first day and said, "Mother, my teacher is awfully nice, she didn't yell at me once!"

The Sunday school weiner roast and picnic held Saturday was much enjoyed. Weather was ideal. After the holidays children were ready for such an outing.

Mrs. Curtis of Dewberry passed away in the Islay hospital after a lengthy illness on Tuesday morning. Another pioneer gone. Many have known her kindness and help all through the years since 1906.

Mr. Bill King, C.N.R. agent here is really doing his bit to help out the labor shortage on the farm. He goes as soon as the office closes to stook and has been working at Charlie Redmond's.

Rambler is the name of a new variety of alfalfa showing promise in the Peace River regions reports the Beaverlodge experimental farm. Seed will not be available to farmers for another two years.

Newlyweds To Reside At Buffalo Coulee

TOWE — ZIEGLER

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the United church at Vegreville when Miss Barbara Lillian Ziegler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ziegler, became the bride of Mr. William Earl Towe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Towe of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.

Rev. G. B. Mather performed the marriage ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle, styled with a fitted bodice of lace. Her gown featured a scalloped neckline and lilypoint sleeves, with a bouffant skirt fashioned of nylon tulle over net and taffeta. Her fingertip veil was caught to a crown of sequins and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Elizabeth Lowe, cousin of the bride, and Miss Helen Barr of Lloydminster, were bridesmaids. They wore identical waltz-length gowns of lace and tulle in shades of yellow and green respectively. Each wore a picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Albert Clelland of Vermilion and Mr. Arthur Cunningham of Edmonton, cousin of the bride, attended the groom.

Ushers were Mr. J. P. Winter of Vermilion, brother-in-law of the bride and Mr. Allan Cunningham of Vermilion, cousin of the bride. Mrs. William Nicholson played the wedding music and Miss Janice Whitson was soloist.

Later an open house was held at the home of the bride where Rev. G. B. Mather proposed the toast to the bride.

For a wedding trip to Prince Albert National Park the bride donned a box suit of pastel green tweed with white accessories. She wore red roses on corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Towe will make their home in the Buffalo Coulee district in Vermilion.

Stagettes Reorganize

President	Jean Hildreth
Vice-President	Ethel Dickson
Secretary	Doris Schmidt
Treasurer	Kay Stewart
Reporter	Len Miller

Sister Stagettes! The above slate of officers have volunteered to take on the responsibility for 1956-57. For the first time in the history of the Vermilion Stagette Club we have run up against a situation like this. Proof that the old saying "Once a Stagette, Always a Stagette" is deep rooted.

Right at the moment your reporter is not so sure that we are taking a lot for granted. Kay isn't as yet conscious of the fact that she volunteered. "He who hesitates is in." It's like this, Kay, there just weren't enough to go around.

Those wishing to obtain their August monthly bulletin and a June issue may do so. Secretary Doris Schmidt has them in her possession.

Note District Convention Reports to be discussed at National under District Notes: these resolutions will be dealt with at the next meeting. Also National Stagette Week.

Until next week, how about a check list?

Don Raum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Raum, is home on leave from the RCAF at Penhold.

Cooper-Elwood Nuptials at Mannville

MANNVILLE.—A quiet but very nice wedding was solemnized in the Anglican Parish hall recently when Beth Elwood, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Elwood of Irma, became the bride of Sydney Cooper, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cooper of Vermilion.

Rev. C. C. MacPherson officiated at the ceremony.

The altar and hall were decorated with pastel gladioli and other summer flowers for the occasion. Mrs. J. Johnstone played the wedding music, as the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride chose a suit of Rosewood English worsted complemented with a hat comprised of powder blue velvet leaves, powder blue blouse and gloves. She carried a white prayer book with white satin streamers tied with lily of the valley. Her corsage was of white carnations, stephanotis and fern.

The bridesmaid, who was Miss Enid Cooper, sister of the groom, chose a turquoise blue suit with hat to match. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

Mr. Ian Pallister of Vermilion attended the groom.

Mr. Tom Laidler and Mr. George Barlow, cousins of the bride and groom respectively, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black and white nylon mesh dress with a white felt hat. She wore pink carnations on corsage.

The groom's mother chose a charcoal taffeta dress, embossed with pink sprays and pink carnations on corsage.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Jim Johnstone sang "O Perfect Love."

A reception was held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Laidler, uncle and aunt of the bride. Mr. J. Hills proposed the toast to the bride, which was fittingly replied to by the groom.

The happy couple will reside on the groom's farm in the Buffalo Coulee district, south-east of Mannville.

Miss Cora Mahan, who has been nursing at Red Deer, was a visitor in town last week. She has recently accepted a new position at Ponoka and returns to that town when recommencing her work.

WILDMERE WINKS

Our weather has been much better and farmers have been making good use of it. Harvesting is going ahead and next it will be the hum of threshing machines and combines—if it stays dry.

Preston Central school opened last Wednesday, with Mr. Cook of Vermilion, principal, and Mrs. D. Hughes of Basswood in the junior room.

We would like to make a correction in our notes of last week. Arlene Newman is in Grade 10, not grade 9 as stated. Sorry, Arlene.

Laurence Graham phoned from Edmonton to say he was going, via plane, to the N. W. Territories to work for the same company he has been with, northwest of Edmonton.

Peggy Graham, R.N. of Sedgewick, Alta., spent the week end at her home in Wildmere. She also attended the bingo in town Saturday evening. Peggy is in charge of the Health Unit at Sedgewick.

We are sorry we were unable to attend the farewell party for Miss Keith held at the Park on Sunday afternoon. We wish her many more years to enjoy and do all the things she had not time for during her many busy years of hospital work among us.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. King of Thorncliffe on the birth of a son on August 29th.

There are six beginners at Preston Central this term, namely: Wendy Cruthers, Stewart Smith, Brian Veitch, Penny Symes, Ronnie Turner and Linda Coburn, all learning the ABC's for the first time.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hughes purchased a car from Geo. Webb last week which Mrs. Hughes uses to go back and forth to school. Dave has the truck to go to his work at Wainwright.

Mrs. Fred Scott of Borradaile is teaching at Thorncliffe this year.

Tom Best called at the Wallington home on Friday evening on his way home from town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ford of town are spending a week or so with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gibson of Basswood.

Gary Cruthers and Bobby Graham attended the ball game in Vermilion on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hazel Bathe of town, who spent a few days visiting her daughter Mrs. W. Westman and family of Basswood, returned to town on the week end.

CLANDONALD PIONEERS CELEBRATE DIAMOND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Well known pioneers of the Clandonald district, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bull, shown above, received friends on Wednesday evening August 22nd at 642 McDougall Road, Calgary, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary. Married in Rapid City, Man., August 22nd, 1896, they have lived in Alberta for 51 years, the last ten of which have been spent in Calgary.

Mrs. Bull, who is 79, was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and came to Canada 73 years ago. Her husband, 87, born in Coventry, England, crossed the ocean at the same time, but they did not meet until they went to Rapid City. In 1905 Mr. and Mrs. Bull came to Alberta and took up a homestead in what is now the Clandonald district. On retiring ten years ago they moved to Calgary. They have one son John, living at home. The diamond wedding of the couple also marked the ninth wedding anniversary of their great-niece Mrs. Ernest Bernrud and Mr. Bernrud and the 32nd wedding anniversary of their nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bull.

The following is a copy of the letter received from the Hon. J. J. Bowlen, Lieut.-Governor of the Province of Alberta.

"Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bull:

May I express my heartiest congratulations with regard to your sixtieth wedding anniversary which you celebrated Aug., 22nd, 1956. I sincerely hope that the occasion was a very happy one and that you have many more such happy occasions together.

I deeply regret that I knew nothing about the above until reading the article in this morning's Albertan, otherwise I would have made arrangements for greetings to have been sent by Her Majesty the Queen. With kindest regards.

Yours very sincerely,
John J. Bowlen.

Health Unit Notes

THE IMPORTANCE OF SLEEP

The human body is an engine, it generates power using food as a fuel. Like any other engine the body is constantly wearing out, but sleep replaces the worn parts by night. An auto engine if supplied with fuel will run on until it is ruined beyond repair, the human body, however, has a warning device which prevents this tiredness and fatigue. It has been proved that the body can go on longer without food than without sleep.

There are four types of fatigue
1. Physical fatigue
2. Mental fatigue
3. Emotional fatigue
4. Fatigue due to disease

Growing children need ten hours sleep and teenagers eight hours. During sleep all conscious activity ceases, subconscious functions slow down, the mind relaxes, muscles relax, the heart beats slower and breathing becomes slower. Insomnia is caused by overtiredness and emotional or mental disturbances late at night. For this reason children should relax and should have no food for at least one hour before going to bed. Drinking stimulants such as tea or coffee late at night may cause insomnia. Drugs to induce sleep should never be needed when in good health and should only be taken on the advice of a doctor. The bed should be at least 39 inches wide and the mattress not too hard or too soft. The sheets and blankets should be wide enough to hang over the bed and should not be tucked in too tightly. Always have the bedroom as well ventilated as possible. The position in which a person sleeps is unimportant — they should just be comfortable. Also people in the house should remember that a noise which may not be loud enough to waken a sleeper may make the sleep less restful.

Lack of sleep reduces speed, accuracy, alertness and hearing capacity and also increases the amount of energy used in performing any simple act. If the lack of sleep goes on for a long time these changes may be permanent. It is quite wrong to think that anyone gets used to having a small amount of sleep though some people do need more than others. Lack of sleep also impairs growth and reduces resistance to infections. This means that children suffering from lack of sleep are more likely to contract tuberculosis or poliomyelitis.

GRAIN CLUB PLOTS

Assistant D.A. Alex Letts has just finished judging 171 grain club plots. This means that 171 boys and girls in this district belong to 4-H grain clubs and each one of them is growing a three-acre plot of registered seed. Over 6800 bushels of pure seed will be saved from these plots for seeding in 1957. If you use your pencil you can figure out that around a million bushels of this seed will be available for seeding in 1958. Congratulations boys and girls — you are doing a good job.

Florence Schenck and Glen Pyle Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

MANNVILLE. — McQueen's United church, Mannville was the setting for a beautiful wedding on August 17th at 3:00 p.m. when Florence Schenck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Schenck of Mannville became the bride of Mr. R. Glen Pyle, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pyle of Irma.

The church altar was banked with large bouquets of freshly picked gladioli. Miss Betty Proudfoot played the wedding music as the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father.

The bride chose a cocktail length gown of layer upon layer of lace and net over taffeta. The matching lace bolero had lily point sleeves. Her finger-tip illusion veil was held in place by a pearl studded bridal crown hat. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and lily of the valley. Her only jewellery was a ridiculous necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom.

Bridesmaids were Eunice Bury of Mannville and Frances Gerber of St. Walburg, Sask., who chose light blue cocktail dress with a matching pearl scattered bloe crown, and pale yellow cocktail length gown with matching daisy and net crown, respectively. Their bouquets were of pink and white lenbox roses.

The groom's attendants were Melvin and Ronald Lovig of Irma.

For the bride's wedding, the bride's mother donned a dark blue-grey afternoon dress, accented with peanuts accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white full-blown roses.

Mrs. Evaline Pyle, mother of the groom, chose a navy blue afternoon dress with lace bodice, complemented with grey hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of full-blown ice box roses.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. J. C. Lees, sang "Wedding" Miss Betty Proudfoot, sang "O Perfect Love."

The Orange Hall, set with two long tables placed with fresh garden flowers, was the gathering place for a lovely reception for 100 guests, catered to by the W. A.'s of the Anglican church. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, baked and donated by Mrs. Gordon Terry of Vermilion.

The toast was proposed by Rev. I. C. Holder.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schock, Mr. Charles Schock of Leydminster; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schock and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Huber and family of Lashburn, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Schock and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Terry of Vermilion; Art and Nissa Larson, Mrs. Mark Knutson, Mrs. Wm. Platt, President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta is leaving Sunday for Ottawa to appear before the Board of Transport Controllers on behalf of the Interprovincial Farm Union Council. At that time Mr. Platt will present a brief opposing the proposal to levy demurrage charges on carloads of grain before unloaded in public and semi-public terminals.

He said that the Interprovincial Farm Union Council would use three main arguments in opposing this proposal. These were:

1. Farmers are vitally interested in this problem because any increase in cost in unloading will be passed on to them through increased hauling charges.

2. If the railroads are requesting demurrage charges in order to increase their revenue, would use first prove need and secondly they should consider whether or not agriculture is in a position to pay Mr. Platt said, "We can show conclusively that the present returns to the railroads are much higher than present returns to farming and I hope to emphasize the very difficult position that farmers find themselves in today."

3. If the railways are asking for the charges in order to increase efficiency in unloading we will argue that there are other means of accomplishing this without the farmers paying the bill.

Mr. Platt is second vice-president of the Interprovincial Farm Union Council

W. I. Constituency Convenor's Letter

Dear Members

July and August were busy months for me and I'm afraid I'm further neglected some of the branches.

Not that I did not think I was of individual but I had promised to write and ask each branch if you would talk over your Handicraft problems, discuss any changes or new ideas you might have as I intend to have a meeting with Mrs. Wagner and all Handicraft conveners and the president of each branch sometime in November to let you know the exact date and place of the meeting later. Mrs. Wagner will send you a report about the tentative list.

During July I visited the Five Point Branch and spent a bunch of afternoon there. This is a picnic of the Talon and Creamer Hill club. This club does excellent work and demonstration in sewing.

I visited the Wildwood branch, Sept. 5th and again was given a warm welcome. This is a very live experience. I'm sure some good conferences were held and I enjoyed pleasure.

How many branches received the letter from Mrs. Hogue asking if I'd take hold of the work? If the W. I. on earnest and I see no reason for any action being taken "Home and Country." What's In That Lunch Box, Mother?

September days provide little time for extras in mother's routine, but that school lunch box is one of the most important tasks. A good breakfast and a hot dinner at night help to keep the school child healthy but a good third meal is essential if no important food for growth or activity is to be in short supply.

Miss Joyce Lewis, Alberta's Extension Nutritionist says the lunch box must be kept interesting too-packed with tasty and attractive food. The child should look forward to lunch time as a time to eat; not just a time to gobble a sandwich and then run out to play.

Plan to provide something different every day: different fillings in the sandwiches-different kinds of bread-a meat pie or a salad with muffins or buns as a change from sandwiches-raw vegetables in little covered jars or plastic containers-a variety of milk drinks. A little bit of left over gravy or creamed vegetable may often be added to meat fillings making them different and good.

If planning the school lunch is a problem for you, ask your District Home Economist for help. She will always be willing and ready with suggestions. She also can provide you with the bulletin "Lunch Boxes and Hot School Lunches" in which you will find many helpful hints.

Attend First and 50th Anniversary Services At Islay Church

Shown above are five members of the Knox United Church at Islay, who were present at the first service ever held in the church in the fall of 1906 and were again in attendance at the anniversary services held on Sunday, Sept. 16th, 1956, fifty years later.

Commemoration Services Held Sunday, Sept. 16

Islay Church Observes Fiftieth Anniversary

"Ye are the salt of the earth". It was around this text, taken from the sermon on the mount, that Mr. N. F Bell of Calgary built up a memorable address in the Knox United church at Islay on Sunday Sept 16th. The special session was the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the opening of this church. The guest speaker is the son of the late Mr. J. J. Bell, a pioneer of the Islay district who helped build the church back in 1906 and who was present at the first service fifty years ago. The speaker, although just a boy at the time, well remembered the occasion. The pioneers of that era, the men and women who came into the new country and founded and built our churches and schools were the salt of the earth. They had brought their faith from comfortable eastern or overseas homes, to build a new part of Canada.

The choice of Mr. Bell as speaker was a happy one. Not only could he be regarded as a native son of Islay, but his record in the work of the church is both outstanding and unique. He is the only layman ever to act as chairman at United Church provincial conferences, and this honor has befallen him on several occasions. In his address, raptly listened to by a congregation which completely filled the church, Mr Bell recalled many interesting incidents of the early days, some at the time the church was being built, others of odd happenings at services in the church, and the names of many revered old timers, some of them in attendance on this occasion, were included in the absorbing stories.

Mr Bell was introduced to the congregation by W. L. Roebuck, whose father and mother were very active in the church from its very beginning. Mr. Martin, an elder of the Islay church, aided in conducting the service.

Mr. Thomas Watts of Vermilion was the guest soloist singing beautifully the particularly appropriate "Bless this House" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Wm. Roebuck was the accompanist.

The girls' choir led the singing also rendering the hymn "I Would be True", accompanied by Mrs. C. Robertson.

Unique and worthy of special mention was the fact that Mrs. Thomas Bothwell, organist at the first service held in the church fifty years ago and for forty continuous years thereafter, was present and again played for one of the hymns for this 50th anniversary, "Faith of Our Fathers".

In attendance were five people who were present at the opening service. They were Mrs John T Fyfe Mr and Mrs. Thos. Bothwell, Mr Albert Bock and Mr. William Roebuck.

Mrs Fyfe gave a complete history of the founding and early days of the church, compiled by herself and Miss Muriel Stone. This proved quite fascinating to the attentive listeners.

The opening service in 1906 was conducted by the Rev. MacMillan who assisted in building the church. On the Monday evening following the official opening a concert was held with Vermilion people assisting in the program.

The well planned and commemorative service of the fiftieth anniversary was closed with the singing of the Mizpah.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER

Following the anniversary service in the church a dinner to which all were invited was served in the community hall. After the bountiful and tasty meal had been enjoyed, the five who had attended the opening service a half century ago, were called to the stage by Mr. Charles Robertson, secretary of the church board of management, and Mr. David Martin presented each with biblical plaques as gifts from the church on this memorable occasion.

Bringing to mind the many ministers who had carried on the work of the church during its fifty years in Islay were Mrs. James A. Smith (nee Margaret Bowen) now resident in Vermilion, and Mr George Bowen of Edmonton, daughter and son of the Rev. T Bowen, minister for the years 1927 to 1929.

Mrs. Catherine Fyfe was presented with a beautiful bouquet in recognition of her long and continuous record in the church. The presentation was made by her granddaughters Cathie and Mima Robertson.

Coming from Edmonton for the very special anniversary was Mrs. Rhena Houston (nee Mooney), the daughter of Mr and Mrs James C Mooney, Islay district pioneers and church workers.

It is worthy of note that despite the fact that Islay United Church has been without a resident minister for a number of years, the work of the church continues to be carried on by a band of devout men and women. Sunday services, Sunday school, are held weekly, with an active board of management and an energetic W.A. It was these conscientious men and women who arranged and carried out the service and community dinner so eminently suitable to that most important of all events, the "Church Anniversary". These men and women at Islay can well be included with the pioneers to whom Mr Bell alluded in his text, "Ye are the salt of the earth".

An article dealing with the early history of the church in the Islay district will appear in next week's Standard.

On Saturday evening at 8 p.m. Major Ross will preside at a variety evening in which the various departments of the local Corps will take part. He will also lead the services on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Student Indians In Evidence At Mannville Initiation

MANNVILLE. — Initiation for the new students and teachers of Mannville High school was held on Sept 14th. On that day they had to dress as Indians.

Each of the Indians wore two gunny sacks and a feather headdress with braids. One half the face, one arm and one leg of each person was painted brown. Each boy carried a papoose in a sack on his back while each girl had a cardboard tomahawk. Indian blankets were worn by everyone.

Just before noon, the initiates and High school students were taken through the snake dance. After going through all the classrooms they proceeded down town. Because of inclement weather they went only up and down Main street holding up a few cars and trucks.

In the evening Brian Kufeldt, as Master of Ceremonies opened the program with consequences. They varied from shining shoes to eating tomatoes and vinegar. A dance followed with music supplied by Williams' orchestra. Doughnuts and coffee were served at midnight.

Because of inflation, in terms of its purchasing power in 1900 the Canadian dollar was worth 48 cents in 1945, is worth 30½ cents in 1956.

ROTARIANS SEE WILD LIFE FILM

From all reports the Rotary birthday calendar is going over bigger and better than last year. If for any reason anyone in Vermilion and district is missed, a phone call to a Rotarian will bring a prompt response and be appreciated.

$250 DONATION TO PARK

A letter of thanks was received from Mayor Hill on behalf of the Parks committee for the donation of $250.00, and was read by Secretary Tom McPherson. The donation made possible the public address system at the band shell in the park.

BOB HARRIS GUEST SPEAKER

Guest speaker for the meeting was Bob Harris of the Canadian Wildlife Service. Bob brought along a film showing wildlife in the far north country. This was a revelation to the gathering and was accompanied by a commentary by Bob.

George Senz arranged the program and was chairman of the meeting, while Cliff McCormick introduced the speaker. Thanks of the club were afterward expressed by Ashley Cooper.

Guests present were Jim Crowe of San Francisco, Calif., and Mac Urquhart, professor at Queen's University. Visiting Rotarians included Rennie Hayward of Kamloops, B.C., Fred Sheppard, Archie Miller and Chris Armstrong of the Lloydminster club.

SOCIAL CREDIT SWEEPS B. C.

An avalanche of Social Credit votes swept Premier Bennett and his Social Credit government back into power in B. C. with a greatly increased majority and all but eliminated both old line parties.

Incomplete returns show 39 Social Credit members elected and leading in 1, C.C.F. 9 elected, leading in 1; Liberal elected 1, Labor elected 1.

Conservatives did not elect any member and the B.C. Liberal leader was defeated, the party electing one member only.

Grand Mistress Of L.O.B.A. At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — The afternoon of Sept 17th Mrs. Lily Gilhome entertained at her home with a tea in honor of the L.O.B.A. Grand Mistress Mrs. Peggy Horton from Calgary.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess to several of the local L.O.B.A. ladies.

The same evening a special meeting was held in the Orange hall with an attendance of about 30 members.

The Grand Mistress Mrs. Horton gave a very entertaining and enlightening talk on her trip to Grand Lodge which was held in Winnipeg in 1956.

Lunch was served and the L.O.B.A. was honored by a delegation of three of the local L.O.L. members. This brought a very enjoyable day to a close.

Vermilion Rotary Club Preparing Birthday Calendar For 1957

The community Birthday Calendar which has proven so popular during the current year is being prepared again for 1957. Members of the Rotary Club who sponsor this project were very pleased with the support given to it last year and are finding popular response to the invitation for listings in the new calendar. They believe that this project does encourage and make a real contribution towards "good fellowship" in the community and to this end they expect to have a complete listing of birthdays and wedding anniversaries for every person in the town and district.

Funds raised by the calendar project are devoted entirely to the sponsorship of worthwhile activities in the community. The Vermilion hospital, the library, young people's work and the Provincial Park all received assistance from the Rotary Club last year and the Birthday Calendar is their only fund-raising appeal to the public.

A thorough canvass is being conducted of all families in town and the Rotarians are anxious that no one will be missed who wishes to be listed in the calendar. It is not possible, however, to canvass all rural citizens so the Rotarians who are particularly anxious to have the country people included in their calendar, invite one and all who have not already been listed to contact a member of the Club and get their names on the calendar.

Members of the Club, any one of whom may be contacted for listings in the Birthday Calendar are: F. H. Buckingham, N. N. Bentley, J. Rose, Bill Cross, Ed Corley, Ashley Cooper, Ed Hering, Aldous Kent, Nick Kowalchuk, Dr. A. Ben King, Jack Kneale, Cliff McCormick, Reg Michell, Israel Miller, Rev. C. W. MacKay, J. W. G. Morrison, Gordon Park, Bill Pettigrew, Gil Rampling, S. D. Simonson, George Senz, Ken Rowe, Jim Smith, Mitchell Taylor, Bill Sutherland, E. M. Stewart, G. F. Stephens, Martin Shalka, Jim Robson, Chas. Waldenberger and George Webb.

Fred Weeks of Paradise Valley Wins 4-H Plot Award

Fred Weeks, veteran 4-H Club member of the Paradise Valley Grain Club, received top score for his wheat plot over seven other wheat clubs in the Vermilion district. He also placed 8th in the Provincial Plot competition competing against all wheat plots in Alberta.

Josie McDonald of the Mannville Club was second highest for the wheat club plots in this area.

George Manley, Lloydminster, placed first in the Barley Plot competition over four other barley clubs.

In the Oats Club, Walter Ulan of Blackfoot obtained the highest score.

A total of 171 grain plots were inspected throughout the district with many being of high calibre showing the results of interest and enthusiasm in the production of good seed.

Winners in the various clubs were as follows:

Blackfoot Oat Club — Walter Ulan.
Paradise Valley Wheat Club — Fred Weeks.
Mannville Wheat Club — Josie McDonald.
Marwayne Wheat Club — Grant Crichton.
Vermilion Wheat Club — Bernard Eyben.
Durness Wheat Club — George Manley.
Greenlawn Wheat Club — Les Anderson.
Kitscoty Wheat Club — Earl Evans.
Marwayne Barley Club — Harvey Graham.
Islay Barley Club — Frances Kowalski.
Vermilion Barley Club — Fred Brook.
Greenlawn Barley Club — Dean McMullen.

Rodney oats were used by oat club members and Thatcher wheat by the wheat clubs while barley club members used Wolfe Gateway Olli and Vantage.

There is no doubt that it was a bad year for good plots because of the dry spring and the excessive moisture later in the season. Wild oats were one of the worst weeds in the plots followed by Sow Thistle, Canada thistle and Lady's Thumb. Also, germination was very uneven in some places resulting in poor plot appearance.

In judging the plots, the following points were considered: general appearance (margins, signs, etc.); freedom from weeds; freedom from other kinds of cultivated plants, freedom from other species and varieties, freedom from disease and insect injury; apparent yield, vigor and uniformity; earliness.

The grain clubs fill a very important place in the lives of rural young people because they help to increase the supply of good clean seed in the district as well as giving them the opportunity to learn good field husbandry practices. Also, they learn to express themselves in public by means of meetings, demonstrations, etc. There is no doubt that the 4-H Club motto — "Learn To Do By Doing" can help everyone to do his job better and easier.

Four Football Teams Have Been Formed

Miniature "Western Conference" Soon To Open In Vermilion

The opening games of the 1956 Little League Football are just around the corner. Practises have hit an all time high, as four groups go through the essentials of forming clubs. From observations the results are unbelievable in the progress that these boys have made.

For football fans the league organizers and coaches have arranged three offensive formations, which are

"TIGHT T" — used here by the Roughriders and the Eskimos;

"SINGLE WING"—used here by our Lions

"SPLIT T" — used here by our Stampeders.

This will give the boys who play and the fans who watch an opportunity to see and understand the different methods of gaining yards and a better understanding of what they read on the sports pages.

GAMES MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS, SUNDAYS

Games will be played on Monday, Wednesday and Sunday. Watch for the weekly schedules in the Standard and make a point of supporting and watching these boys.

"More than your change they need your cheers."

Meteor (?) Seen Here Sunday 5:45 p.m.

The meteor which appeared in the eastern sky over Saskatchewan last Sunday at around 5:45 p.m. was clearly visible in Vermilion and was quite a sight, especially when it seemed to explode in mid-air leaving nothing but a cloud of smoke hanging in the otherwise cloudless sky, high above the earth.

Mrs. James Smith Draws Own Ticket

New Hall Opened at Paradise Valley

PARADISE VALLEY. — On Friday evening Sept. 7th the Paradise Valley Memorial hall was officially opened when Jas. A. Smith, M.P. cut the proverbial ribbon to declare the hall open. A free dance was held by the hall committee and a great number were present. Free music was also given to herald the opening of the new community centre which replaces the one recently destroyed by fire. Mr Joe Aberham and his boys provided the music until lunch time when the local noise makers took over.

1 CHANCE IN 800

The calf donated by Mr James Gordon as a means of raising funds was drawn for. Mrs. James A. Smith of Vermilion was asked to kindly draw the lucky number — this she did and nearly fainted away when she took a look at it. Yes, you guessed it, she had drawn her own ticket from among the 800 in the basket, and which she purchased away last July from Mrs. P. Dobson. Mrs. Smith promptly turned the calf over to the hall committee and it was auctioned off, bringing in the nice sum of $140.

Mr Parke Dobson was M.C. for the evening and on the platform were Jas. A. Smith, M.P., and Mrs. Smith, former Valleyites, R. D. Heath, local councillor, Mrs. D. B. Baxter, president of the ladies' club. Everyone is proud of the new hall and the help provided by the people outside the district is deeply appreciated. All are now looking forward to the first picture show which Jack Hawkes says will not be long.

TWO DIED IN THIS HIGHWAY CRASH

The accident happened on Saturday Sept. 8th about 11:00 o'clock in the morning on a level straight stretch of highway 16 two miles west of Vermilion. Mr and Mrs. Wood had left their Edmonton home that morning in a new car bound for Eastern Canada to visit their son at Peterborough Ont.

WHOA!

Jack McArthur says in The Financial Post — The automobile horsepower race is over. If this statement isn't completely true now of Canada's automaking industry, it probably will be in the autumn of 1957.

Here are two important trends to mark down for further reference: Automakers are going to put more emphasis on economy than they they have during the past few years. With a price increase averaging probably $80 to $150 per car expected this year manufacturers are worried that dollar considerations will cut into volume sales.

Safety features will probably get bigger push.

Reported by a "Budget" reader in Tacoma, Wash., from the conversation of two farmers discussing the agricultural situation: "The experts say we small farmers gotta go. Lots ... say we don't produce surpluses efficiently enough!"

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

St. Paul, Alberta,
Sept. 15, 1956.

Mr. Ashley Cooper
Editor, Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alta.

Dear Sir:

I would like the opportunity and privilege through the columns of your newspaper to take objection to a statement made in your Sept. 13th issue in the report on the St. Paul-Vermilion baseball finals.

We object to the statement which in part says "St. Paul Bears won two titles on Sunday afternoon — champions of the Eastern Alberta Baseball League and for the biggest and best exhibition of beefing ever made in the Vermilion ball park."

The last part of the statement is entirely uncalled for and if it needed to be written should have been qualified with a few more explanations.

Under the circumstances you can hardly blame the St. Paul team for beefing.

Never in our experience of covering sports events have we ever ran into or seen such umpiring as was produced by one of your own local products. As a matter of fact, even the Vermilion players were disgusted and freely admitted shame of having been forced to use him because they couldn't find anybody else. They tried to get a St. Paul umpire but unfortunately he was not available.

Certainly the St. Paul boys beefed and with justification. Had they not been good sports they would have been further justified to walk off but they stuck with it and justice prevailed in the end. However there were no hard feelings against the Vermilion boys.

We clearly recall that only one close decision was made against Vermilion and it was enough to bring the manager, coach and the whole ball club out on the field to delay the game for over ten minutes ... we hate to think of what would have happened if they had been in St. Paul's boots.

Back to the subject of reporting the game we believe that this type of prejudiced reporting is what builds up bad feelings between towns when the basic idea of sports is to create better understanding.

Yours very truly,
L. M. Drouin, Editor,
St. Paul Journal.

Dear Len:

(Apparently the reporting was on the same level as the beefs at the game.)

THE STAGETTES

Hi everybody back to Stagettes once a week for the present and as soon as we get organized we will meet every other week. "To whom it may concern" thanks to Lil Hareuther for letting us come to her house for the Sept. 8th meeting.

Representing the local club at the National Convention Oct. 6 and 7 at the exclusive Eldorado Arms Hotel, Kelowna, will be president Jean Hildreth and Doris Schmidt, secretary. The National Association has lined up a very interesting program, too bad we can't all go. However, who knows, we may have convention here next year.

We hope to pick up a little more power as the weeks go by. "Members" ... Charity begins at home, let's find one".

Beautiful Rose Still Blooming

Although the regular season for roses to bloom has long since past, H. G. Lovell brought in some beautiful roses to the Standard office on Tuesday. The rose had four completely open flowers and seven additional buds, nearly ready to burst forth. It was a lovely deep pink in color. Mr. Lovell's home is north of Clandonald.

By Your District Agriculturist

"GREEN ACRES"

Mr. Arnold, Supervisor of Frozen Food Locker plants has had a long experience in running these plants. Mr Arnold says very definitely that it is safer and cheaper in the end to have the local locker plant do the killing, cutting, packaging and quick freezing of all meat before it is placed in the home freezer. It is better to take the advice of experts than to have spoiled meats to throw out.

FINISHING HOG

The grade of many [illegible] bacon pigs is cut down by [illegible] feeding. It is not the fattest looking pig that makes the most money for the feeder. After pigs get up to 170 pounds more oat chop can be fed. Oats do not make fat as much as barley. If pigs are over fat it is better to market at less than 200 lbs. each. Grade A pigs are the ones that get the premium of $2.00 per pig.

CORRALS AND CHUTES

Plans for making a holding chute for vaccinating or dehorning cattle is available from this office. It saves a lot of arguments with your cattle if you have one of these holding chutes. With the TB testing about to start in Vermilion River M. D. cattle owners in this area should all get ready by building a chute. It can be built of poles with the stanchion of 2x8's.

BUNDLES OF ORNAMENTALS

I am now informed that about 300 bundles of ornamental shrubs will be available to farmers next spring. This is not very many for all Alberta so any one who wishes to get in on this deal should apply right away. There are 30 shrubs of various kinds in each bundle. I have application forms at this office.

HOME STORAGE OF VEGETABLES

So many vegetables go bad in heated basements every fall that it does not seem to be worth the trouble. However, by building a cool room in one corner of the basement vegetables can be kept all winter. Get plans and how to operate a cold storage room from this office.

JUNIOR FUTURITY SHOW

Entries must be made before November 1st for the Junior Futurity show to be held by Edmonton Exhibition Association at the Spring show. The plan is for junior farmers and farm girls between the ages of 15 to 21 to feed heifer calves through the winter and to show them at Edmonton next March. This is a good idea for young feeders. Lots of prizes are offered. Good purebred calves can be obtained at a reasonable price from breeders in this district. See me for particulars.

Health Unit Notes

ARE YOUR CHILDREN PROTECTED?

Diphtheria, Whooping Cough, Tetanus and Smallpox are all preventable diseases. Whooping Cough causes more deaths than any of the other communicable diseases.

DIPHTHERIA

Diphtheria is a killing disease which spreads rapidly through communities which have not been immunized. It attacks all ages but young children are more susceptible and in them it is a more serious illness. Even when apparently mild it may leave serious heart and nerve complications.

WHOOPING COUGH

Of all communicable diseases, this one is most likely to affect the youngest members of the family. Many cases occur in infants of six months of age or less, while the largest proportion occur between the ages of one and 3 years. In older children, while the disease may not be so severe, there is still the long drawn out convalescence, [illegible] its spells of coughing and [illegible] are perhaps harder on the parents than on the child. Permanent damage to the lung sometimes occurs in the spasms of coughing leading to serious illness in later life.

TETANUS

Tetanus or lockjaw is a rather uncommon but serious disease which [illegible] follows puncture wounds or other injuries.

TRIPLE PROTECTION

Complete protection can be given against these three diseases by a course of four injections [illegible] when the child is four [illegible]. To keep immunity at the required level, the child should have a booster in a year's time and then every two years until he or she starts school. Delicate children, with the doctor's permission can be given smaller doses over a longer period to give them the same protection. Reactions to the injections are uncommon and transient. Reinforcing doses are given at intervals until the child is ten years old.

SMALLPOX

Although uncommon in Canada nowadays, smallpox is still prevalent in some parts of the world and outbreaks in this country do still occur. It is a killing disease and at its mildest very disfiguring.

The only protection against Smallpox is vaccination. This can be done when your child is three months old and at that age causes little upset and quite a small scar. People who have to be vaccinated in adult life for the first time if they travel abroad or enter certain professions, often have a very severe reaction to the vaccination.

Revaccination is necessary every seven years to give complete protection against smallpox but a certain degree of protection lasts a life-time from one vaccination.

Don't delay, give your child this protection against communicable diseases as soon as possible.

Double-Ring Ceremony Performed At Vermilion United Church

The First United church, Vermilion, was the scene of a lovely autumn wedding on Saturday, Aug. 18th when Violet Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Granger of Heinsburg and Walter Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glowitski of Clandonald, were united in holy matrimony by Rev. C. W. MacKay.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor-length gown of rayon and nylon lace combined with nylon net decorated with silver sequins over satin. Her fingertip veil of silk and nylon net with wide scalloped lace edge fell from a coronet style bridal tiara and her bouquet was of red roses. A lovely rhinestone necklace and matching earrings, a gift of the groom, completed the ensemble.

Her bridesmaids Miss Betty Krider, cousin of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of mauve with a stole to match, while Miss Arlene Glowitski, sister of the groom, chose a lovely coral net over taffeta cocktail-length dress and her bolero to match. Bridesmaid Miss Marjorie Gregor of Edmonton wore a lovely Nile green net over taffeta floor-length dress and bolero to match. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink roses with lily-of-the valley. Their headdresses were of wreaths matching their dresses.

Three-year-old twin sisters of the bride were flower girls. They wore cocktail-length dresses of blue nylon with wreaths to match and carried bouquets of pink roses.

Attending the groom were Fred Glowitski of Edmonton, brother of the groom, Wm. Osinchuk of Clandonald and Eddie Bouchan of Heinsburg. Master Pat Mulgrew, nephew of the groom and Johnny Heinnieman were ring-bearers.

Walter Sribney and Robert Kornsee, friends of the groom, were ushers.

Mrs. A. M. West presided at the organ.

The bride's mother chose a blue taffeta dress and her corsage was of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a blue lace over taffeta and corsage of pink roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents where two hundred guests attended.

The newlyweds will make their home in the Landonville district.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Granger, Stettler; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Penerowsky, MacLennan; Mr. and Mrs. John Mulgrew, Fabyan; Mr. and Mrs. John Sharek, Lindbergh; Mr. and Mrs. John Bakala, Dewberry; Mr. Wm. Puha, Lindbergh; Misses Florence and Rosemarie Nettleton, Mr. Mike Melynk, all of Landonville; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Krider, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kinch, Mrs. Geo. Dewey, Mr. Wm. Dewey, Mr. Archie Dewey, all of Heinsburg; Mr. and Mrs. George Lumley, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lumley, all of Dewberry; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean of Tolland; Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, Calgary and Mr. Kenneth Oldham of Wainwright.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

So far we've had five degrees of frost on Sept. 6th, some very warm days and some cool, damp disagreeable weather for harvest. Autumn leaves are appearing in all their beautiful shades and the country is lovely in all its color.

For those wanting Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Butz's address: B-D, Midnapore, Alta., it's four miles south of Calgary.

Mrs. Norma Laird from Clandonald and Ellen Omness from Allandale attended the W.M.S. rally in Islay on the afternoon of Sept. 6. Mrs. Sweet gave a very interesting address on the three-day session at the Leadership Training school held at the Alberta college recently. Mrs. Robinson spoke briefly on the Missionary Monthly, a magazine all members should be interested in. Mrs. Filgate passed on the request that was made at the college to all church organizations of the funds needed for the college.

We are truly grateful to the Islay ladies for their hospitality and a most delicious lunch. It was grand seeing old friends and meeting new.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Milo Fleming on the birth of a son, Darryl Glen, on Sept. 6th in the Vermilion hospital, a brother for Myrna, Jackie and Carla. Milo's mother, Mrs. Robinson from the coast, has been with the family and we can bet Granny's help is surely appreciated.

A note from Mrs. Earl Nelson tells us that Earl had an operation on Aug. 30th in the St. Paul's hospital on Sept. 5th. He was getting on very well. A speedy recovery to you Earl. Their address is 733 W. 7th, Vancouver, B.C.

The Pansy Home in Vermilion as we call it, is a grand sight. It is wonderful to see all those pansies so perky when frost has blackened so many other flowers. This home is in the east end. I believe the Herb Johnson's. Congratulations folks for a grand sight and such a lovely yard!

A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed at the Baldock home when the Allandale W.A. met on Sept. 6th. Mr. Welsh took the devotional text Luke 15 "The Prodigal Son" exemplifying no matter what the consequences we should 'love one another'. We enjoyed very much the company of our visitors who are always welcome.

On behalf of the Allandale W.A. the president presented Mr. Welsh with a small gift in remembrance of Allandale. Mr. Welsh was very appreciative and thanked the ladies for all their kindness shown him during the summer. Mrs. Laird very kindly gave a brief outline of the W.M.S. rally in Islay. Seven ladies subscribed for the Missionary Monthly. [illegible] meeting is to be at the Omness home on the second Thursday, the 11th. Lunch: Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. I. Nelson.

Our last church service by our student Mr. Welsh was on Sept. 9 with a grand attendance around 50. Text was taken from Tim. 2, 1:12 "I know whom I have believed". During the service Mrs. Laird sang very sweetly, "The Stranger of Galilee", accompanied by Mrs. McPhee. We are grateful for Mrs. McPhee's services at the organ during the summer and at other services.

Miss Phyllis Ostry completed her duties in the city on Sept. 7th and was a guest at the Laird home in Clandonald until she and Mr. Welsh left for the east around the middle of the following week.

A speedy recovery is wished Mrs. [illegible] of Edmonton. On Sept. 7th she fell and broke her hip. The X-rays show, fortunately, that it [illegible]. She will be in the Royal Alex hospital room 381, for a few weeks.

Our deepest sympathy to the Curtis families on the loss of their mother recently.

Mrs. Laird and Kathryn of Clandonald and Mrs. Omness visited at the Harold Cooper home on the afternoon of Sept. 11th and to wish Dad McBride a happy day on his 85th birthday. A lovely lunch including a generous piece of the large nicely decorated birthday cake was enjoyed. Daughter Joyce Evelyn, Don and family from the city had been home a few weeks before for a visit.

A long letter recently from Howard Pratt informs us that he is improving in health but must take things easy for some time. He has resigned as coal mine manager at Dodds and has bought the White Rose service station at Ryley. He extends a welcome to any Allandale folks who may be around Ryley way to call on him, phone 22. The four oldest children are with their Chappelle grandparents, the baby is with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Chappelle. He has been ill and in the University hospital. After a time Howard plans on buying a home in Ryley and having his family with him.

Fine summery weather has prevailed all week, broken unfortunately by traces of rain, and on Saturday last by a high wind, rain, hail, thunder and lightning. Despite the setbacks combining is getting under way and given a continuance of warm sunny weather will be general by this week end. .09 inches of rain was the total recorded in Saturday's blow with Vermilion being on the southern fringe of the disturbance. The rain was heavier and the storm much more violent from town north.

Islay 4-H Club Girls Enjoy Garden Tour

The girls of the Islay 4-H Garden Club accompanied by Mrs. Moncreiff, Miss Scherban and Mr. Fleming met at the school to leave at 10 a.m. on a tour of gardens in the district. The chauffeuring was done by Mr. Fleming and Jim McGuigan. Miss Scherban and Mr. Fleming were the judges of the gardens.

Frances Kowalski's garden was first visited, then on to Shirley, Yvonne, Patsy and the Redmond girls. Mrs. Redmond had the table set and the coffee on. Due to the weather it was an indoor picnic and much enjoyed.

The tour continued on to other members, Lillian, Frances and Barbara. At Frances' Miss Scherban and Mr. Fleming told the girls how to prepare for Achievement Day. The group then went on to Barbara Golby's and after her garden was judged, Mrs. Golby and Barbara served a most tasty afternoon lunch bringing to a close a most enjoyable day.

WILDMERE WINKS

Mrs. R. Gilholme now living in Edmonton but formerly of the Basswood district, visited last week with Mrs. G. Dibben near Vermilion — sorry we did not see you Mrs. Gilholme.

Gary Crothers has gone to work at Wainwright. He left for his new job on Sunday morning. Good luck Gary.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crothers and baby son Murray visited Sunday at George's home in Wildmere. He tried his hand at a bit of stooking while here, giving his dad some help as he is alone now since Gary has gone to Wainwright.

A recent letter from L. E. Graham says that he is working at Eldorado, Sask., a country of lakes, trees and mining. They are only seven miles from Uranium City but at time of writing had not been to see it.

On Sept. 17 the writer and hubby observed their 43rd wedding anniversary. It was a day just like this year, and harvesting was late that year too. We drove to Vermilion with a team and buggy (no cars in those days) and were married in the house right west of the United church. It was then the parsonage. Rev. W. F. Allan was the minister. Outside of three and a half years spent in Ontario the rest of our married life has been in Wildmere. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips now of Worsely, Alta., but formerly of Wildmere, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bathe of Lloydminster, formerly of Basswood and Turkey Hill, were married also on the 17th, but many many years after the writer of Winks. May these couples enjoy many more years of happiness together.

In the last Standard we noticed a piece in Mr. Buckingham's column headed "Too Many Binders". It has caused quite a controversy even among the ladies as on Saturday we heard several air their views on this subject. If it had not been for binders cutting the grain and threshing machines threshing the straw into stacks there would have been a heavy loss of stock from starvation last winter. Straw piles, no matter how old, were indeed a salvation. To entirely combine is not advisable in a stock country. Even if you do rake the straw into piles or bale it the best of the feed (the chaff) is lost in the stubble. We say, don't discard the binder. What are others views on this subject?

We are sorry to hear of your illness Edna Moore, and hope when you get your tonsils out it will end a lot of your throat ailments. Too bad to miss your classes, however we know you will make up for lost time.

On Saturday the writer enjoyed talks with Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Bathe, Mrs. A. Morrison, Mrs. F. Eyben, Mrs. W. McGinnis and Mrs. Swan. The afternoon really slips by when you meet all these fine friends.

CLAYSMORE CLIPPINGS

Miss Ruth Beatty of Vermilion visited her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Bob MacMillan at Claysmore Monday evening.

Mr and Mrs. Martin Van Nest and son Keith of Edmonton called at the Van Nest home on Saturday afternoon en route to Lone Rock Sask. At Lone Rock they planned to visit brother Victor Van Nest and family.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Emery of Calgary who have spent a short holiday with the latter's sister, Mrs. K. Creighton and son Charles and family of Kitscoty were Wednesday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCauley and Robert, and Mrs. Peter and Gordon were Sunday evening visitors at Tom McCauley's.

Dinner guests at the Allan Olstad home on Sept. 9th were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Fenton of Streamstown.

Mrs. Peter Thellade and family have been visiting her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCauley and other relatives in the Mannville and Donalda districts prior to leaving for Paris, France, where they will live for two years.

Tom McCauley was a patient in the Vermilion hospital from Friday to Sunday. He has a very sore back and knee as result of a fall Friday night.

A jolly birthday party was held at the home of Jack Willis on Sat. Sept 8 in honor of Linda. 28 children enjoyed games. Then the lunch was served complete with a delicious birthday cake and ice cream. The mothers visited with Mrs. Jack Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Nelson and family of Vermilion were guests at the Jack Willis home.

Frank McCauley, Murray and Lorraine Stewart were guests at Jim Horne's on Wednesday, Sept. 12, the occasion being Paul Horne's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Olstad and family were visitors at the Fred Watling home on Tuesday evening. The occasion was Fred's birthday. He wouldn't say how old he was, though.

Noticed Around—Mrs. MacMillan with a black eye and Tom McCauley with a sore back and knee. Wonder what they've been up to?

We see a strange light delivery truck around Claysmore these days. We wonder who the handsome young man is visiting.

Bob MacMillan was noticed trying to collect some money from two ladies the other morning. Poor crop this year, Bob?

A strange man scaring the daylights out of the elevator wives the other night.

Everyone is busy these days with harvesting and as help is scarce the slogan: "One of the best places to find a helping hand is at the end of your right arm" is true these days.

Claysmore W. I. Notes

The regular meeting of the Claysmore W. I. was held at the school Sept. 13th with nine members and one visitor, Mrs. T. Nelson of Vermilion in attendance.

Mrs. J. Willes, the president, and the members repeated the Creed in unison then followed the Roll Call, a "Study of Ceylon". The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting held at the home of Mrs. G. King on June 13th. No meetings were held in July or August as many were holidaying and others busy [illegible]. 'Twas a happy gathering on Sept. 13th when everyone decided to really settle down and work for our Club.

The treasurer gave her report showing a substantial amount of money on hand and in the bank. It was moved all outstanding bills be paid.

The sick convener reported two fruit baskets sent out to patients in the hospital, also two cups and saucers and toys to smaller patients. Thank you cards were received.

A check was made of our kitchen equipment and it was decided to purchase a new boiler for coffee.

Correspondence included a letter from Mrs. H. R. Jespersen, of the Bethany Home, Wetaskiwin, stating used clothing would be much appreciated for the children ranging in ages from 1 to 16 years. It was decided the yearly bundle usually sent to Korea be sent to the Bethany Home. Mrs. A. Olstad is to take charge of sending the parcel assisted by Mrs. F. Watling.

The secretary was instructed to forward our donation to the Scholarship fund, Mannville. The 1956 Scholarship went to Bucky Schreyer.

Mrs. J. Horne's resignation was read and the President called for nominations for a new secretary. Mrs. O. Willes was duly elected. Some changes were made in the standing committees as follows: conveners — Mrs. G. Watling for U.N. and Mrs. J. Willes for Social Meetings.

Our President, the delegate to July convention, gave her report.

Hints given by Miss Inglis re the Handicraft were received with interest by the members. Congratulations go to Mrs. J. Bauer who received first prize for the hat and bag set, also to Mrs. J. Willes who received first prize for Huckabuck sofa pillow.

Ladies are requested to bring finished articles for the bazaar to the October meeting.

After collection was taken a delicious lunch was enjoyed by all.

Fishermen who begrudge the effort involved in catching live crickets for bait can buy a quart of them, by mail, from a Georgia cricket farm.

We note, too, that the breeders where they [illegible] keeping [illegible] made of aluminum. But we admit we're not surprised. Miller-Pilkie Rites

Vermilion Couple Married In Edmonton

A honeymoon to Coeur D'Alene followed the marriage in St. Peter's Anglican church of Miss Marian Lorraine Pilkie and Mr. James Robert Miller. The double-ring ceremony was performed before the altar banked with mauve and pink gladioli.

Rev. Canon T. W. Teape heard the marriage vows for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pilkie of Edmonton and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Islay.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a slipper-length gown of lace over white bridal satin. Fashioned on princess lines the gown was designed with matching lace jacket and lily point sleeves. Her fingertip veil of soft illusion was clustered to a matching bandeau and she carried a white prayer book centred with an orchid and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants Miss Ardyth Nash and Miss Eleanor Anderson, wore identically styled, ballerina-length frocks in shades of shrimp and azure blue. Their swirl hair bandeaus and bouquets were of carnations, cornflower and white Shasta daisies.

Little Linda Miller, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She was gowned in pale green nylon net over satin, and carried a basket of pink Sweetheart roses and Shasta daisies. In her hair was a matching bandeau of blossoms.

Mr. Russell Miller attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. Allen Pilkie and Mr. Gerald Miller, brothers of the bride and groom. Mrs. George L. Hudson was soloist and organist was Miss Dorothy Teape.

A reception was held in the Glengarry Club. Mr. Thomas Watts of Vermilion proposed the toast to the bride. Mr. Morrison Smeltzer was toastmaster.

B. Neilson of Lashburn. The ceremony was performed by the minister of Grace United Church, Reverend Smith.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was tastefully attired in a two-piece dress of blue lace over blue taffeta with white accessories.

The bridesmaid, Miss Doreen Lamb of Lloydminster, wore a matching two-piece dress of beige lace over pink taffeta with pink accessories.

Mr. Aubrey Hughes of Lloydminster was best man.

After the ceremony a supper was served for ten in a downtown cafe.

Out of town guests were Mr. Earle Hicks and Clarence of Vermilion and Mr. and Mrs. Sigurd Neilson and Celia of Lashburn.

Highway Fatalities Approaching Record High In Alberta

Unless a halt is called to the present rate of highway fatalities in Alberta, this province will have no less than 250 deaths by the end of this year. This would be the blackest year in Alberta's history, warns Paul Lawrence, Safety Director for the Alberta Safety Council.

For the first eight months, there were 141 traffic accident deaths in Alberta, compared with 124 in the similar period of last year. This was an increase of 14 percent in the period (current) according to statistics compiled by the Safety Council from various reporting sources.

The increase has alarmed safety officials, who will discuss an action program at the meeting of provincial directors of the Safety Council in Red Deer, October 10th.

Last year, there were 209 highway deaths in Alberta, while the total year before was 205. The worst year so far was 1953 when the total was 239 lives.

During the early months of this year, the fatalities were considerably below the similar periods of last year. But what has proved alarming is the marked increase in the months of May, June, July and August of this year which showed a total of 97 deaths against 59 a year ago.

In August alone, there were 26 highway deaths, an increase of 10 over a year ago. Of last month's total, 23 highway deaths were reported by the R. C. M. P. at rural points while there were three in Edmonton. Calgary and other cities had none.

In August, 511 persons were injured in motor accidents in the province, compared with 547 in August of last year. In addition to the 351 reported last month by R.C.M.P., a drop from the 378 a year ago, there were 93 in Edmonton, five in Jasper Place and one in other towns reporting.

In the first eight months of this year, a total of 2,763 persons were injured in motor vehicle accidents in Alberta, as against 2,569 in the similar period of last year.
